

Town Property

- $2400.00 For a fine new 6-room house, wood shed, chicken house and barn, large lot 150x125, all fenced, about one block from High School, just built last year, easy terms.
- $5000.00 Takes 4 lots with large house close to business center on Water street, will sell all or part. This is your chance to get a business location. Easy terms.
- $1400.00 For a nice 5-room house, also good barn, large lot 100x234, on Slash St., near the depot. Easy terms.
- $2900.00 For one of the best bungalows in the city; also new barn, large corner lot, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

J. O'NEILL
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

Farms

- $30.00 Per acre for 160 acres in meadow about a mile from depot. Easy terms.
- $10.00 Per acre for 100 acres in meadow with house and barn, all fenced. Easy terms.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.
- $31.50 Per acre for 240 acres fine grain land, 1 1/4 mile from the O. V. L. addition. Easy terms.
- $20.00 Per acre takes 200 acres of timber land 3 miles from the city. Buy close in and your profits will be large. Easy term

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

La Vogue suits and coats at the Merc.

For sale, good dry wood. Phone 988, N. T. Cory.

Watson & Striplin buy and sell second hand goods.

Potatoes, 1 1/2 per pound. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

Potatoes, sack lots, lot per pound. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

Nice line of ladies' two piece and union underwear at Merc. Co.

The best butter—Olive's—40 cents per pound at Bieber's Cash store.

If you want a really good smoke for a picnic, try Storkman's Leader.

Mrs. George Jones of Paisley, this week is visiting relatives in Lakeview.

Homer Morris and wife are visiting with relatives and friends in Lakeview this week.

Potatoes, lots of them, 1 sack or 1200, at 1 1/2 a pound. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

Jake Schweinforth is kept busy these days around town pruning orchards and shade trees.

Furnished front room, ground floor, 1 block from business center. Enquire Examiner office.

Good dry 16-inch wood for sale by B. S. Tatro. Leave orders with G. Sherman Easton.

Ed Pagnello, the genial traveling salesman was in Lakeview last week interviewing our merchants.

Several couples from here attended the dance at the John Mulkey place west of town last Friday night.

Prof. J. A. Richards, principal of the New Pine Creek school, was a Lakeview visitor last Saturday.

Frank Bussey and Miss Hazel Miller, of New Pine Creek, spent last Saturday and Sunday in the county seat.

G. H. Aldridge, one of Pine Creek's most enterprising citizens, came up last Saturday on a short business visit.

S. P. Dicks last week returned from Layton, Cal., where he was on business connected with the estate of his brother.

Sheriff W. B. Snider has been suffering from a quite serious attack of lumbago. He is now able to be upon the street.

A "Registration Tea" was held last week in Alturas for the purpose of affording the ladies an opportunity to register.

V. G. Allen and wife, were in from McDowell creek last week, visiting with Mrs. Allen's sister, Mrs. Chris Langset.

C. W. Reynolds, clerk of the Washington Public Service Commission, Monday returned home on a visit to his family.

Mrs. J. Chas. Smith returned this week from Chicago where she has been purchasing her stock for the Parisian Millinery.

Eddie McBroom arrived in Lakeview last week for a few days stay. He recently returned from a trip to San Francisco.

John P. Cook, architect and sanitary engineer, formerly of Alturas, arrived in Lakeview this week and is stopping at Hotel Lakeview.

L. C. Sismore, of Fort Klamath, well known in Lake County, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for clerk of Klamath County.

Since being left without a home by the fire, A. L. Thornton and family will occupy the W. Lair Thompson residence during Mrs. Thompson's absence.

A lone bandit succeeded last week in holding up the night clerks of the Winchester hotel in San Francisco and making a clear escape with a booty of $890.

N. Bieber, whose store and flour mill at the town of Bieber were last Fall destroyed by fire, will replace them on a more extensive scale than ever.

A reduction of one cent per head is announced for grazing cattle on the Fremont Forest from April 15 to November 15. The new rate is 31 cents per head.

Pastor Simmons assisted by J. B. Griffith, of Klamath Falls, opened a series of revival meetings Tuesday night at the Baptist church. The appreciation of the good work done by these meetings is manifested by the large congregations which turn out nightly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Umbach last Sunday departed for San Francisco where they will spend a month enjoying the balmy breezes of the California climate.

J. F. Mayfield left for Reno Friday last where he went to look after a shipment of cattle which was consigned to the Nevada Packing Co. from New Pine Creek.

Auten & Rinehart, hardware and furniture dealers, have leased the Dan Bemis lot adjacent to the Examiner office and have it stocked with machinery and implements.

A nation-wide movement, fostered by the Baptist laymen, is under way to induce every Baptist to contribute at least 10 cents a week toward the support of foreign missions.

Saturday night Lakeview Lodge, No. 63, I.O.O.F. will hold an especially interesting meeting at its hall, when the second degree will be put on and two candidates initiated.

The old city pump, accessories and other more or less useless articles were moved from the Town Hall to Wm. McCulley's property on Slash street, this week, where they will be stored.

The ballasting crews on the N.-C.-O. are now at work north of Funk's Point, and should weather conditions prove favorable they should complete the work to Lakeview by the end of next week.

Dr. E. H. Amsden, Monday, came up from New Pine Creek for the first time since his recent severe illness. The doctor is now enjoying excellent health and rapidly increasing in weight.

Klamath Falls is to have a box factory. The Johnson-Clarke company are the main promoters of the scheme, and Klamath's unlimited timber supply and power facilities justify an industry of this sort.

George S. Down was up from the valley Monday. He says the farmers are all beginning their spring plowing and that he is preparing to begin breaking some new land on the V. L. Snelling ranch.

T. J. Evans, of the Paisley section a few days ago returned from Kansas City, Mo., where he was called by the death of his father. He was met here by his wife, who has been visiting Lakeview friends.

Mrs. Richard Kingsley and son, Major, returned Tuesday from an extended trip through Western Oregon and California. They report an enjoyable time and Mrs. Kingsley a health much improved by the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis returned last week from their honeymoon trip spent in San Francisco and other California cities. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hervford, of New Pine Creek, accompanied them on the trip.

The amputation of Thomas Farrell's finger has caused him considerable pain but is recovering as rapidly as could be expected. Dr. Smith performed the operation while Dr. Everett administered the anesthetic.

J. C. Dodson this week took an option on 800 acres of land in Big Valley. This property controls the reservoir site of the Warner Irrigation Co. and the option was secured from W. T. Cressler at a price of $500.

Weather conditions during the past week have been ideal, the days being warm and pleasant with scarcely any freezing at night. Early last evening rain commenced falling and continued all night and this morning.

Mrs. C. W. Reynolds received a seriously sprained ankle the night of the fire by stepping into a boxing surrounding a fire plug. Dr. Everett is attending her and promises that she will be able to be out in a few days.

C. B. Koozer was in from his West Side ranch this week to get lumber preparatory to begin building on his homestead. He says the farmers in his section are busy tilling the soil and that feed is growing nicely.

The third-term bugaboo seems to have no terrors over in Klamath. It is now stated that "Billy" Barnes will seek a third term as sheriff, while County Clerk DeLau has announced his candidacy for the third term.

An attraction aside from an exceptionally good program of pictures at the Arcadia theatre last Sunday evening was the rendition of a violin solo by Miss Lorena Bailey. Miss Mabel Vernon accompanied her on the piano.

F. M. Duke and wife returned last week from a pleasure trip to Reno and Goldfield, Nevada. Mr. Duke has a brother residing at Goldfield whom he had not seen for twenty-six years. They report having had a very pleasant time.

A. Storkman returned this week from San Francisco and Alameda, where he went for medical consultation. Mr. Storkman says he feels considerable better from the effects of his trip, but is now being treated by Dr. E. H. Smith.

The motion picture reproduction Tuesday evening at Wizard hall of the Wolgast-Moran prize fight was well attended. The pictures were clear and gave a good idea of this noted fistic battle. Mr. Smith will show the pictures again tonight.

Paisley will furnish at least two candidates at the April primaries. F. L. Young of that place has announced himself as a candidate for State Senator on the democratic ticket and W. S. Blair will come out as a republican candidate for County Clerk.

J. A. Nelson and Frank Barnes, of the Anna River irrigation project at Summer Lake were business visitors in town the first of the week. They report everything flourishing in that vicinity and that plowing has been in progress there since January 2.

J. A. and Andy Morris, Monday, returned from their trip to California and Rogue River Valley. During their stay in California they visited with Uncle Joe Morrow at Santa Rosa and had a very pleasant time. They found a wonderful change in Rogue River Valley, where they spent their boyhood days, the whole country being planted in orchards.

Mrs. Ruby Maynard, formerly Miss Pinkney, and Mrs. Lola Hall, formerly Miss Pleasants, came down from Lakeview last Wednesday, on a visit to their many friends. Mrs. Hall now resides at Lakeview, and was accompanied by her little daughter, while Mrs. Maynard has her home at Stockton.—Alturas New Era.

Miss Afton Young, of Cascade Locks, Sunday evening arrived in Lakeview on a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. W. Orton. She enjoyed the trip over from the Falls very much, the novelty of a stage ride and pleasant weather in mid-winter offsetting the disagreeable features of the trip.

Albert Wolter was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing, on January 29, for the murder of fifteen-year-old Ruth Wheeler, nearly two years ago. Wolter left a statement with Warden Kennedy denying that he committed the crime. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

Edwin Hawley, one of the most prominent financiers and railroad men of the country died February 1, at his home in New York city. He had been planning a merger of railroads of the south and southwest that would have been for that country what the Harriman system is to the region into which it extends.

The warm weather is awakening the spring sports. Yesterday Tom Curran, of Hotel Lakeview, upon a wager, sprinted off 100 yards in just 14 seconds and took the money. The bet made was that he couldn't make the distance in that time. Tom didn't have any time to go on, but said after taking the money, that it was all that was necessary.

Send Bulletin: A petition for nomination as candidate for the office of Representative of the 21st district in the State Legislature has been filed by Vernorn A. Forbes with the Secretary of State. The district is composed of Klamath, Crook and Grant counties, and is entitled to two joint Representatives. The primary election will be held on April 19.

T. B. Anderson, who was arrested last week upon a warrant from F. M. Chrisman, of Silver Lake was released Tuesday after serving a jail sentence for a fine of $20. It seems that the first reports were misconstrued as Anderson made no attempt to break in the hotel at Silver Lake, but was ordered to leave by Mr. Chrisman when Anderson offended him by use of vile language and it was upon this charge that he was arrested.

In answer to a communication received from H. E. Oleweller of Harney county asking if the people can recall the county court or demand a referendum on an order of the court to build a new court house, Attorney General Crawford has decided that the referendum does not apply to the orders of a judicial body, but only to legislative enactments, and that the people have no right to vote on questions involving the order of a county court. A former decision of the attorney general is that the recall needs no legislation to be effective.

Through the efforts of the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce, a great reduction has been secured in the freight rates on grain over the S. P. line. The new rate is $4 a ton from Klamath Falls to Ashland, $4.25 to Medford and $4.50 to Grants Pass. The former rate to Ashland was $7.10 with a proportionately higher rate shipment to the more distant parts.

G. H. Aldridge, a well known citizen of New Pine Creek was in town Saturday and reported the State Line town in a flourishing condition. A new store has recently been opened in the Blanton building, while a billiard hall will be opened in a part of the new building being erected by J. B. McNew. Everything indicates a rapid development of that part of Goose Lake Valley now that the railroad has been completed.

The taking of testimony in the Davis Creek water suit came to an abrupt halt last Wednesday afternoon, after the examination of a witness, as an error was discovered in a date contained in the order of the court, which made it necessary to postpone proceedings and obtain a new order and notice. The testimony will be taken later on under a new order.—Alturas New Era.

There is considerable agitation over the proposition of forming a new county the proposed outlines to embrace a portion of Northern Lassen, Western Modoc, and Eastern Shasta counties in Northern California. As proposed the new county would embrace a territory of nearly 1700 square miles, and take in a section that at the present time is isolated from their respective county seats.

SHAMROCK STABLES HALF BLOCK EAST OF COURT HOUSE
 J. MURPHY, Proprietor

Special Attention to Transient Stock
 Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or Month
 Always Open Phone 571

LAKEVIEW - - - OREGON

WALK-OVER SHOES

The "PIKE"
 One of the leading Walk-Over Models. Shown in Tan, Calf and Black, Radium Calf, short stub toe, stilt heel, arch-supporting shank—either style—Button or Lace. $4.50 is an unusual price for so good a shoe.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Here They Are

Every Ladies' Suit in the House Must Go—And Go Quick.

EVERY ONE A La VOGUE SUIT

Look At These Prices:

Regular $16.50 Suits, now $11.00
" 18.50	" "	12.50
" 20.00	" "	14.25
" 22.50	" "	16.50
" 25.00	" "	17.50
" 27.50	" "	18.50
" 30.00	" "	19.50
" 35.00	" "	22.50

Also a few Ladies' & Misses' 1910 Coats to go at Exactly Half Price. Come and look them over—they are bargains.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Good Printing

Is the art of putting into another mind what is in your own.

IT IS A SUBTLE METHOD OF SUGGESTION

It is a means of making a favorable impression. To have the best results, it must be the best printing. That we are prepared to give you.

WALK RIGHT IN