Messrs Post & King have had the outside and interior wood work about their saloon painted during the past week. The work has been in charge of James Judge, Sr.

Ben Green, a Silver Lake resident, came down last week with the skins of 17 coyotes, 3 cougars and 6 bobcats, on which he collected bounty at the County Clerk's office.

Word has been received here to the effect that Otto Lave, a former resident of Lakeview and a member of several lodges, was quite ill in a hospital of Seattle, Washington.

It is stated that practically all the building lumber at the local yard has been bought up by the Heryford brothers for their large building, now in process of construction.

The Rev. Father M. Schmitt, S. J., took William Drislane to a Sister's Hospital in San Francisco, consequently there will be no services in the Catholic church next Sunday.

The Lakeview Land & Lumber Company this week started a logging crew to work, and they will push their Camp Creek mill to its fullest capacity during the coming season.

William Keppel Barry and John Welch, local sheepmen, have purchased from the 70 Company their big strip of land at Camp Creek, and are now using the site to lamb their sheep.

Talk about things "booming"—why there never were so many strangers in town at any one time before. Maybe its because outsiders are just beginning to realize our resources.

H. L. Chandler, proprietor of the northern stage company, was a visitor in town on Friday last. Mr. Chandler is now busy at his Chewaucan ranch sowing seed for the fall crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Austin, who returned here recently from Michigan, the latter part of last week left for Crescent, where Mr. Austin is to be employed by the Forest Service.

The frequent snows and rains of the past few weeks suggest that the coming summer will be very nearly as good as that of last season so far as water and range feed is concerned.

T. Phillips, a Grants Pass orchardist, arrived by the Western Stage Sunday evening, to spend a few days visit with J. G. and George Campbell, who were his schoolmates in Merry England.

A small washout near New Pine Creek yesterday morning delayed the passenger train something over an hour. The storm was evidently much heavier down there than in the vicinity of Lakeview.

A life size statue of Jesus, representing the Sacred Heart, has been received by Father Schmitt and will be installed above the altar in the new Catholic Church. The statue was donated by Mrs. Babel.

A trip into the country several miles north and northwest will reveal many bands of sheep now in the process of lambing. The bad weather of the past few days will no doubt cause more or less loss of young lambs.

The stages on the Western mail route now make the through run between Klamath Falls and Lakeview in 24 hours, the Summer schedule having commenced yesterday. Stages arrive in the morning and leave in the evening.

The new town of High Grade promises to enjoy a boom, with a big B, soon as the snow will permit the hauling of building material to the townsite. Many lots are being sold not with the idea of speculating but for use in a business way.

The flagstaff surmounting the Forest office succumbed to the inevitable the forepart of the week, and for several days "Old Glory" was in a recumbent position in consequence thereof.

A. J. Foster a few days since returned from a visit to the northern part of the County in his official capacity as Assessor. He reports the crop outlook as excellent in every section visited.

It is reported that the building operations at New Pine Creek, while progressing quite rapidly, are very much hampered on account of inability to get sufficient lumber as rapidly as desired.

Messrs. J. F. Dailey and sons, of Salt Creek, have purchased from the Berney Construction Company the old O. V. L. sawmill, which they are now operating. Oxen are being used to snake the logs to the mill site.

City Marshal "Bill" McColley is now having West street, south of the Slash, paved with quite large rocks, over which will be deposited a layer of fine gravel. "Bill" is certainly doing wonders with our city streets.

F. A. Fitzpatrick is down from the ZX ranch, but did not make the trip in his Franklin. He states that the weather in the Chewaucan has apparently been similar to that we have been enjoying here during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vernon are now Lakeview residents, having moved up from their Davis Creek ranch. Mr. Vernon is at present driving one of the heavy freight teams for the Lakeview Transfer & Delivery Company, of which he is a member.

A. L. Thornton, president of the Goose Lake Gun Club, has made application to the proper State and Government officials for a quantity of small-mouthed Black Bass with which it is intended to stock the Drews Valley dam and Dog Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kimball, last week, returned to Klamath Falls after having spent a busy month hereabouts fixing up grazing leases of the Weyerhaeuser lands, of which Mr. Kimball is the local representative. The return trip was made by auto.

One of Lakeview's land marks is soon to disappear. The frame building between the Palace saloon and the post-office, now known as Ely's restaurant, is to give way to a modern brick building. The new building will probably be occupied by the moving picture theater of Al Smith, and Ely will have to look for another location before June 1.

Miss Katherine Bradley, accompanied by Miss Blanche Easter, Thursday last paid a visit to New Pine Creek as the guests of the former's father, who is ticket agent at that place for the N.-C.-O.

The Ladies Aid Societies of the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist Churches are planning a memorial service to be held in the near future in memory of the dead lost in the Titanic disaster.

The cigar store and pool hall of Keene & Barnes is undergoing a remodeling, and two box ball bowling alleys are to be installed, while the partition between the two rooms has been removed.

The roads are again becoming impassable for autos and they promise to remain so for at least a few days. Previous to the last storms they were in fairly good condition, but the snow and rain put them to the bad in several different languages.

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society gave a very successful supper Saturday evening in the Civic Improvement Hall. Coffee and waffles, ice cream and cake were several of the combinations offered by the ladies for which there was a big demand. A nice sum was netted.

W. J. Archer, of the firm of S. A. Mushen & Co. returned from New Pine Creek Sunday evening, where he has been assisting Mr. Mushen in platting and surveying some of the new subdivisions to Pine Creek. Mr. Mushen returned Saturday evening.

The storm of the first of the week was very general, and in the vicinity of Alturas a heavy rain and windstorm prevailed for several days. So far as heard from no damage resulted, however, and the rain will be of much benefit to the whole country.

R. A. Eichelberger, route agent of the Wells Fargo Express Co., was in Lakeview last week with local agent, A. L. Thornton. Wednesday they went to New Pine Creek for the purpose of looking over the ground, preparatory to installing an office at New Pine Creek.

W. S. Towner, chief clerk of the U. S. Land Office, after an absence of several months in New York, Monday evening returned home. His wife, who on account of ill health accompanied him east, was unable to return at this time, although her condition is much improved and there is no doubt but that she will fully regain her health in the near future.
