"Look for the Brand"

Silver Lake Items (Silver Lake Leader)

Gus Shroder left for Madras last Monday to look after a horse which bears his brand it is supposed to have been driven off the range without Gus' knowledge or consent.

Fred Reynolds and family, of Lakeview, who have been visiting in Idaho, were in town Wednesday night on their way home. He was taking J. N. Watson's car, which was left in Portland, home.

Already this month 60-100 of an inch of rain has fallen, with two inches in June is a very good showing for a so-called arid country. There is a large amount of hay down and the farmers want more sunshine now and less rain and cloudy weather.

Judge and Mrs. Gale, of Manila, P. I., were guests of the Hotel Chrisman last Sunday. They were going to Lakeview to visit her father, Mart Hopkins, an old time resident of this county. This is their first visit to the United States since going to the islands about twelve years ago.

Paisley Pick-ups (Chewaucan Press)

We understand that the Town Council has purchased from the Paisley Realty Co., a lot on which they intend to build a Town Hall and Lockup.

F. L. Young returned to Alkali Lake Saturday morning. He reports the outlook very bright for the business interests of the Company. New buildings are to be erected. He says they can dispose of all the soda they can produce at good prices.

It is reported by Mr. Blair's little girls that on Saturday, while they were in an old store building, in the rear of the Blair hotel, they found a ladies purse containing $125. It seems his purse together with other articles belonging to Mr. Blair's Aunt has been stored there for several years.

The Mercantile store starts its delivery wagon this week. W. Blair is engaged to drive the rig. This will be a great convenience to the people of Summer Lake, while this will be an added effort with some expense to the Mercantile Co., but it certainly will be a profitable enterprise in the end. It costs something to advertise your business, but experience proves that it pays after all. This is a commendable enterprise on the part of Mr. Miller, the manager, and shows that he is a live man to the interests of the Company.

Both Like Lakeview

The office devil overheard a fight the other day. It was reported to the sporting editor as follows: Two brothers were conducting a business down in a little town of Dallas, Texas, when one became dissatisfied with that nefarious climate, and after diligently and carefully perusing numerous columns of the Lake County Examiner, came to the grand little city of Lakeview, leaving the brother to run the business in Dallas. After getting out here the charms and glories of the country was so luring that he decided to stick. In the meantime the brother in Texas got hold of a copy of the Lake County Examiner and the result was after securing management for the business for a short time, he came to Lakeview. And now the two brothers are spending much energy, time and considerable breath in compromising as to who will go back and take care of the business. This all comes from the fact that they both want to stay in Lakeview.

Modoc Bank Closed

Alturas Plaindealer: Tuesday evening a State Bank Commissioner arrived in Alturas and closed the doors of the Modoc County Bank of E. Lauer & Sons. Wednesday we interviewed Ben Lauer and was informed that he had in contemplation the closing of the bank, and to that end was winding up its affairs as rapidly as possible, without working a hardship on the debtors. The Bank Commissioners, however, became impatient at the delay and took the liquidation of the bank affairs into their own hands. Mr. Lauer informs us that depositors will not lose a cent, as the assets are more than sufficient to pay all liabilities. This statement is fully corroborated by the sworn statement of the President and Cashier in these columns on June 24th last.

Will Serve Cedarville

Cedarville Record: Traffic Manager McNamara of the N.-C.-O. railroad was here last week looking over the field with the view of accommodating the people of the valley in the matter of transportation for freight. We understand that the N.-C.-O. railroad will soon put in operation a line of auto trucks from Surprise Valley and will also build a large warehouse here which to receive and deposit freight. That will practically make Cedarville a railroad town, as the auto trucks can make it here easily in two hours from Surprise Station. An agent will be placed here to attend to all freight matters, and the rates will be satisfactorily adjusted.

SYNOPSIS OF OREGON MINING LAWS

Valuable Information For Prospectors Given In a Brief Form

A mining claim must not exceed 1500 feet in length along the vein or lode, by 600 feet in width, 300 feet on each side of center of vein at surface.

Within thirty days after posting notice the boundaries must be marked by six substantial posts, projecting not less than three feet above the ground, and not less than four inches square in diameter, or by substantial mounds of stone, or earth and stone, at least two feet in height at each corner and at center ends of such claims.

The location notice must be filed with the county recorder or county clerk within sixty days after posting the same upon the claims. Attached to the notice must be an affidavit showing that the work required by the State law has been performed.

Before the expiration of sixty days from the date of posting said notice of discovery upon his claim aforesaid, and before recording the notice of location the locator must sink a discovery shaft upon the claim located to a depth of at least ten feet from the lowest part of the rim of such shaft at the surface, or deeper, if necessary to show by such work a lode or vein of mineral deposit in place. A cut, or cross cut, or tunnel which cuts the lode at a depth of ten feet, or an open cut at least six feet deep by four feet wide and ten feet in length along the lode from the point where the same may be in any manner discovered, is equivalent to such discovery shaft. Such work shall not be deemed a part of the assessment work required by the revised statutes of the United States.

Compensation (High Grade News)

Why should man let doubt or fear Cause distress, or draw a tear?
Or let sordid projects failing Rend his soul?
When the Law of Compensation Rules each Cosmic relation,
And Dame Nature,—truly scaling Weighs the whole.
In the endless realm of space Every atom has its place:—
Whole and minnow find a berth In the wave.
And the sunshine is as free To the daisy as the tree,
And they all have Mother Earth For a grave.
Often that which gives us pride Has a dark, pathetic side,
Such as boasting our achievement In a war:
And the millionaire's success May be burdened with distress
Often death and sad bereavement—For the poor.
But the workman's rosy health Is a better driver than wealth:
And cheer and sweet contentment Are his part.
To the rich man greed and lust Bring suspicion and distrust,
And hatred and resentment Break his heart.
So may Summer balance Winter As the plummet swings to Center.
And grander things, and rarer, Crown the strife:
Every seed that falls to earth Is the signal for the birth
Of another—may be fairer—Form of life.
When the angry thunderstorm Kills the soul with dread alarm,
And the world aulks in sadness,
Dull and void:
'Tis the lightning with the thunder Rends the murky pall asunder,
And terror yields to gladness Unalloyed.
If, when friends have proved unkind, There's a tempest in the mind,
And our trust in God and men,
Is sorely tried:
Then our wife or sweetheart's kiss Fills the heart with heavenly bliss
And our reason rules again All purified.
To invite each day with joy, As the sun illumines the sky,
And so charmingly uncertain It begins;
There's a joy for every sorrow, For the darkest night a morrow,
And death still weaves a curtain, For our sins.
—Prospector.
