Lakeview, Oregon, Thursday, May 23, 1912

The decision of Judge H. C. Hanford of the United States district court of Washington, annulling the citizenship of Leonard Olsson, because he is a Socialist, has been the means of much discussion and is taken as ruling of nation-wide importance. In his decision, Judge Hanford said he annulled Olsson's citizenship rights because "he admitted he is Socialist, a frequenter of assemblages of Socialists in which he participates as a speaker, advocating a propaganda for radical changes in the institutions of the country, and because he entertained those views at the time when he applied for his naturalization papers more than two years ago."

A dispatch from Washington says that Justice Charles E. Hughes will be the compromise candidate of the Chicago convention for the presidency. Mr. Hughes is quoted as saying that his candidacy depends entirely upon the wishes of Mr. Taft. Teddy says if he loses out at the convention he will bolt. This means that he will be a candidate at the November election if he has to come out a non-partisan ticket after the convention. This campaign is reaching overflowing proportions.

Seaside, Oregon, was visited last week by a $200,000 fire. The business section was almost entirely wiped out and only two stores were left to feed the town.

Mrs. Henry Heryford and daughter, Hildred, of Lodi, California, were arrivals here the forepart of the week, and will visit with their many old time friends for a time.

In the tryouts for yell leader for 1913 at O. A. C. last week Walt Dutton was an easy winner. There were seven candidates for the position, but Walt's lungs were too powerful when it came to rallying the rosters to come through.

At a recent miner's meeting held in Fort Bidwell, a resolution was adopted compelling location to be completed in sixty days instead of ninety days, as was heretofore the custom. The Fort Bidwell News says the meeting was attended by two hundred mining men.

Armour Co. was indicted by the federal grand jury charged with criminal violation of the meat inspection laws in alleged interstate shipment of meats without inspection by government agents. The indictments were returned before U. S. District Judge Landis.

A very pleasant meeting of the Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., was held Thursday evening last at the Masonic Hall. Mrs. C. C. Lofftus was elected a delegate to represent the Lodge at the grand convention to be held in Portland. Refreshments were served after the business matters had been attended to.

Strayed from Windy Hollow, about May 10th two geldings; one white branded TT on hip, hobbled, one flea-bitten grey, branded ace of clubs on shoulder. Headed towards Crooked Creek. Liberal reward for information. N. T. Corey, Lakeview, Oregon. M23

According to dispatches, unusually cold weather has been prevailing generally throughout the country, but this section had not been reached until the first of the week when the temperature was reduced considerably which was accompanied by a chilly rain and afterward followed by a light snowfall.

It is reported that the Northwest Townsite Company will use traction engines in getting in their supplies and material for the dam on the upper Chewaucan. In such case it will be necessary to construct a new road over the mountain from the Seven-up ranch which would permit of running autos to the famous fishing grounds of that section.

E. W. Garren, a large land holder and stockman of Davis Creek, was a business visitor in this city the first of the week. Mr. Garren had recently returned to Davis Creek from Southern California, where he expected to remain for the summer, but upon his arrival here he was called to Washington on business.

Mr. Roosevelt cannot support Mr. Taft for President. Mr. Taft cannot support Mr. Roosevelt for President. It either is nominated the other must bolt.—New York World.

The pupils of Professor Darnell, the music teacher, are now spending their Sunday afternoons in practice work for the band this summer. They show great progress for the short time they have been studying.

Alturus New Era: A new post office has been established north of Willow Ranch, which is to be called "The Limit." This certainly the limit so far as selecting the name for a postoffice is concerned.

A. P. Close, special agent of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, was an arrival from Portland this week and spent several days in the city in the interests of his company. H. P. Welch is local agent for the company.

The supervisors of San Francisco hope, within the next few years, to build a huge bridge to connect San Francisco with Oakland, making it possible to travel from one city to the other across San Francisco Bay, by train, in five minutes. The structure is planned to reach from Telegraph Hill to Goat Island, and from thence to the Oakland shore.

Considerable excitement was caused at N-C-O. depot yesterday morning when fire broke out in the roof of the smoker car. The blaze was caused from the pipes which became hot and ignited the car between the roof and ceiling. An ax was provided and as soon as access was gained to the burning parts the flames were quickly extinguished.

A party traveling by auto, consisting of Howard W. Turner, publisher of the Madras Pioneer, and his wife, O. O. Pruce, banker, and wife, and J. L. Campbell, a Madras butcher, arrived in Lakeview last week and spent several days in looking over the country. It was their first trip in this section and all members of the party expressed themselves as being well impressed with the country here.

George Campbell, brother of J. G. Campbell, foreman of the Examiner, a late arrival from Dallas, Texas is a culinary artist of no mean ability. We had the pleasure of attesting this statement by sampling one of "Campbell's Meat Pies" which he is now putting on the market. They are on sale at the meat markets and the palatableness of these pies is unquestionable.

The uniform to be worn by Elks at Portland Convention will consist of double breasted blue serge coat, white flannel pants, smooth braid sailor straw hat with straight brim, white canvas shoes, white negligee shirt, purple socks and tie. Every member of the Portland lodge is expected to supply himself with a uniform.

D. P. Malloy, who last week returned from San Francisco where he and W. B. Snider were called as witness to appear against a Chinaman being tried for murder of another chinaman, says that it looked pretty serious for his Royal Chinkdom. The testimony had not been finished when Mr. Malloy left, but said the evidence was developing pretty strongly against the defendant.

Chewaucan Press: Paul Drenkel, who runs a Dorris car out of Lakeview, did some fancy running around this week. On Friday he took A. E. Pearson, of San Francisco, to Alkali Lake and then picking up F. L. Young went on to Bend. Sunday he brought Mr. Young and Geo. M. Bailey to Paisley, then took the former back to Alkali and returned to Paisley, arriving here about 10 p. m. Monday morning he returned to Lakeview.

Farmer J. F. Hanson of the West Side informs us that he has sown about 700 acres of grain and alfalfa this season. Mr. Hanson is some farmer aside from being a contractor, railroad builder, etc., and has done much toward development of the West Side country. He has acquired considerable of land since locating on the Point Ranch, and all land that he buys he immediately puts under cultivation.

The Examiner this week is in receipt of a copy of the Denver Post which contained a picture of Eva Clark, who is attending a dramatic school in that city, and the announcement of her winning a prize in the Tennis Tournament. The occasion was held on Athletic day at Wolfe Hall, and in mentioning the prize winners the Post says, "Miss Eva Clark and Miss Dephine Shader were the winners of the doubles."

WHAT TO EAT

WHAT'S THE QUESTION that puzzles the housewife at this season of the year. The winter's supply of canned fruits and vegetables are gone, fresh fruits and vegetables are not ready, and spring appetites are the hardest to please.

HERE ARE A FEW APPETIZERS:

Fancy Canned Fruits; Del Monte Preserved Fruits; Fancy Canned Vegetables, including corn, string-beans, asparagus tips, and sweet potatoes; Dried Peaches, Apples, Apricots, Prunes and Raisins. Pork and Beans, Clams, Lobster, Shrimp, Salmon, Corned Beef, Veal Loaf, Boneless Pigs Feet, Potted Chicken, Kipperd Herring, Deviled Ham, Roast Beef

Now for the Trout!

IF YOU are going after them, get ready in time and don't leave things until the last minute. Look your traps over NOW and get everything in order. And be sure to test your line carefully and see that it is right. Baites will, get yourself a KINGFISHER LINE and be sure you are right. Let the other fellow tell the hard-luck story about "the big one that got away." You can always trust the KINGFISHER for they prove our slogan that—"THEY CAN'T GET AWAY FROM A KINGFISHER LINE." Come in and see us, anyhow, and swap fish yarns and talk it over. We are never too busy to talk about fishing and there are lots of "new things" to look over. We carry a carefully selected stock of the most up-to-date tackle and everything for the fisherman.

Barker-Heryford Nuptials

Judge Daly last evening officiated at a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. O. Ahlstrom, that united in marriage Mr. G. W. Parker, of Butte Falls, Oregon and Miss Hazel Heryford, of this city. The young couple left on this morning's train for the groom's home where they will reside.

Mr. Parker is connected with the Butte Belt Banking Co., of Butte Falls, and is a very pleasant gentleman to meet. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Heryford who are now living at Lodi, California. Miss Heryford returned to Lakeview some months ago and has been employed in the Ahlstrom Bros. store since her return. She is a very charming young lady who is popular in the younger set and has many friends who will regret her leaving Lakeview. The Examiner wishes them bon voyage.

Double Wedding

Saturday last a double wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bernard on Main street, when Melville T. Wire performed the ceremony that made James S. Bernard and Miss Lorina Plummer husband and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sr. celebrated their silver wedding, to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their blissful wedded life. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bernard and has been practically reared in this valley. He is a very steady young man and has developed much genius as a mechanic, and is now employed in his father's hardware store. The bride is a charming young lady of Willow Ranch and has made many friends in this section upon her previous visits here. The Examiner joins their many friends in wishing the young couple all the joys of life.
