

Town Property

- $3000.00 For a fine new 10 room house with large lot, 75x125, close to center of town and High School. Easy terms.
- $2600.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- $2100.00 For 5-room new bungalow, woodshed and chicken house. On a large corner lot, fenced, 100 x 150. Lawn and fine fruit trees on Lake Street. Easy terms.
- $1300.00 For a new 4 room house and wood shed, lot 50 x 125, good loc. 'tion. Easy terms.
- $1600.00 For an up-to-date new bungalow. In choice residence part of the city. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"
O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENE AL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

More Bargains

- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $12.50 For 320 acres good soil in the valley 6 miles from Lakeview. If you want a bargain don't pass this. Terms cash.
- $20.00 Per acre for 160 acres fine grain land, seven miles from Lakeview, west. Easy terms.
- Saw mill in first class order, including a large quantity of dry, finished lumber; saw logs and 180 acres of standing timber. The books will prove it to be a fine investment.
- 80 acres of fine timber on the West Side, close to a saw mill.
- 320 acres, desert claim, with improvements. Relinquishment can be secured very cheap. Good soil and near the line of the O. E. Railroad which will be built through there in a short time.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

Rainier Beer on draught at the Inn E. J. Davis, of Paisley, was a local visitor Tuesday.

Childrens white dresses, sizes 2 to 6 years. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Rev. Melville T. Wire expects to arrive in Lakeview on Friday from Newberg.

Pete Follett, the New Pine Creek's capable marshal, was a business visitor in the County seat his week.

Sam Bailey is this week constructing a cement porch and entrance to his new brick residence on Park street.

One dozen house dresses, assorted patterns and sizes to close at reduced prices. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

D. M. Bryan, a rancher of the Mill Flat section, was in town last week attending to some business matters.

C. U. Snider is having the stage curtain in the opera house painted with advertisements of local business houses.

Miss Laura Snider returned last week from Davis Creek, where she spent two weeks as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Blurton.

George Sherman, of the Mill Flat section, was a local visitor last week. Mr. Sherman is making preparations to erect a sawmill in his locality.

Several hundred men, women and children were rendered homeless and several deaths are reported from a cloudburst last week in Denver, Colo.

Dave McAuliffe, the well known local sheepman, was in from Bly over Sunday. Dave says that there is plenty of feed this summer for all the stock.

Frank Lane last week sold and delivered his sheep to Lou McCulley. The price was not learned but it is understood that the sale represented a substantial consideration.

Lou McCulley, now a resident of Cedarville, was in town last week having just returned from a trip to Frisco and other California points. He is now the proud possessor of an auto which he recently purchased.

F. O. Engstrom and family, of Los Angeles last week returned home after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hanson of the Point Ranch. They returned by way of Klamath Falls to which place they were taken by Paul Dreukel by auto.

Numerous strangers and travelling men have been noticeable on our streets this week. The large number of commercial men who regularly make this town and territory is a criterion of the vast amount of business transacted here.

J. A. Morris and family of Adel last week spent several days in Lakeview visiting and looking after business matters. They returned home Saturday. Mr. Morris conducts a store at Adel and also has one of the prettiest ranches and homes in that favored section.

Mrs. D. Kirkpatrick, of the West Side, returned last week after a month's visit with friends at Lively, California. Mrs. Kirkpatrick stated that a hurricane visited that section during her visit, and uprooted many trees as well as doing other damage on the mountains above town.

Modoc Republican: Mr. Sloss has certainly proven himself competent, and in the selection of musical director, Mr. Rice, he secured one that is not only at the top of the profession but is energetic and keeps things moving around the practice room. The Band men are figuring on going to Lakeview to attend the celebration in August to be held there.

It has been reported that a rich strike has been made on the property of Ft. Bidwell Consolidated at High Grade. There has been considerable work done on this property and the mill is to start shortly with a large force of men. Mr. Stone, president of the new company is pleased with his new management and expects to make a good showing this year.

After a contest over the site of the Klamath County Court House which has lasted for several years, work was last week started on the erection of a $200,000 building. The structure will be located on Block 10, the site donated by the Klamath Development Company. It is said the construction of the building will be continued regardless of the appeal to the Supreme Court taken by the objectors.

Rainier on draught or in bottles at the Brewery.

Ladies suit sale at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Babe Blurton, of Pine Creek, was a local visitor last week.

The Fred Moore Dramatic Company is now playing at different towns in Modoc county.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan, of Plush, were Lakeview visitors over Sunday. They are always welcome.

Guy Rice, chief engineer of the O. V. L. Company has had a garage erected at the rear of his residence in North Lakeview.

J. Frankl, wool buyer, last week left for San Francisco on a short business trip. He will return to Lakeview in about a month.

A social dance will be held at the Snider opera house Saturday night, July 27. You are respectfully invited to come out and participate.

J. J. VanKeulen, of the Warner Valley Mercantile Company of Plush, spent last week in Lakeview on a short vacation. He returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis are now occupying their recently constructed residence on Slash street. It is a very comfortable and homelike little dwelling.

This section received a quite generous rainfall Sunday night. Some little damage was done to hay in the shocks, but in general it proved beneficial to all late crops.

Prinville Review: Cobb Henkle, well known throughout Eastern Oregon and uncle of Sichel and Vivian Henkle, of this city, passed through here this week enroute to Bend. Mr. Henkle resides at Lakeview.

J. W. May, an experienced mining man of San Francisco, Monday came up from the High Grade Mining Camp after having spent several days in inspecting the different properties. Before leaving he stamped his OK on the district.

Frederick W. Mulkey, of Portland has formally announced his candidacy for United States Senator as a National Progressive to succeed Jonathan Bourne, Jr. His opponents are Ben Selling, the progressive republican nominee and Harry Lane, on the democratic ticket.

John Campbell, son of Mrs. H. P. Campbell and brother of George and James Campbell, of Lakeview, last week arrived from Dallas, Texas, and will remain on an extended visit. Mr. Campbell conducts a bakery in Dallas and is looking over the field here with a possible view of locating.

Miss Pearl Briles, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Heryford, returned to her home at Davis Creek the forepart of the week. She was accompanied on her return by Miss Mildred Heryford, who last week returned from a trip to Eugene, Yaquina Bay and other points in the western part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd, of Portland, are Lakeview visitors this week. Mr. Shepherd is a member of the Shepherd Piano Company, consisting of father and two sons, all of whom are well known locally. While here they received a car load of pianos and piano players which they will dispose of to Lake County patrons.

The Lakeview band gave a public rehearsal in the Court House square Tuesday evening, which proved an attraction for a large audience. The public rehearsals will be repeated every Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week on the Court House Grounds. The musicians are making excellent headway and the open air programs will be a source of delight for those wishing an evening of pleasant entertainment.

Rev. R. E. Dunlap will hold the Fourth Quarterly meeting for the Methodist Church, Sunday morning, July 28 at 11 o'clock. He will preach and administer sacrament. In the evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Melville T. Wire, the pastor, will preach as usual. Rev. Mr. Dunlap will hold the Quarterly Conference and business meeting at the parsonage Saturday, evening at 8 o'clock.

Cedarville Record: The Central Oregon Development League meeting at Lakeview about the 20th of next month bids fair to be one of the most lively occasions ever had in that town. People from all parts of the state of Oregon will be present, and it is expected that Nevada and California will be liberally represented. It will be a regular social get together time, and should be attended by all who can get away from home.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

A. M. Bogner, of Plush, is a visitor in the city this week.

Mrs. Frank Struck is now spending a few weeks at the J. C. Shellhammer ranch in Crooked Creek.

Harvey Cannon, who recently returned from Woodland, Calif., has taken a position in the Frost Ice Cream Parlor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Finley, of Bly are spending the week in Lakeview as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willits.

Mrs. F. E. Harris last week returned from Portland whither she went as a delegate to the Grand Convention of the Degree of Honor lodge.

Mrs. J. C. and Miss Hazel Horn, mother and sister of Mrs. J. D. Venator are here from Iowa on an extended visit with Mrs. Venator and friends.

A cloudburst at Mazuma near Lovelock, Nev., last week resulted in the loss of several lives besides serious damage to a vast amount of property.

S. I. Thornton and wife of Roseburg, Oregon, father and mother of A. L. Thornton, druggist, are here on a several weeks visit with their son and family.

F. M. Green, farmer and stockman and also president of the Sunshine High Grade Mining Co., of New Pine Creek, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week.

G. W. Rice, mother and sister, Miss Mabel and Miss Bride Flynn, in Mr. Rice's car Sunday paid a visit to the Hansen ranch on the West Side, where they were guests for the day.

Robert Weir, of the Davis Creek Orchards Co, at Davis Creek, and wife formerly Miss Fannie Tonningsen, will leave in a few weeks for Denver, Colo., on a visit to Mr. Weir's parents.

Miss Vivian Henkle, of Prinville, is paying a visit to her uncle C. Henkel, of this place. Miss Henkel is quite well pleased with Lakeview and will remain several weeks before returning home.

Mrs. C. W. Parks and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Roseburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cronemiller, and are well pleased with Lakeview. They will probably remain until the latter part or next week.

The Coliseum, the scene of the Republican National Convention, which Theodore Roosevelt says obbed him of the nomination will also be the place where the National Progressive Convention will meet on August 5th to nominate Roosevelt on the third party ticket.

The Secretary of the Lakeview Council Boy Scouts of America, who made application for a charter for the local organization, has been informed that the application was approved and same would be forwarded. Badges for the tenderfoot degree have also been received and are ready for distribution among the boys.

G. C. Boston and wife, of Malvern, Iowa, Saturday arrived in Lakeview and spent several days in looking over the town and surrounding country. Mrs. Boston owns a ten acre tract that she drew at the Oregon Valley Land Co. drawing. Mr. Boston is an old acquaintance of the Fred Hanson family of the Point Ranch.

Mrs. J. B. Auten and younger baby Saturday evening went to Klamath Falls for medical treatment for the baby. The child has been quite seriously ill for several weeks and it is feared that she is suffering from an attack of Bright's Disease. It is to be hoped that the change will prove beneficial to the little one's health.

It will pay all who are interested in making their dollars do the biggest amount of good, by keeping in touch with the new ads in The Examiner. The merchants who advertise are the ones who can give you the best bargains for your money, as they keep their goods moving, make the most sales at the least profit and give the best satisfaction all round.

J. F. Hanson, farmer, sheepman, rancher, contractor, maboot, and all around good fellow, has had the painful ordeal, for the last few trips between Lakeview and his West Side holdings, owing to a serious mishap to various parts of his 40 miles an hour buzz wagon, of reconciling that wonderful tide of ambition that he possesses to the pace of a mules' capacity for stepping off distance. However, the broad smile of satisfaction again covered his face this week when the new parts were received and he will now be seen making the trip on double time to make up for the lost minutes.

Why not drink Rainier? It's THE beer.

See those Ladies skirts at half price at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

W. L. Clapp and wife were over from Klamath Falls the first of the week.

Dr. B. Daly this week donated $75 to the Catholic Church for the purchase of a bell.

Al Barnum, an employee of the Dick's ranch, was in from Crooked Creek last week on business.

Capt. F. L. Evans, mining man of High Grade district, Tuesday made a business visit to Lakeview.

O. W. Robertson, F. D. Keller and Blondie Crone were registered at Hotel Lakeview this week from Klamath Falls.

V. O. Z. Morgan, of Paisley, this week passed through Lakeview enroute to the Willamette valley on an extended trip.

W. B. Snider, Atty. Chas. Combs and J. B. Auten Monday made a business trip to Valley Falls in the Sheriff's auto.

Mrs. J. Chas. Smith, of the Parisian Millinery, is now in Chicago making purchases for their line of millinery and ladies furnishings.

Mrs. O. M. Gardner wife of the City Superintendent, of the Lakeview Schools expect to join her husband here in about four weeks from Forest Grove.

Franklin Cloud, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cloud, of this city, last week returned to Sacramento where he has a position as mechanic in a large machine shop.

A. Bieber expects to receive his new Chalmers 30 car sometime this week, he having been informed that it was due in Klamath Falls the forepart of the week.

Dr. B. Daly this morning reports the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vought, of this city, which occurred Tuesday, July 23. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Mrs. H. E. Ingvaldstad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burgess, of this city, last week arrived from Sioux City, Iowa, and will remain here about two months on a visit with her parents.

A marriage license was this week issued to Walter R. Stodder and Beatrice Williams (colored), both of Lakeview. County Judge Daly yesterday pronounced the words that will make the couple happy for life.

John Fitzgerald, of Lake City, Calif. this week came over on a business trip and returned home today. He stated that crops promised to be about normal in this section this year and that some good yields were expected.

We are greatly pleased to announce this week that F. P. Light, who was reported last week as suffering from a relapse, is improving. He has been troubled with a lingering illness and his numerous friends will be overjoyed to hear of his recovery.

Notice—Your chance now to get hay at your own terms. One hundred acres or any part thereof, good quality grass now ready to cut. Only three miles from Lakeview, come and see it. Green Cottage at the head of the lake. C. W. Reynolds, P. O. Box 496. It

Mr. Smith of the Smith Picture house has been pleasing large audiences this week with appropriate programs. The motion picture art is gaining in popularity and proves a wonderful advantage to the public in country towns and cities as well.

Wm. Gunther, of the Saddlery firm of Ahlstrom & Gunther, who went to Portland as delegate to the A. O. U. W. Convention, Saturday returned to Lakeview. He reports a very successful assemblage of lodge representatives and says he had an enjoyable trip. He was guest at the Multnomah hotel while in the Rose City.

Escape of prisoners from the penitentiary since Governor West assumed the Governorship in 1910—a little over a year and a half ago—and inaugurated at the institution his "honor system" have reached the total of 51, and it is said should they continue at the same rate as in the past 132 convicts will have effected their escape during his four years' administration.

A wedding ceremony occurred in this city last Sunday that united in marriage Willis Grisel and Miss Bessie Loftus, with Judge B. Daly officiating. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Grisel, of Warner Valley, while the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loftus. Both young people have a large circle of friends throughout this and Warner Valley who extend best wishes. They will take up their residence at Plush.

Curtis & Utley Real Estate and Brokers

Mining shares of High Grade and Windy Hollow bought and sold on commission
Big 4 Stock 10c Ft. Bidwell Consolidated 15c Gold Shore stock 20c
ALL STOCK QUOTED ON BOARD

THE "DOC"

This Walk-Over Model was designed for comfort

With a broad supporting arch and generous toe room this is a shoe to make your feet happy. Black Platinum Calf at $4.50

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

LADIES' SUIT SALE

All our LA VOGUE SUITS will be closed out at big reductions. These are new goods and snappy styles. Notice the following prices:

- $15.00 Suits $10.00 $22.50 Suits $16.50
- 18.50 Suits 13.50 25.00 Suits 18.50
- 20.00 Suits 15.00 27.50 Suits 20.00
- $30.00 Suits $21.50

About one dozen in the lot, so come and get choice as they will soon go.

We also have a few 1911 Skirts we are closing out at half price.

Don't overlook these bargains!

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.

