Klamath Herald: W. B. Barnes Friday shipped the first logs ever taken from the Klamath Indian Reservation. They were taken to the tub factory in this city, and measured 20,000 feet. Mr. Barnes, when assessor of Lake county in 1897, was the first white man to rent land on the Indian Reservation.

Oregon will soon be producing large quantities of salt. Development work on Summer and Abert Lakes has been started and it is expected to produce 400,000 tons per year of salt, potash and soda. There are said to be 40,000,000 tons of salts in these lakes and a 40-year lease has been secured. More salt than is taken from Salt Lake, Utah, is expected to be secured annually from these Oregon waters.

In order to discourage any attempt of automobile operators to engage in the Lakeview-Klamath Falls travel, it is stated that the fare between the two places has been fixed at $5 each way for the remainder of the auto season, which will be a couple of weeks. It will be remembered that some time ago the fare was cut from $15 to nothing because a man from here had made a cut in the regular rate.

It is reported that W. P. Heryford will erect a two story brick building on the Aviragette property on Main street, that he recently bought. Mr. Heryford's faith in the future of Lakeview is clearly manifested by the improvements that he is adding to his property interests here. It speaks well for the town that its pioneer citizens back the convictions of their judgment, with hard cash, like Mr. Heryford is doing here in Lakeview.

He expects to get it working shortly and entertainments will be resumed this week.

Since the present siege of exposure in Chicago of crime and vice of the pug, big burly Jack Johnson, several cities are protesting against allowing him to engage in any further pugilistic attractions within their limits. In some places this edict has become mandatory. To the ordinary public this step occurs as about two years late. Simply let him drop and be forgotten, and in due course of time another champion will appear.

The stockmen of Lake and adjoining counties should give much praise to Gus Schroder, of Silver Lake, for his commendable work in assisting to run down and capture the Robinson brothers who were rustling horses in the northern part of Lake and in Crook county. Gus trailed the men through this state and found where they crossed the Columbia river, and on to Toppenish, Wash., where he found the horses, and succeeded in repleting his own stock.

Two autos from the Southstone garage Saturday took a number of duck hunters from here to the Warner lakes. Among those going were Harry Bailey, A. L. Thornton, Wm. Massingill, T. E. Bernard Wm. Post, W. P. Dykeman, M. Southstone and Ed Detrick. They report good shooting and returned with a goodly amount of birds.

John Hollenbeck, of Klamath county, sheepherder for Dave Edler, who last week fell into a hot water spring near Klamath Falls, died from the effects of the scald. He lived six days after the fearful accident happened. The Klamath Herald stated that Mr. Edler had made all arrangements for the burying of the body which took place at Klamath Falls.

Ed Sharp, of New Pine Creek, was brought up from that place Monday and arrested upon a charge of disturbing the peace. It is said that he established quite a reputation for himself as a pugilist and caused considerable commotion in the newly incorporated town. It is contended, however, that he is ordinarily a peaceful citizen, and at a preliminary hearing before Justice Farrell, was released upon his own recognizance.

Governor West is now making an investigation of the affairs in Klamath Falls to disclose the charge that the officers are not enforcing the laws in that town. The investigation arose over the alleged charge of a police officer assaulting a staff reporter of the Northwestern, in the presence of Mayor Nicholas and officers, who would not interfere or protect the reporter from the beating. Klamath Falls seems to like the limelight, and her reputation is becoming widespread.

T. H. Cloud and E. H. Clark last week went for a several days hunt in the deer haunts of the Drews Valley vicinity. When leaving it was generally understood among their friends, that no deer—no come back. Mr. Clark, however, came in Monday with nothing but weird tales of the big bunches of deer and thousands of tracks that infest that region, but he said they wouldn't bite. It is said that Tom Cloud continued the chase after one poor deer from the first day out until yesterday when the innocent creature, overcome by fatigue and constant worry, laid down and died for him. He will be in today with his prey.

Catholic Dance

What those who attended state was one of the finest dances held this season, was given Friday last at the Snyder Opera House under the auspices of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society. It is estimated that about 85 couples were present for the occasion, besides the usual number of spectators.

Music was furnished by Miss Emily Ayres and Messrs. Darnell and Wallace and several of the selections rendered were encored many times.

The dance was given for the purpose of raising money to help defray some of the expenses incidental to the building of the new Catholic church and rectory here, and the sum of about $80 was realized for this purpose after the necessary expenses were met.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. J. P. McAuliffe, Mrs. Con Fitzgerald, Mrs. T. J. Sullivan, Mrs. Frank Hutchins, Mrs. James McShane, Mrs. D. F. Brennan, Misses Julia Glosster and Brides Flynn.

Italian Commits Robbery

Last Monday J. Bertuca and Alex Rossi, Italians, while in the house of Lila in the demi monde district, in Lakeview, took $136 in currency and some toilet articles from a dresser while she was in another apartment of the house. Feeling a suspicion of the foreigners after they left the place, an investigation was made and the theft disclosed.

Constable M. Whorton was notified, and he found the pair down town. They were identified by the woman, and a search revealed the money on the person of Bertuca. All articles excepting the money were disposed of before the men were apprehended. They were lodged in the county bastille, where Bertuca confessed to having committed the theft, and thus vindicating his friend from being a party in the crime.

The grand jury will be recalled Wednesday of next week to return an indictment.

Hallowe'en

Today is Hallowe'en Day. From olden times the civilized people have celebrated this occasion with pranks and all kinds of amusements and the idea has been that the ghostly occasion could be made the more nearly it would live up to the tradition its origin.

Hallowe'en is the day preceeding All Saint's Day, November 1, or All-Hallows, a festival said to have been begun by Pope Boniface IV, about 607, celebrated in the Pantheon in Rome and permanently established by Pope Gregory IV, about 830 A. D., for the commemoration of all those saints and martyrs in whose honor that particular day is assigned.

Several parties and a dance are to take place in the evening in this city for Hallowe'en amusements, and it is also expected that tonight many innocent pranks will be played on the unsuspecting townspeople.

Much Grain Threshed

The West Side Threshing Co. gives the following report as to the number of bushels of grain they threshed in this valley during the 1912 season:

Barley, 2,564 bushels; wheat, 22,600; oats, 2,946; rye, 2,348, giving a total of 53,548 bushels.

There was also one other large thresher operating in the valley besides one or two small private machines. The reports are not available from them yet, but the above is indicative that upwards of 100,000 bushels were harvested in Goose Lake Valley this year.

Two Elections Tuesday

Next Tuesday in Lakeview will be a busy day for the mighty law-maker. Aside from the general election to be held, city election will take place also. Thus far no activity has been demonstrated over city election, and no tickets have been announced. It is said that Messrs. Duke and Mayfield, of the present council, have voiced their intention of withdrawing their names this year. Mayor Rinehart stated that, while in no way was he seeking the office again, he would serve if the people selected him.
