

Town Property

- $240.00 For a fine new 6-room house, wood shed, chicken house and barn, large lot 150x125, all fenced, about one block from High School. Just built last year, easy terms.
- $5000.00 Takes 4 lots with large house close to business center on Water street, will sell all or part. This is your chance to get a business location. Easy terms.
- $1400.00 For a nice 5-room house, also good barn, large lot 100x241, on Slash St., near the depot. Easy terms.
- $2900.00 For one of the best bungalows in the city; also new barn, large corner lot, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

J. O'NEILL
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

Farms

- $30.00 Per acre for 100 acres in meadow about a mile from depot. Easy terms.
- $10.00 Per acre for 100 acres in meadow with house and barn, all fenced. Easy terms.
- $20.00 Per acre for 100 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.
- $31.50 Per acre for 240 acres fine grain land, 1 1/4 mile from the O. V. L. addition. Easy terms.
- $20.00 Per acre takes 200 acres of timber land 3 miles from the city. Buy close in and your profits will be large. Easy terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc Co.
Watson & Striplin buy and sell second hand goods.
Potatoes, 1 t per pound. See J. B. Lane or E. R. Patch.
Salem has raised the saloon license from $600 to $900 per annum.
Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc. Co.
The best butter—Oliver's—10 cents per pound at Bieber's Cash store.
Potatoes, sack lots, 1 t per pound. See J. B. Lane or E. R. Patch.
If you want a really good smoke for a nickle, try Storkman's Leader.
M. B. Rice, of the Herald, made a short business trip to Alturas last week.
Potatoes, lots of them, 1 sack or 1200, at 1 t a pound. See J. B. Lane or E. R. Patch.
V. O. Morgan, the Paisley stableman, the forepart of the week paid Lakeview a business visit.
Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office.
A. G. Duhme, of the Fandango Lumber Company, is a business visitor in the city this week.
Ira McCool returned from San Francisco last week where he has been for the past few months.
F. A. Fitzpatrick is the recipient of a beautiful peacock which was sent him from Bakersfield, Calif.
George and Charley Nelson, two of the West Side's hustling farmers, were in town the first of the week.
Good dry 10-inch wood for sale by B. S. Tatno. Leave orders with G. Sherman Easter.
The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will in the near future present a popular drama at the opera house.
The City Transfer now has its headquarters at Keene & Barnes' cigar store. The phone number is 392.
The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vandervort.
Miss Docia Willits returned home Saturday last from her school at Cogswell Creek, for a stay over Sunday.
H. A. Solomon and C. W. Meadows, of San Francisco, are amongst the traveling men in Lakeview this week.
J. Korn, travelling representative of the A. S. Hopkins Manufacturing Company, of Sacramento, was in town this week.
Superintendent W. A. Dunaway and his assistant, M. D. Rice, of the N.-C.-O. Sunday came in on a tour of inspection.
Mrs. J. W. Nixon has returned from quite an extended stay at Sacramento, where she had been for the benefit of her health.
Mrs. F. E. Boyd returned to Klamath Falls this week after a few weeks' visit with her son Dr. W. R. Boyd of this place.
J. C. Oliver, the West Side farmer and dairyman was in town Saturday and stated that he intended to begin plowing this week.
John M. Gettemy arrive in Lakeview this week from Medford. He has purchased property here and expects to make this his future home.
Lester, son of Stonewall Vernon, who has been living at Everett, Wash., for sometime past, returned to his home place a few days ago.
The O'Shea house which was partly destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago is being repaired and will soon be ready for occupancy.
Anna M. Neilon, the womans' outfitter, left yesterday for San Francisco, to purchase her spring line of millinery and ladies' furnishings.
Baker is not pleased with the Commission form of government and a petition has been filed to do away with it. The petition was signed by 314 persons.
A. T. Langell has declined to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Klamath County, despite the support offered by his many friends.
F. D. Loveless, the well known Crooked Creek rancher, was in town the forepart of the week. He reports the condition of the roads as not of the best, the recent mild weather having drawn the frost from the ground, and as a consequence the roads are very soft in some places.

County Clerk Payne yesterday issued a marriage license to Clarence H. Young and Miss Lillian E. Pike, both well known and popular young people of Paisley.
Sam Cogburn returned last week from a five months' visit to San Francisco. Sam says the city was plenty lively, but was glad to get back to Lakeview.
Charley Gott, the restaurant man, has become tired of city life and will try the merits of the farm life for a while. He leaves for his homestead next week.
Thos. Alford came in from his ranch the first of the week for medical treatment. He will remain in town several days, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Phil Mulkay.
Judge Stephen A. Lowell of Umatilla county has announced his candidacy for United States Senator at the republican primaries of 1912 to succeed Mr. Bourne.
Herbert Lewis of New Pine Creek and Plumas Hotchkiss of Chewaucan came in town Saturday night and were initiated into the first degree of the I.O.O.F. lodge.
G. H. Hammersley, of New Pine Creek, came up to the county seat on business Friday, and took the time to call and have his name enrolled on the Examiner list.
The revival meetings which are being conducted by Rev. Melville T. Wire at the Methodist church are gaining in popularity and are attracting large attendances at each meeting.
Voters of the Crooked Creek Precinct desiring to register can do so by calling at the office of the Justice of the Peace at Valley Falls, by bringing two freeholders as witnesses.
Gilbert D. Brown and family returned this week from a six weeks' trip to California and Oregon. They came in by way of the N.-C.-O. and report having spent a most enjoyable time.
J. F. Hanson, the West Side farmer, has purchased the remaining lumber of Chas. Umbach on the Herford lot on Main and Center streets and is having it removed to his West Side ranch.
The first returns from Fort Rock precinct show that out of a total of 53 voters to register 23 are Socialists, 20 Republicans and 7 Democrats. For further particulars, see Mart Hopkins.
Jonas Kinn purchased a 1-16 interest in the Mountain Sheep mine in the Hoag district. This property is handled by McCleary & Shauer and will probably be heavily developed this season.
Waldo Mayfield, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mayfield of this city, has been quite ill for the past several days, but is improving rapidly. Dr. E. D. Everett has been attending him.
F. Fetsch of the Matchless Store is having the interior of his building remodeled and shelving out in preparation to installing a general line of gents' furnishing goods in the early spring.
Harry Utlev and wife came down from Valley Falls last week for a short visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Utlev brought down a number of deer heads that he mounted for Lakeview parties.
Mrs. Olive Gravel has taken a room in the Alfred Smith home on Water street and will open an embroidery store. In connection with the store Mrs. Gravel will also give lessons in embroidery.
We note by last weeks Merrill Record that it will change hands. W. A. Kenner of Jacksonville, to take charge of the paper this week. Catherine Prehn was the former editor and proprietor of the Record.
Harry Vernon, of the Lakeview Transfer Co., stationed at the Company's Davis Creek ranch, came up this week. He will take back some horses with him preparatory to begin the spring farming.
L. E. Seazer, who was up from Davis Creek a few days since, states that the ice on the lake has broken up as far north as Sugar Hill and that a brisk wind would probably clear the lake in a few days.
F. A. Fitzpatrick, superintendent of the ZX ranch, a few days ago returned from the Bakersfield ranch of his company, bringing with him a thoroughbred stallion. It is proposed to use him in breeding saddlehorses.
The Wizards have announced that their Leap Year dance will take place Feb. 14. The younger set are making great preparations for the event, and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind that has ever taken place in Lakeview.

Lakeview is surely enjoying fine spring weather. Warm balmy days interspersed with sunshine, makes a real representation of Southern California weather.
During the past few days a number of the young men have been unusually courteous to their lady friends. Possibly the announcement of the Leap Year dance by the Wizards has a distinct bearing in such cases.
Al Smith of the Arcadia Theatre has had a sign showing the changes of program placed at the side of the post office window. The sign will remain permanently and each change of pictures will appear on this bulletin.
Chas. E. Rice returned last week from a short trip to Warner and Surprise Valleys. He will leave shortly for Alturas where he has accepted a position as hand director and it is his intention to remain there permanently.
Harry Riggs came in from Warner on his way to meet his daughter at Seattle, who has been attending school at that place. The young lady has had enough of city life for the time being and will return with her father in a few days.
Wm. Burzen, of New Pine Creek, has been appointed by Governor Johnson as Supervisor of the Fourth District, to serve out the unexpired term of J. H. Dawson, deceased. Mr. Burzen is well qualified for the position and will make a good supervisor.
Mrs. W. H. Shirk was called to Berkeley, Cal., this week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Crow, and sister Mrs. L. D. Shirk. The message announcing their illness was wholly unexpected, and at the time of her departure she was unaware of the cause or nature of their illness.
J. F. Mayfield, of the Goose Lake Valley Meat Co., sold the company's bulls that were being fed at New Pine Creek to the Nevada Packing Co., at Reno. Mr. Mayfield included enough beef cattle in the sale to complete a car load and they will be shipped from New Pine Creek tomorrow.
The many friends of J. M. Batchelder were pleased to see him able to be on the street this week after having been confined to his home for several weeks caused from the results of a broken ankle. Mr. Batchelder is compelled to walk with a cane, but we trust in a short time he will be entirely recovered from the fracture.
The official call has been issued for an irrigation congress to be held in Portland February 19, 20 and 21. It is expected that several persons from here will attend, among those mentioned being Col. F. P. Light, Dr. E. D. Everett, W. Lair Thompson, V. L. Snelling, G. W. Rice and F. P. Cronmiller.
The preliminary hearing of Jack Taylor, who killed Perry and Robert Settlementy at the Elmer Carlson ranch near Andrews, last December, was held before Justice Randall of Burns and Taylor was bound over to the grand jury charged with murder in the first degree without bonds. Circuit court meets in Harney county in April.
F. G. Burns, father of Mrs. R. Fetsch, of Lakeview, on the evening of January 23 died at the family home in Grants Pass in his 73d year. While visiting his son, Mark L., at Doris a few months since Mr. Burns was stricken with paralysis, which finally resulted in death. Besides his wife he leaves a family of seven children.
The girls of the G. G. G. Club are preparing a play which will be put on at the Snider opera house about February 21. The title of the bill is "Your Innocents" and thirteen characters are included in the cast. The G. G. G. club girls have quite a reputation in the theatrical line and no doubt they will succeed in giving a very pleasant entertainment.
It is reported that "Paisley" Pat Muroh, who was arrested Tuesday at Paisley for drunkenness, accidentally set the jail on fire, and had it not been for the marshal's quick return, would have perished in the flames. The marshal not only saved the life of the inmate but probably the town from a serious conflagration. Muroh was taken before a magistrate and fined $50 for disturbing the peace.
W. Lair Thompson returned from his professional visit to Alturas Friday, in a highly elevated frame of mind, having won the case he was engaged to try and settled another which had been pending for some time; and while he was waiting for his train on which to come home he received a telegram from Salem telling him that he had won two cases pending in the supreme court. Truly, there's nothing like luck—except good management.

Sportsmen Beware
The closed season for geese and swan is now on, although it will be lawful to kill ducks until March 8, while there is no closed season on white geese and brant. And it will not be lawful to catch trout before April 1, although it is said the lake trout are beginning to run up the various streams. There is no distinction in trout in the eyes of the law, the penalty being the same for catching lake trout during the closed season as for any other kind.

Notice to Dancers
To those who have been attending the Wizard dances and have been displaying indecent conduct, we wish to announce that hereafter that all rules are to be strictly abided by. Therefore, hereafter all parties, regardless of sex, who do not conduct themselves in a perfectly respectable manner at these dances will be rejected from the club dances.
(Signed.)
WIZARD DANCING CLUB.

Out of Hospital
Mrs. A. Storkman received word from her husband, who is at the German Hospital in San Francisco, to the effect that his physicians did not think he was troubled with cancer of the stomach as was anticipated before he left here. The doctors apparently attribute his afflictions to general debility.
Later reports state that Mr. Storkman's physicians pronounce his illness due from enlargement of the liver. He has left the hospital and is now in Alameda.

Chautauqua Circle
The Chautauqua Circle met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Seager, Monday night, February 4. Program: Roll call; Current events, "Uruguay, Paraguay and Bolivia." "The Chautauqua Reading Journey through South America," Miss Gertrude Vernon. "The American Poet's View"—The Chautauquan as we see ourselves. Mrs. Leslie Vanderpool. "Compressed Air"—The Chautauquan Engineering. Mrs. J. D. Venator.

Reorganizing Band
Jesse Darnell informs us that he is meeting with great success and encouragement in his efforts to organize a band for Lakeview. Mr. Darnell this week placed an order with a Portland music house for seven new band instruments. The members who have signed up and ordered instruments are: Clarionets, Lovd Orle. Chester Dykeman and Ralph Southstone. Cornet, Walter Dykeman. Saxaphones, Murray Heard and Byron Graves. Mr. Darnell now has twenty-one pupils studying music under his direction, seven of whom are studying band instruments outside of the seven who have ordered new ones. He has five more prospective band members which makes a total of nineteen members interested in the band.
An effort is being made to secure the auditorium in the high school building to be used for band rehearsals. The people are showing the proper spirit in supporting Mr. Darnell in this organization and we wish it every success.

L. C. I. C. Musical
A very successful musical was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. C. W. Reynolds at her home on Bullard street, for the benefit of the Civic Improvement Club. An admittance of 25 cents was charged, and each member of the club had the privilege of inviting two friends. About sixty-five persons were in attendance. Refreshments were served and all report having spent a very pleasant afternoon. The receipts amounted to $17.50 which sum will go into the treasury of the club, to be used for civic improvement purposes. The ladies are working diligently for a good cause and should meet with the hearty co-operation of every citizen of the town.
Following is the program:
Piano Solo..... Miss Emily Ayres
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. L. Smith
Piano Duet.....
.....Mrs. S. O. Cressler, Emily Ayres
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. Thos. S. Farrell
Reading..... Miss Beach
Piano Solo..... Miss Alice Linton
Vocal Duet.....
.....Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. Willits
Viola Solo..... J. Darnell
Vocal Solo..... Miss Hattie Nysaer
Piano Solo..... Miss Kathleen O'Neil
Reading..... Mrs. E. J. Stone
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. Jonas Norton
The ladies of the club feel very grateful toward those who volunteered their services in the program, and helped to make the musical the success that it was.

Colonist Rates
The Union Pacific railroad has announced a resumption of its low colonist rates to the northwest effective for six weeks of March and April, during which time the fare from the Mississippi river to all Oregon and Washington points will be $25.
Each day of the colonist rates a through train of tourist sleeping cars with special dining car service and greatly reduced dining car prices, will be run through from Omaha to Portland.

WALKOVER SHOES

The "Hunch" model with the high, wise toe and military heel.

We have a hunch; you will like it.

$5.00

Don't miss a look at it, anyway.

Carried in Radium Calf, Vamp, Dull Top, also Tan Russia.

Button and Lace.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Here They Are

Every Ladies' Suit in the House Must Go—And Go Quick.

EVERY ONE A La VOGUE SUIT

Look At These Prices:

Regular $16.50 Suits, now $11.00
" 18.50	" "	" 12.50
" 20.00	" "	" 14.25
" 22.50	" "	" 16.50
" 25.00	" "	" 17.50
" 27.50	" "	" 18.50
" 30.00	" "	" 19.50
" 35.00	" "	" 22.50

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over—they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.