Many surprises are booked for Camp High Grade in the near future. Heavy New York and European capital has been pledged to develop some of the most promising properties of the district.

All doubts as to the camp's merits were removed by the recent visit of State Mineralogist Storms, and the unqualified indorsement he gave the district. This indorsement was practi cally, though impliedly sanctioned by Mr. J. M. Hill, of the U. S. Geological survey, who completed his general reconiniasance of the camp last week.

Capitalists of the great money marts of the world have turned their attention to High Grade as a sure winner. The embroytic and experimental stages of the district have been met and mastered. The camp is now in the list of steady producers., The mines and the mills are grinding out the real, old yellow gold, and sending it to market, and annexing its value to the wealth of the world.

One great New York firm has bye million dollars to invest in Camp High Grade. One London firm has ten million dollars to invest in the District.
