

NOVEMBER SPECIALS:

A splendid farm of 340 acres, 1 1/2 miles west of O. V. L. addition to Lakeview, about half under irrigation, every foot fine deep soil suitable for fruit, grain and alfalfa, fenced, with some improvements. Price $31.50 per acre. Good terms.

A 160 acre city farm joining the O.V.L. Addition, west of Lakeview, fine deep soil all in meadow, under irrigation, better investment than a gold mine; don't miss it. Price $35.00 per acre. Good terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

J. O'NEILL GENERAL REAL ESTATE Lakeview : Oregon

NOVEMBER SPECIALS:

This is one of our choice residences with 7 large rooms, bath room, porches, also a fine lot of furniture, piano included, together with stock and machinery, viz: one matched team of mares, nothing better in the country; two good lumber wagons; one double harness almost new; one milch cow; one cream separator; barn; carriage house; woodshed, large lot of fine fruit trees; large lot runs from Water St. to Main St. Price $4,500. Good terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Hot Drinks at the Frost Candy Kitchen.

La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc Co.

C. A. Nelson came in from Davis Creek this week.

Cloud's Candy Kitchen is where you get candy of quality.

Doors, Windows, Locks, Hinges at Auten & Biehart's, Dec. 7

The Electric Lights failed last week and Alturas was in darkness.

Miss Flossie Lake, of the West Side, was one of Monday's visitors.

Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc. Co.

Time to think of holiday goods; on display at Cloud's Candy Kitchen.

J. C. Walker of Lorella was a Lakeview visitor during the past week.

The best butter—Oliver's—40 cents per pound at Bieber's Cash store.

Mike Rau, of the Auger Valley section, was a visitor here over Sunday.

If you want a really good smoke for a pipe, try Storkman's Leader.

D. G. Funk, one of the Valley ranchers, was in town Monday for supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mendell were in from their Murtle Creek ranch Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arzner and Louis Kendl, Sunday paid a visit to the West Side.

C. Myers, of Summer Lake was registered at the Hotel Lakeview this week.

G. C. Howell, of Paisley was a visitor this week looking after business matters.

John McDonough has accepted a position with the Hanson Construction Company.

Con O'Connell, the Paisley sheep man, was in town last week on a business visit.

Remember the turkey dinner and bonnar at the Masonic Hall on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Lottie Cozburn returned Tuesday after a several week's sojourn at other points.

If you want a "bracer" these frosty days try a cup of coffee or a bullion at The Frost.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Equipt Examiner office. 82914th

Does your barn leak? Rubber Asbestos Roofing. Guaranteed 10 years. Auten & Biehart, Dec. 7

M. D. Williams and wife of Davis Creek were registered at the Lakeview hotel Wednesday.

Pete Follett left Tuesday for Salem where he will take a position at the State Insane Asylum.

Walter Dent was over from Warner this week seeing the sights and visiting his many friends here.

W. K. McCormack of Summer Lake and J. S. Kelsay of Paisley were visitors in town last evening.

Ralph Koozer paid a visit Sunday to his West Side Ranch and incidentally brought back some fine ducks.

George Sherman, of the Clover Flat country, was in town the forepart of the week on a business visit.

Alvin Moss, of Paisley and the Chewaucan country paid Lakeview a visit last week for a few days.

Virgil Conn, the Paisley business man, was a Lakeview visitor for several days the forepart of the week.

T. B. Wakefield, L. D. Frakes and A. D. Frakes were visitors from Warner Valley last week on business.

G. F. Wilson was in town Tuesday from his ranch near Bower's Creek. He was accompanied by George Parker.

G. C. (Bert) Lapham, of Vistillas, Klamath County, was in town for a few days last week enjoying himself.

Tom Cloud, of the Frost Candy Kitchen, is now exhibiting a big advance line of Xmas goods for children.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Anderson, of Lorella, were in town on business last week having driven over with their team.

Sheet and Pillow Case Dance next Thursday evening, at Wizard hall. Don't fail to attend. Strangers welcome.

N. T. Cory, the contractor, is now busy on the erection of a new barn at the rear of his residence in the Drenkel Addition.

Ernest L. H. Meyer, the Valley Falls business man, was in town during the week attending to various business matters.

The Judges have been chosen to award the prize at the dance to be given by the Wizards next Thursday evening.

Mrs. G. D. Brown is now entirely recovered and is able to be about again after several days' illness at her home on West Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler were among last week's visitors, having come in by auto from their ranch north of Crooked Creek.

Don't forget—the big Thanksgiving dance at Wizard Hall, November 30. Everybody welcome and an excellent time is assured all.

Mrs. Mahan, who has been visiting here for some months past the guest of her son, Charles, returned Monday, to her home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dicks, of Crooked Creek, expect to leave shortly on a combination business and pleasure trip to California points.

G. W. Bentz was a visitor from the Construction Works the latter part of the week and reports everything moving along there nicely.

The little daughter of Frank Cannon of Paisley is ill with acute and infectious fever. Dr. T. V. Hall of Lakeview is in attendance.

Testimony in the Southern Pacific land grant suit will probably be taken in Portland beginning next month, and be completed before May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler were in from their ranch the latter part of last week and are spending a few days here on a visit with relatives.

Decide quick—and be sure to attend the big all-night Thanksgiving dance at Wizard hall. Tell your friends about it. Everybody welcome.

Some days ago the Methodist ladies bought young turkeys for their Thanksgiving dinner at the Masonic Hall, thus taking time by the forelock.

H. Jerome, of the West Side, was in town Monday attending to various business matters. He returned with a large load of grain for winter use.

Miss Edith Chandler came in last week from the ranch in Drews Valley, and is now enjoying a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Ingram returned several days ago to Salt Creek after spending a few days in town as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brown.

Post & King have removed their ice house from the rear of Mr. Post's home to some property that they own in the lower portion of the Walters addition.

A new roof has been erected during the past week on the Arzner Blacksmith Shop, the work being done under the direction of Fred Snaazenberg.

Henry Fox, the West Side rancher, was in town Monday. He was accompanied by Miss Graham, his sister-in-law, who is here on a visit from Chicago.

A new barn is to be erected soon by the Forest Service at the Salt Creek Ranger Station. The work will be done by Assistant Rangers Bradley and Ingram.

A committee from the Methodist church have been busy for several days past taking up collections for their pastor's salary. They report considerable success.

Simon Jaunto, the local sheep man, was in town several days ago and on his return trip brought out a large load of supplies preparatory to starting for the desert.

Miss Nora Barry returned several days ago from San Francisco, where she underwent an operation for a growth on her throat. She is now feeling much better.

W. P. Tyree, of New Pine Creek was a Lakeview visitor this week having brought in another load of fine vegetables for the hungry and appreciative residents.

A Pillow Case dance will be given next Thursday, by the Wizards in their new hall. It is expected that a large number will be in attendance for an affair of this kind.

In addition to last Sunday's regular evening services at the Methodist church, a special musical program was rendered by the choir, assisted by some outside singers.

John Arzner, the contractor, last week came in from Crooked Creek where he is engaged in building a large house for Sam Dicks. The structure will be completed inside of a few days now.

Harry Utley, agent for the Albany Nurseries, has been in town during the past two weeks delivering trees and shrubs for which he took orders earlier in the season.

Channy Fitch is the happy father of a boy that arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Monday. The proud father now says he has a "full house"—three boys and two girls.

W. Y. Miller, of Paisley was visitor here the fore part of the week. His son, who was operated on by Dr. T. V. Hall, recently, is doing nicely and will soon be as good as ever.

Treasurer Miller, of the Bank of Lakeview, is now having the lawn about his residence well filled with loam on which he expects to raise a fine grass crop next summer.

The O. E. S. Needle Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Woodcock Friday afternoon. Thomas Jefferson will be a guest of the ladies on that occasion and will be nicely entertained.

Mrs. Walter Paxton, who has been quite ill for sometime past, expects to leave in a few days for San Francisco, where she will undergo an operation in the hope of permanent recovery.

Charles Mahan and John Bremer have purchased from Fred Snider the wood ranch owned by him in Warner Canyon. They expect to spend the winter in cutting wood on the place.

Messrs. Henry and Jim Boydsetun are making regular trips to and from town these days, hauling lumber for some new buildings they intend to erect shortly on their West Side ranches.

Byron Graves, who has been employed for sometime past on the new school in process of erection at Alturas, returned to town last week, and will probably remain here during the winter.

Albert Culbertson, who was employed as a Forest Guard during the past summer, left Monday, for San Francisco, where he intends to spend the winter. He will return here in the spring.

The Catholic Ladies' Altar Society met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. B. Graves. A large attendance was present for the occasion, and considerable routine business was transacted.

Xmas and Holiday goods are beginning to appear in many of the store windows and remind us that we must all begin to save our nickles if we wish to purchase remembrances for friends.

Fred Snider, who until recently has been engaged in the wood business at his ranch in Warner Canyon, is now located at Cedarville, where he has accepted a position with his brother, Wavde.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Brvant, of Los Angeles, are spending a few weeks in Lakeview as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Orton. Mr. Brvant is looking over South Central Oregon with a view of investing.

William Schmidt, proprietor of the North Lakeview Feed Yard, is to have a new house built inside of a few days in the vicinity of his old one. The work will be in charge of contractor John Arzner.

Louis Gerber with his old familiar smile is a welcome visitor in town where he has come to look over the prospects of separating some of our local stockmen from a part of their sheep and cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cressler Tuesday made a trip to Davis Creek. They were accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Robinson, who was on her way home to Berkeley, Cal. after having spent a week visiting Lakeview friends.

W. P. Dvkeman has purchased from the Catholic Church the house and barn owned by them on the north side of the new church building. He will remove them to lands owned by him in the Watson addition.

H. Hopkins, son-in-law of Newt Stanley, sent for Dr. Hall to set a fractured forearm that he sustained during the past week. The member is doing well though it will take a little time to regain use of it.

C. B. Miners, the Cadillac man, yesterday left for Burns. His 1912 demonstrator was greatly admired by every one here and it is likely several of the machines will be purchased here in Lakeview next spring.

Wm. Lemon, formerly a Lake County school teacher is now the Editor of the Caldwell News a live paper in Idaho. Many of the people who knew "Bill" will be glad to know where he is and that he is doing well.

Contractor George B. Graves, assisted by his son Byron, is now busily engaged securing rock in Bullard Canyon. The rock will be used for the foundation which is to be erected under J. P. Duckworth's warehouse.

Mrs. E. H. Arnsden, who has been ill for the past week or two is reported as improving nicely at her New Pine Creek home. Dr. Arnsden is able to be about though he has not entirely recovered his strength as yet.

Thanksgiving is due just one week from today, and it is expected that turkeys and fowl of all varieties will be much in demand during the next few days. Turkey rattles will be held at several of the resorts about town.

The Forester's held a well attended meeting last Monday night at the Masonic Hall, twenty eight members being present for the occasion. A supper was served after the regular routine business had been transacted.

Culligan's Show, the Nashville Students, will appear in the Opera House in a two nights engagement. The show bears a very good reputation and it is expected that it will be greeted by large audiences at both performances.

Supervisor Brown, of the Forest Service, last week, left for Paisley and Silver Lake on a business visit. Incidentally he attended the meeting of the Central Fremont Cattle and Horse Association which was held Monday at Paisley.

Assistant Ranger Earl Abbott was in from Dox Lake for supplies on Monday last. He reports that considerable snow has visited that section during the past two weeks, but is rapidly disappearing with the present warm weather.

J. C. Brocklevby has gone to the Point Ranch to make some improvements to the home of J. Fred Hanson which is having an addition built on it that will be in keeping with the many things that this famous property is experiencing.

It is reported here that Mayfield Boone, who is well known here among the younger set, is ill with inflammatory rheumatism at his home in Pine Creek. Mayfield has many friends locally, all of whom wish him a speedy and permanent recovery.

D. M. Bryan of Clover Flat and George Sherman were visitors in town yesterday. They are getting ready to clean out some of the animals that the county is paying bounty on and incidentally help the supply of fur for Eastern ladies along.

A. G. Duhme, of the Fandango Lumber Company, was one of Tuesday's visitors. The company is now negotiating for a big sale of White Fir and Yellow Pine timber on the Modoc National Forest, which will be sawed at their Willow Ranch mill.

Word has been received here from Mrs. Sim Arthur, who had recently undergone an operation at San Francisco was getting along nicely and the operation was thought to have been a success in every way. Her many local friends will be glad to learn the news.

It is claimed that a total of about three thousand loads of stone and gravel have been hauled to the various streets of town for pavements this year. The next couple of years will show streets as good as any to be found in the state for a town this size.

Bert Snyder, of Thornton's Drug Store, expects to leave shortly for Portland, where he will take the examination for druggist. Bert will also probably remain in Portland for sometime and take a sort of post graduate course in one of the big drug stores in that city.

Charles Sherlock, the well known sheepman and rancher left Tuesday for a trip to Los Angeles where he will spend the greater portion of the winter season. Mrs. Sherlock preceded her husband a few days ago. They will be missed in local circles until their return.

Crook County has 80 school districts which shows what the people going into that part of the country get when they take land. Lake County has about twenty five school districts and there will be others when the settlers pouring into many of the fertile valleys need schools.

Charles Wallace has been attending to the needs of the thirsty during a short session at the Palace where he handled things in a very satisfactory manner. Charles' specialty is the mixing of a multicolored confection that brings tears of joy to the eyes of the beholder.

The entertainment committee of the Degree of Honor did themselves proud on Thursday night last by giving a very nice box supper after the business of the meeting had been transacted. A number of outside guests were invited for the occasion, and all report a very enjoyable time.

WHY PAY RENT When you can buy a large building lot in the best residence district in Lakeview for $5.00 down and $5.00 per month? Can you beat Lakeview property for a safe investment? For Bargains in town property see

H. W. DRENKEL

MUNSING UNION SUITS

ALL over America "Munsing" stands for all that is best in Underwear, best material, best workmanship modern methods can produce. Heavy weight cotton and merino at $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 per suit.

Also a splendid stock of two-piece suits in cotton and wool, at $1.00 to $5.50 per suit.

Buy your Underwear now--our stock is complete.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON Lakeview : : : Oregon

Here They Are

Every Ladies' Suit in the House Must Go--And Go Quick.

EVERY ONE A La VOGUE SUIT

Look At These Prices:

Table with 3 columns: Regular Price, Discounted Price, and Suit Description. Rows show prices for suits ranging from $12.50 to $22.50.

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over--they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.