

LAKE COUNTY LAND AND TITLE COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts, $2.50

We Will Buy a Limited Number of O. V. L. Lots

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Lots, $2.50

GENERAL REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Lakeview flour $2.50 per 100 at the mill. Oct 5-12
 La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc. Co.
 Bran and middlings $20 per ton at the Lakeview Flour Mills. 9-28w2.
 Lakeview flour, $2.50 per 100 at the mill. Oct 5-12
 Lower floor office for rent in Umbach building.
 Flour only $2.50 per hundred at the Lakeview Flour Mills. 9-28w2.
 Get your goods hauled by fast freight. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5
 For Rent—house and barn, enquire of Fred Spangenberg. Aug 30
 John Cronin, the Adel rancher, was one of Monday's arrivals.
 Ladies and misses sweaters, nice range of colors. Merc. Co.
 A baby boy was born Sunday evening to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Moffitt.
 Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc. Co.
 A. E. Follett, of Pine Creek, was a visitor here during the week.
 We make a specialty of fine box candy. The Frost Candy Kitchen.
 Teams wanted at Fandango Lumber Co., for hauling lumber. Sept 26
 H. M. Fleming, the Pine Creek business man, was one of Tuesday's visitors.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sherlock, of Alturas were visitors here over Sunday.
 O. W. Jacobs, a well known stockman of Warner, has been in town this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner have now moved into their new house on Slash street.
 For rent a thoroughly modern furnished room, bath in connection. Phone 932. Oct 5
 W. C. Laird is over from Warner to meet Mrs. Laird on her return from California.
 Cloud's Candy Kitchen is where you get fresh candy. We make it every day.
 D. A. Handbury, a rancher of the West Side, Monday, came into town for supplies.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riggs were over from Plush this week on a visit to local friends.
 Earl Abbott, of the Forest Service, is now enjoying a few days vacation on annual leave.
 H. L. Chandler, proprietor of the northern stage lines, was one of last week's visitors.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kirkbustrik were in from Willow Ranch, the forepart of the week.
 Auction sale of household goods on Saturday, October 7th, at 2 o'clock at Bieber's corner.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCulley, of Pine Creek, were among last week's visitors in town.
 Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office. Sept 24
 Fast freight team from Davis Creek to Lakeview, round trip every three days. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5
 Micheal Rau, of the Auver Valley section, Friday came into town on matters of business.
 Goods or baggage entrusted to me will receive prompt and careful attention. L. B. Moss. Sept 14 Oct 5
 Lakeview lodge No. 63, I. O. O. F., will hold a regular meeting in the new hall Saturday evening.
 Office for rent, lately occupied by the Southern Oregon Realty Co. Apply Geo. Jannerthal. Sept 28
 Temple Converse, a rancher of Pine Creek section, was in town Saturday attending to some business.
 Pat Murphy, the well known Plush business man, Friday came over from Warner on a business visit.
 Tom Sherlock, the Alturas business man, was in town the forepart of the week on a visit with friends.
 W. Lair Thompson's machine broke down yesterday 25 miles out from Burns while en route for Bend.
 Mrs. J. W. Maxwell, who was reported quite sick last week, is now feeling considerably improved.
 John Flynn, accompanied by his sister, Miss Christine, Sunday, went over to Plush on a few days visit with friends.

W. H. Roush, a well known rancher and stockman of Abert Lake, was in town this week after sunnies.
 Mr. and Mrs. Don D. Baxter were made happy Monday evening by the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.
 Harvey Proctor, grandson of Mrs. Mary Russell, this week left for Sites, Cal., where he expects to remain.
 Clay Penland returned the forepart of the week after a several weeks absence in the Chewaucan country.
 Be sure and attend the dance given by the Wizard Dancing Club, at the Skating Rink Hall, Saturday night.
 Everybody is guaranteed a good time at the Wizard Dancing Club's dance at the Skating Rink Hall, Saturday night.
 We are sole agents of this city for the well known brand of Lowrey's chocolates. Cloud's Candy Kitchen.
 Leave orders for fast freight at Lakeview Merc. Co., Hotel Lakeview, J. P. Duckworth, L. B. Moss. 811 OS
 A. G. Duhme, of the Fandango sawmill, was in from Willow Ranch over Sunday attending to some business matters.
 The Masonic lodge will hold a meeting Saturday evening, and all members in good standing are requested to be present.
 W. R. Clack and family, who arrived in Lakeview last Spring, will return to their old home at Dallas, Texas, in a few days.
 Miss Laura Snelling, Sunday, left for Plush, where she has accepted a position as teacher of the school at that place.
 The residence being built by J. G. Campbell is far enough completed so that the family expect to move in about Saturday.
 Miss Gladys Lofftus is reported to be quite ill with appendicitis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lofftus.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, of the Summer Lake section were in town the forepart of the week renewing acquaintances.
 Guy Anstead, who has been employed at the Andrew Morris ranch, was in town the forepart of the week on business.
 W. P. Curtis, of the ZX ranch at Valley Falls, Monday, came down on business and also to attend the Utley-Curtis nuptials.
 Bill Pitta, working under the supervision of Marshal Ernest Brown, is now busy laying crosswalks in various parts of town.
 The winter schedule on the Western stage line is now in effect, and both east and west bound stages remain at Blv over night.
 B. S. Ghisan, of Paisley, was another of the many people from that bustling little town who appeared in our midst during the week.
 Good music and a good time are to be the main features of the dance to be given by the Wizard Dancing Club, Saturday night.
 The plumbing in the High school building is now being installed under the supervision of R. T. Baldwin, of Klamath Falls.
 Charley Adams, who has been in charge of some tracts at Willow Ranch owned by Lakeview people, is spending a few days in town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Linville, with family, expect to move in a short time to Summer Lake, where they intend to reside permanently.
 Mr. and Mrs. Philip Barry, of Guano Valley, last week came into town for a few days visit and are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Shea.
 J. H. Greene, formerly an employee of the Hotel Lakeview and who is now located in the Warner country, was a visitor here for several days this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Curtis, of Valley Falls, were in town Monday and Tuesday to attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Persis, to Harry Utley.
 C. L. Beecraft, postmaster at Vistillis and a well known stockman of that section, was in town Tuesday attending to various business matters.
 Charles Weyburn, Wednesday, returned via Klamath Falls after a several weeks visit to Oakland. Charlie reports an excellent time while absent.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahan have moved from the Dan Chandler residence to the house on West Street formerly occupied by J. C. Bigelow.
 Another great railroad strike is now on, and "both sides are confident of victory" as usual. Thirty-five thousand men in the employ of the Southern Pacific and allied lines struck last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Drenkel and daughter Clara have returned from an extended visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago and other cities in the middle west.
 A new chimney was erected the forepart of the week at the rear of A. Kaufman's jewelry store. The work was done under the supervision of Sam Bailey.
 Mrs. Francis Nyawner who has been absent for several weeks on a trip to Nevada points, Friday, returned to town and is now at the home of her mother.
 F. H. Pawcett, Deputy United States Game Warden, Tuesday, returned after a several weeks absence in Paisley, Silver Lake and tributary sections.
 W. J. Nixon, of the Mud Creek station, again appeared on our streets Monday. Bill certainly has a fondness for Lakeview as evidenced by his frequent visits.
 A large band of sheep passed through town early Sunday morning for the Sherlock ranch down the Valley. The band was the property of Kelliher & Sherlock.
 Bill Simmons, the Valley Falls taxidermist, was in town Monday. Incidentally Bill was present at the wedding of his business partner, Harry Utley.
 The Cedarville Record is informed that Elwood Jaquish finished threshing his alfalfa last week, and off six acres he got 86 bushels of seed. How is that for a yield?
 Clarence Rinehart, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Stone, Sunday, took an auto trip to Valley Falls and spent the day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Stone of that place.
 The G. B. Wardwell family of Silver Lake passed through town the forepart of the week en route to California, where they purchased a ranch and are to reside permanently.
 The Lakeview Abstract Company have removed their offices from the Hall & Reynolds' building to the office formerly occupied by the Southern Oregon Realty Company.
 Dan Malloy and Frank Gunther were among the local contingent who went over to the Falls last week to attend the Klamath County Fair. The trip was made in Dan's auto.
 The weather continues to grow colder and the days shorter, all of which forbodes the approach of winter. How many have put in the winter's wood supply? Better get busy.
 J. W. Nelson, Frank Barnes and Curtis Duvall have been down from Summer Lake this week on business matters. The former made yearly proof on his desert claim Monday.
 The large number of duck hunters hid themselves to the lake on Sunday last and returned with some fine specimens as a result of the day's work. It was an ideal day for the sport.
 T. H. Cloud secured a good bag of ducks and geese Tuesday evening, included being several big honkers. Tom distributed a part of the game among his friends, much to their gratification.
 A meeting of the Degree of Honor will be held in the Masonic Hall this evening and two candidates are to be initiated. After the meeting refreshments will be served by a committee.
 Last week a small band of gypsies passed through town and remained over night. The women of the party called at many houses to tell fortunes and to sell various articles which they had to sell.
 A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dykeman and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dutton, the latter of Davis Creek, Monday morning, started on a trip to the Coast. They expect to be absent about a month.
 Andrew Morris, the Camas rancher, last week sold thirty seven head of two year old steers to Jim Dodson at nine and one quarter cents per pound. This is considered to be a very good price.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mushen have returned from Silver Lake, where Mr. Mushen has been employed for some time past taking measurements on Silver Creek and doing other engineering work for the county.
 S. L. Loring, a former resident of the Silver Lake country who recently came here from Portland, Tuesday, accepted a position with A. G. Duhme, of the Fandango Saw Mill and left for Willow Ranch to enter on his duties. Mr. Loring has done considerable traveling throughout the United States, Mexico and British Columbia and tells many interesting episodes in connection therewith.

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism. A few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment will give relief. For sale by all dealers.
 F. M. Miller, the local banker and business man Monday, returned after a short absence in California points. His family are now located in Berkeley, where the boys, Vinton and Hobart, are attending school.
 Dr. E. H. Smith, Earl Abbott, Guy Ingram and Andrew Foster Monday started for the Sellers Marsh country on a bear hunting expedition. They expect to supply the town's demand for juicy bear meat on return.
 Some of the small funnel-shaped cards are being received by many people here from businessmen at Bend. The cards are sent out as an advertisement of railroad day in that city, which is to be celebrated tomorrow.
 Many Klamath Indians are now in this section purchasing their winter supply of fruit. There is a marked difference in many ways between the Klamaths and our local Indians, which is very noticeable when they are together.
 Five prisoners, among them being F. E. Thornett, Dr. J. Grant Lyman's confederate, made their escape from the Klamath County jail Saturday night by digging through the walls. Dr. Lyman and a dozen other inmates remained in jail.
 Samuel Stone, of the Valley Falls section, was in town several days last week and on his return trip took back a large load of supplies for the hotel at that place. Mr. Stone states that many homesteaders are now locating in the Chewaucan country.
 A new steam laund will be opened for business in a few days as soon as several of the parts arrive from the railroad station. The business will be conducted in the building owned by John Duckworth at the rear of the Loren Bailey residence.
 Gilbert D. Brown and Norman Jacobson, of the Forest Service, Wednesday, returned from the Crater National Forest, where they have been busy for the past week making studies of some of the big timber sales now under progress in that country.
 The dance given by the Band boys on Friday night was very much of a success. A large number of people turned out for the occasion and all were highly pleased with the fine musical program rendered. The affair broke up about 3 a. m. Saturday morning.
 Ned Sherlock has resigned his position as Deputy State Fire Warden, the fire season being now over, and has returned to town from the Newell ranch, where he was stationed during the summer months. He expects to leave for California in a short time to attend school.
 Commencing Saturday Valley Falls will have three mails a week instead of two as at present. Hereafter mails will leave Lakeview for Valley Falls every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, while on the alternate days the mail will come around that way from Paisley.
 One of the most interesting films yet shown at the Arcadia was that showing the building of the Panama canal. The pictures were shown Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and gave an excellent idea of the huge machinery and rapidity of the work which is being accomplished.
 County Commissioner Anderson arrived from Lake Sunday to be in attendance at the adjourned term of County Court. Mr. Anderson states that the northern part of the county is in excellent shape and that the people are pleased with the outlook for a bright future in that section.
 The Margaret Iles Company, who are well known to local theatre goers, Saturday, appeared at the Opera House in "At the Risk of His Life." The Company came over from Surprise Valley in two autos, behind which was hitched the Southstone Brothers wagon, carrying all the trunks, scenery, etc.
 We pay cash for any Oregon Sessions Laws before 1860. Also want Senate Journals 1862 and 1864. Also Codes 1851, Journal of Council 1851, Statutes 1854 and of 1855, and Code of Civil Procedure and General Laws 1862, and Archives 1843-1849. Write Geo. A. Bateson & Co., Inc., Portland, Oregon.
 Several isolated tracts of land have been sold at the U. S. Land Office during the past week. James G. Foster purchasing one of 40 acres in the Summer Lake region, while J. E. McCool and W. Roche Fick each purchased one in the northern part of the county. The price paid was $1.25 per acre in each instance.

 Charles Weyburn, of the Forest Service, announces his marriage on September 22, at Oakland, to Miss Theresa Smedman. Mr. Weyburn is now in this city having returned several days ago, and his wife will reach here in a few weeks. The Examiner joins in wishing them a prosperous and happy life.
 Frank T. Gauthier is located at Harry Bailey's garage and is prepared to do all kinds of repair work on any kind of an instrument from a watch to an automobile. He also carries a full line of auto supplies, sold at city prices. Automobiles for hire any time day or night. "When you go with Gauthier you'll sure get back on schedule time." Has the agency for several different machines, sold and delivered at Lakeview at city prices. Phone No., garage, 31. Residence, 941. Sept 29-Oct 10.

What you want for the colder weather is an all-wool

Mackinaw Coat

Light in weight—keeps you warm and dry.

We have them in plain colors—blues, greens, reds, and greys—also plaids.

Priced at $7.00, $7.50 and $8.00.

Come in and try one on.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON
 Lakeview : : : Oregon

La Vogue Suits

We have received our first shipment of these nobby Suits and Coats and are expecting another in a short time. We will have your size and style and guarantee perfect fit and satisfaction. Come in and let us show you the nice points about them.

THE LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.