OREGONISMS

Astoria is having the time of her life at the Centennial Exhibition.

The Union men of Klamath Falls will observe Labor Day this year.

Geo. Swanson, of Sacramento is in Lake County buying cattle.—Merrill Record.

There have been some forest fires in Klamath County, though no great loss has resulted.

Central Point will have asphalt streets. Pretty good for a town of only 800 people, eh?

Stukel and Offield have just returned to Merrill after buying 22,000 head of cattle in Lake County.—Merrill Record.

Congressman Hawley has recommended the appointment of C. K. Branderburg as postmaster at Klamath Falls.

Klamath County is to have a fair Sept. 27, 28, 29 and 30. There will be some good races and a fine time assured.

It is unlawful to ship game of any kind from this state according to a recent decision of Attorney General Crawford.

The Boardman Company have secured the gas franchise at Klamath Falls and work will commence on the mains and plant at once.

Manning, of San Francisco will box M'Lellan at Klamath Falls Aug. 25. The go will last twenty five rounds if the men can go that far.

Ashland has a municipal lighting plant that will furnish light and power to the citizens as well as lighting the streets. The juice has just been turned on for some of them.

2,000,000 steelhead trout have been planted in Rogue river this season by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, and a million young salmon were also planted in the same stream.

Graft snappers are flying back and forth in Portland and there are some rich developments looked for in the near future if the men in touch with the situation don't get cold feet.

The Government has offered real money for fir cones to reforest some of the burned areas in other states and the boys at Springfield are after some of it. They make $2 to $3 per day.

Robbers at Portland left James Crook of Baker City, without shoes, hat, coat and $500 in money. He believes that a former emulose was one of the men that helped to do the work.

Klamath Falls is surprised to think that a man should plow his land in the fall for the spring sowing. The man that is doing the work is from Kansas where they have to farm or get nothing.

Oregon hops are going some in the market and have climbed to fifty cents per pound and still seem to have some strength left, for they may reach a dollar. Hop growers are going to get rich this year.

A Greek named Buchias entered a pool room at Medford and shot another Greek named Spanos who will probably die. The former fled but was captured by the Marshall. Trouble began over money matters.

Klamath is to have gas for illuminating purposes. Not the article that is often associated with the town but that from coal. A franchise is to be granted by the council to one of two firms that have applied for it.

Chief of Police Farrington and Night Chief Blanton have been dismissed from office by the common council at Eugene. Inefficiency is the reason given for the move after a request to the officials to resign.

Jack London, the famous author, made a recent visit to Ashland and vicinity. London accompanied by his wife traveled with a camowagon and are having a good time. At the same time obtaining material for a new book.

Four men were injured by the brakes on an auto refusing to work and plunging them off the road near Elgin on the Blue Mt. road. The car was traveling at the rate of 70 miles an hour when the accident occurred and is a total wreck.

The wood men are meeting at Ontario, Sept. 28 to 30, when the county fair is to be held. The largest gathering of people ever held in Mailheur county is expected during the meet. Governor West has been invited and will probably attend.

61 out of 96 persons taking the State Medical Boards examination to practice medicine in Oregon passed recently and three will be that many new physicians in the state. The successful candidates come from many schools throughout the country.

Eastern apple buyers are after Hood River apples this year in large numbers and prices are good in consequence. A few dozen buyers will be glad to come to Lake county when there are enough apples grown to warrant large shipments such as can be produced here.

Leslie M. Scott, son of the former Editor of the Oregonian has been appointed by President Taft to the office of U. S. Marshall for Oregon to succeed Elmer B. Colwell whose appointment was held up in the Senate of the United States. There is no assurance given that the present appointment will be allowed to go through. Charles V. Johnson has been appointed as Appraiser of the Port of Portland.

J. M. Bannister, living near Weston, Oregon, had an average yield of 55 1/2 bushels of wheat per acre from 214 acres of Dale and Red Chaff wheat. J. N. York of the same place had an average of 60 bushels to the acre from 73 acres. Mr. Bannister ascribes the large yield to the fact that he cultivated the entire field with a heavy harrow when the grain was about four inches in height. A small tract that he did not harrow did not yield nearly as well as the other.

Old-timers used to say that this was nothing but a cow country, but the raising of 40 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre doesn't bear out the appellation with exactness. When it is known, however that some farmers who have every reason to believe that their wheat would make 30 to 40 bushels to the acre, prefer to cut it for hay rather than to go to the trouble to thrash it, it puts one into the notion that this is something of a cow country after all.—Klamath Chronicle.

Klamath Falls, Or., Aug. 22.—Although it is yet early in the season, stock buyers are already sizing up the situation. No sales have been reported but it is understood that seven cents and a little better is offered for prime beef. Owing to the shortage of hay last winter, stockman will not have as much beef to turn off this year as usual. In former years large herds of feeders were driven into this section every fall and held until the following summer. This year there is more hay than for several years, but the demand is greater on account of railroad and reclamation work. With the price of hay ranging from $8 to $12 a ton in the stack, the growers find it more profitable to sell the hay than to feed the cattle. Because of these conditions it is expected that few feeders will be brought to this section this fall.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 21.—Mrs. Lizzie Wesenberg, "holy roller," is defendant in a divorce suit in the circuit court. According to the complaint of August Wesenberg, she refused to live longer with him because she could not "get the Holy Ghost" when he was around.

Wesenberg, who was married in Wisconsin in 1899, makes no complaint of his wife's conduct until she reached the rollers in 1908. The result of getting religion, he says, was late hours, neglect of household duties, fault finding and a general aversion to his company. He had been previously married and divorced and says she told him it would be sinful for her to keep on living with him. He charges she deserted him October 30, 1909. He declares she is a religious fanatic and no longer to be thought of as a wife.

Murder at Klamath

The body of Charley Lyons, a lumberman was found murdered in the canal near the city jail. There were evidences the body had been placed there recently. Lyons was a Philippine veteran and had been around the mills of Klamath and the Upper Lake several years.

Show This Week

The Empire Stock Company with seven players is at the Opera House this week. The company is presenting a different play each evening and meeting with considerable success.

RENO MERCHANTS GET ACQUAINTED

Metropolis of Nevada Reaches For Closer Business Ties

The Reno business men that are awake to the many advantages that this section of the country has to offer in the matter of a profitable wholesale trade; came in on the first train to Davis Creek last Saturday and after enjoying the celebration there, came here in autos and remained over Monday and Tuesday, when they left for Surprise Valley and other points of interest in their "Get Acquainted" campaign. The elimination of some of the heretofore prohibitive railroad rates, that have not allowed the wholesale jobbers of Reno to compete with San Francisco and Sacramento houses, by the recent decision of the Interstate Railroad Commission, places Reno on the map as a distributing point. It is believed they can supply merchants here with goods as cheaply as other points and a great deal quicker. That the people of Reno are awake to the many advantages of the Lake County section is assured.

Among the Reno excursionists were the following:

- S. H. Overstreet, Nevada Packing Co.
- W. L. Turch, president Nevada Business College.
- Rob Grob, cashier Farmers and Merchants National Bank.
- J. H. Gallagher, lumberman.
- Julius Schwarshild, hides and furs.
- J. D. Mariner, music house.
- C. S. Baird and J. W. Reddington, Nevada State Journal.
- L. P. Smith, Navajoovich Mercantile Co.
- O. E. Benham, Riverside Milling Co.
- F. J. Schair, of Flanigan Warehouse Co.
- Geo. Logan, of Logan-Dale Co., wholesale grocers.
- A. M. Britt, of the Buffalo Brewing Co.
- J. M. Fulton, of the Southern Pacific Co.
- S. J. Byington, Real Estate.
- F. O. Broili, Nevada M & S Co.
- H. J. Darling, Nevada Hardware Co.
- Gov. Lem Allen, ex-lieutenant Governor of Nevada.

Additional Briefs

The report that George Ede had found a flowing well on his homestead in the Wagontire country, was unfounded. Mr. Ede ran out of casing before he struck water, so postponed the attempt until a later date, as he is putting down other wells in the Chewaucan Valley.

The Shanic-Antelope district will make a good exhibit of its agricultural products at The Dalles, where it will be maintained permanently, so that newcomers will see what opportunities there are for farmers and fruit growers. Excellent specimens for the exhibit are now being gathered.

The open season for ducks this year starts in on September 15, through some of the license read "Sept. 1" through a mistake made in printing same. The sportsman that goes out on the First of the month is taking chances while the shooting will be much better at a later date.

Farnum Harris has just completed a fine residence on his Summer Lake ranch which adds greatly to the looks of his property. The Summer Lake Country will be so changed with a few good houses in a short time that the Lakeview people will be strangers to that country if they don't visit it oftener.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sherlock were in town over Sunday on their return from a week's vacation in the vicinity of Crater Lake. They report an excellent time during their absence, and states that many people are taking advantage of the fine weather and hundreds of camping parties may be seen in the Klamath country.

J. D. Venator and L. Vanderpool last week went out hunting and in some unknown manner became possessed of a fine four-point buck. The word "fine" is used advisedly for a piece reached the Examiner man's table where ample justice was done it. The deer was large and fat and was greatly admired by the many who saw it.

Stephen P. Moss, rancher and statesman of Chewaucan Valley, paid town a visit this week after a strenuous time haying. Mr. Moss says that he has plenty of hay but very little stock to consume it this year as he sold a large number of cattle early in the year. The hay is of better quality than last year in addition to the greatly increased yield.

W. S. Pryse, a minister of the Presbyterian church, is expected here about September 7th to take charge of the local congregation. He will succeed Mr. Werner, who expects to return to the Presbyterian College at Los Angeles to resume his studies.

Mr. Pryse has been in charge of a parish at Cambria, California for some time past. He will be accompanied by his wife and one son.

C. C. Woodcock of Portland, accompanied by his family, paid a visit to Lakeview in his Pierce-Arrow, Friday. The party came overland by way of the Dalles and enjoyed their trip, though they reported the roads as rather dusty. Lakeview promises to become a touring point for automobiles in the future as the roads between Portland and San Francisco via this portion of the state are better a this time of the year than they are in Western Oregon.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by all good dealers.

Artesian Prospect

J. F. Mayfield has been trying to make arrangements with many of the people here, to assist in securing the services of George Ede, the artesian well expert, to sink a well on the High School grounds or the city park grounds west of it. Mr. Ede will drill the well and furnish three lengths of three inch casing for $500, if he strikes a flow of water and if he does not strike the flow the people interested will be out nothing in consequence. This would appear as though the well man knew what he was talking about and is willing to take the chances if we are willing to go down in our pockets for the amount necessary in case a fine flow of water is struck. The importance of this matter to the people of this portion of the valley is very abundant and a united effort should be made to have the work commenced at the earliest possible moment. There are a lot of people that want water in this valley who are unable to go to the expense of drilling, that would have wells drilled if they were assured there was an artesian flow here; for the fact of having the well would enhance the value of their acres and the convenience that would result from the possession of the same, to say nothing of the additional value that would automatically accrue to the land, to justify them in making the outlay. Now is the time for action on the part of every public spirited man or woman in the community, who is desirous of getting this well at the earliest moment. Let the well be driven.
