

Town Property

- $3000.00 For a fine new 10-room house with large lot, 75x125, close to center of town and High School. Easy terms.
- $2600.00 For 6-room new bungalow, an ideal up-to-date home, close to center of town on Bernard Street. Easy terms.
- Vacant Lots on Slab Street at a bargain.
- $1300.00 For a new 4 room house and wood shed, lot 50 x 125, good location. Easy terms.
- $1600.00 For an up-to-date new bungalow, in choice residence part of the city. Easy terms.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

More Bargains

- $20.00 per acre for 200 acres of timber land, close in, easy terms.
- $12.50 For 320 acres good soil in the valley 6 miles from Lakeview. If you want a bargain don't pass this. Terms cash.
- Saw mill in first class order, including a large quantity of dry, finished lumber; saw logs and 180 acres of standing timber. The books will prove it to be a fine investment.
- 80 acres of fine timber on the West Side, close to a saw mill.
- 80 acres of the best in the valley, 8 miles from Lakeview with improvements and a fine water right — low price $30.00 per acre. Easy terms.
- 200 acres joining the O. V. L. Addition to Lakeview. Fine for cutting up into small tracts. A bargain at only $30.00 per acre.

Lake County Examiner

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1912.

BRIEF MENTION

Rainier Beer on draught at the Inn Childrens white dresses, sizes 2 to 6 years. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

A fine lot of Candy Buckets and stone jugs at The Frost at 25 cents each.

With every purchase of school books at Thornton's Drug store will be given a school necessity.

F. E. Harris, who has been employed by J. B. Auten, for the past year left on Wednesday morning's train on a trip South.

J. D. Venator, Les Vanderpool and Guy Causey Tuesday returned from a several days unsuccessful hunting trip in the mountains.

An automobile, E. M. F. 30, Model 1911, in good condition, is offered at a bargain if sold soon. See Mrs. C. A. Watson or T. E. Bernard. A29-tf

Leslie Seager, wife and daughter and father, M. Seager, yesterday evening came up from Davis Creek by auto on a short visit. They will return home this evening.

The Examiner is in receipt of a letter from Charles W. Reynolds, of Lakeview, now at the Kidpath Hotel, Spokane, where he expects to be until November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler and family were among the many visitors to town last week. They spent several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner.

Ranch for sale—160 acres on Camas Prairie, 1500 cords wood; good shearing corrals; large house, barn and out buildings. Address Rosa McDaniels, Lakeview, Oregon. A29

Mrs. Mary Bauers and son, Frank, who accompanied the remains of the late F. B. Bauers to Ashland for reinterment, will continue on to Pendleton for the Round-Up before returning home.

The city attorney has been ordered by the council to draft an ordinance to prohibit the construction of private boxes in restaurants and cafes and to order out all boxes now existing in those places.

Jay Billings has removed from the south end of town, where he has resided for some time past, to the Tucker residence on West street, south of Slab, which was recently vacated by D. F. Brennan.

President Taft has ordered the treasury department to permit the exportation of 500 rifles and 150,000 cartridges for the use of Americans in Mexico. The arms were forwarded to the consular agents at Cananea for distribution.

It is now stated that although President Taft will not intervene in Mexico without the fullest deliberation upon a step that would mean war, that intervention is nearer than it has been since the first American troops were rushed to the border eighteen months ago.

Goose hunting is quite in the proper order these days. Nearly every evening parties go to the West Side and many of the large birds have been brought to town. Next Sunday the duck season opens and this will afford additional amusement for local sportsmen.

The many friends of Mrs. J. Chas. Smith, who was quite ill last week, will be pleased to learn that she has recovered and is again attending to her duties at the Parisian Millinery. She is making preparations for their Grand Fall opening of Millinery the latter part of the month.

Manager Hager of the Sunshine Twins Leasing Company, operating a lease on the Sunshine property in the High Grade district is under a physician's care and will be brought to Lakeview for treatment. The mine will be closed until Mr. Hager is again able to assume charge of the work.

Mrs. Charles Cobleutz, of San Francisco, a sister of Mrs. S. F. Ahlstrom and Wm. and Frank Gunther of this city arrived in Lakeview last week and will spend a few weeks visit here. Mrs. Cobleutz has visited Lakeview before and her many friends will be pleased to know that she has returned.

Rev. C. A. Phipps, General Secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association is in the city holding a Sunday School Convention in the Baptist Church. His addresses Tuesday and Wednesday night showed wide experience in his work. Wednesday afternoon various local people took part Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

Wood for sale: In any quantity Phone 642. Bert Tatro. tf

If you want a really good smoke for a nicker, try Storkman's Leader.

Joe Bruener, one of High Grade's most active boosters was in the city Monday.

Maurice Murphy, the ralsley business man, was in town the forepart of the week on business.

The quarantine, due to the prevalence of infantile paralysis in Los Angeles, has been lifted.

Fritz Williams, deputy county clerk, resigned his position and left Tuesday morning by way of the South.

Sam Dicks and family of Crooked Creek this week moved into their new home on Water street recently purchased of Lewis McCulley.

J. P. Duckworth, president and manager of the Lakeview Transfer Co., will leave tomorrow on a trip over the county to buy hides and furs.

The local Wilson-Marshall enthusiasts are organizing a Lake county Wilson club. A rally meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon in Lakeview.

Colonel Roosevelt and party arrived in the West this week to cover this territory in the interest of his campaign. He and his party occupies two pullman cars.

The local Wilson-Marshall enthusiasts are organizing a Lake county Wilson club. A rally meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon in Lakeview.

Jack Donnelly, salesman for the famous "Donnelly's Rye," was among this weeks business visitors. He returned the forepart of the week from a trip to Paisley.

Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon issued a statement declaring that he will support Colonel Roosevelt for the presidency. He is as yet undecided where to take the stump for the "Progressives."

Operator G. W. Welch of the California-Oregon Telegraph Co., is spending a few days in repairing the line between here and Ft. Bidwell. Miss Alice McGrath has charge of the office during his absence.

The Boone house now belonging to Chas. Umbach on Dewey street, just South of the Heryford brick residence, is being torn down and will be moved to the rear of the lot and reconstructed facing West street.

The Hayes & Grob smokehouse at the rear of the market on Canyon street, that got in the way of the big Heryford building, was this week torn down and will be moved to the slaughter house below town.

Last week Jack Burke and Tom Murphy assumed charge of the Mud Creek Stage Station, belonging to Frank Rogers. Both boys have established reputations as artists in culinary things and promise to give the traveling public the best.

Chris Largslet has purchased from Doctor Hall two lots south of the High School building, in Drenkel's Addition. He is now having one of them filled in preparatory to erecting a substantial five-room residence within the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Combs, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Combs and Charles Combs have removed from the house they have occupied on Water street for some time past to the residence property recently purchased by Mr. Combs, Sr. on Water street, north of the Baptist church.

Last Saturday afternoon a very pretty birthday party was given at the G. W. Johnston home on Dewey street in honor of the fifth birthday of little Miss Mary. About twelve children were present and they were treated to light refreshments and amusements in kindergarten games.

Numerous Klamath Indians from Yainax are beginning to come to Lakeview and Goose Lake Valley on their annual tour to get supplies. They haul great quantities of fruit, vegetables and flour from this place every year, they almost wholly depending upon this section for their supplies.

Burns Times Herald: Wm. Hanley arrived home on Thursday night from outside points where he had been since the Development League meeting at Lakeview. He was accompanied in by Col. Wood. Mr. Hanley states that quite a number of our neighboring counties would send visitors to our county fair.

William Spencer and family who have been spending the summer in Lakeview, have returned to Springfield, Oregon, to spend the winter. They have a home at Springfield as well as in Lakeview and find much pleasure in sharing the beautiful climes of Lake's summers and taking advantage of Western Oregon's balmy winters.

Rainier on draught or in bottles at the Brewery. 2t

You can get the toilet soap you want at Snyder & Reynolds Drug store.

Two year old Lake City Flour for sale $1.75 per sack. Inquire at telephone office. tf

J. M. Batchelder and family have leased the Leslie Seager house in Seager's Addition.

Andrew Konnerth, the well known local carpenter, has accepted a position on the new Heryford building.

L. D. and Ben Frakes of Warner Lake came over to Lakeview the first of the week on a short business trip.

Hayes & Grob this week received a bunch of 31 fine beef steers, purchased from Mr. Stewart, of Surprise Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hanson who have been in San Francisco and other coast cities for the past two weeks will return home on tomorrow evening's train.

Lieutenant-General Arthur McArthur, United States Army, retired, died last week in Milwaukee of an apoplectic stroke while delivering an address.

A permit was issued this week by City Recorder Wallace to Attorney W. Lair Thompson for the construction of a cement walk in front of his residence property on Dewey street.

Frank Seereles who was employed as druggist by A. L. Thornton has returned to his home in North Dakota. C. L. Copeland is now acting as druggist in Mr. Thornton's pharmacy.

The Examiner this week printed a large order of folders for the Viewpoint Homesteader's Association, containing information regarding that fertile section of the Northern part of the county.

Eugene V. Deba, socialist nominee for President of the United States, is stumpng the West in behalf of his campaign. Newspaper notices state that he has been tendered flattering ovations.

A hunting party consisting of G. B. Graves, Byron Graves and Will Mulkey, Monday evening, returned from Quartz Valley with two fine bucks. The bucks were shot by Messrs. G. B. Graves and Will Mulkey, and are sure dandies.

J. Hotchkiss, who owns a ranch in the upper part of the valley is erecting a splendid new dwelling house, and has installed a large scale for weighing cattle. The capacity of the scale is eight tons and will add a great convenience to his property.

Dan F. Brennan, clerk of the Forest Office, Sunday moved his family to Joe Arzner's in Drenkel's Addition. Mrs. Arzner is an aunt of Mrs. Brennan, who is suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It is to be hoped that she will experience an early recovery.

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday in the Conference year at the Methodist Church. Reverend Melville T. Wire expects to leave on Monday for Ashland where the Methodist Conference opens September 18. The Conference year closes in good shape and the church shows a gain in membership during the year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Anderson, of St. Joseph, Mo., arrived here the first of the week and spent a few days investigating the country. They have some O.V.L. holdings in Harney county. Mr. Anderson has been associated with the Santa Fe and Rock Island railroads as yard agent in his home city for a number of years.

Due to the honesty and integrity of Pat Duane, J. W. O'Keefe and Morris Quinland, well known Irish boys of this vicinity, last Friday, T. E. Bernard recovered his purse containing $20.10 that he dropped in the postoffice. The boys found the purse and cheerfully surrendered it to the owner upon identification of the property.

That interest in shooting and fishing in Lake county is forging ahead at a rapid pace is evident from the report of County Clerk F. W. Payne that over 1000 game licenses have been sold in the county in 1912, eighty-three of which were sold since September 1st. This shows a marked increase over the number sold last year, the total for 1911 being 863.

W. A. Massingill, who has this summer been supervising the Lakeview Land & Lumber Company's sawmill on Camp Creek, came to town the first of the week, they having closed the mill down for the season. He informs the Examiner that the mill's output this year was a record breaker and that about one million and a third feet of lumber was sawed.

Rainier made Lakeview famous.

Ladies suit sale at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

John O'Neill, wife and mother were Lakeview visitors, Monday from New Pine Creek.

Attorney L. F. Conn has a fine buck hanging under a tree in his back yard as the result of a few days hunt last week.

John H. Wyatt and family left last week en route to the country West of the Cascade Range, with a view of possibly locating permanently in that region.

V. L. Snelling, livestock agent of the N.-C.-O. Ry., and one of the prominent promoters of the new town Fairport, was a busy visitor in Lakeview last Monday.

The West Side thresher was started up on G. F. Arthur's place Monday. Owing to the heavy grain crops this year the threshing season will be considerable longer than last.

Charles Mahan, well known locally, has removed from the Dan Chandler residence to the house recently vacated by John Walker and which is located north of the Grammar School.

After a week of unsettled weather last Sunday this section was again greeted with warm sunshine and present prospects look favorable for a continued spell of pleasant weather.

Our stock of school books, tablets, & pencils is now complete and as we are official distributors of school books, we are in a position to save you money. Thornton's Drug Store. 3t

A big celebration is planned to take place at Ft. Bidwell September 25-27. A long program and list of sports is being prepared, among which will be a base ball tournament, rock drilling contests and foot ball games.

All the local nimrods are examining their guns getting them ready and providing themselves with hunting licenses, preparatory to making a grand rush for the festive duck with the opening of the season next Sunday.

You can buy school books at Snyder & Reynolds Drug store as cheap as you can buy them anywhere in Oregon, and no one in Lakeview will make you quite such good prices on school supplies. Children are given the best attention.

W. O. Sheve, representing the Remington Arms Co. spent several days in this city last week. Mr. Sheve came here to call on the local sporting goods merchants, but while here took several trips to the West Side to take advantage of the goose shooting.

Rev. Father Kern, of Tacoma, Wash., this week arrived in Lakeview to take charge of the local Catholic Church. Father Schmitt who has been here over a year has been transferred to South Dakota and will leave for that place Monday of next week.

Wm. Roush, the Clover Flat goat man came down the first of the week to order some registered buck goats from Monmouth, Oregon. Mr. Roush has about 700 goats and will import six rams. He says they came at a high price, being almost as expensive as registered cows.

R. N. Buchwalter has bought the Chewaucan Press at Paisley and is now editing that publication. Mr. Buchwalter has a good field in which to profitably enter journalism and the Examiner wishes he and his paper the best of success. Paisley is located in a rich farming center and has the promise of a coming town of Oregon's Interior.

W. S. Hunter and family removed from Lakeview on Wednesday morning's train for Elbert, Colorado, where Mr. Hunter has accepted a position. During their period of abode among us they have made many friends who witness their departure with keen regret, and wish them the highest measure of success in their new location.

L. G. Linville, a pioneer of Lakeview and Lake county, now residing at Summer Lake, is a visitor in Lakeview this week. Despite his age Mr. Linville is a hale man and is very active. He has collected a large stock of curios consisting of numerous specimens of rock and stones, and has recently had polished what he claims to be a valuable topaz that was found in this country.

That long looked for and well deserved vacation of the school child will end this week and their work will be resumed next Monday, September 16 with the opening of Lakeview schools. City Superintendent Gardner is very busy this week in adding finishing touches here and there and getting the courses outlined for the teachers. A meeting will be held tomorrow to complete all preparations for the beginning of work Monday morning.

ATTENTION! For one week, beginning Saturday, Sept. 21 and lasting until Saturday Night, Sept. 28 we will show a New York Sample Line of Ladies' Ready to Wear Garments, of Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses and Furs. You all remember the line we showed last Spring —this will be better if possible.

THE PARISIAN MILLINERY.

"BENJAMIN" CLOTHES
Fall Styles

$18.00 to $27.00

You pay no more for a "Benjamin" than you do for the ordinary kind.

Sold exclusively by
BRITTEN & ERICKSON

LADIES' SUIT SALE

All our LA VOGUE SUITS will be closed out at big reductions. These are new goods and snappy styles. Notice the following prices:

- $15.00 suits $10.00 $22.50 suits $16.50
- 18.50 suits 13.50 25.00 suits 18.50
- 20.00 suits 15.00 27.50 suits 20.00
- $30.00 Suits $21.50

About one dozen in the lot, so come and get choice as they will soon go.

we also have a few 1911 skirts we are closing out at half price.

Don't overlook these bargains!

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.

