LAKEVIEW COUPLE QUITLY MARRIED
E. F. Chancy and Lora Bar- ry Wedded by County Judge Daly

Mr. E. F. Chancy and Mrs. Lora Barry, who have been living as man and wife for many years, married last Thursday evening in the office of County Judge Daly and became quietly sealed in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at precisely 6:30 p.m., by Judge Daly.

The happy couple, Mr. Chancy, an intelligent gentleman, and Mrs. Barry, a sweetly mirthful young woman, were very elated at the ceremony. The newlyweds are well known in the community and have long been engaged to each other. They were married in the presence of witnesses, who were invited to the ceremony.

LAKEVIEW IS AGAIN
Central Oregon is Again
Nominee at Dry Farming Congress
Oregon leads the world as a dry farming center, and the State has given us a great deal of credit with its products. The State is now ready to welcome the dry farming advocates again and to receive them with open arms.

The dry farming Congress will be held in Oregon, and it is expected that many important topics will be discussed. The Congress will be held in Bend, Oregon, on April 15th.

CATLETS CARRY AMERICAN PRIZES
The Catleats, which are recent arrivals in this country, have been carrying American prizes for many years. They are the pride of the State of Oregon and have shown their abilities in many contests.

Bulls carrying American prizes are often selected as stock for breeding purposes. They are valuable to the breeders and are much sought after as breeding stock.

HIGHWAY ACROSS STATE IS PLANNED
Association for Purpose Recently Organized at Jacksonville

Some exchanges recently inform the information that the Illinois Highway Association is considering the organization of a new company. The company will be organized in Jacksonville.

The company will be an important factor in the development of the Illinois highway system. It is expected that the company will receive a large share of the highway work in Illinois.
