WILLIS FURNITURE COMPANY WINS

Fall Term of Circuit Court Making Preparations to Adjourn

After an unusually long term of Circuit Court, yesterday afternoon was spent in preparing for adjournment and Judge Benson expected to leave today for his home at Klamath Falls.

The Willis Furniture Co. case vs. the Horticulture Fire Relief Insurance Co., of Oregon which occupied the attention of the court nearly all last week, was turned over to the jury Saturday night, when that body returned in a few minutes with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, allowing him $9000, the full amount of the insurance policy for which he was suing. It was stated in open court, however, and the plaintiff's attorneys notified that an appeal of the case would be taken to the supreme court.

This case, it will be remembered, resulted from the fire of the Snider opera house last Spring, which burned the furniture stock of the Willis Company. Willis was later indicted on a perjury charge for the alleged furnishing of a fictitious schedule loss resulting from the fire. The case was tried in Klamath county and the defendant acquitted. The company was then made the plaintiff's in the suit against the Insurance Company for the recovery of the policy, which as stated above, was allowed by the lower court. The Willis Furniture Co. was represented by W. Lair Thompson, of Lakeview and Capt. J. C. Reutnic, of Klamath Falls, while

L. F. Conn, of this place and John Bain, of Salem conducted the defense. J. E. McCool, of this city was appointed by the court to fill the vacancy in the grand jury caused by the absence from that body of Nels Calderwood, and a true bill was returned against J. Bertuca, Italian, for larceny of money from a dwelling house in Lakeview. He had previously made a confession of the crime, and Judge Benson imposed a penitentiary sentence of from one to seven years. He is now being held in the county jail, and in a few days will be taken to Salem by Sheriff Snider.

Martha M. Graham was granted a divorce from John S. Graham, commonly known as Jack Gore. Attorney L. F. Conn appeared for the plaintiff.

The case of Floyd Lane, Oliver Brandt and B. F. Lane, who were indicted for a charge of assault and battery on Dave Dotson came up for hearing this week, and the indictments against Oliver Brandt and B. F. Lane were dismissed, while Floyd Lane was given a sentence of a $200 fine, which he paid.

The case of James Young, plaintiff, vs. the Lakeview Land & Lumber Co., defendant, was postponed and continued to the May term, 1913, and set for trial on the first day of the Spring term.

Jack Johnson is now occupying a cell in the County jail at Chicago as a result of the failure to furnish $30,000 bonds for his release on the charge of violating the Mann Anti-White Slavery Act.

DEBT TO RAILWAY

liner is concerned present freight rates from San Francisco to Lakeview are less than those formerly paid from Alturas to Lakeview in many instances, to say nothing of the convenience. The mixed-train service seems to be the one rumor that is likely to materialize, for in that way the railroad company could not only greatly reduce its expenses and in course of a year or so place the full $1500 together with a fair rate of interest in its sinking fund or declare it in dividends. To have the report go to the outside world that Lakeview was being served with a one-day mixed-service train would be of incalculable harm and result in our being classed as a backwoods place of little importance.

When the sewer proposition was voted down Lakeview received a hard blow on the outside, and now to have a good passenger and freight service combined into one mixed train six times a week will be harmful in the extreme.

Don't let us give our neighboring towns and would-be competitors any further opportunity to knock Lakeview, but get together and subscribe the amount at once.

LANE FOR U. S. SENATOR

bility of bank stockholders: the railroad rate bill which no one appears to understand not even the railroad men; tax exemption on household goods; an eight-hour law on public work; the Malarkey bill for regulating public service corporations through the State Railroad Commission; repeal of the county tax option; four of the harmony road bills; the measure to allow convicts to be worked on roads; allowing city prisoners to be worked on roads; limiting county indebtedness for road building to two per cent of the taxable property; limiting county indebtedness for road construction and authorizing counties to make bond issues for road work. The Grange road bill is in doubt although it received a substantial support in Multnomah County but was badly beaten in several outside counties.

On at least 25 measures submitted the electors voted "No" emphatically. The Republican nominees for state offices were elected with ease. Ben Oleott has been re-elected Secretary of State; Robert Eakin has been re-elected to the Supreme Bench; Clyde B. Atchison has been retained as Railroad Commissioner in one district and Thomas Campbell in the other. John D. Mickel is the new State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

Following is a summary of the thirty-seven various measures voted upon and the total number of votes each received in Lake County:
