 The Frost.
 Monday evening Dr. Smith was called to Plush to attend Phil Lynch, but when the doctor reached Warner canyon word was awaiting him that it was unnecessary to continue farther as the patient was resting easier.
 Mrs. E. E. Woodcock, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, was a few days ago presented with a beautiful bouquet of carnations which her sisters of the O. E. S. Needle Club had thoughtfully ordered.
 J. E. Sawhill, the well known secretary of the Central Oregon Development League, has resigned his position as manager of the Bend Commercial Club and has accepted a similar position with the Burns organization.
 U. S. Stock Inspector Wm. Proudfoot and D. P. Malloy Monday left for a tour on the "desert" to inspect various bands of sheep. It is reported there is some infected sheep in that territory and the cases will be investigated.
 Zack Whitworth was in from the desert this week, looking hale and hearty.
 Zack reports range conditions ideal, and the storms of the past week will add much to the length of time in which stock can be held on the winter ranges.
 Wm. Alford last week came over from Plush to visit his father, Thos. Alford, who is seriously sick in Lakeview.
 He returned Monday to move his family over where he will be able to be in regular attendance upon his father during his illness.
 The Bonanza Bulletin last week contained a cut of the American Eagle on its front page. The object of this display is manifested on the streamer from the birds beak, with the inscription proclaiming the success of the Horse-by irrigation project.
 Chas. Arthur and wife Monday returned from San Francisco. They have been absent since last fall and Mr.
 Arthur has been spending most of the time at San Francisco and Merrill attending to numerous shipments of muf-ton to California markets.
 Mrs. Peter Post, who has been seriously ill in Lakeview for the past several weeks, Monday was taken to a hospital in San Francisco for treatment. Her brother Finis Hickerson and Dr. Leithead, of Fort Bidwell accompanied her on the trip.
 The political situation is extremely quiet, and there seems to be no indication that they will be different before the primary election in April. Thus far the registration scarcely exceeds 200, and unless voters get busy there will be but few votes cast at the election.
 W. L. Clapp, yesterday brought over four passengers from Klamath Falls by auto. Among the passengers were Mrs. J. F. Kimball who came over to join her husband, and Walter Dyer who was on his return from the east where he was called by the illness of his father.

J. Bruner, a mining man who recently came to New Pine Creek, was in Lakeview yesterday attending to business matters. He has taken options on some property in the High grade district and was here negotiating with some of the interests of the Mountain Sneeep for an option on their holdings.
 Work has progressed quite rapidly on the Snider opera house despite the adverse weather and under suitable conditions would soon near completion.
 An idea of the appearance of the building when completed can be gained from the frame already up and it will no doubt make a handsome opera house.
 Tuesday, March 12, marked the 43rd year of Hon. C. U. Snider's residence in Lake County. Mr. Snider's career in this section has been a most successful one and his accomplishments have been many. The Examiner hopes he will live to enjoy many more anniversaries and the fruits of his untiring efforts.
 L. C. Vinvard of New Pine Creek last week returned from an extended trip through California. He came up to Lakeview Saturday and helped to swell the increasing throng of Examiner subscribers. Corwin said he saw plenty of country while away but not-thing that looked so good as Goose Lake valley.
 Fire generating from spontaneous combustion, damaged the plant to the Nevada Gas Company at Tonawash, Nev., March 8, to the extent of $25,000.
 Generators, pumps, compressors and other machinery were burned and the building destroyed. The structure was owned by the California Light and Fuel Company.
 On March 9 Abe Attell of San Francisco, former featherweight champion of the world, went down to defeat before the greater weight of Narlem Tommy Murphy before a killing crowd at James Coffroth's Colma arena. The fight was said to be one of the fastest and bloodiest ever seen between good fighters in San Francisco.
 Warren Laird last week returned from California, where he has been spending the winter with his family.
 When he left the Golden State the outlook was bad for stock and crops, the rainfall having been short. During the past week, however, there has been a good rain, but it is possible that it came too late to be of much benefit.
 The orchard industry is reaching such proportions at Davis Creek that the advisability of stationing a fruit commissioner at that place is now being considered. W. A. Green, secretary of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, recently paid that section a visit, and he is of the opinion that such action should be taken immediately.
 J. M. Small last week concluded a deal for F. W. Klippel's holdings in Summer Lake, consisting of 200 acres of deeded land and assignment of 160 acres of desert land. Mr. Klippel expects to spend the Summer in Southern Alaska, where he will promote a large financial undertaking, the nature of which has not been made public.
 About twenty of the local Gaelic football enthusiasts will leave for Plush tomorrow where a contest will be held Saturday between the Lakeview and Plush teams. A dance Friday evening will be one of the festivities of the occasion and a grand time is promised to those able to attend. Jesse Darnel has been engaged to furnish music for the dance.
 A very enjoyable whist party was held last Thursday evening at the Dodson home on Water street. Miss Della Walker assisted Mrs. Dodson as hostess and a very pleasant evening is reported. Five tables were occupied by the games and prizes were awarded. Paul Drenkel captured first prize while Murray Heard walked away with the consolation trophy.
 Fred O. Ahlstrom has again unnounced himself as a candidate for county treasurer which office he has held the last three terms. He needs no introduction to the voters of this county as he is one of the best known men in the county. By his past record in the office he again seeks, he is willing to allow the people to judge as to his fitness for the place.
 J. Chas. Smith & Co., proprietors of the Parisian Millinery are advertising their Grand Millinery opening and Second Anniversary sale to take place March 23. Mrs. Smith recently returned from Chicago and other eastern cities where she made purchases in the latest creations in millinery and the reputation established by this house in its previous openings warrants its share of the public's patronage.
