OREGON ALMANAC WILL BE ISSUED

A work complete and all its features appearing as early as Monday morning next, have been written on pages of one of the Oregonian. It is the 11th edition of that periodical. The present work is intended to be a complete and comprehensive guide to the state of Oregon and its products. It is a valuable reference book and will be of great interest to those who are engaged in the various industries of the state. The book is written in a clear and concise manner, and the style is easy to read. It is a valuable addition to the literature of the state, and will be of great assistance to those who are engaged in the various industries of the state.

HONORED CITIZEN DIES IN LAKEVIEW

ROBERT F. FRANKS

The death of Robert F. Franks, the former postmaster of Estacado, occurred in Los Angeles, California, on January 2, 1915. He was 76 years of age and had been a resident of Estacado for many years. He was a well-known and respected citizen, and his passing is a great loss to the community. He was a member of the local Masonic lodge and had been active in his community for many years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Robert F. Franks, and two children, Robert F. Franks, Jr., and Mrs. Mary Franks. Services were held at the local church, and interment was made at the Estacado cemetery.

TIMBER RAILROAD REPORT

The Timber Railroad, which runs from Estacado to the coast, received a large shipment of lumber from the local mills. It is expected that the railroad will be completed by the end of the month, and the tracks will be laid during that time.

LAKEVIEW MAIL ORDER MERCHANTS

A mail order merchant in Lakeview, Oregon, has received a large order from a customer in California. The order was for a variety of items, including clothing, home furnishings, and groceries. The merchant is pleased with the order, and is looking forward to delivering the items to the customer.

LAKEVIEW NEWS

The Lakeview News is a weekly newspaper that covers local news and events in the Lakeview area. It is published every Thursday, and is available for purchase at local stores. The newspaper is written in a clear and concise manner, and the style is easy to read. It is a valuable addition to the literature of the state, and will be of great assistance to those who are engaged in the various industries of the state.