WHEN IN DOUBT, VOTE "NO"

The voters of Oregon will this year show the world what they can do in two short months toward deciding questions of state. There will be numerous questions to vote on at the November election counting candidates and measures. There is a great volume of abstruse enactments embracing single tax, income tax, banking law and corporation law, and such important issues as permanent road building, creation of a state public service commission, prohibition of capital punishment, woman's suffrage and a few others. The voters job in 1910 does not compare with the duty that will confront him in November 1912. In 1910 it was said that the Oregon system received a wonderful endorsement because the voters had rejected so many foolish measures. And it is hoped that this will be repeated in 1912. Not pretending to know whether the remarkable record of 1910 was due to intuition or a firm determination to vote "No" in case of doubt, at least this result was achieved, and there can be no better judgement used at the next election than "When in doubt vote No."

FARMER HAS CONTROL

Just now the farmer is prosperous. Take him as a class, and he will be found to be enjoying most of the comforts, and many of the luxuries of life. He comes pretty near being the most intelligent as well as the most industrious and provident member of the body politic. It is due to these facts that he is not content to let well enough alone and depend wholly on the promises of the politicians.

The farmers all over the land are just now closely studying the platforms of the various parties and are considering their actions at the polls in November will be conducive to the continuance of agricultural prosperity, or where it might encourage a national policy which would decrease the income of the farmers and lower the value of the farms. What decision the farmers as a class arrive at, will have very much to do with the making of the next President, and the next Congress.

A CONTRAST

The Sixty-first Congress, with a Republican majority in each house under the steady but not spectacular pressure of President Taft, enacted more progressive and sound legislation than has stood to the credit of any Congress in generations. The Sixty-second Congress, having a democratic majority in the House, closed its second session with a startling record of things left undone. Rarely has a Congress exhibited more ineptitude in legislation than this. It well merits the criticism of Hon. James R. Mann, Republican leader, who declared that "this Congress has enacted laws fewer in number and of less importance than any session in recent years."

Among the measures enacted by the Sixty-first Congress in the first two years of President Taft's administration are the following: Providing for an excise tax on corporations, a law which is working most satisfactorily and producing a handsome revenue; establishing a postal savings bank system; improving and perfecting the employers' liability act; reorganizing and reforming the consular service; creating a tariff board, which has secured a large amount of valuable data for guidance in tariff legislation; suppressing the white slave traffic, under which law many convictions have been secured and the traffic nearly broken up; providing for the fortification of the Panama Canal; amendments strengthening the interstate commerce law; improvements in the laws on the subject of safety appliances for railroads; for the suppression of the issuance of fraudulent bills of lading.

Contrast this with the almost blank record of the Sixty-second Congress. "I said last December," said Mr. Mann the other day, "that this session would last longer and do less than any other regular session of recent years. My forecast proved correct."

It seems that somebody is getting busy in Lakeview sending out dated dispatches from this place of supposed news items. Of late there have been dispatches appearing in the Klamath Falls papers and Portland dailies about large transactions and various items of supposed news that are absolutely without foundation and with utter disregard for the truth. Of course all the news that is sent broadcast over the associated press from any town is good advertising providing it is news and the facts are given, but unauthentic news is a detriment and this correspondent should have some regard for the truth.

ORGANIZATION OF DEMOCRATIC CLUB

League Elects Officers and Drafts Constitution and By-Laws

The democrats of Lakeview met in the court house last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing in support of the party candidates for National, State and County officers. The meeting was called to order by Prof. J. F. Burgess, temporary chairman, O. C. Gibbs acting temporary secretary.

Hon. B. Daly, S. P. Moss and O. C. Gibbs were appointed as a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, extracts from which are given below:

The name of the organization shall be the Wilson and Marshall Progressive Democratic League of Lakeview, Oregon. The League will affiliate with Progressive Democratic League of Oregon and the Federation of Democratic clubs of the United States, and co-operate with said organization in extending the club organization movement throughout Lake county and the state of Oregon. The members of the Wilson and Marshall Democratic League hereby make formal organization in order that they may co-operate for the advancement of democratic principles as applied to government in accordance with the teachings of Jefferson and Jackson. We heartily endorse the national platform adopted at Baltimore. We pledge our efforts, now and in the future, not only to the selection and election of candidates who stand upon that platform but to the establishment and maintenance of a party organization composed of men who believe in the principles and the policies therein enunciated.

Regular meeting of the organization shall be held at League headquarters on the first and third Tuesday of each month. The business headquarters of the League will be at the office of O. C. Gibbs.

The following officers were elected: Prof. J. F. Burgess, president; Thos. B. Vernon, vice-president; O. C. Gibbs, secretary and Lee Beall, treasurer.

What Will Teddy Say?

"What will be the first thing Teddy will say when he enters the White House next year?" asked a summer girl.

"Bully!" guessed a newspaper man. "Delighted!" ventured a school-ma'am.

"The women did it," said a gallant store clerk.

"All wrong," said the fair questioner. "He'll say, 'How do you do, President Taft!'"

Silver Lake Items (Silver Lake Leader)

Those who have been plumping at Summer Lake this season, report an unusually large crop.

Last week C. C. Harris of Summer Lake, threshed 1000 bushels of oats from 14 acres of land.

Sam Wilson, who represents Porter Bros., railroad contractors, and who are working on the Eugene-Coos Bay road, was in town several days last week on the hunt of horses. He hired something like 30 head from Gus Schroeder.

Deputy Game Warden Wm. La Sater came in from Paisley on Sunday evening. On Monday morning he swore out a warrant for Michael Sult, Jr., of Summer Lake, for killing deer without a license. The warrant was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Reeder, who refused to serve it, under instructions from Sheriff Snider. Mr. Sult hiked for Corvallis Tuesday, where he will attend school this winter, and somebody is left with the "sack to hold."

Bandit Still At Large

It is reported that Sheriff Smith of Modoc county has given up the chase of the bandit who held up the High Grade-Fort Bidwell stage last week and secured about $125 for his trouble, and sent word to the local authorities to give up the chase. "Cyclone" Thompson was driving the stage, and reports are being circulated that he committed the robbery, from the fact that he was the only party on the stage at the time of the hold-up, although Harvey Thrasher and Tim McCarty who were camped on Deep Creek at the time, say they saw a rather suspicious looking character pass through Big Valley a few days after the robbery occurred.
