

Town Property

- $2800.00 For a new 6-room house, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 125. Fruit trees and lawn, close in, on Dewey and College streets. Easy terms.
- $2600.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 5-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and fine fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $2400.00 For a fine new 6-room house, wood shed, chicken house and barn, large lot 150x125, all fenced, about one block from High School, just built last year, easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"
O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

Spring Specials in Farms and Timber

- $15.00 per acre for 80 acres, 3 miles West of Lakeview; fine, deep soil, easy terms.
- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $15.00 Per acre for 100 acres fine timber close to mill. Over 2,000,000 feet, 17 miles from Lakeview.
- $20.00 Per acre for 240 acres, 8 miles west of town, good sage brush land. Easy terms.
- $25.00 Per acre for 30 acres, 7 1/2 miles N. W. town, 15 acre water right, mostly under cultivation. Terms cash.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1912.

Big line of muslin underwear, Merc. Co.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

Pete Follett, of New Pine Creek, was one of last week's visitors.

Flora pillows and pillow cords square and oblong, Merc. Co.

For Sale Cheap—Potatoes in any quantity. See J. S. Lane or E. R. Patch.

D. M. Bryant, of the lower Chewaucan country, was a Lakeview visitor this week.

Hartin Prough, who has been employed cutting wood at Crane Creek, was a visitor here Saturday.

Charles Barry, of the Mammoth Stables, last week made a trip to Pine Creek with several passengers.

being the other lively contestant. Past Grand F. P. Light was the representative from local lodge No. 163.

Emil Hartig, of the Salt Creek section, was in town Friday and Saturday last attending to some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins are now the happy parents of a baby boy, born at the local hospital on Thursday morning last. Mrs. Hopkins was formerly Miss Valva Stanley.

Mrs. J. A. Jetmore, a former resident here and later teacher of the Crane Creek school, was in town the forepart of the week.

Supervisor Brown, of the local Fremont National Forest, returned Monday after a several days trip to the Silver Lake country.

Mrs. T. J. Evans came down from Clover Flat a few days since to meet her mother, Mrs. Hewitt, who came out from Nebraska on a visit to her daughter.

The Lakeview Public Schools will close today. An examination will be held in July for pupils who failed in less than three studies at the regular examination.

Jack Johnson, the big smoke, has departed for Los Vegas, N. M., to prepare for his battle July 4, with Jim Flynn. Johnson is going to put his opponent out in 10 rounds, so he says.

For sale, twenty head of horses. Few head broken, balance yearling, twos and threes. For further particulars address Box 13, Davis Creek, Calif. M29-2t

F. P. Light Tuesday returned from Pendleton where he went as delegate from the local lodge to the Grand Lodge at Pendleton. He was absent about ten days and says he had a very enjoyable trip.

Quite a little excitement was manifested Sunday and Monday last by the finding of some rock, supposed to contain cinnabar, in the hills east of town. The rock will be tested and the results known later.

Earl Abbott, who has been connected with the National Forest Service for several years, being stationed in the Dog Lake country, has resigned from the Service and expects to leave in a few days for a short visit with his wife's folks in California. He will later go to Alaska.

John Cogburn, formerly of the Pacific Land Company and who is well known locally, last week arrived here from San Francisco for a short visit with his folks. Mr. Cogburn is now conducting a real estate office in the Carr building, San Francisco.

Mr. Snider has booked Pixley & Lander for a one night engagement at the opera house next Monday night. These same people have been in Lakeview before and it will be remembered that they made good. This season they are featuring a comedy entitled "A Wife Wanted" and promise it to be a side-splitting attraction.

L. R. Jones, publisher of the Chewaucan Press, and Geo. S. Park were visitors in the city this week from Paisley. Mr. Jones stated that numerous home-seekers are arriving in Paisley and he predicts a great influx of people to that section when the Northwest Townsite Company opens their irrigation project.

Dr. E. D. Everett, who recently returned from Reno, informs us that there is a good opening in the Sisters Hospital of that city for girls to enter the training school. A new building which will give them fifty beds is just being completed and the opportunities are excellent for girls desiring to take up this class of work.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer. 2t

Cabbage plants for sale at the McCulley ranch.

N. A. Bennett, of the Warner Country, was one of Saturday's visitors.

J. S. Branch, the sheepman, was in from camp the forepart of the week.

Beginning with tonight, charge for picture show will be 15 cents straight. C. U. Snider.

Complete assortment of typewritten paper and office supplies—just received at—Thornton's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler came in by auto Sunday from their ranch at Crooked Creek.

C. D. Sessions spent a few days in Modoc County during the past week on a business visit.

Repairs are now being made to the old Harvey property, at the rear of the Bank of Lakeview building.

Many salesmen have been in town during the past week drumming up trade for their respective firms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and son were up from their ranch for several days last week renewing old acquaintances.

F. P. Lane, of the 7T Ranch, was over from Plush the forepart of the week attending to various business matters.

A good house and two acres of land, within three blocks of the Public School, for sale at a sacrifice. Easy terms. Inquire at this office.

Smith's Picture show re-opens tonight at Wizard Hall with a complete change of pictures daily. We solicit your patronage. Admission 10 cents.

R. L. Low passed through Lakeview Friday en route to his claim near Fort Rock. He has been engaged in the building line at New Pine Creek for sometime past.

Miss Gertrude Haimer, of Los Angeles, is now visiting here as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jonas Norin. Miss Haimer has been here several times previously and has many local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, former residents here, were among last week's visitors from Pine Creek. "Monty," as he is known to all his local friends, is now conducting a soft drink parlor in the new mining town.

The old building occupied by China Ely's restaurant will be razed and work will begin next week on excavating for a new brick building. Ely says he move out tomorrow, take rest, then he go back when building done.

Owing to the stormy weather of Friday last, the Civic Improvement Club were obliged to forego their work of cleaning up the streets. Their teams got busy, however, on Tuesday morning and the results are certainly noticeable.

Harry C. Hunker has acquired all other interests in the Lakeview Steam Laundry and will conduct the business in the future. Mr. Robertson has retired as manager and Austin Sherlock's share in the firm has been taken over by Mr. Hunker. Elmer Hoyt is at present superintending the work.

The state convention of Oddfellows which was held in Pendleton came to an end on Thursday of last week, when a banquet was held for past grandmasters, past grand representatives and past grand patriarchs. Medford was successful in carrying away the plum for the next convention, Roseburg being W. E. Baum, who owns a ten acre tract in Section 7, 41-19, on the West Side, is a recent arrival from Milwaukee, Wis. He is very well pleased with his allotment and optimistic as to the future of the country. He is now on his land and will soon begin to clear it, preparatory to converting the raw tract into a small farm.

The countenance of our good friend James Barry was beaming amongst his many friends in the city this week. He is making preparations to begin shearing his flocks, soon and he is assured of a good clip. Despite the unfavorable weather conditions of lambing this spring, Mr. Barry says his lamb crop will reach 80 or 90 per cent, which is considered a very good yield for this season.

The Examiner is in receipt of the sad news that Thomas A. McCulley is suffering from a serious attack of pleurisy at the Jesse Mary hospital in Santa Rosa, Calif. Some time ago he was operated upon for appendicitis, apparently with good results, as he had left the hospital, but later pleurisy developed and he was compelled to re-enter the hospital for treatment. It is said his condition is critical. Tom has numerous friends in this vicinity who sincerely hope for the best.

Watson & Striplin buy and sell second hand goods. 2t

Colonial draperies and nets in big variety, Merc. Co.

When you want a ladies suit remember we have the La Vogue. Merc. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherrard came up on Saturday from their ranch for supplies.

This being a legal holiday, both of the Government offices as well as the two banks are closed.

Mrs. Robert Weir, of Davis Creek, was visiting with friends in Lakeview the first of the week.

Raymond Utley, who has a homestead in the Dog Lake section, was in town for several days last week.

Fourth big shipment of Rexall goods received at Thornton's Drug Store this week. Everybody's taking it now.

Ned Sherlock, who has been attending school at Los Angeles, Saturday, returned home to spend the summer months.

The steel for the new Heryford building is now being received and will be put in place on completion of the foundation work.

The lambing season is now practically over, which accounts for the many sheepmen who are visiting with us.

Don't forget that we carry in stock for sale all kinds of iron, bolts and chains, thimble skulls and iron and steel axes Arzuer Bros. 2t

Excavation on the basement for the addition to the First National Bank building has been completed and work begun on the foundation.

Mrs. W. F. Grob left for Dorris a few days since on a visit to relatives. She will also visit in Rogue River Valley and Portland, expecting to be absent about six weeks.

W. G. Fuller is back from the old Mart Hopkins ranch on the West Side now owned by Messrs Dunlap and O'Neil, where he has been busy for several weeks plowing.

Mr. Snider turned over the opera house last Saturday evening to the Wizards and a very pleasant dance ensued. The maple floor in the opera house is in excellent condition for dancing.

With wool selling at from fourteen and one half to sixteen and one half cents per pound, the sheepmen have every reason to be jubilant this year. Further, it is now certain feed will be plentiful on the range this summer.

The members of the Duhallow Football Team will turn out for practice next Sunday on the grounds west of the new High School. The team will endeavor to get into shape for the games to be played here this summer.

Last week T. F. Nicholas defeated F. T. Sanderson for mayor of Klamath Falls by 218 votes. It is said that the election of Nicholas promises to bring about harmony in the city. The commission amendment to the old charter carried.

Dr. Walter L. Edwards, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, lately of San Francisco, has located in Lakeview with headquarters at the Mammoth Livery Stables. All domestic animals treated. Calls answered day or night, any distance. Dentistry a specialty. 2t

Mrs. H. W. Busselle and Mrs. J. H. Miller, of New Pine Creek, were visitors in the county seat Monday. The ladies have recently taken over the management of the dining room in the High Grade hotel in the new mining town and will conduct that portion of the hostelry in the future.

Mrs. Harry Morren, of Valley Falls was last week taken to Reno to be operated upon for intestinal obstructions. Dr. E. D. Everett, her local physician, accompanied her on the trip and assisted Dr. S. K. Morrison, of Reno in the operation. The doctor returned to Lakeview Saturday while his patient remained over for a few days to regain her strength. He stated that the operation was a complete success and that Mrs. Morren is expected to return to her home the later part of the week.

W. P. Dykeman is negotiating with C. D. Arthur for a lease on the Mammoth Livery Stables. While the lease has not been perfected it is practically arranged that he will take over the business about June 1. Mr. Dykeman was at one time associated with W. R. Heryford in conducting that business. The Mammoth Stables is one of the largest and best equipped livery establishments in Southern Oregon, and no doubt under the able management of Mr. Dykeman will make a most profitable enterprise.

Pearl Ingram, of Salt Creek, was in Saturday for supplies.

Will Rehart was in from camp the forepart of the week.

Douglas Tracy, of the Drew's Valley section, was in town Saturday for supplies.

J. S. Kelsay, of the Paisley section, was a visitor here the forepart of the week.

Thomas Curtin, a homesteader of the Dog Lake country, was one of Saturday's local visitors.

Jack Flynn, the local business man, last week, made a trip to New Pine Creek to view the sights.

Nora Barry, who has been in charge of the Plush school, returned home Saturday for the Summer vacation.

Bill McCulley has resigned his position as City Marshal and is again working with his team on the city streets.

Gus Schroder, of Silver Lake, was in town for several days last week shaking hands with many local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Payne yesterday moved into their new house on Water street, which he recently purchased of George Whorton.

Uncle Dick Kingsley reports that lots in the Kingsley addition of New Pine Creek are bringing steady sale and a being disposed of quite rapidly.

Miss Dorothy Bieber, who has been attending the King Conservatory of Music, in San Jose, is expected to arrive home Monday next to spend her vacation.

A telephone line is now being constructed by the Forest Service from the Dog Lake station to the C. L. Becraft ranch, in Long Valley. The distance is approximately 5 miles.

All Lutherans of Lakeview and vicinity desiring to form a Lutheran Church are requested to communicate with Pastor Sebe, Drews Valley Gap, stage station, Lakeview, Oregon.

Con Taylor, the well known sheepman, was a visitor in town over Sunday and while here managed to sell his wool to the Bailey & Messingill Company for sixteen and one half cents per pound. This is about the record price paid this year.

Forest Supervisor Gilbert D. Brown returned the first of the week from a trip to the Northern part of the county where he went on duties connected with his office. He states that stock men in that vicinity are highly pleased with range conditions, and are all looking forward to a prosperous year.

The weather has all appearances of clearing up. The sun came out bright this morning after a continued stormy spell. No cold weather has been experienced and during the past ten days of rain, occasionally interspersed with light snows at night, no cold weather has followed that would damage the fruit.

A tin shower party turned out in force Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Oswald, who is to be married on Sunday next to Henry Newell. Many articles of tin-ware were presented to the young lady, all of which will no doubt come in handy later. Among those present were: Miss Kathleen O'Neil, Gwendolyn Corbett, Edith Ogle, Winnie Bosworth, Dollie Blackburn, Etta Bosworth, Laura Melick, Minnie Vernon, Mabel Snelling, Lucile Bailey, Margie Bernard and Miss Burgess.

Our Old Friend Ike

Bakar, Oregon, May 23, 1912.
 Lake County Examiner,
 Gentlemen: Please find enclosed two amoicons, said amount being due you for subscription to your worthy sheet for the past year, and many thanks to you for the accommodations of said paper as I enjoyed its perusal very much, but I would kindly ask you to discontinue sending it to Baker for the present as I will this summer morning leave for parts unknown, and when I get permanently located again I would like to have my name among your subscribers.

Yours truly,
 Ike Kent.

New Mining Companies

Ft. Bidwell News: Two mining companies with total capitalization of $2,000,000 were organized in Fort Bidwell this week and charters have been applied for. Both companies will operate on some of the best properties in High Grade this summer.

The Gold Shore Mining Company controls the New Year, Gold Shore, Daisy and Inner Fraction claim, adjoining the Consolidated properties. They are considered among the best prospects in the district.

Walters' Addition

Offers the Best Close-In Home Sites in Lakeview! Near Schools, Churches, Depot and Business Center. Buy Now! Lots 50 x 125, $140.00 to $275.00 Easy Terms.

W. F. PAINE & CO., - - Agents

'GORDON' HATS $3.00

Rival of any $5 on the market. We have them in scratches and plains; in all the leading styles. Crush hats, $1.50 Extra light summer hats from 50c to $1.50. "GORDON" straws from 25c to $3.00. Genuine Panamas, $7.00.

Have you seen the Faultless Shirt with the new patent "Nek-Gard"? The greatest thing that ever happened to a shirt. Come in and look over our splendid showing of this widely advertised line. Priced at $1.50 to $3.00.

"WALK-OVER" SHOES

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

The Best Values in Shoes

Queen Quality stands for all the name implies in both style and quality. The little custom touches that women look for are embodied in the new models.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

fit the foot and have no equal in wearing qualities. We have received a nice line of Pumps and Half Soles in white buck and canvas, velvets, satin and all style leathers. Prices $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00. Try them, they will give satisfaction.

The Lakeview Mercantile Company