Bertie Slinder, the well known employee of Thornton's Drug store, Monday started for the upper Chewaucan country where he expects to spend a week or more on a camping trip.

Nate Smith, who has been employed by the T. T. Company during the past several months, is now driving stage on the Western route but will shortly take charge of the Bly station.

Mrs. R. A. Bradley, accompanied by her two children, Tuesday morning left for Bidwell and the surrounding country where she expects to remain for several weeks visiting with relatives.

Mart Hopkins, who needs no introduction hereabouts, returned last week from a several days camping trip to Mud Creek. Mart reports that he enjoyed an excellent time while absent.

Work on the Joe Fuller house, now being erected at the corner of Slash and West Streets, is coming along nicely. The stone masons were at work all day Sunday putting in the foundation.

Mrs. John McCulley, of the West Side, Monday came into town for supplies. She was accompanied by her grandsons, William McCulley and Hermann Arzner, both of whom are visiting with her.

Gus A. Lovgren, a timber cruiser in the employ of the Government, has been at work in this district for the past several weeks. During the past few days he has been examining the claims in this vicinity.

Tom Sagris, the contractor who has had the railroad work around Sugar Hill in charge, was in Lakeview last week. He reports that he is getting along fine with the work and expects to have it completed in a short time.

G. Sherman Easter has just received a large consignment of cutglass which is greatly admired by lovers of such things. There are many elegant pieces included in the assortment, any one of which would make the housewife glad.

J. W. Nixon, of the popular Mud Creek station, Monday, came in for various items of grub. "Bill" says that the simple life agrees with him in every way, and he expects to give all city life a wide berth from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heryford were up from Pine Creek on Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Heryford came up to see her father, C. C. Pratt, who was seriously injured last week, an account of which was given in last Thursday's Examiner.

Bill Hammersley, the well known Government hunter, last week came into town from the Chandler ranch in Drew's Valley. Bill reports that he is having much success in trapping the coyotes of that section, as well as a few large wildcats.

Irving Sherlock and Frank Parker, both hunters of the Teddy Roosevelt type, who have been camping in the Chewaucan country during the past week, Monday returned to town and report all kinds of variegated luck in the fishing and hunting lines.

A very nice surprise party on Mrs. L. Kerrigan, who has been here on a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. K. Barry, was given by the ladies of the Catholic Altar Society. A large attendance was present, and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Stanley Hanson was up from the Davis Creek country for several days last week, and reports that construction work on the railroad is coming along nicely. While here, Stanley took the opportunity to attend the Saturday night dance at the Opera House.

Many of the sheepmen received checks for their wool from the various buying firms during the latter part of last week, and as a result were in very jubilant spirits. No doubt the local stores received quite a few dollars of this money in payment of accounts due.

Manuel Swartz, one of our local sheepmen, was in from the Thomas Creek country last week for supplies. Manuel says the grass on the range this year is about the best he ever saw, and he looks for the sheep to be fat before going to the desert next fall.

John York, a recent resident of Fort Rock who was working at Grants Pass, was foully murdered on the 16th by a man whom he had befriended, says the Silver Lake Leader. The fiend who did the deed was captured a few days later, with the murdered man's wagon and horses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimball, of Klamath Falls, were in Lakeview Tuesday night. Mr. Kimball is on a tour of inspection of the Weyerhaeuser timber lands, and yesterday left for the Canby tract, west of Alturas. "Jack" is now sporting an auto and claims to be an expert "gas" man.

In the Portland market last Thursday steers showed a range in the day's sales of $4.50 to $5.75. Cows sold from $3 to $4.75 and good light calves brought $7. There was a single sale of a bunch of 340 sheep, which brought $2.50. A small bunch of top grade hogs went at $7.65 and a heavier lot brought $7.25.

T. M. Murphy, of Sioux City, Iowa was a pleasant caller at the Examiner office Tuesday. Mr. Murphy had just come in from a trip overland through Central Oregon, having also visited numerous places in the Willamette. He is well pleased with this portion of the State and expects to locate in this section.

Pat Murphy, a well known sheepman of the Paisley section, several days ago arrived here from the north end of the county with a very badly injured right arm. The injury was caused by being bucked from a spirited horse, and Mr. Murphy came here for treatment. He is being cared for by Doctors Everett and Daly.

Buy it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy has no superior. For sale by all good dealers.
