J. T. Whistler a noted irrigation engineer of Portland has been inspecting the various projects in this section during the past week.

Mrs. R. E. Koozer spent the Fourth on the West Side and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Koozer, while Ralph went to Alturas.

Ern Givans, of Adel, was a visitor here the forepart of the week while en route to attend the Fourth of July celebration at Alturas.

Assistant Ranger R. A. Bradley and family last week left for the Thomas Creek country where they will be located for the summer season.

G. F. Smith, a homesteader of the Fort Rock section, recently had the misfortune to lose his house, together with all of its contents, by fire.

Bucks for sale, Lincolns, Shrops and Hampshire Downs. Will be ready for delivery 1st September. Address Walter A. Sherlock, Alturas Cal. J27

Many fields of waving grain between Lakeview and New Pine Creek present a fine appearance, and the harvest promises to be most bountiful.

Geo. Ried, who has been in charge of the Newell station for the past year, has been succeeded by Geo. Lewis, who has leased the place from Henry Newell.

Earl Wilshire was in town from the Lakeview Land & Lumber Company's sawmill the earlier part of the week and returned with a large load of supplies.

Messrs. Frank Schmidt, J. G. Campbell and J. Schmidt, Sunday made a trip to the old Vanderpool ranch north-west of town, where they enjoyed some fine sport.

Among the sheepmen in town during the week were Simon Jaunto, W. K. Verling, Tom Flynn, Manuel Sanders, Pat Angland, Jack Kellier and Mike Finnucane.

The ladies of the Methodist Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon last with Mrs. William Moss, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all in attendance.

Tom McCulley, of the West Side, was confined to his home for several days during the week with an attack of la grippe. He is now feeling somewhat better.

Martin Carr, father of Mrs. Jonas Norins, is spending the Summer in Lakeview. Mr. Carr reached here a few days since and is well pleased with this section.

Mrs. John McCulley, of the West Side, was ill for several days during the forepart of this week, but is now feeling much improved and able to be about again.

F. I. Everett, the well known representative of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., the big Chicago Hardware firm, paid Lakeview a visit the forepart of the week.

Guy D. Cronemiller has been appointed temporary clerk in the U. S. Land Office, owing to an accumulation of business in connection with the Klamath Reclamation Project.

Harold Marsters, of Summer Lake, recently entertained a number of his young friends at a birthday dinner provided by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currier.

Ode Pratt was up from his ranch on Saturday last. Ode says that crops down his way are coming along in fine shape and he looks for an extra large yield during the coming fall.

Haying throughout the valley is now well under way, especially along the east side. The crop is very heavy, and when the harvest is in full blast trouble is anticipated in obtaining the necessary help to care for the crop.

J. P. Duke is building a fine large barn on his place south of town. He will have it completed ere long, it now being in shape to receive the big hay crop which he is about ready to harvest.

A very large crowd turned out Friday evening to attend the all night dance at the Opera House. About twenty five or thirty couples were in attendance, and all report an excellent time.

A very nice meeting of the Catholic Ladies Altar Society was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lora Barry. Refreshments were served, and the meeting lasted until a late hour.

Guy Ingram several days ago made a trade whereby he gave his fine buckskin horse for a team of unbroken mares. Mr. Ingram's buckskin is well known locally and will be missed from our streets.

J. F. Hutchason, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, with headquarters at Medford, is now here soliciting business for his company. He is working in connection with Guy Ingram, the local agent.

Fred Fisher would have had a freak mule, only it died a bornin'. The colt had seven feet, three well developed hoofs on one leg and two on another. The colt was foaled by a fullblood Clyde mare.

According to the Silver Lake Leader crops in the Fort Rock and Silver Lake valleys look the best of any other dry farming sections between the railroad on the north and the California line on the south.

Messrs. Foster, Detrick, Farrell and Boyd spent the Fourth at Bull Prairie where they had some excellent fishing although the myriads of mosquitoes somewhat marred the pleasures of the occasion.

The brick work on both the Odd Fellow's building and the Catholic church is progressing in fine shape and there is no doubt but what both structures will be ready for occupancy early in the fall.

A fine large addition is being built at the rear of the Auto Livery on Main street. The business of this company has been increasing rapidly and the addition was found necessary to meet present demands.

Samuel Stone, who formerly conducted the south end livery stable, but who is now working on his homestead in the Valley Falls country, was in town the forepart of the week on a business visit.

G. Sherman Easter this week received some very fine pieces of cut glass, which are greatly admired by lovers of such articles. A butter dish is one of the most attractive pieces ever seen in Lakeview.

Thomas Bagshaw, aged 23, son of D. W. Bagshaw, editor of the Jacksonville Post, committed suicide last week by shooting himself through the heart with a 32-20 Winchester rifle. No motive for the act is known.

Col. F. P. Light, who took a side trip to Portland after attending the Elks' festivities at Klamath Falls last week, reached home Saturday evening in time to take in the celebration on the Fourth at New Pine Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Venator and Mr. and Mrs. L. Vanderpool are spending the week in the vicinity of Paisley combining business with fishing, or possibly doing considerable fishing and transacting business at intervals.

The steamer Lakeview is now ready to receive freight. The rate for the present will be 75c per 100 lbs. between Alturas and Lakeview. A further cut will be made as soon as the railroad reaches the lower end of the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harvey have returned from their visit to Prineville. They accompanied their son-in-law, George Storkman, to Portland, and after ascertaining that his injuries were not as bad as feared, came on home.

Bishop Paddock, of the Episcopal Church, Friday evening arrived here on one his semi-annual tours throughout this section. The Bishop has many friends throughout this portion of the country, all of whom were glad to see him again.

George Barnes, a pioneer attorney of Crook county, was shot dead in the streets at Canyon City last week. George Anderson, a leading resident of Canyon City is under arrest charged with murder. Barnes, it is reported, recently defeated Anderson in a will contest and is said to have been Anderson's successful rival in a love affair.

Boone's new business house at New Pine Creek is a most commodious structure and a credit to the town. It is now wholly enclosed, the roof on and the interior will be finished in time for Mr. Boone to open up for business in the early Fall.

The tidal wave which some people claim to have witnessed along the east shore of the lake on the Fourth is supposed to have been caused by the plunge of a well known physician and others who were bathing over on the west side of the lake.

Walter Howard, who has been dangerously sick for the past two months, is now able to be around again, although still very weak. He made his first appearance on the streets Saturday afternoon and was the recipient of congratulations from his many friends.

Leo Hasel, the shoemaker, has made several pairs of dog shoes during the past week for sheepmen. It is a job that Leo does not particularly like, but when the shepherd dogs become footsore it is absolutely necessary for them to have some sort of footwear.

W. Lair Thompson has been quite seriously sick during the past week, which necessitated the cancellation of his engagement at Alturas where he was to deliver the oration on the Fourth. At present he is improving, although not yet able to leave his home.

T. E. Bernard a few days since received two new E. M. F. autos, one with the open front and the other with fore-doors. They are at the South-stone garage at present, but several persons are contemplating buying them and it is not likely they will remain unsold long.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Faulkner were over from Cedarville last week, remaining until Monday, when they went down to Alturas to spend the Fourth. They were accompanied on their return by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clark, who will accompany them home for a brief visit.

J. G. Morbeck has been elected teacher of the Fort Rock school, while Mrs. O. F. Cady has been elected to a similar position in the Fremont school. Both have excellent reputations as instructors and the respective schools are fortunate in having secured their services.

It is reported that Paulson Bros. of Amadee, Cal., have purchased the Payseur interests in the John Briles Orchard Lands at Davis Creek. The Paulsons represent Salt Lake capital, and their investment will no doubt be of much benefit to that portion of Goose Lake Valley.

Ben Delaney, who some months ago was sent to the asylum at Salem for treatment, last week returned here permanently cured from his affliction. Mr. Delaney was an acute sufferer from catarrh before his departure, which the physicians state was probably the cause of his condition.

"Bob" McCulley was one of the unfortunates at New Pine Creek on the Fourth, his team running away and not only wrecking the buggy but fracturing several ribs for "Bob" as well. The team became scared while crossing a bridge just north of the town, and jumped breaking a single tree with the resulting damages.

Large crowds made the trip from town to the bath-house last week to see Abe Label, the fighter who boxed with Connie McFarland at Alturas on the Fourth, go through his training exhibitions. Label was very handy with the gloves, as several of our local boys, who mixed with him, can testify.

The sheepmen are very busy these days properly storing and otherwise taking care of this season's clip of wool in the new warehouse. The sale takes place next Monday, and the results are anxiously looked forward to as this will be the first sale since the sealed bid system went into effect.

County Commissioner F. E. Anderson, of Lake, is in town attending the regular July term of County Court. Mr. Anderson states that the crops of the northern part of the county are good, and especially so in the Summer Lake and Paisley sections. In some sections crops are somewhat light, but as a whole the harvest will be excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Watson and Mrs. W. R. Bernard visited Surprise Valley during the past week, stopping at Fort Bidwell, Cedarville, Eagleville and other places. They spent the Fourth at Alturas, returning home Wednesday evening. They report a most enjoyable trip and no unexpected happenings with Mr. Watson's new E. M. F.
