Lakeview, Oregon, Thursday, December 7, 1911

It would certainly be impossible for representatives from any section to be accorded a warmer, heartier, or pleasanter greeting than that met with during the past week by the Lakeview visitors at Klamath Falls during the past week. While some members of the party seem to have a more or less hazey recollection of what transpired, yet at the same time all are agreed that Lakeview and Lake County received just recognition and that much information was eagerly sought by men prominently identified with the boosting of our sister city. G. X. Wendling and both of the Johnsons, the three who are perhaps the leaders in big things in Klamath land, had a most cordial greeting for the Lakeview people, and it was they who perhaps were more inquisitive than others as to the resources of this section. All are big broad-minded men and they see wonderful opportunities in the way of investments and development work in its whole section of the state. Hence their desire to get in touch with Lake County.

Chautauqua Circle

A Popular Deputy

Miss Trixie McVeigh is still holding down the job as chief of Lake County in a manner that reflects great credit to members of her sex. The young lady has had the care of the office on her shoulders due to the absence of Sheriff W. B. Snider and the resignation of Eob Miller who has gone to Paisley where he is connected with the Chautauqua Mercantile company. The boys are now wondering whether Miss McVeigh will be called upon to arrest anyone before the return of the sheriff. If so there is no doubt that she will be a thorough success at it, for there is no man so hardened in Lake County who would not gladly surrender to the call of the young lady when he found out her official capacity. The only danger in sight is that there may be too many trying to "break into jail" when they learn who the new official is.

Valley Falls Items

B. L. H. Meyer who has been in Lakeview for a sometime returned Sunday.

H. A. Utley came out from Lakeview Sunday with a load of furniture for his new home into which he is now moving.

Harry Goff who returned last week from Nebraska is now busily engaged in building an addition to his house, he is also constructing numerous chicken houses for his brooded stock.

Messrs. McEvers and Moran who are from Washington have been looking over our Valley the past week and from their decidedly good impression will undoubtedly be additions to our fast growing colony.

Martin Kennedy has leased part of the Harrison place for next summer.

Mart Hutchinson and M. Marchek are engaged in building a log house on the place of the former.

Ernest Fox struck water at 29 feet on his place on the north side. It was thought he would have to go considerable depth.

Hutchinson and Marchek who are located on the South side expect their brothers in a short time.

Paid C-O-D-L Fees

The wide awake Treasurer of the Lakeview Commercial Club, F. Fettsch is in receipt of an acknowledgment from Secretary J. E. Sawhill of Bend for the sum of $50, as membership fee to the Central Oregon Development League which will hold their next meeting in Lakeview the coming summer. The members of the club feel good over this sum being paid as it is a debt of honor that the residents of Lakeview are glad to see wiped out. This is one benefit that comes to a community by having a live Commercial Organization and it is hoped that there is not a man or woman in the community that will not be glad to give the support that it deserves. The Central Oregon Development League if properly handled will mean a lot to Lake County and this means every resident in it.

Likes Lakeview

T. E. Gitter of the N. C. O. Railway at Davis Creek, accompanied by Mrs. Gitter was a visitor in town Tuesday looking over this section of the valley. Mr. Gitter is very much impressed with Lakeview and says that he would like to handle the business as agent here in case the company will transfer him to this point, and by the impression that he made among the business men that he met, there is no doubt in the minds of all that they want him to come and be a part of the New Lakeview that is moving ahead. Mr. Gitter is a former Colorado man and has come here to this part of the country from Fort Collins where he was in business some years. Five thousand people will be the lowest number that we should reasonable expect here within the next couple of years is the belief of Mr. Gitter and this estimate is borne out by many others that have seen what a railroad, backed by the vast resources of this part of the state will do to a new country. Once it has opened its eyes to the many advantages that getting ahead of the good things will do.

New Pine Creek Items

Mrs. Blurton has rented her house to Mrs. Wise for the winter. Mrs. Blurton and daughter, Edith and son, Crystal will spend the winter in Sacramento.

Mr. Guy Foster has purchased Mrs. Blurton's piano. Mrs. Foster is a music teacher and expects to organize a class here.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick has returned from a visit to Davis Creek.

Mrs. Berry spent Thanksgiving at home.

The Opening Dance at the new hall was well attended and every one reports a fine time.

Miss Elsie Keller is spending her Thanksgiving holidays at her home in New Pine Creek.

Dec. 8th, is the big masquerade at the hall. Plenty of masks for everybody at Wendt's store. Everybody come and enjoy the fun.

Mrs. Amsden is slowly convalescing.

The Minstrel Troupe drew a large crowd and was as good as the average run of minstrel troupes are. The most worthy of mention was the one who performed with the boots, which was certainly a great feat.

Rev. Gooderman preached a very nice Thanksgiving sermon at the Christian Church. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Foster spent Saturday at Lakeview.

Mrs. Wise has returned from a business trip to Lakeview.

Mr. Cory passed through New Pine Creek Monday on his way to Davis Creek.

Mrs. Henderson has recovered from her recent illness.

Means Much for Our Community

At an expense of 75,000,000 dollars the Southern Pacific Company are now double tracking their line. This will increase the efficiency, it is estimated 3 to 1.

This means much to the people of this section, who are bound to profit by having a more sure service and conveyance to market their mines, crops and livestock.

Swift-Snyder

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Thursday morning at the Catholic church when Father Schmitt united in marriage A. J. Swift, bookkeeper for the Mercantile Company, and Miss Mac Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Snyder. Only a few intimate friends of the young couple were present for the occasion.

Both of the young people are very well known in this city, where they have been popular among the younger set. They will reside on Dewey street.

WHERE THE LOCALITY DOES NOT COUNT

Whenever there are people suffering from kidney and bladder ailments, from backache, rheumatism and urinary troubles, Foley Kidney Pills will help them. Belcher, H. F. A. Koffy, an ex-engineer, says: "Fifteen years ago my kidneys became so bad that I was obliged to give up my engine and quit. There was a severe aching pain over the hips, followed by an inflammation of the bladder, and always a thick sediment. Foley Kidney Pills made me sound and well again. I cannot say too much for their price." For sale by A. L. Thurston.

"BILL" HANLEY TELL SOME TRUTHS

Stops Long Enough En-Route East to Help Place Oregon on the Map

"Bill" Hanley, of Harney County, is in St. Paul, where he has just given out one of his characteristic interviews. Mr. Hanley is attending the Land Show and will be one of the three Oregonians on the Governor's Special. Governor West and Tom Richardson being the other two.

An extract from the Hanley interview follows:

"I just thought I'd take a run down this way. You see my cows keep me at home most of the time, but every couple of years I like to take a swing down in the direction of the sunrise. I thought, as this was the occasion of one of the best land shows ever held, it would be a good time to come.

Any middle initial? Well, to be candid, yes; but I never use it. Middle initials have about gone out of use down where I hail from.

Oregon is what I call an agricultural department store. We grow everything in the cat-gory, and I expect to see Oregon come right to the front among the states represented at the coming land show.

Of course my neighborhood is a little out of the beaten path, 125 miles from a railroad in fact, at present, but we are looking for a road to come down that way from present developments. Mr. Hill promises us? No sir. Mr. Hill never promises anything. His first promise is a performance. I don't really think Lewis and Clark would find things much changed right in my neighborhood, but in the valleys to the north they might think Ponce de Leon's dream had been realized and they had found the fountain of youth.

I think the West is today the logical goal of every ambitious young fellow who is willing to put his shoulder to the wheel. The trouble is, too many merely visit our Coast cities and return homesick and discouraged, without ever venturing into the rural parts. "Back to the farm," is my slogan and it can't be emphasized too much.

Already we are abandoning the idea of utilizing good lands for range purposes and the young man of bluck has a better chance now than a generation ago in that country. It is necessary that a fellow have the stick-to-the-finish spirit and not pull out just as the sun is about to shine.

There are too many college graduates running around helpless these days. You see they are so polished it is impossible for anyone to fasten a hook on them. This, I think, is due to a popular belief existing some years ago; "Give your boy, something nobody can take away from him." Instead, their parents gave them something nobody else has any particular use for.

I believe in education by all means, but let it be more gradual, with some hard knocks thrown in, and then there won't be so many lads running around looking for jobs filling fountain pens for ex-Senators and like. I do think, though, that agriculture is the best thing that a young man can study if he wants a comfortable future.
