

THREE "IF'S" AND THE MORAL

IF You are striving to get better goods than your neighbor does for his money—you must look for "QUALITY."

IF You buy goods that juggle with "quality" you take a big risk.

IF You take goods that represent second and third grade, you are buying in the dark and do not know their value.

THE MORAL:

"Biebers" GOOD GOODS have quality as its primary recommendation and "BIEBER'S" trade is building up on "QUALITY." Every article, irrespective of price, passes through severe inspection and careful selection. "BIEBER'S" goods are sold to you with an absolute "GUARANTEE" that the Quality and Price is right.

"SPECIAL" on sale—Apron Check Gingham, per yard, 8c.

Miss Barnes To Wed

Klamath Herald: In honor of Miss Goldie Barnes, whose engagement to Vernie Houston has been announced, a delightful miscellaneous shower was given in her honor at the home of Mrs. Charles Martin, on Walnut street, last night. The Martin residence was most attractively decorated for the occasion, apple blossoms being used with a very pretty effect. Quite a number of the friends of the popular bride to be were in attendance, and she was the recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner, cards and other amusements being featured, and dainty refreshments were served. At a late hour the assemblage dispersed, after wishing the future Mrs. Houston a most happy and prosperous wedded life. Attending were: Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. Zim Baldwin, Mrs. S. E. Valley Falls Items

George Ede, of Wagonite, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter, passed through here recently. Mr. Ede had his well drilling outfit with him and is expecting to drill for a well on his homestead on the desert. During the summer we understand that Mr. Ede expects to bore numerous wells in this and the Summer Lake valleys.

Autos from Silver Lake and the country north are still coming through here regularly. The good roads on the north side of this valley are too much of a temptation for these people, and the way they speed up and make time leaves no other choice for them.

Since spring has opened up there have been 12 new settlers that came into the valley and settled down on their properties.

Stradley Talks

A large delegation of Oregon Short Line officers visited Vale recently for the purpose of meeting the people and getting acquainted. Among those on the special train was Chief Engineer Stradley who is quoted in the Vale Enterprise as saying:

"There are many things that we cannot tell you people today in this matter but will say that the main reason why railroad work has not been carried on is on account of the opposition we have met in securing right of ways. We have wanted to purchase it and have been willing to pay a good price for it. We had authority to start work some time ago but delays in securing right of ways for the Oregon Eastern stopped work. We have had the line under consideration for four years and it is safe to say that had it not been for certain legislation in this state that the line across the state would now be constructed."

Dangerous Pastime

Amos Light last Saturday came near being seriously injured by being run over by a wagon. It has been the custom of a number of youngsters to climb on wagons on the street for a ride. In this instance Ross Paxton and Amos were taking a ride on a wagon from which the bed had been removed. Ross jumped off while the wagon was in motion and ran between the wheels. Amos attempted to follow, but was struck by one of the wheels, knocking him down and the wheel passed over his body near the shoulders. Teamsters should not permit the little fellows to hang on to their wagons, even though they do not want to be unkind to them. It is very dangerous, for the boys do not realize the risk they run.

DATA FOR OREGON OWNERS OF AUTOS

Detailed Legal Regulations Given on Use of Power Vehicles

For the benefit of owners of automobiles and other power vehicles used and operated in Oregon, Secretary of State Ben W. Oleott has compiled information of value, showing briefly the requirements of the State laws regarding the running of such machines as given in the following:

Any one not having a State License and desiring to operate his car before June 1, 1911, must secure a license under the old law, the fee being $5. This certificate holds good until July 31, 1911, when it will be necessary to secure a number under the new law. The fee under this law is based on the horsepower of the vehicle, according to the formula adopted by the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers, which is found by squaring the bore or diameter of the cylinders, times the number of cylinders, and dividing the result by 24.

The registration fees are: Motorcycles and motor bicycles, $3; electric service vehicles, $5; steam, gasoline and other hydrocarbon operated vehicles operated for whatever use up to 25-horsepower, $3; same in excess of 26 and up to 36-horsepower, $5; 36 to 40, $7.50; over 40 horsepower, $10.

The registration fee must accompany application. Under the new law all registrations of motor vehicles expire on December 31 of each year and must be renewed annually. The steam vehicles are based on the horse power according to Haskell's formula. Those applying after June 1, 1911, will be issued new numbers under the new law. This law is effective August 1, 1911, but application can be made 60 days prior to that time. The new number tags are 4 by 13, and two tags are required, one for the front and one for the rear of the vehicle. Owing to the complications it would cause, no numbers will be reserved but same will be filed numerically from No. 1 up, according to the date received.

Chauffeurs or owners operating cars for hire are required to secure a State badge before being allowed to operate. The Secretary of State has on hand about 9,000 pamphlet copies of the motor vehicle law containing the laws of the road and will be pleased to furnish a copy on request. The automobile department of the Secretary of State's office has grown rapidly within the last two years and up to date 6,400 licenses has been issued.

A still life by Jan van Huysen in the museum at The Hague was injured, but it is believed that the perpetrator was neither vandal nor thief. The picture represents a basket of fruit on which a number of insects have gathered. On a pale yellow apple, which is the centerpiece in the cluster of fruit, is a large fly, painted so true to nature, so say the officials of the gallery, that the canvas was injured by some one who endeavored to "shoo" it and brought his cane or hand too close to the canvas. "A tribute to the painter's genius," says the letter recording the fact, "for which the work had to suffer."

Willing to Divide.
Cobble—I should like to lend you that $10, old man, but I know how it would be if I did. It would end our friendship. Stone-Well, old chap, there has been a great deal of friendship between us. I think if you could make it live we might worry along on half as much.—Life.
