

LAKE COUNTY LAND AND TITLE COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts, $2.50

We Will Buy a Limited Number of O.V.L. Lots

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Lots, $2.50

GENERAL REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Athens knit underwear for ladies, Merc. Co.

Lower floor office for rent in Umbach Building.
making deliveries of pianos sold on their last visit.

A few ladies dusters all good sizes, 25 per cent off. Merc. Co.

Call for No. 700 ladies hose. Best to be had at 25c. Merc. Co.

We have the Holeproof Hose for ladies, 3 for $1.00. Merc. Co.

Mrs. Pearl Ingram was a visitor to town the forepart of the week.

L. A. Carriker, of the West Side, was one of Tuesday's visitors.

James Wakefield, a leading business man of Silver Lake, is in town.

Henry Fox, of the West Side, was one of Saturday's visitors in town.

Bert Tatro, of the West Side, was in town Monday on a business visit.

S. J. Dutton was up from Davis Creek this week on a business visit.

If you want a really good smoke for a rickie, try Storkman's Leader.

Get your goods hauled by fast freight. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5

For Rent—house and barn, enquire of Fred Spangenberg. Aug 30 Oct 1

Improved White sewing machine for sale at a bargain. Apply at this office.

Teams wanted at Pandango Lumber Co., for hauling lumber. Sept 26

Zac Whitworth accompanied D. P. Malloy to Beed after a bunch of fine bucks.

J. C. Sheilhammer, of the Crooked Creek country, was one of Saturday's visitors.

H. W. Drenkel recently purchased from John Stindt two lots in Watson's addition.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Corv and children visited relatives at Bly during the past week.

J. Frankl, Gus Schlagel and W. F. Payne paid Alturas a business visit last week.

Goods or baggage entrusted to me will receive prompt and careful attention. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 8

G. G. Brown has been reelected clerk of the State Land Board for a term of four years.

L. D. Hoy, [the] Summer Lake stockman and rancher, was one of last week's visitors.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. E. E. Woodcock on September 20th.

John Fitzerald, the Warner stockman, was in town last week attending to some business.

J. J. Van Keulen, a leading business man of Warner, came over Tuesday on a business trip.

The days are beginning to get much shorter, which is sure a indication that fall is not far off.

Little Lillian Utley is reported to be still quite ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dykeman.

Mrs. W. S. Blair and children, of Paisley, spent several days in town during the past week.

Mrs. Faye Keene this week at the U. S. Land office filed on a timber claim in Sec. 4. 35-17.

A fine large 20-foot wood shed has been erected at the rear of the Jackson residence on Main street.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Hugo G. Weal, of the Drews Valley ranch, last week filed on 160 acres of desert land in that vicinity.

The plot of W. Y. Miller's addition to Paisley was approved by the County Court at its session last week.

Steve Moss, the well known Paisley rancher and stockman, is now spending a few days here with his family.

Miss Clara Thruston has been employed this week in Doctor Boyd's office, during the latter's absence.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Mrs. Alien, of MacDowell Creek, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chris Langslet the forepart of the week.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will give a Bazaar and dinner on Thanksgiving, November 30, 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Chandler and children have moved in from their Drews Valley ranch for the winter.

Dave Fouts is back in town again after a short absence which included visits to various parts of the county.

Mrs. Thos. S. Farrell is expected home this week after an extended visit to her old home at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner's office. Sept 14 U

Fast freight team from Davis Creek to Lakeview, round trip every three days. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5

Storkman uses only the best of tobacco in the manufacture of his cigars. Try them and be convinced.

Geo. Conn, the well known farmer, miller and all round business man of Paisley, is stopping at Hotel Lakeview.

Leave orders for fast freight at Lakeview Merc. Co., Hotel Lakeview, J. P. Duckworth, L. B. Moss. 814 OS

Albert Culbertson was in from the Dog Lake country on Friday, but left the forepart of this week for Thomas Creek.

Dr. W. R. Boyd, Saturday afternoon, left for the south on a business visit. He will return the latter part of the week.

Fred Ahlstrom, of the Monogram store, has just returned from a business visit to California and Nevada points.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bernard and daughters, Misses Ruth and Ellen have moved in from the ranch for the winter.

B. C. Thomas, a special agent of the General Land Office, is now spending a few days in this section on official business.

Many of the ranchers have again moved into town during the past week in order that their children might go to school.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling yesterday returned from the big huckleberry patch. They secured about 25 gallons of berries.

For sale, good 7 room house and two acres of land; withh. two blocks of public school. Inquire at the Examiner's office.

George McCool, who has been employed at the Bell sawmill on Camp Creek, was in town last week on a several day's visit.

The Joe Fuller and George Whorton residences are now very nearly completed, and will certainly be a welcome addition to the town.

Raymond Dunbar returned during the week from Portland, where he has been spending several months on a visit with relatives.

Guv Cronemiller, Carl and Hugo Umbach and Will Storkman are now enjoying a few day's outing in the Chewaucan country.

A new dance termed "the walk," is now enjoying quite a little popularity here. As the name implies, it resembles a walk more than a dance.

The Colorado Hotel and Cafe have had signs painted on both front windows this week, the work being done under the supervision of Tom Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd and Kale Shepherd, who are associated with their father in the piano business, are now spending a few days here.

The Examiner acknowledges receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Pendleton Round-Up, which begins today and lasts the remainder of the week.

F. Fetsch, the new tailor, is now busy fixing up his new quarters in the Moore building on Main street. He expects to occupy the same in a few days.

One of our Paisley visitors states that his town is soon to have a bank, which will be installed by Bend capitalists. That certainly looks business-like.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, with little daughter, have been spending a few days here during the past week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur.

Al Roberts has accepted the agency of the noted Lamm clothing, and has just received samples of all the latest weaves, which he is now displaying.

A dance is to be held tomorrow evening at the Clover Flat school building, and it is expected that several of our townpeople will make the trip for the occasion.

Raymond Utley, of the West Side, is now in town having been called by the serious illness of his daughter Lillian, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dykeman.

For sale 3 room house and lot with furniture and 10 acres of land. No reasonable offer refused if taken at once. Inquire 3 doors west of Geo. Batchelder place. * Aug 24.

Supervisor Brown, of the Forest Service, last week left for the Warner country to attend the annual round-up of beef cattle from the summer range on the National Forest.

An auto party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boone, last week came down from the Chewaucan country and remained over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Rice has returned here from Sacramento, where she had been enjoying a visit with relatives since the first of July. She is now acting as teacher in the local school.

Mrs. Sim Arthur is still reported to be quite ill at her home on the Slash, and it is hoped by her many local friends that her condition will improve greatly during the next few days.

Last week D. P. Browne and E. H. Peterson came over from Bidwell. They were accompanied by Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Browne who left for their winter home at Berkeley.

Dan Malloy, the local business man, Saturday morning left for Burns and on his return will bring back several hundred head of fine bucks, which he will offer for sale to the local sheepmen.

Guv Causey of the telephone company, this morning started on a hunting trip in quest of bear into the Sycan country. He was accompanied on the trip by the two Curtis boys of Valley Falls.

E. Casebeer, the well known Bly stockman and rancher, was in town last week on matters of business before the U. S. land office. He purchased an 80-acre isolated tract in his section.

Beginning with Sunday next the early Sunday services at the Catholic church will be held at 8 a. m. instead of 7, as heretofore. This change was announced several days ago by Father Schmidt.

Steve Downs, who has been employed for several months past at Paisley, is now spending a few days in town. Steve was surprised to see the wonderful transformation in building since his last visit.

An auto party consisting of Harry Bailey, Sam Cresaler and Ernest Clark, took a trip to the lake several evenings ago, and returned with several fine geese, which no doubt tasted as fine as they looked.

Mr. O. E. Werner, who has been in charge of the Presbyterian congregation here for some months past, Saturday left for San Anselmo to re-enter school. He will continue his studies for the ministry.

Gabriel Arzner, who was quite seriously injured last week when a hay rack fell and broke one of his ribs, has returned to Camp Creek after spending a few days in town under the care of a doctor.

Al Smith, manager of the Opera House, last week proved that he also possesses theatrical ability when he took the part of "policeman," moustache and all, at one of the plays. Al made quite a hit, too.

A party consisting of John Venator, L. Vanderool and Guy Ingram, Saturday, returned to town from a deer hunting expedition and brought back a fine large buck. The animal was slain by Mr. Ingram.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Montgomery returned several days ago from a week's honeymoon trip spent in Reno and other Nevada points. Both are now receiving the congratulations of their numerous local friends.

F. A. Fitzpatrick last week went over to Klamath Falls on a business visit. He made the trip in his big Franklin and was accompanied by Dr. B. Dalv, Henry Newell and Bert Harber as mechanic.

Charlie Arthur has just completed the job of painting the roof of his house on West Street. If anyone doubts Charlie's ability at handling the brush, let them examine the roof and see for themselves.

L. R. Jones, editor of the Chewaucan Press, last week paid Lakeview a visit. Mr. Jones states that everything in his town is just booming, and we expect to hear much from it in the future. The Examiner acknowledges a pleasant call.

Frank Bunting has returned from a trip to the northern part of the county. Frank accompanied E. E. Free, the Government geological expert who has been gathering specimens of soil in the vicinity of the various lakes throughout the county.

William Keppel Barry, the local sheepman, has returned from a visit to Burns. Several thousand sheep were for sale at that place at the very low price of $2 per head, but William arrived too late to purchase them, as they had already been sold.

Miss Dorothy Bieber, who has been spending a few months vacation here with her parents, Saturday morning, left for San Jose to enter school. Miss Bieber has shown much ability in music, and her studies during the coming year will be along that line.

Arthur Florence, of the Mercantile Company, last week returned home after a short business visit in San Francisco. He was accompanied on the return trip by his wife and daughter, who had been spending a several month's vacation in Southern California.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church met with Mrs. D. C. Schmink last Wednesday, Sept. 6th. Everyone present spent a very pleasant afternoon. Those present were, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Cronemiller, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Seimen, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Moss, Mrs. V. L. Snelling, Mrs. Cloud, Mrs. Woodcock, Mrs. Eoh Miller, Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Angstead, Mrs. Patch, Mrs. T. E. Bernard, Mrs. Dyer, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Schmink, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Fred Cronemiller and Mrs. L. Bailey, Secy.

Diarrhea is always more or less prevalent during September. Be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy is prompt and effectual. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by all good dealers.

Notice to Sheepmen
I will have 600 Ramboulette rams for sale here Sept 25th. See me. Sept 7-28 D. P. MALOY.

Thoroughbred Bucks FOR SALE

CAN BE SEEN AT GARBA PLACE, 4 MILES EAST OF LIKELY, CAL.

Nevada and California Land and Livestock Co., Reno, Nev.

Brown Cheviots

Let us suggest a GLOBE "Needle-Molded" suit in the prevailing Brown Cheviot.

As representatives of The Globe Tailoring Co.
CINCINNATI

we can show you some browns that cannot be equalled for exclusiveness of design and superiority of weave and texture.

Come in and look over our 500 patterns.

PRICES $20 to $40

AGENTS:
THE ECONOMY STORE
LAKEVIEW, OREGON

We are now open and ready for business in the Snider Block with an extensive line of high grade Men's Furnishing Goods. Among the well known brands are: Earl & Wilson's Shirts and Collars; Gordon Hats and Fur Coats; Sweet Orr Overalls and Working Men's Clothing. Standard Merchandise at prices that are right.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON
Lakeview Oregon

LADIES' WAIST SALE

Every Waist in the house to go at 25% off in the next ten days. This includes all our WHITE and SILK WAISTS priced at $1.75 to $7.00. We must have room for Fall Goods, and you get the benefit. All this year's goods and strictly up-to-date. TEN DAYS ONLY.

THE LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.