

Town Property

- $2800.00 For a new 6-room house, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 125. Fruit trees and lawn, close in, on Dewey and College streets. Easy terms.
- $2600.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 5-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and fine fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $1300.00 For a new 4 room house and wood shed, lot 60 x 125, good location. Easy terms.
- $1600.00 For an up-to-date new bungalow, in choice residence part of the city. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

More Bargains

- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
 - $15.00 per acre for 80 acres, 5 miles West of Lakeview; fine, deep soil, easy terms.
 - $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.
- Saw mill in first class order, including a large quantity of dry, finished lumber; saw logs and 180 acres of standing timber. The books will prove it to be a fine investment.
- 50 acres of fine timber on the West Side, close to a saw mill
- 220 acres, desert claim, with improvements. Relinquishment can be secured very cheap. Good soil and near the line of the O. E. Railroad which will be built through there in a short time.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

The Fourth of July is only one week off.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Angiand were in town Tuesday for supplies.

Charlie Barry has accepted a position at the N.-C.-O freight depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tracy were in town over Sunday from their ranch in Drews Valley.

Mayfield Boone was up from High Grade Tuesday, and returned with a load of supplies.

Mrs. Dutton, of Davis Creek, was a local visitor last week as the guest of Mrs. W. P. Dykeman.

James H. Owens, the Bly stockman and rancher, is now in town attending to some business matters.

Father Schmitt, of the Catholic church, Saturday, returned from a week's visit to Klamath Falls.

Amongst the visitors Sunday from Alturas was Mr. and Mrs. R. A. French, of the Alturas Plaindealer.

Mrs. Thos. Farrell Tuesday left for Klamath Falls to join her husband who was called there as a witness in the Willis case.

James Heryford has sold his old Buick auto and purchased a new Chalmers-Detroit from the local agent Zim Baldwin.

Father O'Reilly, pastor of the Catholic church at Alturas, was one of Sunday's local visitors as the guest of Father Scmitt.

Mrs. O. M. Hedley and daughter, Miss Josephine, of Los Angeles are visiting with the Hansons at their Point ranch on the West Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Barry, of Guano Valley, last week, arrived in town and will visit here during the next few weeks. Mr. Barry is attending to some business matters.

Lawrence Smith, a Ranger in the Forest Service at Willow Ranch, was in town Sunday on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Ernest Brown. He came in on the excursion train.

Mrs. John Arzner and children, Emma and Mabel, Tuesday morning, left for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Snyder, of Bidwell. They will be absent for about a week.

The excavation work for the new Daly building is now practically completed. It has been held up somewhat during the past week while the old foundation of the First National Bank building was strengthened.

"Uncle Dick" Kingsley, of the Green Garden House, is the latest to succumb to automobile fever. He has ordered a Chalmers-Detroit, with all the latest contrivances, and says he is going to make a mahoot out of Major.

One of the many strangers now in town got to feeling so good early one morning last week that he pushed his arm through a window in the Brewery Saloon doorway. Later he was gathered in by Marshall Dan Bemis and escorted to the city jail.

Tom Murphy, a local sheep man, is now nursing a broken jaw as a result of being bucked from a horse at Twelve Mile Creek. Mr. Murphy struck on a rock and the jaw bone, on the right side of his face, was badly broken. He is being cared for by Doctor Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt, who have a ranch several miles northwest of town were taken quite ill Sunday while in town, with an attack of ptomaine poisoning. They were obliged to call the doctor and were under his care until the next morning. They are now able to be about again.

As a culmination of the recent wars waged between the sheep men and the cattle raisers of eastern Oregon, Governor West has issued a proclamation in which he directs that a $500 reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the parties responsible for the outrages even now being enacted in the grazing country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Amick, of New Pine Creek, last week returned from a month's visit in Ashland. They were joined at that place by their two daughters, Mrs. T. H. Cloud and Miss Cuba, and the party returned home together. Mrs. Cloud has been absent several weeks on a visit with her sister, Mrs. Cannon in Woodland, Calif., and from there she went to Corvallis where her sister Miss Cuba has been attending the O.A.C.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer.

Jan. Barry was among the sheepmen noticed in town this week.

Ernest L. H. Meyers, of Valley Falls, was in town over Sunday.

Childrens white dresses, sizes 2 to 6 years. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Bill Simmons, of Valley Falls, was one of Lakeview's visitors during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamersley were in last week from their ranch, northwest of town.

A. M. Smith, of the Bunting ranch in Drew's valley, was in town the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beatz Monday were visitors in the city from the Drews creek dam.

Mrs. Ben Daly is now spending a few days at Horse Prairie as the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Barry.

J. Frank Barnes, the Summer Lake rancher who is well known about town, Monday, came down on business.

If anyone doubts that Lakeview has a large number of good, husky rooters they should have attended Sunday's baseball game.

William Brown, clerk of the Forest office at Alturas, Sunday, came up on the excursion train to look over this part of the Valley.

Several teams are now being used to haul lumber from the Lkeview Land & Lumber Co.'s mill on Camp Creek for the Heryford building.

The lumber for the new Catholic church rectory has now arrived, and work towards the completion of the building is now being rushed.

Owing to the rush of business Sunday, the Kandy Kitchen was helped out during the day by Mrs. Hugo Leyva and Miss Mae O'Shea, who assisted the regular force.

Owing to the rush of business at the local land office, incidental to the passing of the new 3-Year Homestead Law, Guy Cronemiller is acting as temporary clerk for a few days.

George Haukins, of the Auto Livery Company, last week returned from below with a new 30 horse power Gergeoil car for use in the garage. The new machine is fully equipped and presents a dandy appearance. Its a $1650 car.

Daniel F. Brennan, the genial clerk in the Forest Service, is making preparations to begin work on a new residence house on his lots in the Drenkel Addition. John Arzner has the contract and will superintend the work.

At a recent meeting of the Bend city council G. P. Putnam was elected Mayor of that enterprising little city. The office of Mayor had been vacant since the resignation of Dr. U. C. Coe last March. Mr. Putnam is editor and proprietor of the Bend Bulletin.

H. P. Sootheran, of Seattle, representing Polk-Co., directory publishers, was interviewing Lakeview business firms this week. He is compiling data and taking ads for the next publication of the Oregon-Washington directory, which is now being prepared for the press for the 1913-14 edition.

Merchant A. Bieber is another to contract that dreaded disease, automobilist. Last week he placed an order for a Chalmers 30, which will be delivered August 1st. His new car will be a four door, 1913 model and is said to be one of the classiest machines being put out this season.

A social dance will be given at the Snider Opera house Saturday night of this week. Owing to the many requests for a dance in the opera house, a few of the local enthusiasts got busy and made arrangements for it to be given this week. Good music will be provided and everybody is assured of a pleasant time.

To prevent the city's affairs from being impeded by the old charter tangle, exists at Klamath Falls, a commission of attorneys and business men are drafting a new city charter which will be submitted to the voters in seventy days. It is said that the charter commission represents every section of Klamath Falls and every political faction. Until the new charter is accepted the town will probably remain in a muddle.

Wm. Noonan, who has been employed on the Thos. Flook ranch at Rock Creek, this week came to town to have his eye attended to, which he had the misfortune to quite seriously injure. While running after some sheep in the willows, he went to quickly dodge under a projecting twig and missing his calculation the limb struck him in the right eye. Dr. Hall dressed the wound and the injured member is recovering as well as could be expected.

Ladies suit sale at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Anton Schuster, of the Swamp Creek country, was in town Sunday.

J. C. and Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek, were in town Tuesday.

Louis Mauzey, of the Warner country, was one of last week's local visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Leonard have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bailey.

Roy Chandler was in from his ranch the forepart of the week attending to some business matters.

Mrs. Charles Arthur returned Sunday after a several days visit with her folks in Drews Valley.

One dozen house dresses, assorted patterns and sizes to close at reduced prices. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Wm. Bernard last week returned to Lakeview from Southern California to join her husband and family.

The Lauer Brothers, well known Alturas businessmen, were among Sunday's visitors on the excursion train.

A meeting of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society is being held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Michael M. Barry.

Mrs. Lee Beall and children last week returned from a several days visit with Mrs. Fitzpatrick, of the ZX ranch near Paisley.

Mrs. Fred Longfellow, last week acted as clerk in the Kandy Kitchen for several days during the absence of Miss Ethel Bailey.

Chris Langslet, the enterprising tailor, is planning an addition to the house he recently purchased in North Lakeview, near the Grammar School.

Zim Baldwin, agent for the Chalmers-Detroit, returned from Klamath Falls Monday with a new machine for Attorney James Lane of Silver Lake.

Considerable lumber is now on the Randango Lumber Company's yard in Lakeview and nearly every freight train brings from one to three cars from the Willow Ranch station.

Tom Boyler and John Crutchen, two young men of Woodland, Calif., have arrived in Lakeview, fully convinced that this is the proper place for them, and have decided to locate with us.

Bill Barton is now nursing an injured wrist as the result of being thrown from the Missner automobile while rounding Eagle Point one day last week. He was not seriously injured.

Owing to the fact that Mrs. E. E. Loftus has found it impossible to attend the annual convention of the Degree of Honor, A.O.U.W., Mrs. Lillie Harris will act as local representative and will leave for Portland in several weeks.

A dispatch says that work is being rushed on the Natron cut off near Klamath Falls on the S. P. line. We have had assurance that immediate work will begin on the Goose Lake Southern through this valley when this cutoff is completed.

Dave Fouts who has been working on the O.V.L. telephone line, was compelled to quit work Monday and come to town on account of an abscess on his hand. The affected member is very painful and will keep him from work for some time.

Cedarville Record: The Margaret Hles Troupe showed here last Friday night to a good house. The troupe is a good one and will render a performance here every Friday night. E. H. Meade, the Manager, purchased two automobiles from Chas. Lamb and now covers the circuit in their own automobiles.

J. H. Cochran and J. F. Hutchison, representatives of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, last week arrived from Medford and spent a few days here, after which they went to Paisley and canvassed that territory. E. H. Clark, local representative of the company, accompanied them on the trip.

Perry Cummings, proprietor of the Lakeview Variety Store, last week returned from an extended trip to Centralia, Wash., where he has been the past few months. Mr. Cummings is a horse trainer and went to Centralia with the understanding that it was a good field for his line, but after his arrival found it to be rather quiet, and hence was glad to return to Lakeview.

Alturas New Era: Geo. C. Turner of Cedarville, left here this week on a trip to South America with a view to making investments there. He was accompanied by Prof. Rose, who speaks several languages fluently and goes as an interpreter. The professor also will take his camera along and gather material for use in his next term of high school. They are going by way of New York, and expect to take passage from that city on a south bound steamer on July 20th.

Lee Emerson, of Salt Creek, was one of Sunday's local visitors.

See those ladies skirts at half price at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Grisel, of the Warner country, were in town over Sunday.

Wanted: Furnished or housekeeping rooms, for family of four. Apply at this office.

Miss Ida Howard is in the city this week visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Arthur.

Hert Barton has accepted a position as cook for the Riddels Construction Company.

Lew McCulley, is now spending a few days in town, having come over the forpart of the week from Cedarville.

William Keir, an old time resident of Lakeview, and now employed as a stone mason at Alturas, was one of Sunday's visitors.

Chas. E. Rice, leader of the Alturas band, Sunday came up on the excursion and stayed over Monday to attend to some business matters.

Attorneys Batchelder and Combs went over to Klamath Falls the first of the week to be present at the Willis trial which was begun last Monday.

Calude R. Seager, of the Dav's Creek Orchards Co., accompanied by his wife, yesterday came up from Davis Creek for a few days visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bernard accompanied by Miss Bernice Massingill, daughter of W. A. Massingill, the first of the week arrived in Lakeview to spend the summer months with relatives.

George Whorton, of the Inn Saloon, last week made a trip to Reno and returned with a brand new 1912 model Overland. The machine has all the latest appliances, with foredoor, and is a handsome car.

The city dads are doing a most commendable piece of work in having West Street graveled from Slash to Center. The work is being done under the supervision of Wm. McCulley, and is almost completed.

Mrs. Wm. Wallace Saturday night returned from Woodland, where she has been visiting the past few weeks. She was called there to accompany the body of her mother for burial, and aside from this sad mission the visit was enjoyed.

Ross Farnum, a brilliant and promising young attorney, of Portland, last week arrived in Lakeview, and is so favorably impressed with the town and surrounding conditions, has decided to cast his lot here. He is a graduate from the Willamette University and we wish him success in his newly chosen field.

E. Chapin Gard, of the High Grade News, who is now in San Francisco, sent a telegram to Chas. L. Fulton, stating that San Francisco feels most friendly toward High Grade camp and that they would send press representative to the camp, and that also State Mineralogist Storm would soon visit the district.

One hundred and eleven thousand pounds of wool were sold at Madras in Crook county, last week. The highest price paid was 63-4 c nts and the lowest 11 cents, the total average being about 15 cents. It is said that over 300,000 pounds of wool are being held, although the price offered was about the same as for that sold.

D. S. Bryant and O. E. Blattner, of Pasadena, Cal., last week arrived in the city to investigate some of our possibilities. They made a trio Sunday to the west side of the lake in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Orton and S. A. Mushen, to inspect some land in that section. The party stopped for dinner at the Koozer ranch on Dry creek.

From this date we give the following prices for Ice Cream: One gallon $2.25 delivered, two gallons $1.75 per gallon and 25 cents for delivery, five gallons and up $1.50 per gallon and 25 cents for delivery. Sherbet $2.00 single gallon delivered, two gallons and up $1.75 per gallon for delivery. Satisfaction and quality guaranteed. Phone your orders one day in advance. T. H. Cloud.

The Leota Howard Dramatic company closed a successful week's engagement at Snider opera house Sunday, evening, when they presented the laughable comedy, "The Bosom Friend of Bower." The company while here made good decidedly in every particular, and they are dramatic organization composed of respectable people traveling through the country giving good, clean performances, and are entitled to the people's patronage.

Walters' Addition

Offers the Best Close-In Home Sites in Lakeview! Near Schools, Churches, Depot and Business Center. Buy Now! Lots 50 x 125, $140.00 to $275.00 Easy Terms.

W. F. PAINE & CO., - - Agents

We carry the 'Faultless' Day Shirts, Night Shirts and Pajamas so widely advertised in all the leading magazines. Priced at $1.50 to $2.50

Silk Socks, in black and colors, at 25c.

Silk Plaited Socks, extra quality, at 50c.

New Washable Ties, at 50c.

The "Keiser" Baratha, all bright Silk Ties, in a variety of plain and fancy colors, at 50c to $2.50

We sell "BENJAMIN" Clothes, sold by all the leading clothiers in the land. Prices range from $20.00 to $25.00

You will do well by looking them over.

Ask to see the New PATENT NEK-GARD on Faultless DAY SHIRTS

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

LADIES' SUIT SALE

All our LA VOGUE SUITS will be closed out at big reductions. These are new goods and snappy styles. Notice the following prices:

- $15.00 Suits $10.00 $22.50 Suits $16.50
- 18.50 Suits 13.50 25.00 Suits 18.50
- 20.00 Suits 15.00 27.50 Suits 20.00
- $30.00 Suits $21.50

About one dozen in the lot, so come and get choice as they will soon go.

We also have a few 1911 Skirts we are closing out at half price.

Don't overlook these bargains!

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.

