MUTTON MARKET GETTING ACTIVE

From The Irish News
 As we go to press there are five sheep buyers in town, which naturally indicates that the sales of mutton and lambs have taken a decided boom and that stockmen should expect higher prices than those paid by the buyers during the past month.

Frank Bloomingcamp and T. A. Burrow, of Merrill, are here to secure mutton. A. G. Swanston, of Sacramento, is another of the buyers, he having already purchased a number of "coarse wool" lambs from Charles Sherlock, of this city. H. P. Carey, representing the firm of Miller & Lux, has returned from California points and is again on the outlook for suitable stock. He has made several purchases within the past month, among which were stock belonging to Pat Barry, of Paisley, G. L. Holbrook, this city, and others. L. Degen, representing Degen Brothers, of Denver, Colorado, is one of the latest arrivals. Mr. Degen has already acquired about 30,000 head of Nevada and California lambs, and several of the purchases made by him from Dennis O'Connor and Charles Sherlock will be found recorded in another column of this paper. Earl O'Brien, of Reno, is here to buy ewes for shipment to other points of the country. It is also rumored that a mutton buyer from the Bend country is soon to reach Lakeview with a view to purchasing 20,000 head of mutton.

Taking all into consideration it looks as though the market for mutton and lambs is the best it has been this season, and it is hoped that much bigger prices will be received by the stockmen. Many of the latter are in town now and some have been for many weeks, all being obliged to hold off selling on account of the excessively low prices paid.

O. A. C. Popular

Registrar H. M. Tennant says there is a 25 per cent increase in O.A.C. enrollment over this time last year. New entries came from 16 states, New England to the Pacific coast, and from India, Alaska, Canada and Honolulu. Upper classmen are returning from nine additional states. A high class Brahmin from India has bought an eight acre farm near the college and will work it while taking a course in scientific farming. He insists on wearing the pink turban of his class. The son of a big Brooklyn merchant is coming for horticulture.

A graduate of the University of New York is also entering for special study. A British Columbian graduate of an eastern university is coming to take a master's degree in horticulture. Diplomas written in Chinese, Japanese and other foreign languages were presented for entrance credit. A Japanese offer 148 week's work in cultivating the virtues and 142 weeks in Japanese language.

Paisley Pick-ups

(Chewaucan Press)
 Attempts to reopen the artesian well which was lost by a dynamite explosion some time ago, has been abandoned, and Mr. Robineet has decided to drill again. Mr. Hale will do the work for him.

Friday night robbers broke into the Maurice Murphy saloon here and rifled the till, securing about $12 in silver and small change. There was some currency in another compartment of the money drawer which in their haste they overlooked. They also secured one of the door keys which was hidden under the sack of change. Nothing else was disturbed. The robbers left no clue whatever and no trace of them has been discovered.

MINOR MENTION

From The Irish News

Frank Moynihan and Bill Abear, both of whom are experts in the sheep business, September 18th, purchased from Pat England his lease in the Quindlan & Lynch sheep. The News takes this opportunity of wishing both of the purchasers much success in their new venture.

Jack Bresnahan and Con Sullivan, who are partners in the sheep business, last week, sold 700 head of ewes to Jack Flynn and Jack Leary, the price paid Mr. Bresnahan being $4.75 per head, while Mr. Sullivan received $5.00 per head for his share. The sheep were separated and counted at Camas Prairie.

Mike O'Sullivan got busy several days ago and bought 50 head of fine bucks from George Fitzgerald. The price paid was $10 per head. It is needless to say that Mike is a subscriber to the News.

Charles Sherlock and Dennis O'Connor, last week sold 2500 head of "coarse wool" lambs to Mr. Deegan, the Salt Lake buyer, price paid being $3.35 per head. The sheep were delivered at Lakeview.

Walter Sherlock, the Alturas sheepman, last week sold 3000 head of "coarse wool" lambs to Mr. Deegan, the Salt Lake buyer. The price paid was $2.60 per head, delivery to be made at Modoc, California.

Philip S. Barry, the local sheepman, returned several weeks ago from San Francisco where he remained for a short time as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Carrigan. Phil reports an excellent time while absent, and states that many wonderful sightings are being erected from year to year in the big city.

It was reported among the boys sometime ago that Michael Barry, Sr., father to Michael M. Barry, was to visit Lakeview during the coming winter, and his arrival was looked forward to with interest. Since then we have been informed that Mr. Barry will not come over this winter, although it is hoped that he may see fit to honor us with his presence at some not distant time.

OUTWITTED A LION.

Clever Tactics of a Plucky and Ingenious African.

The little bushman of South Africa is not only small in size, but feeble in mind. Yet there is on record an encounter between a bushman and a lion which shows the man as cool in danger and fertile in resource.

This bushman, while a long way from his home, was met by a lion. The animal, assured that he had his victim completely in his power, began to sport and dally with him with a feigned jocosity which the poor little bushman failed to appreciate. The lion would appear at a point in the road and leap back again into the jungle, to reappear a little further on.

The bushman, however, did not lose his presence of mind and presently hit upon a device whereby he might outwit his foe. This plan was suggested by the lion's own conduct.

Aware that the beast was ahead of him, the bushman dodged to the right, and, feeling pretty sure of the lion's whereabouts, resorted to the course of quietly watching his movements.

When the lion discovered that the man had suddenly disappeared from the path he was a good deal perplexed. He roared with mortification. Then he espied the bushman peeping at him over the grass.

The bushman at once changed his position, while the lion stood irresolute in the path, following with his eye the shifting black man. In another moment the little man rustled the reeds, vanished and showed himself at another point.

The great brute was first confused and then alarmed. It evidently began to dawn upon him that he had mistaken the position of matters and that he was the hunted party.

The bushman, who clearly recognized the situation, did not pause to permit the lion to recover his straggled wits. He began to steal gradually toward the foe, who, now in a complete state of doubt and fear, turned tail and decamped, leaving the plucky and ingenious little bushman master of the situation.—Harper's.

Fascination of Golf.

"I've heard of Nero a-playing on 'is fiddle, sir, when 'is 'ome was a-burning," said the landlady, putting down the local paper, "but this 'ere game of golf must be the most fascinating 'obby in the world. I've been reading about the fire up at the golf ground last Friday, and it says, 'The fire brigades promptly responded to the call, and when darkness closed in they were still playing upon the ruins of the clubhouse.'"—Golf Illustrated.
