

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

GENERAL REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Improved and Unimproved Farms

Homesteads

City Property

We Specialize Fruit Lands

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Ladies' black and tan silk hose, 65c, at the Merc. Co.

Get prices on flour at Bonanza before buying elsewhere.

Banner brand walnuts and skirrh, the best ever, at the Merc. Co.

Charles L. Kent, of Alturas, was one of Saturday's visitors in town.

Good heavy all-silk hose, black and colors, $1.25 pair, at the Merc. Co.

John Ward, of the Point ranch, was in town during the week for supplies.

See Lakeview Abstract & Title Co.'s ad for special price on O. V. L. abstracts.

Eggs wanted at Aug. Doring's city bakery, market price, cash or trade.

Mrs. John McCulley, of the West Side, was in town Monday for supplies.

Mrs. John Fritz has resigned her position with the local telephone company.

Louis Veysade was up Tuesday from the Venator ranch, which he has leased.

Shearing operations are now in full swing at all of the local shearing plants.

E. F. Kalzenbach, of Davis Creek, Monday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur are now occupying their new home on West Street.

Tom Lynch, the sheepman, was in town last week attending to business matters.

Contance Innes and embroideries, imported from Switzerland, at the Merc. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Amick, of Pine Creek, were in town the forepart of the week.

Harvey Northup, of the Abert Lake section, was in town last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox, of the West Side, were among Sunday's visitors here.

Heath Chandler, of the stage company, was a visitor here on Monday of this week.

Mrs. J. A. Jetmore, of the Wagon-tire country, was a visitor here during the week.

Frank Rogge, the Warner Valley stockman, was here Tuesday on a business trip.

Rufus Grisel, of Plush, was in town Friday on business before the local land office.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Marsters, of Paisley, were among Tuesday's visitors in town.

Felix Green was up from Pine Creek Tuesday paying his respects to his old time friends.

Jerry Monihan, a local sheep man, is spending a few days about town, enjoying the sights.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Everett are now occupying the Steele residence on Bullard street.

Ben Daly, one of our prominent sheep men, was a visitor here the forepart of the week.

W. H. Harvey left Tuesday for Prineville where he will remain for the next three months.

Lee Ponon, who has a homestead north of Salt Creek, was in town Saturday for supplies.

Miss Persis Curtis, of Valley Falls, was one of the many visitors here during the past week.

Jim Barry, one of Lakeview's pioneer sheep men, was in town for several days this week.

F. A. Fitzpatrick and family arrived in town Tuesday from the ZX ranch in Chewaucan Valley.

Gill Arthur and B. E. McCrary, residents of the West Side, were among Sunday's arrivals here.

Mrs. McGrath, with daughter Alice, are now occupying the Malloy residence on Bullard Street.

Lonzo Frakes, the well known Warner Valley stockman, was here on business during the week.

Murrie Hurd is now feeling much improved after a several days illness at the Gunther residence.

The writer with several others enjoyed a ride in one of the new E. M. F. autos several evenings ago, and is convinced that they are about the best yet.

W. A. Currier, a stockman from the Summer Lake section, last week spent several days locally.

Tim McCarthy, the indefatigable, acted as bartender at Lane's for several days during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek, were among last week's visitors to Lakeview.

Miss Fern Stevens has accepted a position at the local library, and may be found there any day now.

C. H. McKendree and family left Monday for Klamath Falls where they expect to remain for some time.

George Sweem came in Tuesday from the Bowers Bridges Shearing plant, which he is now operating.

Allen Armstrong and C. B. Olsen, residents of Burns, were among the many arrivals here Saturday last.

D. P. Browne, secretary of the Warner Valley Stock company, Sunday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

C. H. McKendree, who has been in Klamath Falls for the past ten days returned home Saturday evening last.

Dave McAuliffe, the well known sheep man, Sunday came in from Bly where his sheep are now feeding.

Mike O'Sullivan, who is well known locally, Tuesday came in from Deep Creek where his sheep are now grazing.

C. E. McCleary, the well known mining specialist from Pine Creek, this week paid Lakeview a several days visit.

Major N. Fine, the well known Warner Valley stockman and rancher, was over from Plush on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Virgie Harris left Saturday for the Dan Chandler ranch where she expects to enjoy a several weeks vacation.

Fred Longfellow and wife returned last Thursday from Minneapolis, Minn., where they had been spending the winter.

Luther Webster substituted as town guardian for several days last week during the illness of City Marshall Brown.

Dick Sherlock, camp tender for Bill Stephenson, the sheepman, Monday arrived in town after a several months absence.

Miss Amy Heryford is now feeling much improved and able to be up again after a several days illness with la grippe.

Harry Utley, deputy game warden for this section, last week spent several days here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keene are now removing their residence on Main street to the Rile Striplin house on West Street.

The front of the Inn saloon last week received a coating of green paint and now presents a much improved appearance.

A very nice crowd turned out Saturday night for the dance at the Opera House, and all present report an excellent time.

C. W. Withers, the well known Paisley stockman and rancher, this week appeared in Lakeview on business matters.

W. R. Bernard has just completed the construction of a fine large carriage shed at the rear of his residence on West Street.

George Fitzgerald was up from his ranch on Monday of this week and he states that everything down his way is just lovely.

Ray Scott, the well known Warner Valley stockman, this week spent several days here combining business with pleasure.

Miss Docia Wilts has accepted a position as operator at the local telephone office, and at present is working on the day shift.

Father O'Malley, of the Catholic Church, Sunday paid a visit to Drew's Gap in order to see his parishioners of that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heryford and John Lewis, now residents of Pine Creek, were in town Sunday renewing old acquaintances.

Dan Malloy left Tuesday morning for Plush to take part in the annual roundup of cattle and horses in the Warner section.

Sunday last was an ideal day for travel and many of our local townspeople took advantage of the fact and made the trip to Wilcox's shearing plant, at Warner Canyon to see the men at work.

J. Frankl, an old time resident of this place, but now of San Francisco, arrived here Saturday and will remain during the summer.

Among the sheep men in town during the week were Michael Barry, Dan Sullivan, William Keppel Barry and Manuel Swartz.

Tom Murphy came in last week from Blue Creek and returned Monday with a large load of supplies for Mike Barry's sheep camp.

Charles F. Powne, one of Bly's enterprising storekeepers, appeared here during the week in connection with business matters.

Wanted—Middle aged woman, or man and wife, to look after a very old lady. Full particulars will be given by applying at this office.

Ian Jones, who is well known among local sheepmen, was in town for several days during the week attending to necessary business matters.

The stone work on the new Odd Fellow's building is progressing in fine shape, and will soon be high enough to commence brick work.

Earl Austin, who recently accepted a position with the Forest Service, left last week for Silver Lake where he is to be stationed during the summer.

Walt, the colored bootblack at Whorton's, is now sporting a very nice shoe-shining stand, which he recently had repaired and nicely fitted up.

Miss Helen Aviregnete is now acting as substitute clerk at the local Government land office, pending the arrival of a permanent appointee.

The Linville residence on north Main street received a coating of fresh paint several days ago, and now presents a much improved appearance.

Several new families of Indians from the Klamath Reservation arrived in town during the past week, and may now be seen about our main streets.

Lost, pair nickel-plated equisers, between Lakeview and Jim Dukes, refer to F. M. Green, New Pine Creek, or Hotel Lakeview. $2.50 reward.

The enclosure about the Methodist Church has been plowed and will be planted in several days to clover, as well as some fine flower beds laid out.

The dance given by the Civic Improvement Society on Saturday night last was well attended, and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present.

Saturday afternoon the ladies of the Methodist Church held a very successful sale of home made pies, cakes and salads at the Bailey & Massingill store.

Hayes & Grob, of the Lakeview Meat Market bought several head of hogs from Chas. Nelson, one of which a Jersey Rock Red weighed 500 pounds.

Bill Nixon, who recently acquired the Mud Creek stage station property, was in town Saturday for supplies, etc. The quiet life seems to agree with Bill.

City Marshall Ernest Brown was ill for several days during the week and was unable to attend to his duties. He is now up and around again as usual.

The filing of desert claims on lands in the vicinity of Summer Lake still continues, several more being registered at the local office during the past week.

Supervisor Brown, of the Forest Service, Friday morning left for Silver Lake on a business trip. He was accompanied by Assistant Ranger Looney.

Mrs. James McShane, with daughters Lena and Ester, last week left for the Ambrose shearing corrals where they are to be employed during the busy season.

A large cloth sign tacked up outside of the Lakeview garages warns all autoists not to exceed the speed limit of eight miles per hour within the city limits.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Venator, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. Vandepool made an auto trip to Thomas Creek on Sunday last and enjoyed some excellent fishing.

Con Taylor, Bill Denahy and P. J. Barry, all well known local sheep men arrived in town Tuesday evening and are now spending a few days here enjoying the sights.

Mrs. Gussie Heryford, who for several months has been visiting in Portland and vicinity, last week returned here and is now spending a few days with Mrs. Young.

Elder Riley, of the West Side was in our midst during the week. Mr. Riley has a homestead in the vicinity of the lake and is making many improvements to it.

Mrs. Samuel Stone, who has been employed at the Hotel Lakeview for sometime past, last week resigned her position and left for the Stone ranch on the West Side.

Irv Garrett recently came into possession of a very rare English coin, which he takes great pride in showing. The coin is a valuable one and Irv intends to hold on to it.

C. T. Amacker and wife, who have been living in Lakeview the past year sold their holdings last week and left Sunday for Chicago in which city they will make their home.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arzner, Frank Parker and Will and Charles Arzner spent Sunday on a fishing trip to Camp Creek. They report excellent luck.

Manuel Sanders, the well known sheep man, spent several days here during the week. Manuel finds camp-life monotonous at times and likes to visit with us occasionally.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shirk returned to Cedarville Friday after spending several days here on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shirk, who accompanied them on the return trip.

William LaSater has accepted a position with the Forest Department, and last week left for Thomas Creek where he will assist Forest Ranger Bradley during the summer season.

During the last few days this section has enjoyed some very refreshing showers, which no doubt helped out wonderfully in the growth of grass and other vegetable matter.

Dave Jones, who is in charge of shearing operations at Cottonwood, was in town during the week and reports that all hands are now busy and a big season's work is anticipated.

The new bakery of August Doring opened for business in the Watson building Saturday last, and Mr. Doring states that the results so far have been much greater than he anticipated.

Cobb Henkle has had the interior of his saloon painted and papered in fine shape, and it now presents a much cityfied appearance. When Cobb gets started he sure does things up in style.

C. O. Metzker, who last week spent several days here on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Si Henderson, Friday left for Klamath Falls. Mr. Metzker is a salesman for the Unitype Company, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Francis Dorcey, of the Crooked Creek section, was one of Monday's visitors. Mrs. Dorcey is making many improvements on her homestead, and will have some fine buildings erected in a short time.

Guy Ingram, late of the Forest Service at this place, but now a resident of Roseburg, arrived in the city Saturday for a short visit and also to look up insurance as he is agent for the Mutual Life.

Many electric light fuses were blown out last week, during the thunder storm and Manager Jensen has been here from New Pine Creek during the past few days over hauling the lines throughout the city.

A meeting of the Catholic Ladies Altar Society was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Hutchins. Necessary business matters were attended to after which a pleasant time was enjoyed by the ladies.

A. P. Koozer, the West Side rancher, Saturday paid Lakeview a visit. Mr. Koozer states that everything in his locality is coming along in fine shape, and he believes that 1911 will be a banner year for crops of all kinds.

Friday evening quite a large crowd gathered in front of Lane's saloon to witness a fistic encounter which lasted for several minutes, and which wound up by one of the parties being obliged to pay a fine before the city court.

Bill Moss, with his large Pope Hartford roadster, arrived in town Monday evening. The car is certainly a dandy, and will no doubt be used to much advantage by Mr. Moss in his trips between Lakeview and outside points.

James H. Colan, of Warner Lake, Saturday appeared before the local Government land office officials and submitted final proof on his homestead in the Warner section. His witnesses were A. D. Frakes and David Young.

Ned O'Connor, who is well known among the local sheep men, Friday came over from Plush for a few days visit. Ned states that the town has improved so in the way of buildings erected, etc. that he hardly recognized it.

TO O. V. L. CONTRACT HOLDERS

We are now ready to furnish Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts and Town Lots $2.50 at the low figure of each

LAKE COUNTY LAND & TITLE CO.
LAKEVIEW : : : : OREGON

Mills College
Near Oakland, California

The only Woman's College on the Pacific Coast. Chartered 1885. Near two great Universities. Ideal climate throughout the year. Entrance and graduation requirements equivalent to those of Stanford and University of California. Laboratories for science with modern equipment. Excellent opportunities for home economics, library study, music and art. Modern gymnasium. Special care for health of students, out-door life. President, Luella Clay Carson, A. M., Litt. D., LL. D. For catalogue address Secretary, Mills College P. O., California.

Houses For Rent
Timber Lands For Sale
Homesteads in Catlow Valley
O. V. L. Tracts and Lakeview Development Tracts For Sale
Stock Ranches
Acreeage in Lakeview at a Bargain

H. B. ALGER
REMOVED TO
COLORADO HOTEL BLOCK
Lakeview :: Oregon

AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS

When you purchase a corset you want one that has STYLE

It is equally important that the same corset be COMFORTABLE and if you can also have one that WEARS WELL and that corset can be bought at a REASONABLE PRICE ONE DOLLAR UP you have all the requisites of a splendid corset.

AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS have every one of these excellent features and many more. Every improvement as exacted by fashion is combined in these dainty garments.

AGENTS:
THE PARISIAN MILLINERY
MAIN STREET, West of Court House

SPRING IS HERE

We are prepared to furnish your needs in all lines of Spring Goods. Every department is full to overflowing with new and up-to-date merchandise. In our Dry Goods department you will find a very large line of Wool Dress Goods, all styles, colors and widths.

Danish Cloth, in six colors, half-wool, 36 in. wide, at 40c per yard.

An exceptional large line of Lawns, Batistes and Weite Goods.

Silk Novelties, Foulards and Fancy Silks.

Don't overlook our Draping and Silkoline Department. "Colonial" is the brand that gives satisfaction.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.

"Folger" Special Roast Coffee 25c a pound at Biebers

Apron Checks Ging-ham 8c a yard at Biebers

Eastern Hams 25c a pound at Biebers

Bieber Creamery Cheese 25c poane at Biebers