EASTERN FACTORY LOADED
Surer because speedier. The steel lining grips the powder charge with just the exact compression that puts every ounce of drive into the shot.
Cleaner because the "factory loaded" pattern hasn't a hole or a "wing tip" in it. And, too, Eastern factory loading means uniformity-- every shell shoots alike.

BRIEF MENTION
From The Irish News
"Cap" Brown, of the Hotel Lakeview, was a Reno visitor during the past month.
Another sale reported to us during the past month was the sale by Michael P. and John P. Barry to H. P. Stevens of 500 yearling ewes. The price was not mentioned.

Con Taylor and Pat Duane, partners in the sheep business, recently put through a business deal whereby their band was reduced to the extent of 800 two-year old wethers. The stock were sold to Frank Bloomingcamp, the Merrill buyer, and the price received was $3.50 per head.

Dave Jones, who's name has appeared at other times in the columns of this paper, left October 22nd for Sacramento to accompany several carloads of lambs sold by Charles Sherlock to George Swanson. Henry Newell, Jr., of this city, was with him on the trip.
From the New Era we note that Dennis O'Connor, whose name has been mentioned before in these columns, has lately purchased 75 head of fine bucks from Walter Sherlock, of Alturas. The bucks in question are of the finest stock to be found in this section of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael M. Barry, who removed to Plush during the past month, are now comfortably located at the JJ ranch. Mrs. Barry is teaching school for the children of North Warner, and we look forward to her passing on a bright lot of youngsters when the season ends.

Con O'Connell, of Paisley, has sold one-third interest in 1780 head of ewes and 80 lambs to Jack O'Keefe, receiving therefor $4.00 per head for the ewes and $2.50 each for the lambs. Jack is an old-timer in the sheep business and we have not the slightest doubt but what he will be successful.

Dave Edler, locally known as "the sheep king," made a deal during the past month whereby he disposed of 8000 head of lambs to J. G. Johnson, a San Francisco buyer. The stock was delivered at Klamath Falls, from which point they were shipped to California points. The price received is not known.

Philip P. Barry, the Guano Valley rancher and sheepman, is now somewhat richer in pocket through the sale some weeks ago to Frank Bloomingcamp of 460 head of two-year olds at $3.50 each. Mr. Barry also sold to the same buyer for Jack P. J. Barry, 560 head additional of two-olds at the price mentioned above.

It is with considerable pleasure that we record here the fact that Dan O'Connor is now one of the three trustees of the local Catholic church. The appointment was announced by Father Kern at one of the recent Sunday services, and met with the approval of all who know Mr. O'Connor personally and are familiar with his many fine qualities.

Father Kern left October 7th for San Francisco, returning two weeks later. The occasion of his visit was to perform the ceremony which united in marriage a former lady parishioner of his from Tacoma with a California gentleman. Enroute back he stopped over at Reno and while there was present at the grand ball given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus.

Philip K. Barry, one of our pioneer residents, has been in town for the past few weeks for the purpose of enjoying a well-earned rest. Mr. Barry has been actively engaged in the sheep business here for the past 25 years. Despite the fact that he is now 80 years of age, he is still stout and healthy and as young looking as the average man of 50. His sheep are now camped at Drake's Flat.

Con Fitzgerald and Mikie Barry, prominent among our local residents, have purchased the W. Z. Moss interest in the saloon recently conducted by the latter at Plush. The purchase includes a half interest in the entire business, the remaining portion being owned by August Bogner. All of the parties interested are favorably known to the people in general throughout this section of the country, and we have not the slightest doubt but that they will experience more than ordinary success in their new venture. They have our best wishes for a prosperous winter's season.

During the very short period in which the local Catholic church has been favored with his pastorate, Father Kern, S. J., has made some wonderful improvements about the church and rectory buildings. Through his personal efforts he has built a board walk from the front of the church to the porch of the priest's residence and has greatly enhanced the beauty of the latter building by fixing up about the premises in various ways. He is now having the upper floor of the rectory fixed up for meeting hall purposes, which when completed will have a seating capacity of close to 50 persons. There is no question about Father Kern's energy, and he has already secured a warm place in the hearts of all of the boys.

Black faced yearlings number one, for sale at ten dollars, also Lincoln lambs. Walter A. Sherlock; Alturas, Calif.

THE WORTH OF A COMMERCIAL CLUB

Prospective Settlers Unable to Get Answers to Inquiries About Country

Some of the real needs of a live Commercial Club in Lakeview are clearly set forth in the following letter from M. B. Sipple, Plains, Mont.

"Lake County Examiner,
"Lakeview, Oregon.

"Will you kindly give me the name and address of some real estate firm in Lakeview, that you think will answer letters of inquiry. I have written to three firms there and enclosed self addressed envelopes for reply, but have not received a reply from them. I also wrote to the former secretary of the Commercial Club there, but received no answer. I see by the Examiner that there has been an election of officers in that body, and perhaps the new blood will do better.

"Will you kindly tell me where I can get a plat of Lakeview showing the Oregon Valley Land Co. Addition to that town?" Mr. Sipple states that he has appealed to individual firms for information of Lakeview and surrounding country. It is granted that business men have all they can conveniently attend to in the regular lines of their own business and very few are able to give their attention to answering inquiry correspondence. Hence the need of a live and well supported Commercial Club. This is an absolute necessity for the welfare and development of our country, and the sooner the citizens come to realize this all important fact, the sooner development will be effected.

New Store at Fort Rock

Bend Bulletin: Fort Rock, in Lake county, will in a short time have a new store, established by two Bend men. J. D. Honeyman, who was connected with the Bend Mercantile Co., the first store here, and until recently was with S. C. Caldwell, will, together with Geo. Michaelson, open the business. They made a trip to Lake county recently and looked over the situation, taking over the business conducted by Ray Nash. They will put up a new building, as Mr. Nash will use his for a meat market. Mr. Michaelson came to Bend the past summer, after proving up on a homestead in Lake county.

Becker Convicted

Police Lieutenant Charles Becker of New York City, was found guilty of murder in the first degree last Friday by the jury which has been trying him for instigating the death of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler. He was remanded for sentence to the Tombs by Justice Goff until yesterday, and was taken to Sing Sing prison to await the action of the court of appeals. It is said that New York is in a great turmoil over the verdict, and that the judge of the court and attorneys, jurors and witnesses in the case cannot walk the streets with a feeling of safety. Detectives are guarding District Attorney Whitman, who has received many anonymous threats.

State Registration

In regard to the registration in the state of Oregon, the following is contained in a dispatch from Salem to The Evening Telegram: With all returns from county clerks showing a marked increase in the registration over that of the last election, the prediction is made here that the registration for the state will easily reach 150,000. The registration at the last election was 122,742. The total registration for Multnomah County then was 38,836. The registration for the primaries this year for that county was 53,754. This represents an increase of over 23 per cent. While other counties cannot show as large an increase it is considerable in excess of that at the last election.

Locates in Alaska

We have received word to the effect that Father Michael M. O'Malley, S. J., one of our former pastors, is now located in Nome, Alaska. On leaving here a little over a year ago Father O'Malley proceeded to Los Gatos, California, where he was stationed for sometime. If we remember rightly he was also in San Francisco for some months, and while in the latter place was visited by many of his former parishioners from this section of the country. The station to which he has now been assigned is in the most northern part of Alaska, where there is six months of continuous day and an equal period of night, the latter being in vogue at the present time. It is a hard station to fill, but we all have greatest confidence in the ability of Father O'Malley to fill any station in life under any conditions, and he has our best and sincere wishes in his new place.
