RESULT OF CONFIDENCE
After the Vermont election, Sept. 4, which resulted in a gain for the democrats over last election, Chairman Hillis of the republican National committee said that the result showed the weakness of Roosevelt, and means that the Colonel will not get the electoral vote of a single state, because the republicans, who are desirous of defeating Wilson, will have to vote for Taft.
"The result in Vermont means a Roosevelt victory in November," said ex-Senator Beveridge, "the news is glorious. I didn't think it possible. If Vermont does this after two weeks of fighting, everyone can see what others will do in November."
W. J. Bryan said: "The Vermont returns indicate an increase in the democratic sympathy. The division of the republican vote is encouraging. And now the question arises whom are we to believe?"

Quite frequently we still notice newspaper accounts of the delegates to the Lakeview convention August 21-22, back in their home towns, about them bubbling over with enthusiasm over the hospitable reception accorded them by the people of Lakeview. It begins to look as though Lakeview stork with our whilom visitors has gone soaring away above par and many people are now listening to the reports that Lakeview is the liveliest and best inland town that ever happened in the state of Oregon. While this statement may be regarded by a few as a trifle ornate, but under the circumstances it is permissible for which every delegate to the convention will vouch.

There is no doubt that next Monday the Lakeview schools will open with a splendid attendance. Lakeview can point with pardonable pride to its excellent new building designed for the comfort of pupil and instructor. This building was erected at considerable expense to the tax payers of this school district, but no man begrudges the money spent for this fine educational structure. Our school system, its corps of teachers and the building are on a par with any in the state of Oregon.

The Lever Agricultural Extension Bill, providing for Federal and state support of a plan to maintain a skilled farm demonstrator in every agricultural county in the Union, passed the House August 23. Every effort will be put forth to secure early and favorable consideration by the Senate when Congress reconvenes in December. It is the duty of every voter at the next election to support any bills pertinent to the advancement of agriculture or horticulture in the United States.

In commenting upon the remark: "There are men in hospitals and in hell who owe their damnation to the skirts of some bad, beautiful women," made by Rev. G. L. Morrill, pastor of the People's Church, Minneapolis, Col. Thompson of the Alturas Plasterer adds: "In our opinion, if skirts worn by the average young woman of the day would send a man to hell he is not worth saving. They look like wet hens with the tail feather pulled out."

Catching Fish
If you were fishing in a good location and catching nice big fish and some other fellow came along, undoubtedly you would advise him to be very quiet and make no noise, and, above all, not to "agitate" for fear of driving the fish away. You would tell him to stand on the bank and be content. So it is with our political "fishers" (masters). They are "catching the fish," (mostly suckers) and they, too, advise us to be very quiet and not to "agitate" for fear the "fish" will be scared away. Do you now that an "agitator," in our "fishers" (masters) eyes, looks like a devil fish? And you also know an octopus "fish" is everlasting afraid of a devil fish and that's why an octopus is afraid of an "agitator," they both look alike to him. Be an "agitator" and be a good one, even if your masters put you to death. Jesus Christ was an "agitator" and they put him to death. Are we afraid to follow in his footsteps? Are we more cowardly than He? Even Eve was an "agitator" and made it so "warm" for Adam that she compelled him to do the only sensible thing he ever did: eat the "apple." The world would still be hanging the female species for witches had it not been for the "agitator." We would still be crushing corn between two rocks had it not been for the "agitator." Mankind would still be living in the crevices of the rocks eating snakes had it not been for the "agitator." We would still be paddling around in dug-out logs had it not been for the "agitator." The "agitator" is the skirmishing line of advancing civilization. It is he that is ever urging on the human race to higher and nobler deeds and more civilized civilization. The man or woman who would eliminate the agitator, is a cog in the wheel of progress. They would have all things natural to be exterminated and things unnatural to remain. In other words they would stop the natural trend of human events and have us sit down and die of inactivity and dry rot. All hail to the "agitator." All honor to the "agitator." Long live the "agitator." What?
