

Town Property

- $3000.00 For a fine new 10-room house with large lot, 75x125, close to center of town and High School. Easy terms.
- $2800.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 5-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and fine fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $1300.00 For a new 4 room house and wood shed, lot 50 x 125, good location. Easy terms.
- $1000.00 For an up-to-date new bungalow, in choice residence part of the city. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

More Bargains

- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $12.50 For 326 acres good soil in the valley 6 miles from Lakeview. If you want a bargain don't pass this. Terms cash.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.
- Saw mill in first class order, including a large quantity of dry, finished lumber; saw logs and 180 acres of standing timber. The books will prove it to be a fine investment.
- 80 acres of fine timber on the West Side, close to a saw mill.
- 320 acres, desert claim, with improvements. Relinquishment can be secured very cheap. Good soil and near the line of the O. E. Railroad which will be built through there in a short time.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

L. J. Henderson, of Paisley, was one of the last week's visitors.

Manly Currier, of the Paisley Hotel, was a Lakeview visitor last week.

Childrens white dresses, sizes 2 to 6 years. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Born at New Pine Creek, June 29, to the wife of J. B. McNew, a daughter.

Haying has started on practically all of the ranches in this vicinity, and a big crop is anticipated.

Mrs. August Bogner, of Plush, was a visitor here this week as the guest of Mrs. William Gunther.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson are now having a very nice house constructed on Slash street, just east of the R. A. Paxton residence.

George Chandler came in Monday from his ranch in the lower Chewaucan country on a business visit. The trip was made in his auto.

Lewis Wyde, local agent for the Oregon Life Insurance Company, last week, paid a visit to the north end of the county on business.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Benefiel, of Crooked Creek, last week came in town and while here Mrs. Benefiel made proof on a timber claim.

Two of the choicest lots in Rounsvell's Addition for sale by Alger Land Co. at a special price. Exceptionally fine resident lots.

Mr. Copeland, formerly clerk in the T. E. Bernard Hardware store has been acting as clerk in the Hall & Reynolds store during the absence of Fred Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mulcahy have removed from the Boone residence on Main street to the Howard residence on West street. Their goods were removed Tuesday.

W. J. Bradley, of the Crawford & Jaeger Lumber Company, last week, received a carload of lumber, shingles and doors and windows here for one of his legal customers.

The Committee on Sports for the Development League Meeting in August are endeavoring to get up interest in baseball football races etc. for the week in question. Prizes will be offered.

Views of the city of Richmond, California, were shown Thursday and Sunday evenings at Snider's Opera House. Quite a number of local people are owners of lots in Richmond, and the views naturally attracted considerable attention.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright who purchased the residence property just north of the Methodist church will conduct a boarding and rooming house in the same. The house was occupied until within a few days ago by Mr. and Mrs. Man Whorton.

Mrs. Mary Post, who has been under treatment for several months past in a San Francisco hospital, Saturday, arrived in Lakeview. Mrs. Post is now feeling considerably better, and her permanent recovery is hoped for by her many local friends.

The cement walk in front of and around the W. H. Shirk residence has been completed, and it certainly is a dandy. It is to be hoped that more of the owners of city property will follow Mr. Shirk's example and do away with the old fashioned board walks.

The Post boys are now the proud possessors of a burro, acquired from one of the miners enroute through the city. The burro is made considerable use of as is evidenced daily by the numerous trips it makes up and down our main streets. It has a capacity of no less than three passengers at a time.

William Harvey, son of Mrs. McKay, a former resident who is well known in this section and is spending a few days here, is greatly surprised at the many improvements and new buildings under construction. He is now on a vacation trip to the Chewaucan country.

About twenty live boosters of High Grade, including the New Pine Creek baseball nine, Sunday came up to Lakeview and a good game between the two teams was held on the local diamond. A lively contest full of friendly competition ensued which resulted in a score of 8 to 6 in favor of Lakeview.

Ladies suit sale at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

J. J. Monroe, of Willow Ranch, was one of Saturday's visitors.

The two Enquist Brothers, of Plush, with families, are Lakeview visitors this week.

Dr. B. Daly Monday returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to Portland.

Painters have been at work this week painting the fence about the Court House yard.

O. W. Jacobs, stockman and rancher, of Adel, was a business visitor in the County seat last week.

One dozen house dresses, assorted patterns and sizes to close at reduced prices. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe are now the possessors of a fine pup bulldog, which answers to the name of "Buster."

Miss Elsie Post returned the forepart of the week from Bidwell where she has been on a visit with relatives for several months past.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Billings returned last week from the Summer Lake country, where Mr. Billings was engaged in Forest Service work.

Carpenters have been at work during the past week fixing up the fence and otherwise greatly improving the Joe Fuller residence on Slash street.

Lonzo Frakes, a well known Warner Valley stockman, has been appointed foreman on the TT ranch, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank Lane.

Frank Wilson and Champlain Fitch have accepted a contract to cut the hay on the big TT property in Warner Valley. They will commence operations at once.

Bob Wier, of the Davis Creek Orchard Company, was up from Davis Creeks Monday. Bob is well known hereabouts and was welcomed by his many local friends.

Messrs. Jacobson and Erickson, Saturday, took a trip to the new mining town of High Grade and while there secured some very nice pictures of the place and its activities.

Mrs. Ward, of Milwaukee, mother of John Ward, bookkeeper for the Hall Construction Co., last week arrived on a visit to her son and family. She went out to their West side ranch Saturday.

Al Smith of moving picture fame has accepted a position as clerk in the Post Office store where he presides with all the dignity and grace becoming that office. Al states that he has sold many gallons of Hires Root Beer since the fountain was installed.

A small jelly glass, filled with the largest strawberries the writer has ever seen, has been on exhibition this week in the Kandy Kitchen. The berries were raised by Mrs. G. D. Brown in the garden in South Lakeview, and taste just as good as they look.

W. R. Steele, a former resident of Lakeview but now of Portland, Monday returned to this city on an extended visit with relatives. He will probably return here later in the summer and locate permanently.

J. M. Gilchrist and family, of Dallas, Texas, who spent several weeks in Lakeview, Saturday, left for San Francisco, enroute home. They will also visit Portland, Los Angeles and other coast points before reaching Dallas.

Mrs. C. Watson, widow of the late J. N. Watson, Saturday evening arrived home from Chico, where the funeral over the body of her husband was held last Friday. She was met at Chico by her brother T. E. Bernard, who accompanied her home.

Lost, last Saturday between the old Tom Bernard place and Dry creek on West Side, coat and book containing name of the owner was in a pocket of the coat. Finder please return the same to this office and receive $10.00 reward.

Photographer E. J. Stone secured some very good pictures Sunday morning last of the parishioners of the local Catholic church, Bishop O'Reilly and Father Gallagher and Schmitt, all of whom were grouped on the front steps of the church building.

Reverend Father Gallagher, S. J., last week arrived here for the purpose of conducting a week's mission at the local Catholic Church. The Father spoke at the Sunday morning and evening services, and at both morning and evening services every day this week to date, the mission to continue until Saturday evening. He is a very impressive speaker, and large audiences have heard him at all the services at which he has spoken.

John Ward, of the Point Ranch, was in Saturday on a brief visit.

See those ladies skirts at half price at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

E. J. Merrill and M. J. Kelly, residents of Bend, were among last week's local visitors.

A carload of hogs consigned to Hayes & Grob, was received here this week from Alturas.

Many cords of wood are now being hauled to town for consumption during the coming winter.

Supervisor Brown, of the Forest office, Wednesday, made a trip to Paisley on business.

J. S. Branch, sheepman of the Clover Flat section spent several days of last week in Lakeview.

S. C. Campbell, foreman for the O. V. L. Company, was in from the Dam Monday on a business visit.

Sam Dicks, the Crooked Creek rancher, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday attending to various matters.

Miss Mable Arzner is now spending a few days in the Chewaucan as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler.

J. L. Wheeler, Jr., who is superintending the Dry Creek irrigation project, was a business visitor Saturday.

L. D. Hoy, the Summer Lake rancher and stockman, Tuesday, came down on business. The trip was made by auto.

Wm. Nixon, who formerly conducted the Mud Creek station has taken a position with the Lakeview Brewing Company.

N. A. McCurdy, proprietor of one of the local barber shops, is this week having his residence treated to a fresh coat of paint.

Father O'Reilly, of the Catholic church at Alturas, Tuesday evening, arrived here to take part in the mission at the local church.

Among the sheep men in town this week were G. L. Holbrook, W. K. Barry, Mike Angland, Con Curtin, Con Fitzgerald and Dave Jones.

The residence of A. W. Orton, Register of the U. S. land office, was painted and otherwise improved this week. The work was in charge of H. O. Kuhl.

Mrs. F. M. Harris is now in Portland, where she will act as representative for the local lodge at the Grand Convention of the Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Norin, who recently acquired a new auto, may be seen making daily use of it on our main streets. Jonas makes a fine chauffeur.

Mrs. H. H. Riddels Saturday left for Pyramid lake, Nevada to join her husband who is doing contract work on the Fernley-Lassen extension of the Southern Pacific railroad.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the well known local business man, last week, arrived here from Reno to join her husband. They are now occupying the Jackson residence on Main street.

H. A. Utley is handling the $10 Vacuum Cleaners, more than fifty machines sold in Lakeview. Everyone having them are pleased with the excellent work they do; any one wanting them write or call on H. A. Utley, Lakeview, Ore.

Frank Lane has resigned his position as foreman of the TT ranch in Warner Valley, and may possibly engage in some local business. It is reported that he is seriously thinking of purchasing the Wilshire sawmill, north west of town, with Charley Arthur. The deal, however, has not as yet been consummated.

Albert Finley, who accidentally shot himself in the arm last week, died Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The shock to his nervous system was more than he could stand. Mr. and Mrs. Finley have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. 'Tis sad to see one suddenly cut down in the spring of life.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Duballow Football Club was held Sunday afternoon on the High School grounds. A several hours practice was indulged in, after which arrangements were perfected towards the formation of two teams here to participate in the field sports at the Development League Meeting in August. A collection was taken up among the members for the purchase of suits, and these will probably be ordered within the next few weeks. There are very few local people who have seen the game of Football played under the Irish rules, and it will probably be a feature of the League meeting.

E. J. Davis, of Paisley, was a local visitor Tuesday.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer.

Emilio Vasquez Gomez, for the third time has been chosen provisional president of the republic of Mexico.

J. F. Dally, who recently purchased the O. V. L. sawmill, was in town Monday and Tuesday of this week on a business visit.

Miss Bride Flynn returned last week from Plush, where she spent several days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler and children, accompanied by Miss Annie Snyder, were in town last week from the ranch. They came in by auto.

Henry Leehman, who has a big ranch this side of Pine Creek, was in town Tuesday and reports haying in full swing down his way. Bomper crops are expected.

Contractor C. G. Sellmon, of Reno, is now on the ground making preparations to begin work on the new Fairport hotel. The building is estimated to cost about $20,000.

C. C. Harris and wife made a trip to Lakeview Saturday. Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs. Colvin, and sister returned with them, and all started to Portland Monday by automobile.

About twenty-five ladies from the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society took the train this morning to Davis Creek to be guests for a day of Mrs. Leslie Seager. Dr. Morgan, the pastor accompanied them.

Chas. H. Flory, assistant district forester for Oregon, of Portland, has been here for several days looking over the Fremont forest in company with Forest Supervisor Brown and Grazing Assistant Billings.

Deputy Game Warden Harry Telford, who has many friends in this section was a Lakeview visitor last week. Mr. Telford arrived here in his newly purchased Metz auto and from here left for Paisley on business.

The Forty-eighth Grand Lodge reunion of Elks, said to be one of the most important conventions of the order in several years, last week adjourned in Portland. Every Elk left with a good word for Portland and its people.

The Rebekah lodge held their semi-annual installation last Friday evening when the following officers were installed: Louise Storkman, N. G.; Mrs. R. M. Corbett, V. G.; Mrs. W. Z. Moss, Sec.; and Mrs. F. O. Hunting, Treasurer.

The sagehen season opened in Nevada State July 15. Such should be the case here as the birds that can be seen along the roads in almost any direction from town, look to be nearly grown, and some are hard to distinguish from last season's birds.

Burns Times-Herald: V. L. Snelling and daughter, Mrs. Barry, and his niece, Miss Snelling, have been here from their home at Lakeview this week, guests at the Faulkner home. Mrs. C. M. Faulkner is a daughter of Mr. Snelling. They were accompanied over by R. A. Hawkins.

The regular semi-annual installation of officers of Lakeview Lodge, No 68, I. O. O. F. was held in the lodge hall Saturday night, with a good attendance present. The following officers form the coming term were installed: D. T. Godsil, N. G.; W. P. Dykeman, V. G.; E. F. Cheney, Sec.; Harry Bailey, Treasurer.

The Supreme Court has reversed the decision of Judge Noland in the case of Porter vs. Small and remanded the case back to the Circuit Court of a new trial. This is the action in which Columbus Porter and others sued George Small for $50,000 damages. The case was decided in favor of Small and Porter appealed with the result that he gets a new hearing.

By a vote of 55 to 28 the United States senate took away from William Lorimer his seat as the junior senator from Illinois. His election was held to have been invalid and he was declared to have been the recipient of votes obtained under the "Corrupt Methods Practices." Mr. Lorimer had been a member of the Senate since June 18, 1909.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church at their meeting on last Thursday appointed committees and completed the preliminary arrangements for their bazaar to be held during the meeting of the Central Oregon Development League. They will have a sale of work and serve meals during the three days of the meeting. The Masonic hall has been secured for the purpose.

Walters' Addition

Offers the Best Close-In Home Sites in Lakeview! Near Schools, Churches, Depot and Business Center. Buy Now! Lots 50 x 125, $140.00 to $275.00 Easy Terms.

W. F. PAINE & CO., Agents

THE "DOPE"

Shown in High and Low Cut. Button Lace, Tan and Black Calf

Custom grade, price.....$5.00
Other Walk-Overs at $3.50,
$4.00 and $4.50

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

LADIES' SUIT SALE

All our LA VOGUE SUITS will be closed out at big reductions. These are new goods and snappy styles. Notice the following prices:

- $15.00 Suits $10.00 $22.50 Suits $16.50
- 18.50 Suits 13.50 25.00 Suits 18.50
- 20.00 Suits 15.00 27.50 Suits 20.00
- $30.00 Suits $21.50

About one dozen in the lot, so come and get choice as they will soon go.

We also have a few 1911 Skirts we are closing out at half price.

Don't overlook these bargains!

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.

