HOW THE BIG LAND SHOWS ADVERTISE THE NORTHWEST

The cool weather and abundant rains in the past few weeks assure the Northwest farmers good crops. More than usual returns will be had by many of the more progressive farmers, who will exhibit at the New York and other big land shows. The habit of exhibiting at these big shows is a good one to get—it brings honor and money to the enterprising farmer. In past years the Northwest farmers have won many prizes for the best wheat—oats—potatoes—barley—the finest apples—and prize winning corn, sugar beets, alfalfa and hops are also raised. Every time a Northwest farmer wins a prize at the big land shows more settlers come into the Northwest and many times they move close by the prize winner's farm. This increases the value of his land and brings him good, ambitious neighbors, who also get the prize getting habit.

exhibits and where to ship them. A $1,000 prize cup or $1,000 in gold is certainly worth trying for. Send a postal to him to-day.

$1,000 for the Best Wheat in the World.

Take the great new land show—the New York Land Show, which will be held between November 3 and 12, 1911. For the best hard wheat $1,000 in gold is offered to the farmers of the world. There is a big silver cup for potatoes—a $1,000 cup. The Northwest ought to win that potato cup, as well as the wheat prize money. Then there is the Earling cup for the best oats—the James J. Hill cup for the best 100 pounds of wheat—the Busch cup for hops—the Pabst cup for barley. All these are beautiful cups, all worth $1,000, except the Pabst barley cup—that's worth $1,500. Surely the Northwest should win these cups. Where else do they raise such potatoes, wheat, barley, oats, etc.?

Other Big Land Shows.

$500 for Apples.

President Elliott, of the Northern Pacific Railway, has offered $500 in gold for the finest apples. The apples raised in Montana, Oregon and Washington are easily the best in the world. They bring the highest prices and have the best flavor, color and keeping qualities, as the National Apple Shows have demonstrated. It is now harvest time, and the farmers of this section should go after these prizes. The Great Northern Railway will help the farmers in their territory win these prizes. No entry fee will be charged at the New York Land Show. The Great Northern Railway will make a special arrangement to handle these exhibits. Write at once to Ed. Leedy, the General Immigration Agent at St. Paul, Minnesota, who will tell you how to pack your

If the Northwest farmer will only get busy and get his good stuff together he can exhibit at most all the land shows. The Pittsburg Land Show will be between October 12th and October 28th. The Omaha Land Show will be between October 15 and 28, 1911. Then comes the New York Land Show with $11,000 in prizes; dates—November 3rd to November 12th. After the New York Land Show is the big Chicago Show, starting Saturday, November 18th, and ending December 9th.

The Northwest farmers' own show—the Northwestern Land Products Show, at St. Paul—will probably commence December 12th and continue to December 24th, 1911, and so, you see, a farmer of a community can exhibit at all the shows. Every good exhibit at any one of these shows is going to help bring new settlers to that place.

The Great Northern Railway is co-operating with the Commercial Clubs in an effort to get good displays from all sections.

THE BATTLE ON CAMAS PRAIRIE

One of the greatest battles ever fought in Lak County, took place a short time ago when Madame Druselia McDonald, of the famous Balmoral Summer Resort, on Camas Prairie, fought and vanquished the Celebrated Knight of the Garter, Senor Francisco Santiago De La Barra, a recent arrival from El Mexico. To lend eclat to the affair they enlisted the services as umpire, of that Royal Personage, the Honorable Jonathan Buckingham Brookes, a direct descendant of the Great Lord Buckingham, who became famous over a remark that he once made at a crucial moment when opposed by his enemies, uttering the words, "My horse my horse, a Kingdom for a horse." The affair started over the singing of a famous Spanish Ballad, by the titled Mexican, entitled, "The Camobells are coming" which aroused the ire of the lady in question. Feeling highly indignant over what she termed an insult, she promptly challenged El Senor to a duel, and believing himself a match for the lady, accepted and the conflict waged as follows:

"This arm of mine shall your whole frame confound;
I'll mash your bones and all your body pound.
Dastard Celt, would'st thou dare this arm to face?
You spurious offspring of a stolen embrace.
With props upraised the argives fiercely closed:
Their crackling jaws re-echoing to the blows;
At length Druselia deals a stunning blow
Upon the Irish mug of her unwary foe;
Beneath the ponderous arms resistless way
Down dropped he, nerveless and extended lay.
Like some small beef when butcher wields his axe,
By its vast force the buzhest frame relaxed.
He wrenthes and squirms upon the blood stained floor.
From his mouth and nostrils pours the purple gore.

At this point in the proceedings, the descendant of the scrappy Duke, spoke forth in thunderous tones, saying, "Hold! base violin player that thou art, the hour is late and we must fade away ere day breaks upon yonder corse." So Jonathan and Druselia vanished arm in arm, into the shadows that swiftly flitted over the gory scene. Selah.

IS IT ANYBODY'S BUSINESS AFFAIR?

Is it anybody's business, if a gentleman should choose To wait upon a lady
If the lady don't refuse?
Or, to speak a little plainer,
That the meaning all may know,
Is it anybody's business if a lady has a beau?
Is it anybody's business, When a gentleman doth call,
Or when he leaves the lady,
Or if he leaves at all?
Or is it necessary
That the curtain should be drawn,
To save from further trouble
The outside lookers on?
Is it anybody's business,
But the lady's, if her beau
Rideth out with other ladies,
And doesn't let her know?
Is it anybody's business,
But the gentleman's, if she
Should accept another escort,
Where he doesn't chance to be?
If a person's on the side-walk,
Whether great or small
Is it anybody's business
Where that person means to call?
Or if you see a person
While he's calling anywhere,
Is it anybody's business
What his business may be there?
The substance of our query,
Simply stated, would be this:
Is it anybody's business
What another's business is?
Whether 'tis or 'tisnt
We should really like to know,
For we are certain, if it isn't,
There are some that make it so.—Ex.

HEN ADOPTS PIGS; ODD ATTACHMENT

Winsted, Conn., Eight little pigs are the foster children of a white hen on the farm of Emil Carlson. This spring, Carlson says, the hen formed the habit of laving in the pigpen. The pig was fond of eggs and did not object.

When the hen decided to set she found nothing to set on until a litter of pigs arrived. These she promptly adopted, and when they went to sleep piled in a heap after the manner of young pigs, she climbed on the top of the pile, and spreading her wings, did her best to cover the twelve. She has stayed with her strange family constantly. Now that they run out of doors she follows them about in great distress.—Oregon Journal.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all good dealers.
