Lakeview, Oregon, Thursday, October 19, 1911

E. J. Murray, well known in Klamath Falls newspaper circles, has purchased the Chronicle of that city. Murray is a journalist of much ability and under his management the Chronicle should become the leading paper of that growing town.

Hon. John M. Gearin is now being groomed as a Senatorial candidate on the Democratic ticket at the coming state election. However, it is doubtful if he can perform the feat accomplished by Senator Chamberlain and secure a majority over the Republican nominee no matter whom he may be.

Supreme Court Justice Harlan died last Saturday of bronchitis, from which he had been a sufferer for sometime past. Justice Harlan won fame by reading the word "reasonable" into the Sherman law. He was an able jurist and universally respected for his legal learning. His death gives President Taft the fifth appointment to the Supreme bench.

Portland did her self and the State of Oregon proud in the reception tendered President Taft on the occasion of his visit there last Thursday. Thousands of people greeted the nation's chief executive and the line of march was thronged with people who rent the air with cheers as the President passed along. At Salem Governor West introduced the President when he addressed the people. The Governor took a prominent part in the reception at Portland.

H. H. Corey has received the appointment of secretary of the State Railroad Commission, and is now out of politics, so he says. Mr. Corey was chief clerk under the late Secretary of State Benson and when the latter's successor was appointed Mr. Corey seemed a bit disgruntled and announced his intention of being a candidate for the position at the next election. Time has soothed his feelings, and he therefore he announces his withdrawal from the political field.

President Taft has received a great reception on the Coast, insurgents and antagonists vying with each other in true Western hospitality. The reception accorded him was in most instances devoid of political significance, it being accorded him as President of the United States. In California and San Francisco especially was his reception especially warm, it being considered the proudest ovation tendered him on the entire trip. He was met at the state line by Governor Johnson and staff, who attended him on his trip through the state.

While the cause of Woman Suffrage won out by a small majority in California, yet the "antis" do not seem to be discouraged. They believe they will have no difficulty in obtaining the necessary number of signatures to invoke the repeal of the new amendment within 90 days, and will begin their canvass at once. They have $20,000 cash available and the men's anti-suffrage organization is ready to put in two or three times as much. It is understood, not to mention other agencies which would prefer that women should not vote.

Governor West is now preparing his Thanksgiving proclamation. Thanksgiving Day this year will fall on the last day of November. According to advance information received, it is known that President Taft will designate Thursday, November 30, instead of the next to the last Thursday in the month, in spite of the protest from bankers that the holiday falling on the first day of the month would inconvenience them in getting out their reports. In accordance with the presidential proclamation the holiday will be declared by Governor West.

The campaign in Oregon for the re-nominating and re-election of President Taft will be directed by a general committee of 13 representative Republicans of Portland, including, T. B. Wilcox, Ben Selling, A. G. Rushlight, Dr. A. C. Smith, W. B. Aver, D. J. Malarkov, John F. Logan, D. O. Lively, W. Seton, J. P. Porter, Phil Metcham, Jr., John S. Beall, A. E. Clark, W. M. Killingsworth, W. F. Woodward, Amedee M. Smith, J. B. Yeon, and John H. Burgard. This group of the President's supporters will constitute the parent body of an organization that will be made statewide through the formation of auxiliary working committees in every county, save the Oregonian. The personnel of the central, or directing authority, which will be both advisory and executive in its capacity, was announced. It has the cordial endorsement of Charles D. Hillis, secretary to the President.

Successful Dance

At their dance held at the Opera House last night the Catholics were favored with an attendance of about 100 or more couples. A five-piece orchestra furnished the music and delighted the dancers by the rendition of all of the popular pieces. One of the features of the occasion was a dog dance by William Kennel Barry. Mr. Barry certainly showed ability along that line and after he had finished was roundly applauded. The box and basket sale of lunches was also another attraction, and netted in the neighborhood of about $30. Altogether the affair was very much of a success, and will probably net the sum of $100, all of which money will be used towards the construction of the new Catholic church.

Valley Falls Items

Many movers are now on the road on their way to a warmer climate. The residence of B. A. Utley at this place is nearing completion and is a nice improvement.

This is the weather that will make Lake County famous.

Potatoes at 1 1/2 cents, last winter 5 cents; barley 2 cents, last winter 4 1/2 cents, and all vegetables and fruit in proportion is a decided improvement and is the result of new settlers who are turning to these lines.

The house of Wm. Hyde and the barn of W. H. Heckman in the South Cove are new improvements completed this week.

E. L. H. Meyers made a short visit to Lakeview last week.

Mr. McDowell of Wagonire took a load of grain to his place last week.

Mr. Bartling and wife stopped over last Friday on their way to their homestead in Smiths Cove.

Chautauqua Circle

The Chautauqua Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Leslie Seager Monday, October 23. Program: Rolloch, current events, "American and English Women, Humor and Art," (Robinson) chapter V, Miss Burgess, Chapter VI, Mrs. A. Bieber, "Discovery and Conquest in South America," (Chautauquan) "Reading: Journey through South America," I. Van Dyke, Mrs. L. Vanderpool.

Japanese Children

The Japanese child is exceedingly shy and retiring before its elders, and girls are taught to practice this more than boys. In the morning as soon as they are up the children go to their parents in turn, bow their heads to the ground and say "Good morning" or "How is your honorable health?" Before a meal they lift the chopsticks to their foreheads and bow in thanks, whether their parents are present or not, for the meal set before them. Before going out to school or elsewhere and on returning they must kneel before the mother and bow. When father or mother go out the children must go to the porch, kneel down and say "Deign to go forth" or "Honorable return," as the case may be. As soon as infants can bow their heads the nurses train them in these respectful salutations.—Exchange.

Foreigners Misled

Consuls report that badly edited moving picture films in foreign countries sometimes cause ridicule and often are misunderstood. An American film in Malta showed a cowboy and Indian scene of intrigue, deception and fighting. The Indians were in the traditional costume and the cowboys wore their costume and rather exaggerated for the occasion. The label of the film stated that this picture was taken in the United States and that the actor wore the American national costume.

Another similar case is cited of a scene of a holdup in the "cow country" in which several men were killed, followed by a chase on horseback, and a lot of shooting. It had as a subtitle the statement this as an event in regular life in America.

Harrisburg women have turned their attention to practical things and will hold a potato carnival October 18 and 19. This, it is promised, will be "An exhibition of painstaking potato culture, portraying all the progressive methods of planting, peeling and preparing the ever palatable potato." Women are officials of the show.

A Chicago man is reported to have sold "salad" gold mines for $1,500,000 to farmers of Wisconsin and other western states.

J. T. Flook, was over from Rock Creek the first of the week and had several offers for his lambs, but the price was not satisfactory, and hence he made no sale.

Miss Gladys Loftus, who has been quite ill during the past week with appendicitis, is now very much better and will probably be about as usual in a few days now.

Dr. J. S. Morel, State Veterinarian, of Portland, and Dr. H. E. Pinkerton, of the stock inspecting service, were in Lakeview the forepart of the week looking over stock conditions hereabouts.

It is scarcely necessary to call attention to Auten & Rinehart's full page advertisement in the third section of this issue of the Examiner, for it certainly speaks for itself. However, it is chock full of information and well worth a most careful perusal by all.

We pay cash for any Oregon session laws before 1866. Also want Senate Journals 1862 and 1864. Also Codes 1851, Journal of Council 1851, Statutes 1864 and of 1855, and Code of Civil Procedure and General Laws 1862, and Archives 1843-1849. Write Geo. A. Bateson & Co. Inc., Portland, Oregon.

W. F. Paine is back from a 10-day's trip to San Francisco and other California cities. During his absence he met Fred J. Bowman, formerly editor of the Examiner, who is now engaged in the real estate business at Oakland, and as a side issue, together with other capitalists, is developing a mine.

A great many of the sheeplens have been in town during the past week making preparations for the winter's season on the desert. All state that the sheep at present are in very fine condition, and with a favorable winter and lambing season the owners will stand a good show of making up for last winter's losses.

L. R. Jones editor of the Paisley Press, has been detained here during the past week by reason of an oversupply of knowledge on certain matters coming up before the Circuit Court. However, he is a very arrearable gentleman and his company was therefore appreciated by those with whom he came in contact.

Geo. Parker, who is engaged in hauling wood from Crooked Creek, last Friday was accidentally thrown from his wagon, breaking his arm just above the wrist and scratching his face quite badly. He was taken to Dr. E. D. Everett's office where the fracture was reduced by the doctor, and he is now getting along nicely.

Word has been received here from Mrs. John McCulley and her son Jake, who left several weeks ago for Monument, Oregon, to the effect that they made the trip from this city to that point by team in eight and one-half days. They expect to spend a few weeks at Monument, on the John Day river, as the guests of Mrs. Joseph Putman.

The party consisting of Dr. E. H. Smith, Guy Ingram, A. J. Foster and Earl Abbott, which started some time ago for the Gearhart Mountain country in search of bear, last week returned to town. The boys state that they saw nary a bear during the entire trip, but got on the trail of an old grizzly and followed it for 40 miles into the Summer Lake country. The animal, however, traveled day and night and managed to escape his pursuers.

At the Sunday evening services at the Methodist-Edison church, Rev. Melville T. Wire took for his subject "The Liquor Cases." He covered the ground quite thoroughly, referring particularly to the fact that liquor is served at several local restaurants, and especially to the younger girls and boys. A large audience was present.

Birthday Party

Snelling assisted Mrs. Umbach in serving.

KLAMATH-NATRON CUT OFF HELD UP

Work To Be Suspended on S. P. Line During Winter

Klamath Chronicle: Six weeks will probably see the end of construction work on the Klamath-Natron cut-off. Notwithstanding that announcements have been at various times that new contracts would be let and the work continued, nothing along this line has been done, and the season is now too far advanced to admit of further work on the extension until next Spring. The cause for the delay in advertising the new contracts can only be accounted for by the fact that the stringency in the money market has caused the railroad officials to hesitate about the appropriating any more funds for extension until they see which way matters are going to turn.

As the work stands on the Klamath Falls-Natron cutoff, contracts have been let to within two miles of where the Williamson river leaves the big marsh on the Klamath reservation.

When this work is completed there will be still remaining 108 miles of road to be constructed. Sixty miles of this, from the Williamson river to the upper end of Odell lake, is very easy work, it being practically a water grade. The remaining 48 miles, beginning at Otell lake, is very heavy. A tunnel about a mile long will have to be cut through the divide, and then the line crosses 2,000 feet in a very short distance. As the grade will not exceed the one per cent that has been maintained throughout, it will require "shoofting" down the Salt Creek canyon along the lines followed in crossing the divide at Shasta Springs.

Silver Lake Items

"Doc" Archer denies that he is dead. Last Saturday the "Doc" was missing at meal times. Then it was remembered he had not been at the Hotel Christmas since Friday morning. His friends and creditors grew uneasy and a party started out to seize the creek. At about the right time to get excited "Doc" came to life. He had stopped over night at the Jones ranch.

Mr. Kinnear Buick and Miss Louise Ware were married at the W. R. Horning home last week in Portland. The newly-weds returned to Silver Lake Monday and will make their home here. Miss Ware formerly taught school here and last summer she presided over a local soda fountain. It is said that the romance that ended at the altar had its origin at the fount. Mr. Buick is as well known as he is popular in Silver Lake.

Auto truck service between Bend and Silver Lake will be established as soon as the car can be made ready for the run. Messrs. F. F. Fine and C. E. Melane, who reached Silver Lake Wednesday from the Hay Creek country, are equipping their car for the run and have the promise of enough freight to keep them busy all winter. They abandoned an auto route in Nevada to try Central Oregon. With a 60 horse power engine and a Panhard Levasson car, Fine & Melane believe they can make two trips each week and carry two tons to the trip. They will start on this schedule early next week.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Paisley Pick-ups

Alfred Moss is now the gentlemanly clerk of the Hotel Chewaucan. C. W. Johnson is now busily engaged in hauling lumber to erect a residence on his lot, which he recently purchased in the Miller Addition. J. E. Harber left on Saturday for Klamath Falls, where he will load the new piano which will be used in the Hartlerode hall.

There is some talk about town regarding a High School for Paisley and W. Y. Miller has offered to donate an acre of land for a site for the building. This is worth considering.

The population of Paisley is sadly depleted this week. Some are away on cattle drives, others are witnesses before the grand jury while still others are sequestering themselves in the tall timbers "wait till the clouds roll by."
