

Town Property

- $2800.00 For a new 6-room house, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 125. Fruit trees and lawn, close in, on Dewey and College Streets. Easy terms.
- $2000.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 5-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and five fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $2400.00 For a fine new 6-room house, wood shed, chicken house and barn, large lot 150x125, all fenced, about one block from High School, just built last year, easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP

GENERAL REAL ESTATE

Lakeview : Oregon

Spring Specials in Farms and Timber

- $15.00 per acre for 80 acres, 5 miles West of Lakeview; fine, deep soil, easy terms.
- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $15.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine timber close to mill. Over 2,000,000 feet, 17 miles from Lakeview.
- $20.00 Per acre for 240 acres, 8 miles west of town, good sage brush land. Easy terms.
- $25.00 Per acre for 30 acres, 7 1/2 miles N. W. town, 15 acre water right, mostly under cultivation. Terms cash.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1912.

New White Buck Pumps at Merc. Co. Big line of muslin underwear, Merc. Co.

Ed Calderwood, of Adel, was in town during the week.

Jim Barry, Jr., was in from the sheep camp Friday last.

Mrs. Jim Boydston, of a the West Side was in town Saturday.

Pearl Ingram, of Salt Creek, was one of last Friday's visitors.

When you want a ladies suit remember we have the La Vogue. Merc. Co.

For Sale Cheap—Potatoes in any quantity. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

L. A. Carriker, the West Side rancher and stockman, was one of Saturday's visitors.

Geo. Ranney, a well known business man of Paisley, came down Tuesday on a business visit.

Dan Chandler, the veteran stockman, came in from his Drews Valley ranch the forepart of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Follett, of New Pine Creek, were Lakeview visitors on Friday and Saturday last.

Charles E. Rice, former band master here, Tuesday night, came up from Alturas on a brief visit.

Mrs. W. K. Barry is now entertaining as guest her niece, Miss Flaherty, who arrived several days ago from San Francisco.

Gardens about town are now beginning to make a showing, the call of Spring having delayed almost any growth whatever.

The ladies of the Methodist Aid Society held a very nice meeting on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Fettsch.

M. E. Padden, traveling auditor for the N.-C.-O., was in Lakeview the forepart of the week checking up the accounts of the local office.

Tom Pratt, whose whereabouts were unknown for sometime, last week, reappeared in town on a visit to his mother, Mrs. C. C. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Burns are now residents of Lakeview, having arrived from Sacramento a few days since. Mr. Burns is a brother of Mes. F. Fettsch.

Lost: One automobile tail lamp, Wednesday night, between depot and Southstone's garage. Finder please return lamp to garage and receive reward.

Upwards of 50 large stacks of hay along the upper lake shore may be seen from Lakeview, thus evidencing the mild winter through which we have just passed.

J. B. Auten, the hardware dealer, has received a large consignment of farm wagons, all of which are now on exhibition in the lot north of the Examiner office.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sherlock and son Irving, have returned from Los Angeles, where they spent the winter and will remain in Lakeview until the storms drive them south again.

The interior of the new house under construction for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rinehart is now being painted and varnished, and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy within a few days.

Dave Denaby, the local sheep man, Monday night returned by train after an extended visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other California points. Dave was glad to be with us once again.

For Sale—A ten acre tract with town lot and full water right. Furnished house, good water and four acres in cultivation. Abstract and clear title furnished for $500. Inquire at the Examiner Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tatro, of the West Side were in town on Friday last. They expect to remove into town to reside permanently within a few days, and will occupy the Will Metzger house, north of Slash.

Mr. Padden, Traveling Auditor of the N.-C.-O., arrived in Lakeview Monday night, accompanied by Mr. Walker, who is to assume the duties of station agent at New Pine Creek. They went to New Pine Creek Tuesday morning.

Burglars last night effected an entrance into the pool rooms of Keene & Barnes and Vanderpool & Combs and T. H. Cloud's Candy Kitchen, and received for their trouble $9.95 from the first, $7.50 from the second and $1 from the third. Entrance was effected in each instance from rear windows.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer.

Floss pillows and pillow cords square and oblong, Merc. Co.

Joe Tracy has accepted a position at the Shamrock Livery Stables.

See Agatha Cole, in an appropriate role, at the opera house Saturday night.

To see Horace Cole, will be good for your soul. Opera house Saturday night.

Mrs. Daniel O'Shea has had her house on Dewey street treated to a fresh coat of paint.

Porter Woods, of the West Side, was in town last week on a several days visit.

Charlie Reed, the milk dealer, was confined to his home by illness the forepart of the week.

C. D. Fisk, of Patch & Fisk, is back in town after a several weeks business visit at Pine Creek.

Got a garden? If not, you had better start in to raise something right away. It's the fashion nowadays.

Mrs. G. B. Whorton, who has been in California for sometime past, is expected to arrive home this evening.

R. R. Vandervort, who has been doing some carpenter work at Pine Creek, Saturday, came up on a visit to his family.

The City Council will meet in special session this evening to consider matters in connection with the proposed sewer system.

Messrs. Vanderpool, Dykeman and Venator, Sunday, went by auto to Drews Dam, where they enjoyed some excellent fishing.

Eggs are plentiful these days. Almost every rancher who comes in brings with him a supply of eggs for the local stores.

Preparations are now being made for the big ball to be given on the night of April 17, by the local order of Elks. None should fail to attend.

H. V. McNamara, Traffic Manager of the N.-C.-O. came in Monday night and returned as far as Likely on Tuesday's south bound freight.

Bert C. Thomas, a special agent of the General Land Office, was in town Monday looking after some business before the local Government land office.

D. P. Malloy left for San Francisco the first of the week, being called as a witness in the Chinese killing which he and Sheriff Snider witnessed there last Fall.

F. W. Snellor, the photographer, came in Monday evening from the South. During the past winter he has traveled extensively along the Coast and in Nevada.

Superintendent W. A. Dunaway and Traffic Manager H. V. McNamara, of the N.-C.-O., made an official trip over the road this week, spending Monday night in Lakeview.

H. G. Weal, of Drews Valley, was in town this week. He reports range conditions as being exceptionally promising in his section and that the crop outlook is also good.

A. Seppala, who has a homestead in Canada, Monday passed through town enroute south. Mr. Seppala made the trip through from Bend, and was favorably impressed with all the country he saw enroute.

C. M. McCabe, until recently employed at the postoffice, yesterday morning, left in his auto for Grant's Pass. He will visit the entire Rogue River country with a view of locating permanently.

Rial Striplin, of the Second-hand Store, left Saturday morning for Fresno, California, where he will act as a delegate to the convention of the Ancient Order of Foresters. He will be absent for at least a week.

Contractor G. B. Graves is now securing rock near Blackcap for the foundation of the residence to be erected on the north side of the Catholic Church, and which is to be occupied, when completed, by the pastor.

Stanley Hanson, of the Point Ranch, was in town last week for a few days rest. Stanley states that Roosevelt's theory of the "strenuous life" is being developed upon at the Ranch, and he has to knock off occasionally to rest up.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Easton, who was taken to San Diego about a month ago to be operated upon for appendicitis, is now reported to be getting long nicely and is expected back here within the next week. Mr. and Mrs. Easton will return with him.

Something good at the opera house Saturday night.

Be sure to be at the opera house Saturday night.

Andrew Morris, the Crane Creek rancher, was in town Saturday.

Madame Christine—should be seen—at the opera house Saturday night.

William Curtis, the Valley Falls homesteader, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

David Handbury Sr., a well known resident of the West Side, was in town Friday.

C. C. Loftus came in Tuesday from his Crane Creek ranch for a visit with his family.

W. O. Harmon, of the Geological Survey, has resigned his position with the Service.

The Wizards held a very nice dance on Saturday evening, a large attendance being present.

G. W. Johnson is installing cement walks on his residence property on South Dewey street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherrard, who occupy the Elmer McCulley ranch down the valley were in town Saturday.

Geo. McGrath has been appointed marshal of Alturas, having assumed the duties of the office a few days since.

County Commissioner Anderson, of Lake, has been a visitor here the past week attending the session of county court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lehmann were up from their ranch the latter part of last week attending to some business matters.

Bill Simmons, the Valley Falls hunter, taxidermist, etc., was in town Friday last attending to various business matters.

Fred Bliss, formerly a blacksmith here, last week passed through town enroute from Paisley to his homestead in Warner Valley.

Dr. H. W. Herman, an eye specialist and a graduate of a Chicago school, has been in town for the past two weeks looking up business.

"Cap" Brown is still a-wonderin' where all the strangers came from. "Cap" say the old town isn't like it used to be, but there's plenty of room for all. More, too.

Carpenter Burris was again busy last week adding new mail boxes to the Post Office. The demand appears to be greater than the supply.

F. J. DeLongchamps, architect of the Heryford building and the new depot, arrived last evening from San Francisco to look over the work now in progress.

A. C. Christie the lumber man, has returned from a prolonged trip to his home in the east and is making arrangements to reopen his sawmill near Salt Creek.

Judge Farrell wears his new honors with becoming dignity, and it is difficult for the average person to tell by his bearing that he is now a full-fledged Justice of the Peace.

All persons interested in the observance of Decoration Day will meet with the veterans and Spanish War veterans, Saturday afternoon, May 11, at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Featheroff and the latter's father, H. Pagnolo, are now residents of Lakeview. They are from Cedarville, and Mr. Featheroff has purchased an interest in the Goose Lake Valley Market.

The ladies of the Baptist Aid Society held a sale of ice cream and cake on Friday afternoon last at the Baptist Church. A nice sum was netted, and the ladies are thankful to all who helped out in any way.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKee to the effect that they had reached Corvallis without mishap. They stopped over at several points enroute from Lakeview to renew acquaintances among old friends.

M. E. McGrath who has been representing the New York Life Insurance Company in Lakeview since railroad day, Jan. 7th, returned to Reno Friday morning. His many friends will be glad to greet him on his return.

P. C. Vought, a new settler who recently acquired the Hartzog ranch a mile west of the Crane Creek school house, was in town the forepart of the week. Mr. Vought is very favorably impressed with the country hereabouts.

Curtis & Sons, of Valley Falls, have just received a fine well-drilling outfit with which they can go down 2000 feet. Their first work will be on the Koenig ranch near Paisley, after which they will sink a well for the 2X people and others.

Watson & Striplin buy and sell second hand goods.

Colonial draperies and nets in big variety, Merc. Co.

J. W. Fitzwater, the West Side rancher was in town on Saturday last.

Phil Barry took a trip to Frisco and other California points Friday morning.

J. C. and Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek, were among Tuesday's visitors.

W. H. Hayes, a well known resident of Silver Lake, is in town on a business visit.

Sam Bailey, the indefatigable, has accepted a position on the new Heryford building.

Roy Carey was another of the many West Siders who appeared in town on Saturday last.

Walter Lyon, the Warner Valley stockman and rancher, has been town during the past week.

Henry Fox, who has a homestead this side of Drews Gap, was in town last week for supplies.

H. J. Stein and L. P. Mauzey, well known citizens of Warner, spent several days in Lakeview during the past week.

Frank Wilson, the well known rancher was in town for several days last week looking after some business interests.

The regular monthly meeting of the Commercial Club will be held Monday night in the Ladies Civic Improvement Club rooms.

Deputy State Game Warden William La Sater was in town Tuesday and Wednesday of this week attending to some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. James Young with boys, last week, left for the Camp Creek sawmill, where logging operations have been started.

Harry Vernon, of the Lakeview Transfer, was kicked by one of his horses last week and for several days walked with a decided limp.

S. B. Chandler, was another of the veterans who appeared in our midst during the past week. Mr. Chandler was in from Crooked Creek.

Col. F. P. Light has been elected a delegate by the Lakeview lodge to the Odd Fellows grand lodge which meets at Hood River two weeks hence.

Mayfield Boone, a former Lakeview boy, Saturday, came up from Pine Creek on a business visit, incidentally renewing acquaintances with many local friends.

Mrs. G. M. Causey this morning left on a visit to her home at Oregon City. As a consequence Guy is likely to have a high old time for the next several weeks.

Mrs. A. Day Parker, of Portland, last Monday gave birth to a baby girl. Mrs. Parker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell, and the relatives are happy over the event.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler came in Friday from Crooked Creek on a brief business visit. Mr. Chandler reports that all hands are now busy with the sheep which are lambing.

Mrs. W. B. Snider, who has been dangerously ill in California, is reported much better, although her condition is still serious. Her many friends here sincerely hope that she will shortly regain her health.

Although quite a little building is going on here at the present time, we would advise no mechanics or laborers to come in for work. Many are already on the ground and the supply is greater than the demand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heryford were very pleasantly surprised this week by the arrival of their daughter, Mrs. John Young, and children of Bethany, Mo., and their son Felix, who has been in California for some time past.

W. C. Laird, of Blue Joint, will this year irrigate a large section of meadow land by means of a pump operated by a gasoline engine. The outfit arrived here a few day since, and Mr. Laird will be in after it in a few days.

A. Keister, who has a ranch to the north west of town, was a visitor Saturday. It was Mr. Keister's team which ran away on Main street, and which finally stopped when they ran astraddle of a telephone pole on Slash street, in front of the Frank Wilson residence.

The memorial services held at the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon in memory of the victims of the Titanic were largely attended. An interesting program was rendered, appropriate remarks being made by Revs. Wire, Grigby and Simmons. The music was especially good, and much credit is due those having charge of the exercises.

Walters' Addition

Offers the Best Close-In Home Sites in Lakeview! Near Schools, Churches, Depot and Business Center. Buy Now! Lots 50 x 125, $140.00 to $275.00 Easy Terms.

W. F. PAINE & CO., Agents

The styles shown above were the latest in Manhattan about one hundred years ago. If you want to see the latest in New York styles today, come in and see our display of

BENJAMIN SUITS
From $20.00 to $25.00 you get the most for your money when you buy a B-E-N-J-A-M-I-N Superb fit, Careful Workmanship, Superior Quality, and Best in Style.

Britten & Erickson

The Best Values in Shoes

Queen Quality stands for all the name implies in both style and quality. The little custom touches that women look for are embodied in the new models.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

fit the foot and have no equal in wearing qualities. We have received a nice line of Pumps and Half Soles in white buck and canvas, velvets, satin and all style leathers. Prices $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00. Try them, they will give satisfaction.

The Lakeview Mercantile Company