

Town Property

- $2900.00 For a new 6-room house, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 125. Fruit trees and lawn, close in, on Dewey and College Streets. Easy terms.
- $3600.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 6-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and fine fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $2400.00 For a fine new 6-room house, wood shed, chicken house and barn, large lot 150x125, all fenced, about one block from High School, just built last year, easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"
O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

Spring Specials in Farms and Timber

- $15.00 per acre for 80 acres, 5 miles West of Lakeview; fine, deep soil, easy terms.
- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $15.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine timber close to mill. Over 2,000,000 feet, 17 miles from Lakeview.
- $20.00 Per acre for 240 acres, 8 miles west of town, good sage brush land. Easy terms.
- $25.00 Per acre for 30 acres, 7 1/2 miles N. W. town, 15 acre water right, mostly under cultivation. Terms cash.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

Big line of muslin underwear, Merc. Co.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel Bar.

Dave Jones, the sheepman, was in from camp last week.

Bill Curtis, of the 70 ranch, was a visitor Monday last.

A. M. Smith, of the Bunting Ranch in Drews Valley, was in town Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Finley, of Bly, were Lakeview visitors on Monday last.

Mike O'Sullivan, the well known sheep man, was one of this week's visitors.

Con Curtin was another of the sheepmen who appeared in our midst during the week.

Frank Rogers, of the Warner country, spent a few days in town the forepart of the week.

Charles Umbach has had a fine new fence erected about his place at the corner of Slash and Main streets.

Many of the trees in the various yards about town are now in blossom, and all present a pretty sight indeed.

"Bunnie" an old time resident mahala of Lakeview died this morning at the Indian Camp on the hill above town.

W. C. Laird was in town last week after his big pumping outfit to be used in irrigating his meadow land at Blue Joint.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public in general to attend the dance Saturday evening at Snider's Opera House.

Messrs. Venator and Dkeman enjoyed a fishing trip Sunday last to the Drews Valley Dam. The trip was made by auto.

Frank Payne is now having some repairs made to the house which he recently purchased from George Whorton, on Water street.

The Standard Oil Company last week paid a fine of $50,000 to the clerk of the Supreme Court as a result of being prosecuted as a trust.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan, of Plush, Friday, arrived here on a several days visit. They received a hearty welcome from their many local friends.

Joe and John Arzner left Monday for the Auger Valley country, where they will spend about a week in cutting their winter's supply of wood.

Mike's Saloon, owned by Messrs. Hart and Lynch, was treated to a fresh coating of paint during the past week. The work was done by James Judge Sr.

Collection of garbage must not be confined to the business section alone see that every part of town is cleaned even if it be in the most remote section.

For sale, nearly new piano, cheap for cash or will trade for horses or cattle. Enquire N. Fine, Plush or Mrs. Huntington care Mrs. M. Whorton, Lakeview, Oregon.

Mrs. Libby Salmon, who has been visiting for several months in Lakeview with her daughter, Mrs. N. A. McCurdy, this morning left for her home in Marshall, Michigan.

Mrs. Jack Huntington, formerly Kitten Fine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Fine of Plush is visiting in Lakeview this week. Mrs. Huntington has been residing in San Francisco.

M. B. Beasworth, a horse buyer of San Francisco, is spending several days in this vicinity looking over the local horse market. He reports as having made several purchases since his arrival.

Local friends of Tom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt McCulley, will be sorry to hear that he is again confined in St. Mary's Hospital at Santa Rosa, California, this time with an attack of appendicitis.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church, representing "The Roses," Saturday evening, gave another enjoyable supper at the Civic Improvement Club's rooms. The supper was well attended and a neat sum relieved.

During the past several days quite heavy storms have occurred which will be of great benefit to growing crops and the range. Farmers and stockmen are accordingly very jubilant, although townspeople are not inclined to appreciate such weather conditions as much as they should.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer.

Ned O'Connor was in from the sheep camp Sunday.

Lee Ponton, of Salt Creek, was one of Monday's visitors.

Roy Chandler is now suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Charles Harvey, of Pine Creek, was one of last week's visitors.

Floss pillows and pillow cords square and oblong, Merc. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Abbott moved into town Saturday last from the West Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Wallace, of the Chewaucum country, were in town this week.

Lend every assistance to the ladies in helping to make the city beautiful, tomorrow.

John Lewis and his team are now employed by the city hauling gravel for the roads.

Prince Christian has been proclaimed King of Denmark since the recent death of Fredrick VIII.

Anton Schuster, a homesteader, of the South Creek country, was one of this week's local visitors.

At the Ohio primaries Tuesday, Theodore Roosevelt carried the state with a lead of 15,000 votes over Taft.

A line set of polished horns, mounted by A. H. Canterbury, is now on exhibition in the McCurdy Barber Shop.

W. J. Bradley, formerly of the N.-C.-O Railway, Friday came up from Pine Creek and is now here with his family.

Ed Stevenson, Dan Jones and Tim Murphy were among the last of sheepmen who visited with us during the week.

Tim O'Connell, the sheepman, was in town over Sunday. He has taken charge of some sheep for the Mercantile Company.

Bob McCulley, of Cedarville, is now the proud possessor of an auto, according to letters received by some of his local friends.

There is no excuse! Have the garbage collected and placed in an accessible place and the L.C.L.C. ladies will superintend the rest.

C. W. Reynolds, the West Side rancher, Friday, came into town and incidentally attended the Elk's dance at the new Opera House.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bentz were in last week from the O.V.L. dam, and spent several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Chandler.

William Michaels is now visiting with his mother after an absence of five months, during which time he has visited several of neighboring states.

R. E. Florence, of Southern California is spending several days in Lakeview visiting with his brother A. E. Florence, president of the Lakeview Mercantile Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barton have removed from the former George Whorton residence on Water street, now owned by Frank Payne, to the Moss property on Center street.

R. T. Striplin returned the fore part of the week from Fresno, California, where he went to represent the local order of Foresters at their Grand Convention. He reports a very nice time while absent.

F. J. Delongcamps, the architect, arrived in town the forepart of the week to look after the work in connection with the Heryford building and new depot, as well as to take any new work that might offer.

Miss Pearl Wilshire arrived from Ashland last week and will spend the summer in Lakeview and vicinity. She left here several years since and on her return was warmly welcomed by a large circle of friends.

At the convention of the Ancient Order of Foresters, held last week at Fresno, California, it was voted to spend $100,000 towards the erection of a building at the World's Fair. R. T. Striplin was convention delegate of the local lodge.

Plans are now under way to have a good baseball team here during the coming summer. The team is now being picked and will include our best local players and Mr. Cooper, of the Inn Saloon, who is reported to be a crack pitcher.

If you want something choice and dainty in the way of eatables, just try one of Campbell's meat pies on sale at the butcher shops. They are homemade and have the flavor that tickles the palate to a frazzle. The Examiner has been favored with samples and therefore has no hesitancy in recommending them.

Colonial draperies and nets in big variety, Merc. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler were among last Saturday's visitors.

Bill Barton has accepted a position as teamster for H. H. Riddles Company.

For Sale Cheap—Potatoes in any quantity. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

Michael P. J. Barry, the sheepman, was in from Guano Valley for several days last week.

J. B. Auten, the hardware man, Sunday returned from a business trip to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hotchkiss, of Valley Falls were in town on Friday and Saturday last.

F. B. Whittaker, a homesteader of the Chewaucum country, was one of last week's visitors.

C. A. Nelson and G. F. Arthur, of the West Side section, were Saturday and Sunday visitors here.

Willis C. Scammon, a former Warner Valley resident, arrived here from Bakersfield on Monday last.

Harold Fram, of the O.V.L. Company, was in town last week from the West Side, where he is now employed.

The large carpet for the new Catholic church was received a short time ago, and this week was laid in position.

R. A. Harrower, chief engineer of the Paisley Irrigation Project has been in Lakeview several days during the past week.

George Ross, who is known to everybody locally, Saturday, returned from Stanford University for the Summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pratt and family and Joe and X. Arzner, Sunday, paid a visit to the O. E. Pratt ranch down the Valley.

Quite a number of shearers left Sunday morning for some of the local shearing corrals, where they expect to be busy shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Green and children, of Pine Creek, were visitors over Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Heryford.

Father Schmitt, of the Catholic Church, Thursday, returned from San Francisco and San Jose, where he had been on a two week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Baxter left the forepart of the week for the Dick's ranch at Crooked Creek, where they expect to spend a few days.

A good house and two acres of land, within three blocks of the Public School, for sale at a sacrifice. Easy terms. Inquire at this office.

The Wizards have secured Snider's Opera House for a dance Saturday evening. With good music this is an assured success. Everybody invited.

Dan Malloy and Pat Murphy, both well known locally, last week, returned from San Francisco where they enjoyed a few days viewing the tall buildings, etc.

A large meeting of the A.O.U.W. is scheduled for this evening in the Masonic hall. A delegate will be elected to attend the Grand Convention in Portland.

Work on the Catholic parish residence is now progressing nicely under the supervision of Contractor Graves. The foundation of stone and cement has been completed.

A number of Reno stone masons arrived here last week and went out to the Berney Construction Company works, where they will be engaged on some work for the Company.

Bill Drislane, the Irish boy who attempted suicide here sometime ago, is reported to be getting along nicely and in a fair way towards recovery in one of the San Francisco hospitals.

The Railroad Commission of the state of Cal. is in session in Alturas this week for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the N.-C.-O. Railway is justified in raising the present passenger rates to seven cents a mile.

The tri-state convention of postmasters of presidential appointment, which includes the postmasters of first, second and third classes of Washington, Idaho and Oregon, takes place at Portland June 11 to 14, during the Rose Festival. Special leave of absence has been granted to all the postmasters to attend.

A dispatch from the United Press under date of May 16th states that over 100 fires are so far reported in western Washington. Guess weather conditions in those parts must be considerably drier than heresabouts, where our streams are now running over, grass green and conditions ideal for stock feed, etc.

Watson & Striplin buy and sell second hand goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Angland were visitors here the forepart of the week.

When you want a ladies suit remember we have the La Vogue. Merc. Co.

E. J. Davis, of Paisley, was in town Monday attending to some business matter.

William Thomas and Harry Morren, of Valley Falls, were among Monday's visitors.

Ernest Meyers, the Valley Falls merchant, was in town last week on a business visit.

Phil S. Barry returned after a several days visit in San Francisco and other California points.

Letters from California friends indicate that the weather in those parts is at best 95 degrees above zero.

It has been learned that Eli, proprietor of Eli's Restaurant, is to start a cafe at Paisley in the near future.

Excavation work for the First National Bank addition has been held up some this week owing to the stormy weather.

F. M. Miller Monday evening returned from Bakersfield, Cal., where he was called as a witness in the case of Bernard C. Sitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Benefiel, of Crooked Creek, were in town Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pleasant Shellhammer.

Jim Wakefield, of the Warner country, was in town the forepart of the week, and from here took a trip over to Klamath Falls.

Vinton Miller, who has been attending the University of California, Monday evening, arrived in town to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Dicks were Sunday visitors from Crooked Creek. They were entertained as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Baxter.

Will Wright, State Bank Examiner, made an official examination of the Bank of Lakeview and Lake County Trust and Savings Bank this week.

Charles McCabe, who until recently was clerk in the Post Office store, returned last week from Grants Pass where he enjoyed a several day's visit.

The proper collection of garbage and its incineration mean more to the health of the people of Lakeview than can be computed in mere dollars and cents.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKee, former residents here, to the effect that they had purchased an 80 acre ranch in the vicinity of Corvallis.

Maurice Murphy and Jack Sullivan, last week, returned to Paisley after a several days visit. Mr. Sullivan acquired his final naturalization papers from Judge Benson.

G. E. Turpin, of Rhyolite, Nev., is among the mining men who are investigating the possibilities of the High Grade district. Mr. Turpin is a nephew of Jim Turpin, of Warner section.

N. T. Cory, the carpenter, returned last week from the Windy Hollow mining district, where he spent several days. During his absence he had the misfortune to lose his team of horses.

George Yount, until recently employed by the city, left the forepart of the week for Ashland, where his folks now reside and where he may locate permanently. He took his team with him.

The Sunday Oregonian May 19, contained a finely illustrated article descriptive of the resources of Central Oregon. Jesse P. Hobson was the author and such an article is of much worth to this section.

Miss Alice Linton who has been spending several months in Lakeview visiting with her sister Mrs. S. A. Mushen, Saturday will leave for her home in Pawtauket, R. I. Miss Linton has made numerous friends in Lakeview during her stay who deeply regret her departure.

Professor Darnell of the Lakeview band informs us that two more saxophones will arrive this week for use in the band, which will make a quartette of these instruments. He also states that much progress is being accomplished at the rehearsals and feels confident that he will have a good band for the town in a reasonable time.

C. U. Snider began operating his motion picture show in the new opera house at a matinee Sunday afternoon and is giving regular performances every night. The program changes three times each week, Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Mr. Snider is using San Francisco service and the pictures are highly satisfactory.

Walters' Addition

Offers the Best Close-In Home Sites in Lakeview! Near Schools, Churches, Depot and Business Center. Buy Now! Lots 50 x 125, $140.00 to $275.00 Easy Terms.

W. F. PAINE & CO., - - Agents

Price, $5.00

This WALK-OVER

model is called the "Dope." It has a high and medium wide toe giving your toes plenty of room—high arch and military heel. This is one of the seasons snappiest lasts. Carried in high and low cut, tan and black calf, button and lace.

A splendid showing of Odd Pants, of the celebrated 'Stag' and 'Sweet Orr' brands. All sizes and a good line of patterns, ranging in price from $1.50 to $10.00.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

"WEAR A BENJAMIN"

The Best Values in Shoes

Queen Quality stands for all the name implies in both style and quality. The little custom touches that women look for are embodied in the new models.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

fit the foot and have no equal in wearing qualities. We have received a nice line of Pumps and Half Soles in white buck and canvas, velvets, satin and all style leathers. Prices $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00. Try them, they will give satisfaction.

The Lakeview Mercantile Company