OUR COMMERCIAL CLUB

Next Monday night, September 2 is the time set for election of Lakeview Commercial Club officers. This was to have been done at the last regular monthly meeting but it will be remembered was postponed owing to lack of attendance at the meeting.

The real worth of and the good that can be obtained from a sound organization along development lines was fully demonstrated at the meeting of the Central Oregon Development League in Lakeview last week. A Commercial Club is a necessity that we cannot well get away from.

It is an essential factor to promote and further advance the welfare of Lakeview. And it must have the support of the town's citizens both morally and financially. In order to elect a set of officers who will best serve the organization will require manifestation of interest in the Club and this the people must show in order to get results. The only way to acquire desired results for the municipality is by the concerted efforts of all who are interested in or identified with the upbuilding of the town and the development of the rich country surrounding it.

Let us hope that the people will at least come out to the meeting next Monday night and if possible take an active part in working for the maintenance of the Commercial Club and share the responsibility of choosing a set of officers to carry on the good work that has been started by the present incumbents. They have faithfully done their part and done it exceedingly well.

Even should there be no further results from the meeting of the Oregon Development League held here in Lakeview, all will agree that the benefits all ready derived have fully repaid us for the expense and trouble we entailed. We know what can be done in the way of raising fruits, vegetables, grains, grasses and the like, and whenever a similar affair takes place there will be no doubt be a much better exhibit, for the rivalry between the individuals as communities will no doubt manifest itself. The Examiner heartily favors preparing a Lake County exhibit for the Klamath County fair and sending it in charge of some person able to explain to visitors the possibilities of this country. There is no denying the fact that many homeseekers go into Klamath that would come on into Lake if the situation was put up to them properly and a booth fitted up at their fair would no doubt be of value to us.

Portland is the next city to go under the microscope. Upon investigation of Governor West an investigation committee has been busy the past several weeks delving into vices and corrupt policies of low dens in the state's metropolis, and their report has just been filed with the governor. Governor West has proved himself to be no quitter and that Portland will go through a fine sieve during this clean up campaign is assured by the examples recently set elsewhere in the state.

STEAM LAUNDRY BEEN OVERHAULED

Mr. Hunker Says Everything In Shape To Give Efficient Service

Since being overhauled and renovated by Laundryman E. D. Rudd, who came here for that purpose, the Lakeview Steam Laundry has been rendering satisfactory service. Before leaving Mr. Rudd thoroughly acquainted Harry Hunker the proprietor, with all the wrinkles in the business, who is now capable of supervising the plant himself.

The mangles have been revised and adjusted to give proper results. A hot water tank that greatly adds to the facilities of the laundry has been added and numerous changes and additions are noticeable throughout the plant. The collar and cuff ironer is in shape to do efficient work in that line and Mr. Hunker informs us that he is arranging to install a body ironer that will be a valuable addition toward finishing rough dry work.

A steam laundry for Lakeview is a very convenient and valuable enterprise. While the laundry that we have has made good in many ways, it is an unfortunate circumstance that Mr. Hunker has had so many adversities since he started the plant. The public will be glad to know that the deficiencies have been overcome and that he now feels he is adequately equipped to take competent care of all laundry work.

Fruit Crop Good

A sample of the peaches raised on the Taylor ranch this season was brought to this office by F. M. Duke. They were of excellent quality, and sufficient to assure a good crop of late fruits in this valley. The berry crop which is practically over was bountiful this season and sufficient to supply the local demand. The fact that this country would make a profitable producer in this line is shown by the demand being met by only few growers.

It is reported that apples will be plentiful and probably more than can be consumed locally. The flavor and quality of Goose Lake apples cannot be excelled and they have twice captured the blue ribbon at the Watsonville State Apple Show in California. These were the Winter Banana variety grown on the Briles ranch at Davis Creek.

Body Reaches Portland

The Portland Journal of August 25 says the body of Charles B. Merrick, accompanied by Register A. W. Orton, of Lakeview arrived there Saturday on the Shasta Limited and that arrangements were being made for the funeral to take place Monday.

The funeral was to be private. Numerous business houses closed their doors during the ceremony. The Journal states that Mrs. Merrick had been prostrate ever since being informed of her husband's death that occurred last week at the bath house below Lakeview.

LAKEVIEW SESSION PLEASED VISITORS

What Exchanges Say Of Meeting In Lakeview Last Week

Klamath Herald: The session of the Central Oregon Development League in Lakeview was one of the most successful meetings of the kind ever held in the West. This is the unanimous opinion of those who were in attendance.

Klamath Northwestern: That the second annual meeting of the Central Oregon Development League at Lakeview this week was one of the greatest boosting meetings ever held in Oregon is the unanimous word brought here yesterday by the Klamath Falls and Portland delegates who are returning home by way of this city.

Fort Bidwell News: Among the Fort Bidwell visitors at the Lakeview celebration were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Franklin, Floyd Smith, Fred Messner and Billy Crow who went over Wednesday by auto.

Reno Journal: Tired, but well satisfied with the trip and enthusiastic over the possibilities of the country they saw more than fifty of the Lakeview excursionists returned to Reno last night on the N.-C.-O. They had been in Lakeview for the festivities commencing on Monday over the meeting of the Central Oregon Development League and every day of the visit was a revelation of the marvelous resources of that country logically tributary to Reno.
