RICHARD WILLIS STARTS ON TRIP

Claimed He Was On Way To Buy Bill of Goods At Sacramento

Richard Willis, who was indicted on a perjury charge and who is under bonds in the sum of $1000, was granted permission to go to New Pine Creek the first of the week, and from that place he bought a ticket to Sacramento and was on his way to the latter place when yesterday he was arrested at Doyle. His absence would not have been detected had there not been a bench warrant issued for his arrest Tuesday evening when the grand jury indicted him on a further charge of attempting to obtain money under false pretenses and a bench warrant was issued for him.

It was the condition of his bondsmen that Mr. Willis report to his attorneys daily. This condition had been complied with to the satisfaction of his attorneys Batchelder & Combs, and he was allowed to go to New Pine Creek where he claimed to have a job. When arrested at Doyle, Willis asked to be allowed to go to Sacramento where he wanted to buy a bill of goods and said he would return in few days. He was denied this privilege however, and was held at Doyle. Sheriff Snider left on Wednesday morning's train for his prisoner and they returned to Lakeview the same evening, they being brought back to Madeline, where the north and south bound trains pass, from Doyle by auto. Willis was not lodged in jail last night, and will be arraigned before the circuit court today.

Mr. Willis' own explanation of the matter is that he did not understand that he should not leave the state, but understood that he might go where he pleased. He says he was going to work for Mr. Doring the former baker here, who recently built a bakery at New Pine Creek; that Doring decided to put in a small stock of bedding and furniture for sale there and that he, Willis, was on the way to purchase it when arrested.

College Men Snobbish

The following is taken from Grit, published at Williamsport, Pa., May 19:

That college life in America is breeding snobbery and materialism is a charge made by Owen Johnson, one of the younger American writers. He is one of the first to undertake to place the conditions of college life before the people through the medium of fiction. His attitude has caused the subject to be widely debated throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have returned recently from Bermuda where they spent their honeymoon during the winter months. The young author's wife was formerly Miss Ester Ellen Cobb, of San Francisco, Cal., and is well known as a concert and operatic singer. She is the daughter of Mrs. Della Cobb, of Lakeview.

Impressive Services

Those who attended the Presbyterian church last Sunday were, gratified and deeply impressed with the services. A song service--each song dedicated to "mother" by noted writers were rendered with tender effect. A class of little girls sang "We are little mothers" a lullaby of rare sweetness. The little girls made a pretty picture as they hushed the dollies to sleep.

Vera Vandervort and Hattie Blackburn rendered, "Mother's best of All." A duet in two parts. Mr. Harry Hunter with a guitar accompaniment pleased all with "I'll Wear a White Flower for Mother." Mrs. Thos. S. Farrell sang "Home and Mother" with beautiful expression. Ethel Webster served all with buttonaires from a pretty salver to all present. The young ladies class all wore a white carnation badge in honor of the day. The pastor preached an appropriate sermon from Matthew 11-11.

Silver Lake Items

(Silver Lake Leader)

Wednesday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock H. H. Keepey was instantly killed by being thrown from his wagon while going down the south side of Summer Lake hill.

F. M. Chrisman has become the proud owner of a cabbage planter. He intends to set out a truck patch that will make Mrs. Wiggins cabbage patch look like six bits.

P. W. Jones and wife left for the county seat Saturday. Judging from the number of our towns people going to the metropolis there will be something doing there this week.

The promoters of the cheese factory at Fort Rock have already received one shipment of thoroughbred Holstein cows, and expect another in the near future. It is not known at present when the factory will be in operation, but trust it will be no far distant date.

Miss Virginia Reynolds is now spending a few days at her father's homestead on the West Side.

Boy Scouts' Organization

ed from the organization. As an organization the scout movement is neither military in thought, form nor spirit, although it do a instill in boys the military virtues, such as honor, loyalty, obedience and patriotism. The term is sometimes confused and mistaken for the American Boy Scouts which is strictly military in its operations, but the Boy Scouts of America is non-military, and no comparison should be made between the two organizations.

Following is the basis of the scout law as described in the constitution and some of the splendid principles taught the young men: "A scout's honor is to be trusted. If he violates his honor by telling a lie, or by cheating or by not doing exactly a given task, when he is trusted on his honor he may be directed to hand over his scout badge. He is loyal to whom loyalty is due: his scout leader, his home and parent and his country. Helpfulness, friendliness, courtesy, kindness, obedience, cheerfulness, thrift, courage, cleanliness and reverence are some of the grand things embodied in the scout law.

The movement is a credible one and Mr. Wire should be congratulated upon his public spirit of having taken the initiative in this matter as well as he and the boys should be encouraged and assisted in making the organization a strong and permanent one, for upon the proper discipline of the younger race depends the stability of our future generations.

Death of C. E. McCleary

ing personality. He came to New Pine Creek in the spring of 1906, and engaged in the mining and brokerage business. By his unceasing efforts he had done much for the promotion of the High Grade mining district and the New Pine Creek vicinity.

"Tis the sad ending of a capable man and it is indeed pitiable that he should be stricken from the ranks just as he had attained the position to enjoy the boom of the new mining district and the Goose Lake valley which he had helped to bring about. May the snows fall gently upon his tomb, and his epitaph mark the passing of a charitable man.

BEST WHEAT WILL BRING BIG PRIZE

$5000 for the Best Five Bushels of Wheat in the Northwest

Five thousand dollars for the best five bushels of wheat grown in the American Northwest is the prize announced as the grand champion sweepstakes to be awarded by the Northwest Development League this year.

This is the World's greatest prize for wheat--twice as large as any prize offered in Canada, five times as much as has ever been offered before for any class of grain in the United States. The wheat is to be displayed at the Northwestern Products Exposition which will be held in Minneapolis Nov. 12 to 23. No entry fee will be charged. The samples must contain five bushels and along with the threshed grain ten bundles or sheaves six to ten inches in diameter must be sent.

States which compete are Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

The prize consists of a Big Four "30" farm tractor manufactured by the Gas Traction Company of Minneapolis and a set of plows made by the Emerson-Brantingham Company of Rockford, Ill. The tractor and plows will be delivered to the winner free of cost by the Development League. This machinery was selected by the officers of the league after much consideration of what the prize should be, and it was decided the most practical prize would be a farm tractor and plows. The tractor selected will do most anything, plowing, harvesting, threshing or freighting.

Grangers Oppose Bills

In a debate with Governor West, the Grangers made it plain that they do not favor his state bond plan for good roads. Their strongest opposition is based on the provision of giving the state highway engineer the power of designating what roads are to be improved instead of by the county courts, through a petition by the people, as specified by the county bond bill of the Grange. It is certain the State Grange will repeat last year's resolution against the state aid plan. In defense of his position, Governor West referred to a "loafing penitentiary superintendent," and said he owed the state an apology for not wielding the official ax at the penitentiary sooner.

"That clean-up is only a slight shock compared to the earthquake to follow," he declared. He reiterated previous declarations that he never would be a candidate for public office again.

Successful Engagement

The Margaret Iles Dramatic Troupe finished a lengthy and successful engagement at the Snider opera house Sunday night. The bills through the latter end of their stay in Lakeview maintained the par excellence of standard of those during the first part. The performances were well attended throughout the week, and the troupe departed greatly satisfied with the treatment they received while here and everyone a booster for Lakeview.

They went to Pine Creek from here where they will probably remain during the week. They will return to Lakeview June 30 and after that date will make here every Sunday night during the summer months.

Roy Chandler and Andrew Canterbury came in from Crooked Creek by auto last week, bringing with them a sheepherder, whose feet were so badly swollen from rheumatism and constant use that he could not walk. The man is now being cared for at the home of Mrs. Dan O'Shea.

Plaintdealer: A petition is now being circulated throughout Modoc, Lassen and Shasta counties, petitioning the State Highway Commissioners to establish the State Highway from Anderson to the Oregon line by way of Burney Valley, Fall river, Big Valley and Alturas. Copies of the petition are being sent to each section of Modoc County and there is no doubt but that if it received hearty support that it will force at least a hearing from the Highway Commissioners.
