

DECEMBER SPECIALS:
FINISH UP 1911 BY MAKING A GOOD INVESTMENT
Town Property

- $2500.00 For a fine 10-room residence, bathroom, cellar and woodshed, large lot, fruit trees, adjoining main business block, easy terms.
- $850.00 For 4-room cottage on Water St., lot 2x100, easy terms.
- $1500.00 For 4-room house on Main St., lot 58x215, easy terms.
- $1500.00 For a 7-room residence, bath room, cellar, woodshed, barn, carriage house, fruit trees, large lot close to business center on Water St., easy terms.
- $5250.00 For business office block, new and in good order, just right for income investment, is paying 18 per cent net after paying water, insurance, lights and taxes. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

J. O'NEILL
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

- Vacant Lots
- $16.00 Per front foot, 46x100 on Dewey St., one block from court house block, fruit trees and other improvements. Easy terms.
  - $10.00 Per front foot, 45x100 adjoining the above. Easy terms.
  - $700.00 Takes 165x265 close in on Main St., easy terms.
- Farms
- $5.00 Per acre for 40 acres with water running through it.
  - $15.00 Per acre for 80 acres 5 1/2 miles NW of Lakeview, spring on it, easy terms.
  - $15.00 Per acre for 10 acres 4 1/2 miles, with 10 acre water right, high sage brush growing thereon. Easy terms.
  - $20.00 Per acre for 200 acres of timber land within 4 miles of town, guaranteed to cut at least 600 cords of wood, when cleared will make a net profit of $15,000 and the land to the good. Easy terms.
  - $1050.00 Takes 80 acres timber land 16 miles west of Lakeview.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc Co.

Furnished front room, enquire three doors north M. E. church.

Thanksgiving turkeys sold at twenty five cents per pound.

P. T. Bayley, of Alturas, was in town on Tuesday of this week.

J. J. Scott, of Plush, was a visitor here on Tuesday of this week.

Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc. Co.

E. W. Follett, of Pine Creek, was in town Tuesday on a brief visit.

For sale—New range stove cheap, call at the old Frank Lane place.

The best butter—Oliver's—10 cents per pound at Bieler's Cash store.

If you want a really good smoke for a nickle, try Storkman's Leader.

A. M. Smith, of the Hunting ranch, was in from Drews Valley on Monday.

M. J. He elv, of the Summer Lake country, was in town Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sherlock, of Alturas, were among Saturday's local visitors.

Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek, was one of last week's visitors in town.

Joe Ambrose, was another of the many West Siders who visited with us last week.

Virgil Conn, the Paisley merchant, was in town Sunday, having made the trip by auto.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office. Sep14 t

Miss Alice McGrath has resigned her position as operator for the local telephone company.

Leo Hazel, the shoemaker, is now presenting his friends with a very nice calendar for 1912.

Heath Chandler, proprietor of the Northern Stage line, was a business visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Foster of New Pine Creek were visiting relatives in Lakeview Saturday.

George H. Stevens, was in town Tuesday from the Mud Creek country on a business visit.

L. P. Klippel, the Summer Lake rancher, was in town last week attending to some business.

Curtis Duvall, a rancher of the Anna River country, last week paid a brief visit here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Funk were up from their ranch Saturday, combining business with pleasure.

J. V. Bussey was one of the New Pine Creek people who visited with us on Monday of this week.

Mike Rau, the Auger Valley rancher was in town the forepart of the week on a brief business visit.

Bill Woods, of the West Side, was in town for several days last week renewing acquaintances.

Some fine skating was enjoyed by the boys last Thursday afternoon at the Duck pond, west of town.

W. S. Fleming and Tom Kirkpatrick, residents of Willow Ranch, were among last week's visitors in town.

David Hanbury, Sr., of the West Side, was in town Saturday and returned with a large load of supplies for the ranch.

A. F. Drazer, of Paisley, was one of the many people from that promising little town who visited with us during the week.

The O. E. S. Needle Club will meet Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Brattain. Author, Benjamin Franklin.

Thomas H. Curtis, of the Dog Lake country, was in from his homestead Monday and returned with a large load of supplies.

Thos. H. Sherlock and Walter Sherlock and wife were among the Alturas people that came to this section of the valley last week.

Mrs. John Arzner was ill at her home on Slash street for several days the forepart of the week. She is now entirely recovered.

The choir of the Methodist church is now practicing regularly for the Xmas services which are to be held in a few weeks now.

A very nice dance was held last Saturday night at the Opera House, a large number of couples being in attendance for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Green, with children, were up from Pine Creek Thanksgiving day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hervford.

A party of Portland people consisting of N. J. Fuloo, A. Schubach and H. P. Scheurer, Friday, arrived in town on a brief visit.

James C. Dodson and Creed E. McKendree left Klamath Falls and the festivities there to make a short visit on business to Portland.

Christmas is coming, in fact it is only a little over two weeks off, and timely warning is herewith issued to order your presents in time.

W. E. Bernev, of the Bernev Construction Company, was in town the forepart of the week attending to some business matters for his firm.

W. O. Harmon, of the U. S. Geological Survey made a trip to the Lottus ranch last week, where he took some measurements on Crane Creek.

Calendars are now being distributed by many of the local firms and received among their customers. Some very pretty ones have been received to date.

Sam Dicks, the Crooked Creek rancher, was in town Sunday. He was accompanied on the trip down by his daughter, Vesta, who is attending school.

Alvin S. Hawk, of Fremont, purchased an isolated tract of forty acres in that vicinity Tuesday. The land lies near his tract there and will add to its value.

J. R. Heckman and F. S. Brinkman were down from the Chewaucan country last week. They report everything progressing nicely in their part of the county.

Jim Partin, of Alturas, was in town the forepart of the week attending to some business affairs. A royal welcome was accorded him by his many local friends.

Bill Simmons, the Valley Falls taxidermist, was registered at the Hotel Lakeview on Tuesday. Bill likes to come down once and a while to see the sights.

W. K. Barrv, the veteran sheepman, was in town last week attending to many business matters. He remained for several days visiting with his family.

The employees of the Mercantile store set out to establish a record last week, and certainly did, with two marriages inside of a week's time. Wonder who is next?

Walter Rae, of the Auten & Rinehart store, last week made a trip to Crooked Creek, where he installed a complete plumbing system in the new S. P. Dick's residence.

Alex Fitzpatrick, of the ZX ranch, was down from Paisley last week attending to various business matters. He states that all hands are now busy dipping the quarantined cattle.

C. B. Koozer, of the West Side, has named his homestead "Lakefront" in line with what is being done on that line by other residents of that enterprising section of the county.

Charles Umbach expects to have work commenced shortly towards the construction of a new barn on the property owned by him south of the Linville residence on Main street.

Guy Nvswaner and George McCool, who have been employed for some months past at the Camp Creek sawmill, are back in town again enjoying a well earned rest after their strenuous labors.

Phil Lynch, the well known Plush business man, was in town for several days last week. Phil likes to take a run over here occasionally to see the wonderful improvements which are taking place.

Harry Hunker, of the Transfer and Delivery Company, entertained a large number of friends last Thursday night—all of whom gathered in honor of Harry's birthday, or some such similar event.

After completing some additions to the home of J. F. Hanson at the Point Ranch, J. C. Brocklesby has returned to town. The new work will tend to improve that fine place and make it much more homelike.

J. F. Mayfield has now completed a very fine gravel walk around his residence on Dewey street, and is filling up the lawn. He will undoubtedly have a fine looking place when the grass comes up next summer.

Mike Minucane, who has been employed for sometime past on the new Alturas public school, last week, returned to town and states that the brick work on the building will be completed in about three weeks.

John Nvswaner, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ralph Koozer, and little Miss Ruth Koozer, Monday, left for Phoenix, Oregon. Mr. Nvswaner's mother is very ill with paralysis, which accounts for their visit at this time.

Last Thursday night being the fifth Thursday of the month, no meeting of the Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., was held. Instead, the annual election will take place at the Masonic Hall this evening, and all members are urged to come.

The Lakeview Novelty Co., in the Fetsch block next to Auten & Rinehart's new store report that they are doing a nice business and that the appreciation of the people of Lakeview for the low prices they are showing gets better each day. There is no doubt that this store is filling a long felt want.

Charles Umbach has sold the large barn owned by him at the rear of his lot on Main Street, just south of the Farnum Harris residence. The barn was sold to a Mr. Bowler, of Klamath Falls, who expects to locate here in the near future and run a delivery and transfer business. The sale price was $2500.

A very well attended dance was given last Thursday night at Wizard Hall, about 40 couples being present. The affair was in the form of a Sheet and Pillow Case dance, prizes being given for the best gentleman and best lady dancers present. The prizes were ably won by Bryon Graves and Miss Elsie Post.

Some very fine views of Lakeview scenes, as well as a panoramic picture of the city, are now on exhibition in the window of the Lakeview Mercantile Company's warehouse, north of the Maxwell office. The pictures were all taken by J. W. Stephenson, who may possibly locate here and engage in the photography business.

G. W. Welch, the telegraph operator, last week returned from a several month's visit to the Wilbur Hot Springs and other California points. He reports that he is feeling considerably better than before he started on the trip, and certainly looks the picture of health. He has again resumed his duties at the telegraph office.

Many old timers will remember G. W. Jennings who left here in 1900 and will be glad to learn that he is at Kettle Falls, Stevens Co., Wash. Mr. Jennings has been feeling homesick so wrote to get some papers and sends his best regards to the "bunch." He lived in Lake County 22 years so no one can blame him for feeling homesick.

Operator Mayo of the local telephone and telegraph office deserves many thanks for obtaining the reports of the sentences of the McNamaras within an hour after they had been sent to the penitentiary at the conclusion of their trial when they pleaded guilty and made their final appearance before Judge Bordwell, the presiding magistrate.

Some very appropriate union services were held last Thursday morning at the Baptist church in honor of Thanksgiving Day. The ministers and people of the various congregations attended, the sermon of the day being delivered by Doctor Prvse, pastor of the Presbyterian church. A large number of people were present for the occasion.

The first services will be held in the new Catholic church on Sunday, December 24th—the day before Christmas. It is expected that the building will be entirely completed by that time. The hands for the pews were expected here in two or three days now, and the carpet for the altar has already arrived and is now being sewed ready to be tacked down.

E. F. Cnenev, of this city, has just purchased from J. D. Mariner, of the J. D. Mariner Music House, Reno, Nevada, a very fine upright, inverted Grand Mehlin & Sons piano, which he intends to give as a Xmas present to his granddaughter Miss Nettie Cnenev. The gift is certainly a handsome one and the young lady will have every reason to appreciate it for years to come.

While playing with some gunpowder on Slash street last Thursday morning, Cecil Webster and Kenneth Metzker the two small sons of Luther Webster and John Metzker, were badly burned about the eyes and head when the powder became ignited and blew up in their faces. Both were immediately placed under the doctor's care and their faces treated and bandaged. It is not thought at this time that they will be permanently disfigured in any way.

Frank Light, one of the Lakeviewites who went over to the Falls last Thursday to attend the Elk's memorial services, Tuesday evening, returned on the stage. Frank states that the services rendered were very impressive, and that a very large number of the fraternity gathered from various points to attend. The other Lakeview people who left have not yet returned, but will probably reach here by Saturday.

Mrs. J. Hervford, of Pine Creek, had the misfortune to seriously injure one of her fingers a few days ago, when a door slammed accidentally and struck the finger. Cold set in and the injured member became very sore for a few days, it being feared for a time that blood poison had set in. Mrs. Hervford is now feeling much better, however and the finger is getting along nicely.

A meeting of the Wizards was held Monday night at their hall, and arrangements were completed for the masquerade dance which they expect to give on Xmas eve. The members also decided to hold card parties on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month, each member having the privilege of inviting a friend. This will undoubtedly be a source of much pleasure to the younger set of the town.

Stockmen who have sheen and other stock on the "Desert" are rejoicing over a light fall of snow that came Wednesday morning and which will fill the water holes when melted. The season has been dry on the range this fall and there was need of some moisture or many would have had to seek pastures near where stock could obtain water, but the light fall of snow will obviate this and assist the green feed nicely.

H. O. Kuhl has returned from Crooked Creek Valley where he completed the decorating of the new home from Sam Dicks. The new ranch house is the finest in that valley and there are few in the county that compare with it for roominess and adaptability to the needs of the owner. The decorating is in keeping with the fine class of work that Mr. Kuhl has done since coming to Lakeview and will be a source of pride to the owner when his friends visit him.

J. F. Landon who has been seriously ill in the Chewaucan Valley is reported to be somewhat improved in health and hopes are entertained for his recovery by his friends. This is good news if true and there is no one that knows what a fight he is making but whose heart goes out to the brave fellow that is fighting against long odds, Lake county can ill afford to lose men of Mr. Landons type as his industry and thrift is an asset to the community that is beyond estimate.

Reverend Simmons of Sunrise Valley has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church and will assume his duties about January 1, 1912. The gentleman comes well recommended and there are many members of the congregation who will be glad to welcome him to this charge. Rev. Mr. Smith is retiring from active service after many years of faithful service and his many friends here hope that he will remain in this vicinity for years to come.

Manager Alfred Smith promises some new pictures at the Arvadia the next few days that will be educational and lend much pleasure as well to those who visit that well known place of mirth. "The cattleman's daughter," "Tables are turned," "Sea birds and their haunts," "Her artistic temperament" will be shown Thursday and Friday nights, while "The kid from Arizona," "Ransom of Red Chief," "Max goes skating" and the "Runaway Moter Car" with a mixture of comedy, scenic and dramatic to make every one glad that they went there, Sunday and Monday nights.

WHY PAY RENT When you can buy a large building lot in the best residence district in Lakeview for $5.00 down and $5.00 per month? Can you beat Lakeview property for a safe investment? For Bargains in town property see H. W. DRENKEL

A Few HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS

At our store you will find the useful things that men appreciate as gifts—such as Smoking Jackets, Bath Robes, House Slippers, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear and Suspenders.

It Pays to Shop Early

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Here They Are

Every Ladies' Suit in the House Must Go—And Go Quick.

EVERY ONE A La VOGUE SUIT

Look At These Prices:

Regular $16.50 Suits, now $11.00
" 18.50 " " 12.50	" 20.00 " " 14.25	" 22.50 " " 16.50
" 25.00 " " 17.50	" 27.50 " " 18.50	" 30.00 " " 19.50
" 35.00 " " 22.50

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over—they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.

