LA FOLLETTE WILL STAY IN THE FIGHT

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Without referring to Governor Chase S. Osborn's suggestion in a speech at Lansing, Mich., that Senator Robert M. La Follette and Mr. Taft, withdraw from the Presidential race, the La Follette national headquarters here today issued a statement that Mr. La Follette had no intention of withdrawing.

The statement follows: "The campaign for Senator La Follette's nomination will continue until the gavel falls declaring who is the nominee of the Republican convention for President. There need be no speculation indulged in regarding this fact."

Potash to Be Cheaper

Washington, Dec. 31.—Assistant Secretary of State Wilson expressed the gratification of the state department tonight over the result of negotiations between American buyers and the German potash syndicate, which, it is said, will save to American potash consumers about $3,500,000 annually.

The independent potash mines, which have not reentered the situation, formerly gave American buyers a price of $20 a ton, while the syndicate price was $37.50.

Under the new arrangement it is understood the syndicate will enter on five-year contracts with American buyers at $32.50 a ton.

Brave Words

New York World: The members of a Washington club were much surprised upon a recent occasion when a certain member of that club, a diminutive person, known to be of a most timid disposition, began the recital of how he gave "a piece of his mind" to an individual who was alleged to have offered an insult to the little fellow.

"Well, gentlemen," said the diminutive member, "I gave it straight to that fellow, let me tell you, I told him exactly what I thought of him, miserable fellow that he is! In my excitement I called him all the names in the dictionary and many that are not."

"Didn't he try to assault you?" asked one of the members, aware of the pugnacious disposition of the person abused.

"No, he didn't," said the little man. "When he tried to answer back I just hung on to the telephone receiver and walked away."

Ancient Spectacle Makers.

The Ancient Guild of Spectacle Makers is numerically one of the strongest London companies. Its charter dates from the year 1029 and, though the exact date of its origin is lost, there is ample evidence that the calling of spectacle maker was extensively followed at a very early date. An old book of 1563 mentions the spectacle makers among other traders, and the biography of Carlo Zenzo, an illustrious Venetian, who died in 1418, mentions that even at the age of eighty-four he needed no artificial aids to his sight. So presumably spectacles were common in Italy five centuries ago.—London Telegraph.

Different Altogether.

Visitor (consoling to Tommy, who has upset a bottle of ink on the new carpet)—Tut, my boy, there is no use crying over spilt milk.

Flirtation.

"What really constitutes flirtation?" asked the young man of the woman of the world.
"Attention without intention," replied the experienced one.—Scraps.

House With a Double Piazza.

Design 927, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Although this house is of the square type, it has a distinction quite its own, mainly on account of the large piazza, built on two sides of the house. There is a splendid interior arrangement, comprising eight rooms, a bath, a small den or sewing room, as well as a large pantry and entry. There is a side entrance into the dining room. The first story is finished in red oak or birch and the second story in pine to paint. There are birch floors throughout. Size twenty-six feet wide by thirty-four feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $1000.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 927 for $25.
GLENN L. SAXTON.

It is reported that V. A. Dunlap has sold his coal mine northeast of Talent to the Espee railroad company.

The town council of Talent had voted unanimously to keep the liquor license at $2000 a year and not to call a special election to try and get this amount lowered.

John A. Hunter, of Roseburg, will start the erection of a fruit survey manufacturing plant in Portland. The plant will have a capacity of 75 barrels a day.

Consumption is prevalent among children of the Klamath Indians, and probably one in five of the girls and boys between 12 and 15 years of age have affected lungs.

In a gun fight between Griffin Perry and Jack Taylor at Andrews, 120 miles southeast of Burns, Perry was shot dead and Robert Settlementre, a bystander, was mortally wounded.

Asland Record: That the entire Sams Valley and Meadows district and intervening territory many square miles in extent is underlaid with coal is indicated by stories told by old residents since the discovery of bituminous coal in a well in Sams Valley at a point seven miles from Gold Hill. It seems probable that a belt of country thirty miles in length—extending from the upper Meadows to Roxv Anne mountain east of Med ord where true bituminous deposits have just been bonded for sale to a Seattle syndicate—is coal bearing.

EUROPE'S RAPACITY IS GIVEN A THRUST

Paris, Jan. 3.—The Figaro today publishes a striking appeal to the world in favor of peace, written by Captain Louis Marie Julien Viaud, best known as Pierre Loti, the famous traveler, author and friend of the Mohammedan, in which he flays the rapacity of Europe in regard to the Mohammedans.

Italy's indefensible seizure of Tripoli and her war on Turkey are, says M. Loti, manifestations of this mockery of modern civilization, which looks on tranquilly at massacre, at war and at the spilling of innocent blood. M. Loti compares certain of the European powers to vultures waiting to fill their stomachs with the remains of the maimed and dying Turkey. He declares that the time has arrived for the Christian world to cease from human butchery, for, he says, the Christians are the greatest assassins of all, killing with words of fraternity on their lips and destroying with fire and shot the old worlds of Africa and Asia, and treating like cattle the men of the brown and yellow races.

M. Loti concludes: "Wars of conquest, on whatever pretext they are undertaken, must be stopped, or the words of peace, progress and arbitration will remain empty and derisive and a shame to humanity."

Ontario has a unique license system. The Ontario ordinance provides that the number of saloon licenses shall be limited to six, and that these licenses shall be issued monthly at the regular council meetings. By this plan the saloons are kept strictly on probation.

The Borah bill, authorizing an additional loan of $15,000,000 to the reclamation fund if it becomes a law, will open the way for the final adoption and construction of the West Umatilla irrigation project.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear thro' on the floor. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken them two days we could see a change and when he had taken two-thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since."
