

LAKE COUNTY LAND AND TITLE COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts, $2.50

We Will Buy a Limited Number of O.V.L. Lots

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Lots, $2.50

GENERAL REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Athens suit underwear for ladies. Merc. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rehart—a daughter.

R. K. Funk was a visitor in town last Saturday.

Jim O'Connor, the sheepman, was in town Tuesday.

A few ladies dusters all good sizes. 25 per cent off. Merc. Co.

Bird Reed, of Pine Creek was one of last week's visitors.

Jonas King's lawn and shrubbery is a credit to his artistic taste.

Call for No. 700 ladies hose. Best to be had at 25c. Merc. Co.

We have the Holeproof Hose for ladies, 3 for $1.00. Merc. Co.

Miss Flossie Lake, of the West Side, was one of Saturday's visitors.

Bill Hotchkiss, of Valley Falls, was in town the forepart of the week.

If you want a really good smoke for a pickle, try Storkman's Leader.

For Rent—house and barn, enquire of Fred Spangenberg. Aug 24th

O. T. McKendree returned to town Saturday after a few weeks absence.

Teams wanted at Fandango Lumber Co., for hauling lumber. Sept 26

Attorney Tom Farrell will move his office into the building with Seagers Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Funk, from down the Valley, were Saturday visitors in town.

Miss Mary Koontz was in town last week from her father's ranch, east of town.

Joe Arzner was confined to his home for several days during the week with a bad cold.

Harry Rizzz accompanied by his family, Tuesday came over from Plush on a short visit.

L. D. Hoy, the Summer Lake rancher and stockman, was in town the forepart of the week.

G. H. Hammersley, one of New Pine Creek's well known citizens, was in town Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dicks, of the Crooked Creek section, were among this week's visitors.

Labor day was observed Monday last by the closing of the banks and the Government offices.

Mike Rau, of the Auger Valley section, was in town last week attending to business matters.

Mrs. John Arzner was quite ill for several days last week, but is now feeling much improved.

Ed Calderwood, of Adel, was one of the many Warner people who visited with us during the week.

Mrs. Pearl Ingram was a visitor here during the week, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brown.

Miss Neil Cleland, of Plush, was another of last week's many visitors who renewed old acquaintances.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Miss Julia Gloster, of the First National Bank is now entertaining as guest her sister from Alturas.

Mrs. Joe Howard, of Drews Valley a guest of her daughter Mrs. Charles Arthur returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling this morning left on a 10-days trip to Crater Lake and the huckleberry patch.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Miss Nellie Harvey, until recently employed at the Hotel Lakeview, has left for a short visit in Alturas.

C. S. Stone, who is now a resident of Valley Falls, Tuesday came down from that section for a short visit.

Finis Hickerson, who has been here many times before, was over from Bidwell last week on a short visit.

Miss Kate Dutton, of Davis Creek, is now spending a few days here as the guest of Miss Dorothy Bieber.

Clarence Green was up from New Pine Creek the forepart of the week on a several day's visit with friends.

"Big Bill" McCormack, another one of Lake County's prominent stockmen, was a visitor here during the week.

The O. E. S. Needle Club met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Shirk, and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by the many ladies present.

Storkman uses only the best of tobacco in the manufacture of his cigars. Try them and be convinced.

Any lady desiring home and board free for fall and winter, address Box 321, Lakeview, Oregon. A17-24

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

After a fine trip to San Francisco, returning by way of the Western Pacific, Farnum Harris is once more among us.

W. F. Burch and wife and F. H. Meyers and wife of Adel were registered at the Hotel Lakeview, Saturday.

Guy Cronemiller is now enjoying a few days vacation after a several months employment in the local Land office.

Mrs. Sim Arthur is again reported to be quite ill at her home on Slush street. She is being attended by her sisters.

Harry Cannon returned from the Paisley country last week where he had gone with a large shipment of tombstones.

Leslie Seager arrived from Davis Creek a few days since. Things look fine down the valley according to Mr. Seager.

W. R. Bernard, accompanied by his daughter Ruth, last week came up from down the valley on a short business visit.

For sale, good 7 room house and two acres of land; within two blocks of public school. Inquire at the Examiner office.

Having in these parts is now practically completed for the season of 1911, and all along the line bumper crops are reported.

Phillip Barry, a resident of San Francisco, is now spending a few days here as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Dan O'Shea.

Miss Winnie Harvey has accepted a position as waitress in the Hotel Lakeview, and commenced duty on Tuesday morning.

F. P. Lane and family were among the large list of Warner visitors who remained with us for several days during the week.

Joe Ambrose was in town from the West Side the forepart of the week, and as usual was in an optimistic frame of mind.

Many watermelons have been brought up from Pine Creek during the week, and the peddlers state that they sell like "hot-cakes."

Tom and Ben McCulley, of the West Side, were in town last week looking over the many tall buildings erected since their last visit.

G. S. Stagz came in from Camp Creek where he has been employed at the saw mill, and will leave for a visit to California points.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, a resident of the State of Idaho, is now spending a few days locally as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elzie Linville.

John McDonough has accepted a position with the city department, and is now busy putting down sidewalks in various parts of the city.

M. R. Hignett, a salesman for the National Cash Register Company, was in from Medford last week drumming up business for his company.

Mrs. Green, Smith, of Willow Ranch, last week returned home after spending a few days here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Brown.

Mrs. C. C. Pratt has returned from New Pine Creek, where she enjoyed a few days visit as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Heryford.

J. C. Shellhammer, rancher and stockman of Crooked Creek, was in town Saturday, being accompanied on the trip by several of his family.

Contractor George B. Graves is now at Davis Creek, having left Sunday. He expects to be busy there for several days doing work for various parties.

Mrs. H. P. Welch, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, several days ago arrived to join her husband, who is now located here in the practice of law.

George Conn, the Paisley rancher and stockman who is well known throughout these parts, was in town earlier in the week on a business visit.

Al Roberts has accepted the agency of the noted Lamm clothing, and has just received samples of all the latest weaves, which he is now displaying.

Mrs. D. H. Hartzog returned this week to her home at Corvallis, after a very pleasant visit here with old time friends, among whom she formerly lived.

Dick Kingsley, well known proprietor of the Green Garden House, is now off on a several days vacation, and his familiar face and jovial voice is missed by all of us.

Judge Henry L. Benson left for Klamath Falls Monday after having had a short session of court. The cases disposed of were mentioned in last week's Examiner.

Several fires have been reported throughout this section during the past week, but the reports were simply rumors, no doubt caused by the very smoky atmosphere.

Sage hens certainly make fine eating, which probably accounts for the fact that so many of the local hunters went out Sunday in search of specimens of that particular bird.

A great deal of grain is now being threshed at various ranches on the West Side. Many auto parties went out to the Gill Arthur place Monday to watch the process.

A party consisting of Earl Stewart, E. Stanton and Joe McEachern, all hailing from Sacramento, last week passed through town on a trip through this section of the country.

Work on both the High School and Catholic Church buildings is now fast assuming completion, and we may expect to find both of them ready for occupancy almost any day now.

The season for hunting geese opened up the first day of September, and many of the local sportsmen took advantage of the lifting of the "ban" to bag a few very fine specimens.

Mrs. Jonas Norin—who expects to take us riding in her Herald automobile when it arrives in a few days now—Friday left for Silver Lake to rake in a few more subscriptions.

About seven or eight new families of Indians arrived in town during the week, and are now installed as residents on our reservation east of town. All hail from the Klamath country.

Mrs. John McCulley expects to leave for the John Day country within a few days now on a several week's visit with her sister. She will be accompanied on the trip by her son, Jake.

The band turned out Sunday afternoon on the Court House grounds, and pleased the large number of people present rendering many of the popular tunes. The boys are sure "comers."

For sale 3 room house and lot with furniture and 10 acres of land. No reasonable offer refused if taken at once. Inquire 3 doors west of Geo. Batchelder place. Aug 24th

Miss Mabel Millard, who has been at the Mud Creek station for sometime past, last week left for Sacramento to attend her sister, Mrs. Bill Nixon, who is at that place under the doctor's care.

Even "Cap" Brown, who ordinarily takes things as a matter of course, couldn't help but notice that the weather during the past two weeks has been quite a little warmer than usual.

Charles Faulkner, a former resident of Lakeview who is now interested in Sunrise Valley lands, was over from Cedarville last week, and spent several days in town combining business with pleasure.

Hon. W. Lair Thompson yesterday returned from Klamath Falls, to which place he was accompanied by his father, mother and sister, who had been paying him a visit, and also Judge Benson.

The duck hunting season will open the fifteenth of this month, and the writer has—at an early date—seen many of the local sportsmen cleaning up their guns and otherwise preparing for the occasion.

A party consisting of George Hussey, Ross Anderson, and Reverend Audley D. Porter were up from Davis Creek during the week and expressed themselves as much pleased with the way things are booming here.

Mrs. C. Lovelace who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Nels Mortenson, has returned to her home in Millville, Cal. Mrs. Lovelace formerly resided here and it seems like home to get back once in a while.

Ned Sherlock, who now possesses the title of Deputy State Fire Warden, was in town last week on business. Ned states that he intends to make a record by not even allowing a fire to get started on his district.

Tommie Flynn, one of our local sheepmen, Saturday, sold his wool to J. Frankl at the rate of thirteen cents a pound. In all he had about three hundred bars, and the total amount involved was close to $10,000.

Byron Graves and Bill Anderson have returned after a several weeks hunting trip in the Deep Creek and surrounding country. While absent they managed to bag a couple of deer, both of which made fine eating.

Colonel Beebe was excited over the news that there was some dirt near the mines at New Pine Creek that had never been prospected. Colonel is the original prospector and may be missing some of these mornings.

Contractor George B. Graves has returned from the Davis Creek country, where he was employed for several days on various buildings at that place. He reports that the little railroad town is certainly booming now.

Little Lillian Utley was taken quite ill Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dvkeman, and Doctor Everett was hurriedly called. The little Miss is now feeling much better.

A Woman's Thought!

Are you thinking of getting a Suit, Coat or Skirt? Are you thinking of sending away for it? Why not come to us and have it made to your measure and Mantle-Tailored? We guarantee a fit. We have three hundred and sixty-five different samples to choose from. A few minutes of your time will convince you that this Suit and Coat question is exactly as we represent it.

By ordering early you get first choice of cloth.

Have you seen our new Silk Underskirts, Silk Waists, American Beauty Corsets, Kid Gloves, Ladies' and Children's Hosiery, and a fine line of School Sweaters at 95c.

We are having an early showing of Fall Street Hats too, just what you need for now, and will soon be ready to announce our Grand Fall Opening of Tailored and Pattern Hats.

Watch this space for our Announcement.

The Parisian Millinery
Main Street West of Court House

THE ALGER LAND CO.

Lands in the demonstrated fruit belt of Goose Lake Valley

GOOD LAND
ABUNDANT WATER
A CLIMATE THAT WILL MAKE YOU YOUNG AGAIN

Timber Lands
Ranches
City Real Estate

H. B. Alger, Manager
LAKE HOTEL
NEW PINE CREEK, ORE.

and will probably be about as usual in a few days.

Geo. Reid is in town from the Newell Station in Drews Valley. George reports some hay on the ranch of Joe Howard as still under way and says that there is about double the amount of hay in that valley that there was last year.

Some mighty chilly weather was felt Monday and Tuesday, and snow was seen on the various high mountain tops. Its only an indication of the approach of winter, and a warning to lay in the winter's supply of wood, spuds, apples, etc.

Guy Ingram, who is now acting as agent for one of the large insurance companies, arrived in town Friday, from Roseburg. As on former trips, Guy is "Johnny-on-the-spot" when it comes to soliciting new policies, and reports much success in his particular line.

Dental Practice For Sale

Office Furnishings and Dental Equipment complete, together with an excellent practice established six years, for sale.

Location one of the very best in a rapidly growing town of Oregon.

But two dental offices in town.

For further information, call or address the

LAKE COUNTY EXAMINER
Lakeview :: Oregon

Good wiring is the very best insurance policy you can have—and the cheapest. We do it.

E. T. SPENCE

Announcement

Opening with a new stock of Men's Furnishing Goods We will be ready for business on or about September 11th, 1911, in the building lately occupied by Mr. Daniel Boone.

Britten & Erickson
Lakeview :: Oregon

LADIES' WAIST SALE

Every Waist in the house to go at 25% off in the next ten days. This includes all our WHITE and SILK WAISTS priced at $1.75 to $7.00. We must have room for Fall Goods, and you get the benefit. All this year's goods and strictly up-to-date. TEN DAYS ONLY.

THE LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.