

JANUARY SPECIALS: FINISH UP 1911 BY MAKING A GOOD INVESTMENT Town Property

- $3000.00 Takes a fine new bungalow on Flower St., containing 5 rooms finished with hard plaster and all the latest improvements. A model home.
- $850.00 For 4-room cottage on Water St., lot 2x100, new terms.
- $1500.00 For 4-room house on Main St., lot 5x215, easy terms.
- $3500.00 For a 7-room residence, bath room, cellar, woodshed, barn, carriage house, fruit trees, large lot close to business center on Water St., easy terms.
- $5250.00 For business office block, new and in good order, just right for income investment, is paying 18 per cent net after paying water, insurance, lights and taxes. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

J. O'NEILL GENERAL REAL ESTATE Lakeview : Oregon

Farms

- $1.50 Per acre for 80 acres of good grazing land in East Warner, 80 miles from Lakeview. Easy terms.
- $10.00 Per acre for 100 acres with improvements, house and barn, all in meadow, 8 miles southwest of Lakeview. Easy terms.
- $5.00 Per acre for 40 acres with water running through it.
- $15.00 Per acre for 80 acres 5 1/2 miles NW of Lakeview, spring on it, easy terms.
- $15.00 Per acre for 10 acres 4 1/2 miles, with 10 acre water right, high sage brush growing thereon. Easy terms.
- $20.00 Per acre for 200 acres of timber land within 4 miles of town, guaranteed to cut at least 6000 cords of wood, when cleared will make a net profit of $15,000 and the land to the good. Easy terms.
- $1050.00 Takes 80 acres timber land 16 miles west of Lakeview.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc Co.

S. Howie went to New Pine Creek on Monday.

Earl Abbott, of the Forest Service was in town Tuesday.

Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc Co.

O. C. Gibbs was an arrival from Klamath Falls Saturday.

James Curtis was in from his Drews Valley homestead yesterday.

William Moss, of Plush, has been spending the holidays in Lakeview.

New Years' resolutions are a good deal like ice cream, easily broken.

The best butter—Olive's—40 cents per pound at Bieber's Cash Store.

H. L. Chandler, of Crooked Creek, was an arrival in town last evening.

If you want a really good smoke for a while, try Storkman's Leader.

Hurray for 1912! Its here in full force, and it brought a cold snap with it.

C. W. Dent, living north of Plush, was in the city for a few days last week.

James P. Duke was in from his down the valley ranch Saturday, doing some trading.

S. S. McFarland, of Reno, was a city visitor Saturday, a guest of the Lakeview hotelery.

Mrs. Ellen McDonald has returned from an extended visit to relatives at Bandon down by the sea.

Good team of horses, harness, wagon, hay and grain for sale cheap. Apply to R. T. Striplin.

Wilma Grizzel, who has been spending the holidays in Lakeview, returned to his home at Plush, Friday.

Morris Murchy made an application to the county clerk, Tuesday, for his final naturalization papers.

Good dry 16 inch wool for sale by B. S. Tatro. Leave orders with G. Sherman Easter.

A social dance was given in Drews Valley Friday evening, which was highly enjoyed by its participants.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Richards arrived from Klamath Falls Friday, and will make their home in this vicinity.

M. H. Powell, of San Francisco, after a visit among friends at Paisley, returned Saturday enroute home.

Mrs. Sim Arthur has returned from San Francisco, where she has been a patient in a hospital for some time.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office.

Wm. Vineyard and wife, of Fall River Cal., arrived Friday evening for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock.

W. O. Harmon, of the U. S. Geological Survey, was here Friday on government business, a guest of Hotel Lakeview.

Wm. Simmons and Chas. Murdock, of Valley Falls, arrived in town last evening, and are guests of Hotel Lakeview.

Dr. E. D. Everett, the popular physician, has received the appointment of surgeon for this city and county by the N.-C.-O.

This town is very economically managed, the tax levy for the coming year being only 4 1/2 mills on the dollar of valuation.

J. W. Oliver, assistant chief engineer for the N.-C.-O., came up from California Friday, and was in the city several days.

All of the banks, the land office, the postoffice and some of the stores were closed on New Years' day—it was a legal holiday.

Wm. Wood and B. Andrews, who are holding down homesteads on the West Side, were visitors in Lakeview Monday and Tuesday.

O. L. Dunbar, representing the Lakeview Mercantile Co., departed Tuesday for Portland to order spring goods for that concern.

Rev. M. T. Wire, pastor of the M. E. Church, departed yesterday morning for a few days visit with Harry Utlev, at Valley Falls.

Tom McCulley, who has been in the hospital at Santa Rosa, Cal., for some weeks, confined to his bed, expects to have to remain there for the next six months. He is at the Dr. Jesse hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. L. Weir, who spent the holidays with Lakeview friends, Tuesday returned to their home at Davis Creek.

A dancing party was given New Years' night at New Pine Creek, and a large sleighing party was made up in this city to attend it.

A food sale will be conducted by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. Church Saturday at Bailey & Massingill's department store.

R. G. Harrison and L. E. Tuttle, of Portland were visitors in Lakeview over Sunday. They came to spy out the land for future business.

The January term of County Court is now in session. It promises to be a long continued term, as there is much business to be transacted.

Daniel Boone, the well known New Pine Creek merchant, was a Lakeview visitor Monday—just to see once more how the New Year came in.

Walter Stone and David A. Hanbury, homesteaders on the West Side, came to town New Years' day on business and stayed over night.

Wanted, position by man and wife, colored, both good cooks. Man good all round on ranch. Address Sandy L. Toliver, 7574th St., Oakland, Cal.

A communication from "Stingy Jim" was received by the Examiner this week, but as the true name of the writer is unknown it is not published.

Miss Olive Thruston has been installed as telephone operator at the city exchange, succeeding Miss Alice McGrath, who has gone to Rocky Ford, Col.

Wm. J. Archer and R. H. Rogers, deputy county surveyors, who have been working in the Silver Lake region for some weeks, returned to town New Years' evening.

The funeral of Bert L. Taylor the slaver and suicide took place at 4 o'clock of January 2d, from the Wallace undertaking parlors, being conducted at public expense.

N. Bieber, whose flouring mill at Bieber, Cal., was destroyed by fire early in November, is contemplating replacing it with a modern mill throughout in the near future.

Walter L. Dutton and sister, Miss Kate, who spent the holidays with their parents at Davis Creek, were in Lakeview Tuesday and yesterday left for Corvallis to resume their studies in O. A. C.

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of the story, "In His Steps," has resigned from his pastorate of the Topeka, Kansas, Congregational church, and announced his intention of lecturing on socialism.

It has become not only allowable but the fashion for Chinamen to cut off their pig tails, but members of the Flowery kingdom in Lakeview are not of the fashionable sort, they still wear their hair in braids.

The Oregon Supreme Court has declared it illegal and a violation of the law to maintain a club and thereby dispense liquors in a dry town. Disposing of liquors for coupons is a sale, holds the court.

At a meeting of the Commercial Club, held Monday evening, a resolution was passed and sent to President Taft appealing to him to see that a just share of the funds of the reclamation service be allotted to this state.

J. Q. Willits, the county superintendent, who has been in attendance at the County School Superintendent's convention, at Portland, having been gone for about two weeks, is expected home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Watson's baby last Saturday had the misfortune to tip a can of hot coffee over its left hand, badly scalding the tender flesh. Dr. Everett was called and ministered to the child, and the injury is healing.

Miss Josephine Beach entertained a few of her girl friends last Friday evening at the Harry Bailey home, those present being Misses Frances Mayfield, Lucile and Olive Bailey, Margie Bernard, Trixy McVey and the hostess.

The civil engineers of the N.-C.-O. Ry. are engaged in surveying the ground for a sidetrack and Y at the new station known as Wendell, 8 miles south of town. The Y it is reported, will be used for reaching a landing on the lakeshore.

The net profit for the November of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines Co., of which George Wingfield is the principal owner was $510,596.68. That beats chasing mavericks on the Lake county ranges, which was George's former occupation.

Geo. P. Lovegrove, a former well known businessman of Lakeview but now a resident of Vallejo, Cal., is paying this section a visit.

O. C. Gibbs, an attorney recently of Dickinson, N. D., arrived in Lakeview a few days since and has decided to locate here. He has taken offices with the Morgan Abstract Co.

Louis Kendi, of the Lakeview Brewing Co., has been spending the holidays in California. He expected to be back today, but his many friends are guessing that he will be delayed.

The Rebekah Tauxup Club entertained their friends at the Odd Fellows hall last Friday evening with a Christmas tree, followed by an indulgence in cards and delicious refreshments. A large attendance was present and everybody had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harvey, assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Josie Storkman, gave a midnight supper to a few of their friends Friday evening last. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McKendree, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ahlstrom and Miss Dola Garrett, being the guests.

The Commercial Club of this city has been notified by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco that W. P. Berry of the Crocker National bank has been selected to represent that city at the Lakeview celebration of Railroad Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Bennett, of Warner Valley, returned Friday from Santa Rosa, where they have been staying during the early portion of the winter. They were met in Lakeview by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Wakefield, and escorted to their home.

If those in the city who are interested in the organization here of a literary society will notify the local editor of the Examiner he will call a meeting of a preliminary character at some convenient place in next week's paper. Once on its feet such a move is certain to become popular.

Wm. Wallace, City Recorder, met with an accident last Friday. He was carrying in a load of wood at his residence, when he slipped and fell heavily to the floor, falling on some of the fuel, resulting in injuring two of his ribs and causing a shock to his system, from which he has suffered a good deal since.

F. E. Anderson, county commissioner, who lives 140 miles north of Lakeview, arrived Monday evening on the stage to be in attendance at the regular meeting of the county court on Wednesday. Folks don't generally comprehend the fact that Lake county is bigger than the whole state of New Jersey, but it is.

Word has been received that the furnace for the steam heating plant of the new high school building arrived at San Francisco on the 29th. It was shipped round the Horn from Erie, Penn. It was shipped for Lakeview on the 2d, and is expected to arrive about the 15th, and it will take some ten days more for its installation.

The cold snap which succeeded the snowstorm of the latter part of last week has been the most severe this vicinity has experienced for several years. Tuesday morning the mercury registered 4 degrees below, and yesterday the record of instruments varied from 13 to 20. As soon as the sun came up, however, the weather moderated.

Senator Bourne has joined in the recommendation for the reappointment of F. P. Cronemiller as receiver of the U. S. Land Office at this place, and hence it is assured that Mr. Cronemiller will secure the desired position. It is likely that the appointment will be made this week, although possibly the President will not send in the nomination until next Tuesday.

The New Years' Leap Year dance, which was to have been given by the Wizards last Monday evening, was postponed because of the untoward death of City Marshal Brown, and sadness took the place of joy and gladness in the hearts of the young people. The event was as sad as it was startling and unexpected. Truly, one never knows what a day will bring forth.

The greatest difficulty which has been met with by the ladies who have been trying to arrange for the entertainment of the guests of the city on Railroad Day is because no body could tell within a hundred how many would have to be provided for, and this fact will not become known—and indeed cannot become known until Saturday—after the train is well on its way from Reno, from which place it is to start at 7 a. m. It has been reported that 100 will come from Alturas, but unproven.

weather may cut this number down a good many numbers.

Stratton-Moulton

Joseph Leroy Stratton, of Fort Rock, and Miss Augusta Moulton De Forest of Washington, D. C., were married Thursday, the 14th of December, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter Hansen, in Ardenwald near Portland. The marriage ceremony was read Rev. H. L. Bates of Pacific University in the presence of twenty-five friends of the families. A United States flag formed the background with ferns, Oregon grapes and cut flowers for decorations. The bride wore a brown velvet traveling suit. Little Bertha Hansen and Mary Pierce, nieces of the bride, acted as ring bearer and flower girl respectively. "Oh Promise Me" was sung by Miss Christina Olson. The wedding march was played by Mrs. C. R. Dannels.

Mr. and Mrs. Stratton left the same evening for points of interest in Oregon. They will be at their home in Fort Rock after January 1, 1912.

Jolly G. G. G. Party

At the home of Miss Lura Snider the girls of the G. G. G. club, at their regular meeting last Wednesday evening had a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. During the entertainment a typical Santa Claus made his appearance, followed by the rendition of a pleasing program and the discussion a toothsome lunch.

Out of 246 votes cast last Friday in Bieber, Pittville and Providence precincts, the three polling places in the Fourth Supervisor district of Modoc county, Cal., on the "wet" and "dry" question, 164 were cast for no saloons and 82 for saloons. In Bieber the vote stood 6 for and 112 against. Pittville voted 4 for saloons and 27 against, and Providence stood 2 for and 25 against.

Card of Thanks

The undersigned take this method of tendering their sincere thanks for the kindnesses shown by many friends during and before the obsequies of their late husband and father, and especially to those who so generously furnished such a profusion of cut flowers. These generous acts will ever be kept on the tablets of our memory.

MRS. ARNETA BROWN and SON.

Services will be held in Masonic Hall Sunday morning and evening. In the morning a New Year's sermon will be preached. In the evening the Sunday school choir will sing. By request they will repeat the "Candle drill and song" which they gave at the Christmas exercises, and will sing other songs. A short "Candle sermon" will be given by the pastor. All are invited.

The Young Men's club of Lakeview gave a reception to their lady friends at the Odd Fellows' hall, as a sort of Leap Year function. About forty were present. Social games were the order of the evening, after which a supper was served—the Young Men serving instead of the ladies. It was an enjoyable occasion.

To handle best automobile built in America. Exclusive in this country. Built by Old Time Line Manufacturer. Life guarantee. Self starting, long wheel base, no deposit required. Prefer dealer now in business, but will consider live people who will enter business. This agency includes a complete correspondence sales course. Largest discount ever offered. Deal direct with factory. Address sales manager, 630 Washington St., Portland, Ore. 14-215

We Want Your Jobwork

You will want us to have it when you see our samples and hear :: OUR PRICES ::

Call at this office when in need of anything in the line of

PRINTING

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over—they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Chautauque Circle

After two weeks vacation the Chautauque Circle will again resume their work, and will meet with Mrs. N. T. Corey Monday evening, January 8. Program: Roll call, current events, "The Argentine," Chautauquan, "Reading Journe thru South America" IV. Miss Gertrude Vernon, "The Expression of American Dramatists," Chautauquan, "As we see ourselves," IV Miss Minnie Vernon, "Refrigeration," Chautauquan, "American Engineering" IV. Mrs. J. D. Venator.

A Broken Ankle

Jack Batchelder is now nursing a broken ankle, and as a consequence is said to be as cranky as a dog with a sore tail. The cause of the accident was an icy sidewalk which caused his foot to slip and in turn snapped one of the bones in two. It is likely that he will soon be seen limping around, and will then tell of the joys experienced in being waited upon with no fires to build these cold mornings, and so on. SUBSCRIBE FOR THE EXAMINER

GORDON HATS & CAPS

The New Gordon Velour Hat, $5
The Gordon Telescoped Hat, $3
Muskrat Caps at $4

Extra Quality Electric Seal $5.00
Caps made of good weight fancy suiting, with lambskin inside bands, at $1.25
Plain and fancy, with muskrat inside bands at $1.50

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Here They Are

Every Ladies' Suit in the House Must Go—And Go Quick.

EVERY ONE A La VOGUE SUIT

Look At These Prices:

Regular	$16.50	Suits, now	$11.00
"	18.50	"	12.50
"	20.00	"	14.25
"	22.50	"	16.50
"	25.00	"	17.50
"	27.50	"	18.50
"	30.00	"	19.50
"	35.00	"	22.50

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over—they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.