

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY

THE ONLY FIRM IN LAKEVIEW THAT HAS A COMPLETE LIST OF OREGON VALLEY LAND CO.'S TRACTS

OUR FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES

Union Assurance Co. of London
American Central Insurance Co. of St. Louis
St. Pauls Automobile Insurance Co.
Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Co. of N. Y.

WE BUY, LEASE OR SELL O. V. L. CO.'S TRACTS OR LOTS

FRUIT LANDS IN GOOSE LAKE VALLEY--The Very Best For Sale in Small or Large Tracts

HOMESTEADS CITY PROPERTY
Improved & Unimproved Farms. We Specialize Fruit Lands

FIDELITY INSURANCE

United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co. of Baltimore, Md. Bonds of all descriptions.
LIFE INSURANCE
Union Central Life Ins. Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio. Assets, 74 Millions

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1911

BRIEF MENTION

Shoes, shoes, shoes, at Bailey & Massingill's.
Over stock sale of shoes at Bailey & Massingill's.
All our $1.25 and $1.50 waists to go at 90c. Merc. Co.
House dresses at reduced prices at Mercantile Store.
If you want genuine bargains call at Bailey & Massingill's.
Bert Tatro, of the West Side, was one of Saturday's visitors.
Dr. Amaden was up from New Pine Creek this week on a brief visit.
All our fancy lace and lace stripe ladies hose 3 pair 50c. Merc. Co.
You cannot afford to overlook the shoe sale at Bailey & Massingill's.
Odds and ends in ladies canvas shoes 50c, 75c and $1.00. Merc. Co.
We have some excellent bargains in ladies shoes. Bailey & Massingill's.
If you want a really good smoke for a nicker, try Starkman's Leader.
Mrs. George Boydston, of the West Side, was one of Saturday's visitors.
Mrs. T. E. Hurley, of Kansas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. K. Funk.
100 pair of ladies low cut shoes, at low cut prices at Bailey & Massingill's.
Wm. V. Mong, who is well known in Lakeview, is now at Klamath Falls.
Fancy pigeons and young chickens for sale, see Irving Sberiock. A19-17
N. E. Calderwood, a Warner Valley stockman, was over from Adel on Friday.
Mrs. Mary Post has been confined to her home for the past few days by illness.
Lee Emerson, of Salt Creek, was in from his ranch last week for various supplies.
Al Stone, who has been employed at the Camp Creek sawmill, was in town over Sunday.
Sheriff Smith, of Alturas, came up to Lakeview last evening on a brief business visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boydston, of the West Side, were among the last week's visitors.
Mrs. C. D. Sessions has returned from an extended visit to Crescent City and Grants Pass.
Miss Laura Boydston, of the West Side, was in town during the past week for a short stay.
Geo. McGrath yesterday came up from Alturas on a brief visit to relatives and friends.
Miss Elsie Post has accepted a position as stenographer with H. B. Aiger, the real estate dealer.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Laird, accompanied by their daughter, Monday came over from Plush.
A new bridge is being constructed across Bullard Creek at its intersection with Bernard street.
A. McCallen, of Berkeley, has ordered his copy of the Examiner sent to Ashland until further notice.
Gabriel Arzner and Michael Rau, ranchers of the Auger Valley country, were among Tuesday's visitors.
Miss Lola Barry has accepted a position as clerk in the Colorado Cafe, and has already assumed her duties.
C. H. Dusenbery is now located at Bend, to which place he orders his copy of the Examiner forwarded.
The roof on the new Odd Fellow's temple is now being put on and the brickwork will soon be completed.
Mrs. Sim Arthur is now feeling very much improved after a several weeks' illness at her home on Slash street.
City Marshal Ernest Brown is having a very neat little piazza erected at the front of his residence on Slash street.
Jerry Barry has accepted a position with Charles Reid, and last week left for the former Bull ranch, northwest of town.
The O. V. L. surveyors are now busily employed at the company's local office, all having been called in from the field.
Mr. and Mrs. N. Wilcox, of the Warner canyon stage station, were in town this week and remained for a short time.
C. C. Pratt, who last week suffered the amputation of a leg as the result of an auto accident the week previous, is getting along quite nicely, and his ultimate recovery now seems hopeful.

J. N. Watson is building a neat 6-room residence on his Center street property, which will soon be ready for occupancy.
Bartholomeu Diaz, a homesteader of the Drews Gap section, was in town last week attending to various business matters.
Owing to the very warm weather, no more meetings of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society will be held until a later date.
C. C. Chitwood, State Fire Warden for Lake and Klamath counties was in town this morning, having come over on official duty.
E. A. Pelletier, who has a homestead some miles north of Plush, was a visitor here for several days the forepart of the week.
Art Rehart who is employed at his father's ranch south of Crooked Creek, was in town the forepart of the week for a short visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riggs, well known Warner residents, were over from Plush the forepart of the week on a several days visit.
Mrs. R. A. Bradley with children returned the forepart of the week from Bidwell, where she enjoyed a few days visit with relatives.
Mrs. Francis Nyswamer, Saturday left for Nevada City on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Clarence Price, who is now located at that place.
John Fitzgerald, the well known Warner Valley rancher and stockman, was in town last week attending to various business matters.
Dave McAuliffe, one of our local sheep men, Sunday, came in from Bly, where his stock are now feeding on the National Forest range.
The hay on the Race Track has all been cut, and as evidence thereof one may see two enormous stacks piled up close to the fence on Slash street.
Bert Snyder is back from an outing on Upper Chewaucan. He reports that Rev. M. T. Wire a few days since succeeded in bagging a fine buck.
Dan O'Shea and Phil Barry, partners in the sheep business, were in from their summer range during the week, and report the stock in fine condition.
A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bennet and J. L. Morrow, of Adel, were in town over Sunday attending to various business matters.
T. E. Bernard has been in the northern part of the county during the past week showing the people the many good qualities of the E. M. F. auto.
Owing to the absence of Reverend M. T. Wire, who is on a hunting trip in the Chewaucan country, no services were held Sunday at the Methodist church.
C. O. Misener has ordered the Examiner sent to his address at Monmouth, Ill., but gives no further information concerning either himself or his doings.
Kirk Hilderbrandt, a well known resident of Surprise Valley, is now spending a few weeks here as the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. A. Bradley.
Al Roberts has accepted the agency of the noted Lumm clothing, and has just received samples of all the latest weaves, which he is now displaying.
Mr. and Mrs. Edson L. Foulke, of Gazelle, Cal., and Luke Walker, of Bly, have been in this section during the past week looking up the cattle market.
Miss Dorothy Beach, who has been spending the summer in Lakeview, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cronmiller, left this morning for Sacramento.
G. W. Wright, a well known rancher of the West Side, is now recovering from a several weeks' illness with heart trouble at his home south of Slash street.
Rev. G. J. Wentzell, formerly pastor of the local Methodist church, was over from Cedarville last week on a business visit, and remained for several days.
Attorney W. Lair Thompson, accompanied by his folks, Monday noon, returned from a several days business visit to the Silver Lake country. The trip was made by auto.
Word has been received here to the effect that Clarence Price, who is well known locally, is now located with Mrs. Price in Nevada City, where he is interested in a saloon.
J. L. Morrow was in town the first of the week on his way to Salem, where he goes on land business. Mr. Morrow now resides at Santa Rosa, Cal., but is still interested in Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Simmons, of Wichita, Kan., are in Lakeview looking after property interests. They are touring the coast and are much pleased with the country generally.
Mrs. S. O. Cressler, who has been visiting in Surprise Valley during the past several weeks, has returned home, Mr. Cressler having went over after her this week in his auto.
Col. F. P. Light and son Amos, F. W. Payne and J. C. Brookelsby are over to Deep Creek. There will be some remarkable fishing and hunting stories related on their return.
Rit Stridlin is now busy making various assortments of ice cream at the "Frost" during the absence of Tom Cloud, who is enjoying a few days' hunting trip in the Chewaucan.
Mrs. J. Chas. Smith last evening returned from Chicago, where she purchased a large stock of the latest creations in Fall millinery. She will have them on display in the near future.
Mrs. Sib Harber will soon pay Surprise Valley friends a visit. It will be her first trip to that section in several years, and no doubt she will receive a warm welcome on her arrival there.
A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Roll McDonald and family and John Duckworth, Tuesday morning, started for the little Chewaucan, where they expect to spend a few weeks camping out.
Now that considerable wood is being hauled into town, and the price is low, it behooves all of us to put in our winter's supply. Don't wait till the price jumps to $7.50 per cord. Do it now.
Manager Al Smith, of the Opera House several days ago purchased from the Shepherd Piano Company, a fine player piano. The instrument cost $50, and will be installed in a short time.
F. W. Wheeler, of the National View Co., of Sisson, Cal., has been in Lakeview during the past week. He took a panoramic view of the town which is certainly a work of art, and finds ready sale.
Frank Parker, who until recently was employed at the Arzner blacksmith shop, Saturday, left on the Southern stage for Salt Lake City, where he expects to make his future home.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Lair Thompson and Mrs. Maud Braley this morning left for Klamath Hot Springs. They expect to remain there about a week, after which they will visit Crater Lake.
The War Department has begun a determined campaign to procure the highest number of cadets allowable under the law for the class entering the United States Military Academy next June.
The brickwork on the High School building has been completed and carpenters are now at work on the cornice. The roof is also being put on and the work is going ahead most satisfactorily.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd G. Longley last week arrived in Lakeview from Fullerton, Cal., and have decided to locate here. Mr. Longley is an expert barber and has accepted a position in the McCurdy shop.
Thus far this year County Clerk Payne has issued 253 anglers' licenses, 150 hunters' and 57 combination hunters' and anglers'. There were issued last year 504 hunters' licenses and 307 anglers'.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fuller spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday on a fishing trip to Cottonwood. They were quite successful, at least so Joe's friends report, although the mosquitoes were quite numerous.
Mrs. Eleanor Batchelder and daughter, Miss Cad, who have been visiting their son and brother, J. M., during the past several weeks, this morning left on their return to their home at Oroville, Cal., going by way of Klamath Falls.
The carpenter work on the new Catholic church is progressing very nicely under the supervision of Contractor N. Cory, and the structure is fast assuming a completed appearance. The overhead rafters have been put in place during the past week.
Mark Getty, the local photographer, returned the latter part of last week after a several weeks visit to Crater Lake, Gold Hill, Klamath Falls, and other points. Mark made the trip to Crater Lake with his father, mother and sister, who were here for several days visiting with him, but on reaching Gold Hill they started for home, while Mark returned here via Klamath Falls.

A. P. Koozer, the West Side rancher, was in town last week on a business visit. He was accompanied on his return by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Koozer, who are now spending a few days at their ranch on the West Side.
Miss Eva Clark, who has been visiting here for a month or more as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Judge, Saturday left for Prineville, where she will visit her father, who is a prominent dentist of that place.
The party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keene, Misses Lena and Marie McChane and Ethel Bailey, who have been camping on the Chewaucan for the past week, Friday, returned to town and report an excellent time while absent.
Assistant Solicitor Staley, of the Forest Service, accompanied by Special Agent Thomas, of the Department of the Interior, Wednesday arrive here to try several cases before the local land office. They will leave the latter part of the week for Silver Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shirk a few days since returned from an extended visit to California points, the Middle Western States and the East, spending some time in New York. They had a most enjoyable time although of course pleased to get back home again.
Jackson county means to have good roads at any cost is evidenced by the fact that the county court of that county has ordered an election to take place on the 2nd day of October for the purpose of voting bonds in the sum of one and a half million dollars.
C. E. Schafer, of Fort Rock, is the only farmer of Lake County that has filed a name for this place with the County Clerk. Mr. Schafer calls his place Clover Leaf Ranch and the name has been approved by the Secretary of State and is now regularly recorded.
The party consisting of Messrs. Maenab, Boyd, Jackson and Patch, who spent several days on a hunting trip in the Chewaucan country, Friday returned to town with sunburnt faces and tanned arms, but no venison. They expect to do better next time, however.
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hereford and children, Mildred and Ralph, are enjoying the pleasures of camp life in the Hoag mining district. Mrs. Hereford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Briles, are spending the summer at the mines and the Herefords will join them at their camp.
While driving a team of horses on his father's ranch at Crooked Creek several days ago Art Rehart had the misfortune to be thrown from the buckboard, seriously injuring his left hip. He is now being treated, and will probably be as well as usual in a short time.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnes, with family, Saturday came over from Klamath Falls by auto for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes, of Main Street. The visitors are all well known locally, having been here on several previous occasions. Mr. Barnes is sheriff of Klamath county.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chandler Sunday came in by auto from the upper Chandler ranch for a several days visit.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tupper, of Endlerin, N. D., were in Lakeview this week looking over the valley. They have been visiting relatives in Surprise and are so well pleased with the country that they have about concluded to give up their North Dakota home and locate in this section.
Since their arrival here several weeks ago, the Shepherd boys, Kale and Earl in connection with their father, have succeeded in disposing of several pianos. X. Arzner and Luther Webster each purchased one of the instruments, as well as Manager Smith of the Opera House.
Geo. C. Turner, of Cedarville, member of the Board of Supervisors of Modoc County was in Lakeview the forepart of the week greeting old-time friends. Mr. Turner is a pioneer of Lake county, having arrived here along about 1880, and on his periodical visits always receives a warm welcome.
J. W., Thos. A. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers, of Ashland, yesterday came in from the Windy Hollow mining district where they had filed on quartz claims in Tippy Wells canyon. They are confident that the mines of that district will yet prove valuable, and they recorded their claims with the County Clerk.
Two very interesting films were shown at the Sunday evening performance at the Opera House, "The County Fair" and "The Count that counted." While the films were being run, Misses Emily Ayres and Dorothy Bieber rendered duets on the piano all of which delighted the large audience present.
W. L. Clapp a few days since made a record run with his auto that is likely to stand for some time to come. Leaving Lakeview in the morning he reached Sunsanville in time for lunch and got to Reno for supper. After supper he went on down to Fallon, a total distance from Lakeview of something like 330 miles.
Bert Harber this week informed the Examiner that seven cars and an engine left the track below the Hot Springs last Friday and came near resulting fatally for Bill Winfrey the engineer. The engine turned turtle, but Bill escaped by jumping, and Bert incidentally added that he never let go of his pipe for an instant.
L. R. Glavis, who came into prominence by violating rules of the Interior Department and for which he was ousted by Secretary Ballinger, has been named secretary of the California Conservation Commission and the California Conservation Board of Control in charge of water power, was the announcement made recently.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Britten, who recently came here from Portland, expect to open their new men's clothing outfit store in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Britten were here several months ago, but returned to Portland in order to purchase various supplies and equipment for their store. They will be located in the quarters now occupied by Mr. Boone.
Messrs. Hunter, Morgan, Anstead and Ross, Wednesday, returned to town after a several days trip to Deep Creek. When coming in, about in front of the Court House, their team of horses became frightened when some harness parts fell and the team would have run away but for the fact that several men in the neighborhood rushed to the horses heads and held them.
Saturday evening an auto party consisting of George Whorton, M. Whorton and G. B. Graves, started for the Davis place in Drews Valley on a deer-hunting expedition. At a point somewhere between the Tracy ranch and Drews Creek their auto broke down, and they were obliged to hike back to the ranch and phone into town for help. Byron Graves, Frank Gunther and Murray Heard responded, but the efforts of the entire party towards repairing the auto were unavailing, and the trip back to town was made by team.

TO O. V. L. CONTRACT HOLDERS

We are now ready to furnish Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Properties as follows:

Tracts $2.50 Each
or Lots $2.50 Each

LAKE COUNTY LAND & TITLE CO.

LAKEVIEW : : : : OREGON

Recipe for a Good Figure

Keep your hips in place, your chest high, your back straight by wearing a Parisiana Corset. Without your making the slightest effort, without discomfort, this corset will give you a correct figure and a graceful carriage.

PARISIANA CORSETS

are designed for every type of figure. Come in and ask to see the model made for you.

Every Parisiana is guaranteed to give you good wear, or you will receive a new corset without charge.

The price you have been paying will buy a guaranteed Parisiana.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.