The Horseshoe Legend.
Here is an explanation of the old horseshoe superstition: St. Dunstan was a skilled farrier. One day while at work in his forge the devil entered in disguise and requested Dunstan to shoe his "single hoof." The saint, although he recognized his malign customer, acceded, but caused him so much pain during the operation that St. Dunstan begged him to desist. This St. Dunstan did, but only after he had made the evil one promise that neither he nor any of the lesser evil spirits, his servants, would ever molest the inmates of a house where the horseshoe was displayed.

An Inconsistency.
There is a strange inconsistency in "Hamlet." It is where Hamlet speaks of "the undiscovered country, from whose bourne no traveler returns," and yet the play hinges largely upon the fact that he has had interviews with his father's ghost, who had, of course, come back from the undiscovered country.

Brown Eyes and Color Blindness.
Color blindness is one of the great drawbacks to a large percentage of men who would enlist in the United States marine corps, according to the recruiting officers.
"We have a box filled with different colored yarn," said an officer of that branch of the service. "We ask the prospective recruit to pick out green, for instance. If he is color blind he will invariably pick all the red yarn. We place it all back in the box again and ask him to pick out the red. In nine cases out of ten out will come the green."
"Another strange thing I have noticed is that most persons who are color blind have brown eyes. Once in awhile a person with eyes of a different color is afflicted that way, but as a general rule they are persons with brown eyes."—Kansas City Star.

He Smoked.
"What a smell of smoke is about! Do you allow your husband to smoke in the parlor?"
"He doesn't, as a rule, but this morning—"
"You are very wrong to allow any exceptions whatever, my dear woman. You ought not to allow him to smoke under any possible circumstances, even once."
"But, my dear woman, this morning he simply had to smoke. His coat was on fire."—New York Journal.

Good Policy.
Mrs. Stubb—Why, John, the last family that occupied this house left some old jars in the pantry. Mr. Stubb—If I'm Mary, that is a good policy. Mrs. Stubb—What is a good policy? Mr. Stubb—Why, when you move leave your family jars behind you.—Chicago News.

Cooking a Hare.
"You've heard the recipe for cooking a hare?"
"Yes. First catch your hare."
"No. First catch your cook."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Would, Indeed.
Singletons—I cannot understand why a man's wife is called his better half. Wedmore—You would if you had to divide your salary with one.—Boston Transcript

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Lakeview People to Neglect

The great danger in kidney troubles is that they get firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Help the kidneys with the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this vicinity.

N. Marchand, Warden Ave., Klamath Falls, Ore., says: "About two years ago I first noticed symptoms of kidney trouble. My back pained me intensely at night, owing to too frequent passages of the kidney secretion. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and I began using them. They restored my kidneys to a normal condition, stopping the pains in my back. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for my cure and highly recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Additional Briefs

The demand for coal is much greater than anticipated, probably on account of the cool spring which has resulted in the burning of much more wood than usual. However, the coal proposition is likely to have more or less of an effect on the wood market, inasmuch as it is much more convenient to store, to say nothing of bountiful burning qualities as compared with wood.

Silver Lake is now a full-fledged municipality, the same having been passed upon by the County Court at its present session. The officers are C. S. Reed, Mayor; J. B. Gillam, J. H. Gowdy, Warren Duncan, F. M. Christman, J. S. Martin and S. W. Martin, Aldermen; G. W. Marvin, Recorder; P. D. Reeder, Marshal, and E. E. Reed, Treasurer.

E. A. Friday, of Plush, has developed into a shipbuilder, and he will soon have Titanic II in commission on Warner Lake. The boat has been shipped in "knocked down," and Mr. Friday is now engaging in assembling the parts and putting them together. The motive power will be a gasoline engine, and with an automobile on the side Mr. Friday should be ordinarily busy during the coming summer.

"Bill" Hammersley, whose reputation as a hunter is almost world-wide, reappeared in town Tuesday of this week and states that he is here for good. "Bill" has traveled considerable throughout Oregon during the past year, but his strongest preference is for the "Golden Goose Lake Valley."

A. W. Kellogg arrived in New Pine Creek Monday night fresh from the orange groves and fairy bowers of Los Angeles. Mr. Kellogg helped put Crispie Creek on the map and is getting ready to do the same for High Grade. He is one of the live ones. ## HUCKLEBERRY SOLD TO DENVER MEN

Connemac Co., of Colorado, Buys The Gilt Edged Group

An important mining deal was consummated in New Pine Creek this week whereby the Connemac Mining and Realty company of Denver secured the Huckleberry group under long time lease and bond from the owners, County Supervisor Wm. Burgon, Mr. and Mrs. George Hammersley and John P. Bassler.

The Huckleberry property adjoins the Big Four and shows pay ore at the surface never opened. It is considered one of the bonanza mines of Camp High Grade, both because of its favored locality and its intrinsic merit as demonstrated by the small amount of development work thus far done.

The veins are well defined, showing smooth walls, and the vein filling starts right at the grass roots to respond to powder and steel with surprising values in gold.

The Connemac company is composed of active and energetic wealthy Colorado people, whose reputation in the business world is an assurance that the Huckleberry group has passed into the hands of safe, enterprising and successful people. George C. Weter, Dennis Sheedy and R. W. Reed, all prominent and popular business men of Colorado, form the directorate of the company. George C. Weter is president and general manager.
