RUSK IS HASTY

Recently there has been a tendency on the part of both "Progressive" and "Stand-pat" Republicans of Oregon to get together and let by-gones be by-gones, all working together for the general welfare. Senator Bourne a few weeks since in effect stated such to be the case, but that plan does not seem to appeal to the Honorable John P. Rusk, avowed candidate for Congress in this district. He flaunts his banner to the breeze bearing the statement that the "opposes Taft and Standardism." While the gentleman no doubt has the right to choose his own platform, yet his many friends regret that he should see fit to arouse the enmity of many of those who are seeking to harmonize the differences heretofore existing in the Republican party of Oregon. To the Examiner it appears that Mr. Rusk's taunting statement was wholly uncalled for, and in a way indicates that possibly he is out of sufficiently large calibre to fill the position to which he aspires. It is likely that the gauntlet flung down by Rusk will be taken up by some candidate who will have sense enough not to attack La Follette, Cummins, Roosevelt, Taft or any other Republican Presidential possibility.

Norman Mack, Feb. 16, resigned as chairman of the Democratic State committee and George Palmer, former minority leader of the assembly was chosen his successor. Pressure of work as chairman of the Democratic National committee was the cause of his resignation from the state committee. The disappearance of Mack means shrewd politicians say, the elimination forever of W. J. Bryan.

On February 15 Yuen Shi Kai was unanimously elected president of the Chinese Empire, after Dr. Sun Yat Sen had tendered his resignation from that office. However, he and present cabinet will continue until the new president and cabinet will take over their duties. The Ching Hwa is the official name of the new republic. Ching Hwa means Chinese.

A systematic publicity campaign to secure the department encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic for Reno in 1913, will be waged from now until the date of the encampment for this year, by the Ladies Relief Corps, Spanish War Veterans and Grand Army of the Republic organizations in Reno and throughout Nevada.

Co-operation between the Federal Government and the traffic department of the O.W.R. & N. Company may result in the early appointment of a special agent from the Agricultural Department at Washington to carry on special investigations and educational work among the farmers of Oregon.

Emiliano Vasquez Gomez Saturday issued a manifesto accepting the provisional presidency of Mexico. Gomez says he will remain in San Antonio and take no part in the warfare in Mexico. He urges his followers to respect all the rights of foreigners.

A news item in an exchange says that Utah women are forming "marriage clubs" to better take advantage of their leap year privileges. They are declaring in favor of home industries "foreign" young men being strictly boycotted.

Last Saturday zero put her freezing claw on all New York, and pitiable suffering is reported among the poor. Here in Lake County men were going around in their shirt sleeves and all were exclaiming, "what beautiful spring weather."

Heavily Endorsed

More than 10,000 signatures have been secured for the eight good roads initiative petitions of the Oregon Association for highway improvement. Supported by interests throughout the state, the petitions to be placed on the ballot the bills drafted by the state wide legislative committee and approved by the good roads association are being signed at the rate of several thousand signatures a day.

Every mail brings to the office of President Prall of the good roads association petitions from out state counties containing each the full number of signatures properly sworn to. Workers throughout the city report similar success. Six petitions, each petition carrying the eight bills with room for 20 signers, or 120 signatures, were turned in by Henry Van Matre, representing Farnie C. Riggs.

48TH STAR ADDED TO OLD GLORY

Arizona Last of Territories Admitted To Statehood

With simplicity that in matters official has come to be called "Jeffersonian"—characteristic of that part of the West which was last to be surrendered to civilization. By the advance of the whiteman—George W. P. Hunt was inaugurated as the first Governor of Arizona February 1.

Word was sent by telegraph from the National Capital that President Taft had signed the proclamation admitting Arizona, the last of the territories on contiguous soil, as the 48th state of the Union.

The ceremonies attendant upon the birth of the state and the induction into office of its first Executive, were entirely devoid of the pomp and display that usually accompany inaugurations. No uniforms glittering with gold lace were in evidence. The military was conspicuous by its absence, for the new Governor is adverse to ostentations. There was but a meager display of even the silk "stovepipe" hat and the frock coats, which only a few years ago invaded Arizona. It was a simple affair throughout. Phoenix has witnessed much more ceremonious functions.

A flash by telegraph from Washington that President Taft had signed the proclamation of admission, as the signal for a wild outburst of enthusiasm from thousands of the citizens of the new state, who had gathered at the Capitol for the inauguration. The plan of Governor Hunt for a simple, quiet, decorous ceremony was forgotten. The air was rent by "Wild West" shouts and yells, the shrieking of whistles and the heavy report of bombs.

Governor Thomas F. Marshall, of Indiana attended the inaugural. He was on the stand with Governor Hunt when Chief Justice Kent administered the oath of office.

William Jennings Bryan, who went to the Capitol with Governor Hunt delivered an address to 5000 or more persons in the City Hall Plaza.

Resolutions of Condolence

Report of the Committee on Resolutions on the death of Brother T. W. Colvin.

Whereas, Death has severed another branch from the family tree of our Lodge by calling our Beloved Brother T. W. Colvin and whereas we the members of Lakeview Lodge No. 63. I.O.O.F. are sustaining the loss of one of our oldest members. Therefore be it

One of the jolliest times that will never be forgotten by the Junior boys and girls of the Union Sunday School was given Wednesday evening February 14, at the home of Mrs. Green when Mrs. Tyree teacher of the Sanbeams and Mrs. Kirkpatrick teacher of the Scouts entertained their classes to a Valentine party. Valentine games of all kinds were indulged in the early part of the evening then after refreshments all gathered around the piano and sang several rousing Junior songs, the crowning event of the evening being the Post Office where each one went for their mail before the happy good nights were said. Those being present besides the classes and teachers were Mrs. Jessie Carr and Mrs. Keller.

Will Larkin, who has been spending the winter in the South, returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carr were business callers in Lakeview Tuesday.

W. S. Blair of Lakeview spent several days in and about New Pine Creek last week taking orders for Nursey stock.

New Pine Creek hotels were full to overflowing Saturday night. Men who are interested in the mines are coming in and later quite a rush is expected here.

The president, presided over a short business session after which a splendid program was given as follows: Reading—Mrs. Wade Duet—Mrs. Crowder and Mrs. Schauers. Reading—Miss Minnie Henderson. Duet—Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Patterson. Reading—Jessie Carr. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Schauers. Mrs. Crowder and Miss Gallagher.

The New Pine Creek Comedy Company consisting of seven characters will put on a play at the Opera House on March 1. 1912.

There were no moving pictures here on Tuesday and Thursday. Mr. Al Smith, of Lakeview, who sent for some new parts for his machine failed to get them as soon as expected, and Mr. Wendt let Mr. Smith have part of his machine until next Saturday. There will be moving pictures here again next Saturday and Mr. Wendt expects to run regular every Saturday, Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday hereafter.

Mrs. Blurton, of the Blurton Hotel, is about to reappear, paint and do other improvements about the hotel.

Henry Wendt is having gravel hauled in front of his building.

The Leap Year Dance given by the Ladies at the Opera House February 16, was a grand success. The Ladies in charge deserve much credit for the manner in which they conducted the dance. The supper was first class. The music was furnished by the New Pine Creek Orchestra.

The New Pine Creek band boys had a meeting at the Opera House last Wednesday evening. New Pine Creek will soon have an up-to-date band.

Paisley Pick-ups

(Chewaucaan Press)

F. C. Keene, of the firm of Keene & Barnes, the prominent tobacconists of Lakeview, was in Paisley on business Monday.

An agreement has been entered into between U. Koenig, of the lower valley, and F. N. Curtis, of Valley Falls, whereby the latter will bore for artesian water on the ranch of the former.

It is stated on good authority that a pool and billiard hall is to be opened in the Farra building at present occupied by Maurice Murphy. The latter is to have a new and smaller place of business between his present location and the livery stable.

Word comes from Oakland, Cal., that Mrs. Nettie Sherlock will probably come to Paisley for a brief visit in the near future. Miss Ena is attending school in the California city and likes it very well. They intend to make Oakland their permanent home.

The first warrant issued by the town of Paisley was drawn in favor of Henry McCall, for $300 payment for service as special policeman. The Recorder and Treasurer now have a full set of books for keeping the accounts of the town and business should run smoothly henceforth.

The demand for houses to rent in Paisley, which has been mentioned several times in these columns, is to be met this spring by the erection of a number of moderate priced dwellings on the property owned by Mr. George S. Park. He and Mr. Hugh K. Gilmore, both energetic and enterprising business men, expect to commence at once the building of four or five houses, and, so great is the demand, they state that they have five of them rented already. Mr. Park has been busy for several days grading the lots opposite the Currier residence, preparatory to breaking ground for the new buildings. These gentlemen deserve much credit, for not only will they work a great benefit for Paisley, but they will reap a good reward financially for themselves.

Silver Lake Items

(Silver Lake Leader)

W. B. Snider for sheriff. Look up his past performances. Nut said. We're for him.

F. W. Payne would succeed himself as county clerk. Lake county never had a more competent clerk than Mr. Payne. Give him another term.

W. Lair Thomson will probably walk away with the job left vacant by Dr. Geo. W. Merriman. Mr. Thomson will make good in the senate. He could make good almost anywhere.

Tom Bement, of Fremont, was fined $50 last week for killing venison out of season. Justice of the Peace O. F. Cady assessed the fine when Bement was brought before him by Deputy Game Warden La Sater. La Sater tried to obtain a warrant in Silver Lake for Bement, but Justice G. W. Martin refused to issue the papers as the case was in Mr. Cady's precinct. Mr. Cady could have made the fine lighter. Bement, who is a homesteader, killed the venison because he needed meat.

"Is there any chance to collect our money?" is the gist if not the verbatim appeal of a flood of inquiries received by P. D. Reeder, since the timely death of gunman C. E. Schaffer. "No chance" is the reply Mr. Reeder must send to those who have been stung by the late glib-tongued crook. These inquiries came from half a dozen communities in which Schaffer had plied his trade. Letters sent by lawyers and bankers show that Schaffer was shrewd enough to dupe wise cashiers and veteran financiers. He would borrow from banks on property that never existed except in his imagination. The "touches" range from $50 to $250. Schaffer also plastered mortgages on the property of his female accomplice. In addition to these outside debts Schaffer left a string of mournful creditors in his own neighborhood. One of Reeder's correspondents of Seattle believes the dead gunman was his father.
