

LAKE COUNTY LAND AND TITLE COMPANY

H. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Tracts, $2.50

We Will Buy a Limited Number of O.V.L. Lots

Complete Abstracts to O. V. L. Lots, $2.50

GENERAL REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY OCTOBER 19, 1911

BRIEF MENTION

For rent—house and barn, enquire of Fred Sporenberg. August 20th. Twenty horses, broken and unbroken, for sale. Apply to P. M. Corv.

If you want a really good smoke for a pipe, try Storkman's Leader.

Douglas Tracy, of Drews Valley, was one of this week's visitors in town.

Ernest L. H. Meyers, of Valley Falls, was in town during the week on business.

J. C. Oliver has two pure-bred Duroc-Jersey boar pigs for sale at $15 each.

Mrs. John Arzner was quite ill last week, but is now able to be about again.

J. H. Lane, the well known Silver Lake attorney, is attending Circuit Court.

Come and see a real live Queen—in "Queen of Fame," Oct. 27. In Opera House.

E. J. Casbeer, the well known stockman, Tuesday, came over from Bly on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Clark, of Adel, have been visiting in Lakeview during the week.

C. W. Withers, of the Summer Lake country, was in town the forepart of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Laird, of Blue Joint, have been visitors to town during the week.

For rent a thoroughly modern furnished room, bath in connection. Phone 952. Oct 19

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bennett, of Adel, were visitors here the forepart of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Downs, from down the Valley, were in town Saturday for supplies.

Phil Lynch, the Plush rancher and stockowner, was one of this week's visitors in town.

J. S. Kelsay was another of the many Paisley people who registered at Hotel Lakeview.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office. Sept 14

Miss Laura Snelling who is now a teacher in the Plush schools, was a visitor over Sunday.

Charles Palmerlee, the Vistillas stockman, was in town Monday attending to some business.

R. M. Corbett, of Main Street, is now busy building an addition to the rear of his residence.

Office for rent, lately occupied by the Southern Oregon Realty Co. Apply Geo. Jammethal. Sept 28

Britten & Erickson have had some neat signs painted in front of their store during the week.

Finis Hickeyson, of Bidwell, was in town the forepart of the week as the guest of his brother, Jay.

Sav, fellows, why not get busy and show us Saturday night at the Wizard's dance. Admission only $1.

Mrs. W. Y. Miller, of Paisley, has been visiting Lakeview friends and relatives the past ten days.

The Weekly Oregonian until November 1, 1912, only 75 cents. Subscriptions received at this office.

Sam McKee is now having a fine large wood shed built at the rear of his residence on West Street.

Mrs. Pearl Ingram, of Salt Creek, is now spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. R. A. Bradley.

W. E. Bernev, the O. V. L. contractor, last week returned after a several weeks visit in southern parts.

C. L. Beorast, the Vistillas postmaster and stockman, Saturday, came into town on matters of business.

E. E. Roberts, C. A. Whittier and F. P. Lane, of the 77 ranch, Tuesday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

Regular freight and passenger service over the Oregon Trunk will be inaugurated to Bend next Sunday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church give the "Queen of Fame" at the Opera House Friday evening Oct 27.

Aside from the closing of the banks and public offices no observance of Columbus Day was held in Lakeview.

Don't forget it—the regular Saturday night dance of the Wizards at their hall. Big time guaranteed to all who attend.

Mother Goose thinks it is pretty hard to have to make her speech when "all the fine ladies are lookin'."

For sale, one camp wagon in good condition. Apply Odon ranch Thomas Creek, or write C. E. Trink, City. 12 19 26

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnson are happy over the arrival of a baby boy—their first son—who arrived last Friday.

D. P. Browne, of the Warner Valley Land and Livestock Company, was in town the forepart of the week on business.

"The Suffragette" is the name of the new comet that was visible in the western sky several evenings last week.

A. P. Koozer, the West Side rancher, was in town last week with a large consignment of potatoes raised on his ranch.

Wanted at Lakeview Flour Mills 100 cords live pine wood in 4-foot lengths delivery at once. Apply at flour mill. 12 19 26

Miss Christine Flynn Sunday left for Plush, where she expects to spend a few days as the guest of Miss Laura Snelling.

A. E. Imbler, of Summer Lake, is giving away 100 pounds of potatoes with each 500 pounds of grain bought from him.

Quite a number of local people went down the valley Sunday to purchase their winter supply of apples and potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Avers are over from Fort Bidwell on a visit to Lakeview friends. It is possible they may decide to locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Givan the former a well known Warner Valley stockman and rancher, have been in town for several days this week.

Miss Neil Simmon has returned to Bly to remain for a time, much to the disappointment of her many friends among the younger set.

Mrs. George Cramer, of Fitchburg, California, is now spending a few days in this section as the guest of her brother, Charles Westburn.

Dick Mahoney, of Plush, Monday, made proof at the local land office on his homestead. His witnesses were Phil Lynch and C. W. Dent.

O. W. Jacobs, the Warner Valley stockman and rancher, was one of the many people from that section who visited with us during the week.

Mike Finnucane left last week for Alturas, where he has accepted a position on the public school building under construction at that place.

Attorney C. M. O'Neill, of Klamath Falls, is in attendance at Circuit Court being associated with the prosecution in the case of the State vs. J. L. Cliff.

The quail season opened Sunday and it is now lawful to kill not more than five on one day or 10 in one week. The open season ends November 15.

R. M. Boller, a prominent business man of Klamath Falls, has been in Lakeview during the past week and is well pleased with the outlook here.

Al Roberts has accepted the agency of the noted Lamm clothing, and has just received samples of all the latest weaves, which he is now displaying.

Mona Gurrey and Special Agent B. E. Thomas, of the Land Department, last week returned to town after a several week's absence in the Warner country.

Carpenters commenced work Tuesday towards ceiling and otherwise fixing up the Wizard Dancing Hall. The building will be put in first class condition.

The search for F. B. Thornett, Dr. J. Grant Lyman's nurse, who escaped from the Klamath County jail, after his capture in Lakeview, has been abandoned.

Manager Smith of the Opera House, wishes to announce that the Margaret He's Company will not appear here Thursday and Friday, evenings, as announced.

The Foresters had a fairly well attended meeting Monday night at their headquarters. After the routine business had been disposed of a fine supper was served.

C. M. Wallace, D. Givan and Vernon Dews, all of the Warner section were in town Sunday and remained for several days attending circuit court proceedings.

Earl Butler, Richard Keller, Roy Blurton, Roy Vincent and Norris Bethel, were among some of the many Pine Creek people who visited us during the week.

William La Sater, a well known cattle man in these parts, was in town during the week having been subpoenaed as a witness on the case of the State vs. Cliff.

J. B. Yeon and H. L. Keale, well known Portland business men, spent Sunday in Lakeview. They were on their way to San Francisco, making the trip by auto.

There is a big time due—next Saturday night—when the Wizards give another dance at their hall. Excellent time guaranteed to strangers as well as local dancers.

Albert Culbertson and Don Baxter left town Monday for Clover Flat, where they have accepted a contract to erect a small house for F. B. Whitaker, a new settler.

"Uncle" Joe Morrow, of the Warner country, was a visitor here over Sunday. Circuit court week rarely passes here without "Uncle" Joe coming over to see what takes place.

John Arzner and R. R. Vandervort, local carpenters, Monday, left for Crooked Creek where they will be busy for several weeks putting up a large house for Sam Dicks.

The writer made a trip from here to Pine Creek last week and could not help but notice the large number of new buildings lately erected or now under construction en route.

The first of a series of dances to be given at the Opera House by the Elks was held Saturday night, about 27 couples participating. An enjoyable time was had by all present.

Our hall has been thoroughly repaired, is comfortable, and we'll show you a good time at the Wizard dance next Saturday night. Dance starts at 9 p. m., good music, admission $1.

Dan Driscoll, of the Bly Mercantile Co., is out with the first 1912 calendar to be seen in these parts. The calendar is adorned with several Sprague river fish and is quite attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cummings, recently of Fort Collins, Colo., arrived in Lakeview, Friday night. They expect to open a variety store in the Moore building in about a month.

Miss Mary McAuliffe, of New York last Thursday arrived here and is now enjoying an extended visit as the guest of her brother, John. Miss McAuliffe is much pleased with this section.

The following Paisley people appeared in our midst during the past week: G. W. Coolev, George Ranney, Dave Biggerstaff, P. J. Brattain, D. S. Conrad, R. N. Phelps and Carl Holder.

The Wizards gave another very pleasant dance at their hall Saturday night, and had an attendance of about 30 couples. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Oscar Bunch, a well known liveryman of Fort Klamath, was in Lakeview this week. He was accompanying a timber cruiser who is making an examination of the Booth-Kelley timber lands.

The Margaret He's Company are scheduled to appear at the Opera House tomorrow night and will probably remain for several days. The Company will no doubt be favored with large houses.

Mrs. J. A. Jetmore has accepted a position as teacher of the school at Cogswell creek. Mrs. Jetmore was formerly teacher of that school, prior to her removing to the Wagontire country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McKemy were presented with a bouncing baby boy a couple of weeks since. They will leave in a few days for California to remain for the winter and perhaps permanently.

Rev. G. J. Wentzell, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, but now engaged in the real estate and insurance business at Cedarville, is greeting his many Lakeview friends this week.

Dave Jones, the sheep man, last week left for Merrill with 900 head of lambs. The lambs were sold by Mr. Jones to Frank Bloomingcamp, of Bly, at a price of $2.00 per head, delivered at the railroad.

A great many people from surrounding towns are here "a-courtin'" this week, and combined with a large number of Indians present it is estimated that our population must be very close to the 2000 mark.

Attorney General A. M. Crawford yesterday left on his return home to Salem after spending several days in Lakeview on business connected with the settlement of the Warner Valley land litigation.

J. G. Pierce, one of the leading citizens of Klamath Falls, last week succumbed to an attack of typhoid fever.

He has hosts of friends throughout Klamath and Lake counties, who deeply deplore his death.

Silver Lake was well represented here during the past week, the following being a partial list of the visitors from that section: Hi Adams, James Lane, Charles Pitcher, Frank McBroom, and William H. Hayes.

L. D. and A. D. Frakes, well known and stockmen and ranchers of Warner Valley, are in town on business connected with the settling of the litigation concerning lands in that section, which is rapidly drawing to a close.

The Combs & Vandervort pool room opened for business last week with three fine pool and two billiard tables. The room is equipped with an excellent set of lounging chairs and the other things necessary for their business.

Ed Hartzog has completed the construction of a very fine residence on his ranch down the valley, and is now building a large barn. Ed has also made various other improvements about the place during the past summer.

J. O'Neill, of the Davis Creek Orchards Company, Thursday, returned after a several weeks visit to his old home in North Dakota. Mr. O'Neill reports an excellent time while absent, but was glad to be back with us once more.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rinehart, Sunday, returned from a several weeks honeymoon trip in Alturas and Cedarville. They were warmly welcomed by their many friends, and the usual charitable crowd turned out for the occasion.

George Yount returned last week from Ashland, and brought back with him a large consignment of peaches for which he had previously taken orders for here. The peaches were of very fine quality, and retailed here at $1.75 per box.

Charlie Baker, one of the Klamath Indians, last week came over from the Reservation bringing with him a large load of salmon which were caught in the Sprague River. It is needless to say that he found a ready sale for the fish.

A party consisting of W. K. Barry, William Kepple and Jerry Barry, Saturday, returned after a several weeks visit in Burns. While there W. K. Barry was fortunate enough to win one of the horse races and feels correspondingly happy.

George Swanston, the Sacramento stock buyer, returned to town the forepart of the week after a short visit in his home town and San Francisco. While in the latter place he had an opportunity to see President Taft, and hear one of his speeches.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd and Kate Shepherd, of the Shepherd Piano Company, were in town the forepart of the week on a business visit. They have been highly successful in disposing of pianos in and about Lakeview during their recent visits.

Wm. S. Towner, clerk in the U. S. Land Office, today went down to Alturas to meet his mother. Mrs. Charlotte Towner, and Miss Julia B. Freidrich, both of whom expect to make Lakeview their home. They expect to reach Lakeview tomorrow.

While alighting from a horse one day last week, Mike Angland, a local sheep man, had the misfortune to twist his ankle. On examination by the doctor it was found that his ankle was badly sprained, and he will probably be laid up for several days.

J. F. Landon, a former resident of Lakeview who is now homesteading in the Chewaucan Valley, was in town over Sunday. Mr. Landon is much pleased with his ranch property and succeeded in raising some excellent crops during the past season.

The annual examination for the position of Assistant Forest Ranger will be held at the local Forest office on Monday and Tuesday next. Monday will probably be devoted to the written test, while Tuesday will be spent examining applicants in the field.

Elzear Pelletier, of Plush, Friday came over from the salt marshes with a large consignment of salt for Bailev & Massingill. The salt is used for stock, but Mr. Pelletier states that on putting it through a purifying process it is also very good for table use.

The members of the G. G. G. Club gave a very nice reception last Thursday night, in honor of Miss Mabel Rice, who returned that day after an extended absence. Refreshments were served and the evening was pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of games and other amusements.

John C. Spinev, of Reno, genial agent of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., is paying Lakeview a visit. Lake and Klamath counties have lately been added to Mr. Spinev's district and he is now making a "get-acquainted" trip in his new territory.

Thomas Barton, proprietor of the Antler's Rooming House has accepted a position as cook for the Maney Brothers railroad construction crew. The men employed by the Company are now grading railroad bed at the Lehmann ranch this side of Pine Creek.

Frank T. Gantner is located at Harry Bailey's garage and is prepared to do all kinds of repair work on any kind of an instrument from a watch to an automobile. He also carries a full line of auto supplies, sold at city prices. Automobiles for hire any time day or night. "When you go with Gantner you'll sure get back on schedule time." Has the agency for several different machines, sold and delivered at Lakeview at city prices. Phone No., garage, 31. Residence, 941. Oct 19 in plain and plaid bosoms, at $1.50 to $3.00.

EARL & WILSON SHIRTS

The latest word in shirt making—perfect fitting—roomy garments—in a splendid line of patterns.

EARL & WILSON'S RED MAN COLLARS

in the most popular styles—quarter sizes—price, two for twenty-five cents.

The Home of Sweet-Orr Overalls
BRITTEN & ERICKSON
Lakeview : : : Oregon

La Vogue Suits

We have received our first shipment of these nobby Suits and Coats and are expecting another in a short time. We will have your size and style and guarantee perfect fit and satisfaction. Come in and let us show you the nice points about them.

THE LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.