

LAKE COUNTY LAND AND TITLE COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts, $2.50

We Will Buy a Limited Number of O. V. L. Lots

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Lots, $2.50

GENERAL REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Athens knit underwear for ladies, Merc. Co.

Lower floor office for rent in Umbach building.

Mrs. Matt McCullev, of Cedarville is a visitor here.

Born Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Morris—a son.

Get your goods hauled by fast freight. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5

J. A. Rice, of Myrtle Creek, was one of Tuesday's visitors.

Cecil Taylor, of Pine Creek, was one of last week's visitors.

For rent—house and barn, enquire of Fred Spangenberg. Aug 30 Oct 1

Bran and middlings $20 per ton at the Lakeview Flour Mills. 9-28w2.

A few ladies dusters all good sizes. 25 per cent off. Merc. Co.

S. C. Campbell, of Drews Dam, was one of Saturday's arrivals.

We have the Holeproof Hose for ladies, 3 for $1.00. Merc. Co.

Flour only $2.50 per hundred at the Lakeview Flour Mills. 9-28w2.

Call for No. 700 ladies hose. Best to be had at 25c. Merc. Co.

Teams wanted at Fandango Lumber Co., for hauling lumber. Sept 26

E. J. Davis, of Paisley, was a visitor here the forepart of the week.

If you want a really good smoke for a tickle, try Storkman's Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bennett, of Warner were among this week's visitors.

Ernest L. H. Meyer, the Valley Falls business man, was in town last week.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek, was in town Saturday for supplies.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Dave Adler, the sheep king, was in town Monday attending to various business details.

Hall & Reynolds have received a full line of school books and school supplies. Sept 7-28

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox, of the West Side, are now spending a few days in town.

R. B. Daly, of the Salt Creek section, was in town Monday attending to some business.

M. B. Rice Sunday left on a business visit to Klamath Falls, expecting to return today.

Miss Trixie MacVeigh has accepted a position as clerk in the office of County Assessor Foster.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office. Sept 14 Oct 1

Judge E. M. Brattain Tuesday morning left for Paisley to look after some business interests.

Fast freight team from Davis Creek to Lakeview, round trip every three days. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5

Dave McAuliffe, the sheepman, was in town over Sunday combining business with pleasure.

Goods or baggage entrusted to me will receive prompt and careful attention. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5

C. W. Withers, the Summer Lake stockman and rancher, was in town the forepart of the week.

It is proposed at Corvallis, in planting trees, to apportion a distinct tree to each thoroughfare.

Office for rent, lately occupied by the Southern Oregon Realty Co. Apply Geo. Jammertal. Sept 28 Oct 1

Mrs. A. Storkman and daughter, Miss Louise, Sunday left on a visit to relatives at Sisson, Cal.

F. B. Houston, of South Warner, was in town Saturday attending to various business matters.

Dr. W. R. Boyd returned Friday last after spending a few days in Reno and other southern points.

J. T. Flock, a prominent stockman of the Rock Creek section, Tuesday, came into town on business.

Arthur Yates, proprietor of the Alturas Garage, was a business visitor here on Monday of this week.

Leave orders for fast freight at Lakeview Merc. Co., Hotel Lakeview, J. P. Duckworth, L. B. Moss. 814 OS

Finis Hickerson, of Bidwell, was one of last week's visitors in town, being the guest of his brother, Jay.

F. W. Klippel, of Summer Lake, has been at work in County Assessor Foster's office during the week.

John McDonough is taking orders for Sauer Kraut from one gallon up and will be ready in two weeks.

Pat Breen, of the Warren Laird ranch at Blue Joint, is now spending a few days here enjoying a well earned rest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Combs have rented the Dr. W. R. Boyd residence, and are to occupy the same in a few days.

C. H. Dusenberry, the land locator, was in town this week from Bend. He has turned into a veritable "Bend Booster."

The Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., held a well attended meeting Thursday night last, at which one candidate was initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis, of Pine Creek, were in town the forepart of the week on a visit to their many local friends.

The O. E. S. Needle Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. Laird Thomson. The author to be discussed is Thackeray.

Tom Sagris, who has a contract for grading work on the N.-C.-O. extension to Lakeview, was in town the forepart of this week.

Man Whorton and Geo. B. Graves returned Wednesday evening after a several days hunting trip in the Drews Valley country.

W. T. Cressler's 2-year-old steers netted him $49.52 per head, which makes a record price for this section of the country.

Miss Laura Snelling has accepted a position as teacher in the Plush school, and expects to leave in a few days to commence her duties.

Monday afternoon we were visited by one of the hardest wind storms so far this season. Showers of large hail accompanied the wind.

Louis and Adolph Kirchoff, of Marcus, Iowa, were among the out of town people who registered at Hotel Lakeview during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faulkner, of Cedarville, were visitors here the forepart of the week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling.

The usual large number of local sportsmen went to the Lake on Sunday last and returned with some fine specimens of ducks and geese.

William Arzner was confined to his home for several days last week with an attack of rheumatism. He is now feeling greatly improved.

Mrs. Ida Ritter was quite seriously injured at Davis Creek one day last week by being thrown from a horse, having several ribs broken.

Walt L. Dutton and sister, Miss Kate, of Davis Creek, Sunday, left for Corvallis where they will attend the Oregon Agricultural College.

During the absence of Editor Bert Rice, his place on the Herald is being filled by W. Roche Fick, who has had much newspaper experience.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Combs, of Summer Lake, last week came down from that place and expect to reside here permanently from now on.

Miss Vida Chrisman, of Silver Lake, and Michael Sult, of Summer Lake, will attend the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis this year.

An adjourned term of County Court will convene Monday to consider business of importance. All members of the Court will be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, of MacDowell Creek, have returned home after spending a few days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Langset.

Mrs. Robt. L. Weir, formerly Miss Fannie Tonningson, of this place, has been a visitor here for several days as the guest of Miss Alice McGrath.

Alfalfa seed is selling for 15 cents per pound here now, says the Sunrise Valley Record, and the crop will be the largest ever raised in this valley.

J. O'Neill, of the Davis Creek Orchard Company, is now in the Dakotas combining business with pleasure. He will probably return in a few days.

A great deal of improvement work is now being done on the road along in front of the Shirk, Boyd, Sherlock and Cory residences on south main street.

"Uncle" Joe Morrow, of the Warner country, was in town over Sunday and remained here renewing old acquaintances for several days the forepart of the week.

At Roberts has accepted the agency of the noted Lamm clothing, and has just received samples of all the latest weaves, which he is now displaying.

W. I. Diesman, father of Mrs. A. E. Imbler, of Summer Lake, died at Berkeley, Cal., a few days since. Mrs. Imbler had the body taken to Portland for burial.

W. J. Nixon, of the Mud Creek station Monday, came into town for supplies. The simple life seems to agree with Bill for he looks both prosperous and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Barcher Monday left for Salem, where they will make their home. Mr. Barcher expects to engage in furniture repairing at the capital city.

A. G. Duhme, of the Fandango Lumber Mill, Tuesday, came up from Willow Ranch on matters of business. He reports everything progressing nicely down his way.

Mrs. Ed Tatro and son, Ed arrived from Gaston, Tuesday on a visit to relatives and friends. They are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tatro, of Cottonwood.

Guy Causey has returned after a several week's hunting trip in the Sycan and Chewaucan country. He was accompanied on the trip by the Curtis boys, of Valley Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCullev this week left for San Francisco to spend the winter. Mr. McCullev's health has not been good recently, and the change is made on that account.

F. Fetsch, the new tailor, Saturday opened his "Matchless Store," in the Moore building on Main street with a full line of suits and other articles of wearing apparel for men.

John Lewis, now a resident of Pine Creek, was in town Monday and Tuesday renewing acquaintances. John still retains his fondness for Lakeview, as shown by frequent visits.

Work was commenced the forepart of this week on the new residence being erected by Dick Wilcox just opposite the High School. The work is in charge of Contractor John Arzner.

Byron Graves, who has been employed here as a brickmason for sometime past, Friday, left for Alturas, where he has accepted a position on the new school building being erected at that place.

Charles and Gus Volk, of Davis Creek, Tuesday, passed through town enroute from the northern part of the county. The latter filed on a homestead in Sec. 28, 26-15, adjoining that of the former.

Bill Burch, of Adel, was a visitor here over Sunday. Bill has a great fondness for Lakeview and can't resist the temptation of coming over occasionally to see how everything is progressing.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wittaker, of Raymond, Nebraska, last week arrived here to become permanent residents of Lake County. They are now occupying one of the Brvan ranches north of Crooked Creek.

Curt Hall, a prominent citizen of Medford, has been visiting his brother, Dr. T. V. Hall, during the past week. Incidentally he took occasion to visit the swamps and succeeded in bagging a number of ducks.

John Fitzgerald has sold his Warner Valley ranch and will probably locate in Sunrise Valley. Jules Janesaud was the purchaser and he has also leased Mr. Fitzgerald's sheep for a period of three years.

Metolius Central Oregonian: A work train carrying 150 laborers and a large volume of equipment has arrived and will remain three or four months, laying additional side tracks and doing other work in the yards.

R. T. Baldwin is over from Klamath Falls on a business trip. His business is installation septic tanks for the disposal of sewage, and there is certainly a decided emergency existing along that line here in Lakeview.

Frank Gunther, the local auto expert, has just opened up a repair shop in Harry Bailey's auto garage, and is now ready to remedy all kinds of motor troubles. Frank will also have two autos for rent at all times.

Rev. M. T. Wire has been reapointed to this charge and he is expected back Saturday evening. Mr. Wire has made himself popular with all classes here in Lakeview and his reapointment meets with popular approval.

A highly successful millinery opening showing the display of fall hats, was held Saturday afternoon at the Parisian Millinery. A great many of the ladies were present during the course of the afternoon and evening.

Guy and Lynn Cronemiller Sunday left for Corvallis to resume their studies, in the Oregon Agricultural College. The former is taking a course in electrical engineering while the latter is taking the forestry course.

Southstone Bros. have fixed up a sort of a trail wagon to be used in connection with an auto. They have put an open box on the chassis of V. L. Snelling's old car, and the combination makes an ideal delivery proposition.

Mrs. John McCullev, accompanied by her son, Jake, Monday morning, left for John Day, where they expect to spend a few weeks as the guests of Mrs. McCullev's sister. The entire trip will be made by wagon and team.

Sunday last was a great display day for fall hats, practically every woman in town appearing on the streets with one. The writer was at first inclined to believe it was Easter, but a consultation of the calendar showed otherwise.

A farewell dinner in honor of Miss Brides Flynn, who is soon to leave for San Francisco, was given Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. McAuliffe. Quite a few friends were present for the occasion, and a very nice social time was enjoyed by all.

A few days since F. W. Foster, of Summer Lake, caught three young fellows in the act of swindling some of his grain. They had taken six sacks and hidden them in a plum patch, but on their promise "to sin no more" they were released.

Street corner sales are becoming scarce locally, but Saturday afternoon last one was held at Bieber's corner. The usual large number of people were in attendance, and some very nice furniture and other goods were sold at low prices.

A change of quarters has been made by several occupants of the Court House. Sheriff W. B. Snider has removed his offices to the County School Superintendent's room, while Assessor Foster is now located in the room vacated by the Sheriff.

During Monday's rain storm and wind, portions of two trees in the yards of Man Whorton and W. P. Dykeman were blown completely off from the trunk of the tree. The electric light wire at the Whorton residence was torn down when the tree fell.

The Band Boys are to give a dance at the Opera House tomorrow evening, and it is expected that an extra large number will be present. The boys have been doing considerable practice work of late, and we have their promise of an exceedingly fine musical program.

Miss Edith Ogle, of Slash Street, had the misfortune to swallow a pin one day last week and for a time it was thought that the same might prove fatal. A doctor was hastily summoned and the young lady's suffering somewhat relieved. She is now about as usual.

Alturas Plaindealer: W. Laird Thomson, the Lakeview attorney, was in town Saturday. He came down on business connected with the suit of Hereford vs. Porter, but as the case is in process of compromise it was postponed and Mr. Thomson returned to Lakeview.

Quite a few of the sheeppens' arks are now arriving in town for repairs and in some cases en route for the desert country. During the next few months we may expect to see many bands of sheep along the roads leading to town, all traveling from summer to winter ranges.

A very fine cement walk has been laid in front of the new I. O. O. F. building, and the interior work on the structure is fast nearing completion. The store on the ground floor, which is to be occupied by Auten & Rhinehart, will be ready for that firm to move into in a few days now.

Attorney Charles Combes left here Friday morning last for Klamath Falls where he went to represent Mrs. Jonas Norin's interests in the automobile contest conducted by the Evening Herald. He started from here with over a million votes for Lake County's only contestant for the trophy.

Mart Hopkins, who is well known locally, has removed from town to his ranch on the West Side. For the past few months Mart has been making a detailed study of some of ex-President Roosevelt's theories on the "simple life," and decided last week to give it a fair trial, hence his removal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bigelow have removed all their belonging to their new home at Davis Creek. The offices occupied by the Southern Oregon Realty Co. and the Lakeview Development Co., both of which were in charge of Mr. Bigelow, have also been dismantled and the equipment sent along to Davis Creek.

Frank T. Gunther is located at Harry Bailey's garage and is prepared to do all kinds of repair work on any kind of an instrument from a watch to an automobile. He also carries a full line of auto supplies, sold at city prices. Automobiles for hire any time day or night. "When you go with Gunther you'll sure get back on schedule time." Has the agency for several different machines, sold and delivered at Lakeview at city prices. Phone No., garage, 31. Residence, 941. Sept 23-Oct 19.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

What you want for the colder weather is an all-wool

Mackinaw Coat

Light in weight—keeps you warm and dry.

We have them in plain colors—blues, greens, reds and greys—also plaids.

Priced at $7.00, $7.50 and $8.00.

Come in and try one on.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON
Lakeview : : : Oregon

LADIES' WAIST SALE

Every Waist in the house to go at 25% off in the next ten days. This includes all our WHITE and SILK WAISTS priced at $1.75 to $7.00. We must have room for Fall Goods, and you get the benefit. All this year's goods and strictly up-to-date. TEN DAYS ONLY.

THE LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.