BRIEF MENTION

Rainier made Lakeview famous. Ladies suit sale at Lakeview Mercantile Co. Hamilton Brown School Shoes all sizes. Mercantile Co. Social dance at the opera house every Saturday night. If you want some nice sauer kraut call at Mrs. H. A. Jones'. Wanted.—Work by young man capable of any line. P. O. Box 472, Lakeview, Oregon. Stock Inspector Malloy has been over in Warner during the past week on official business. J. F. Hanson Monday evening returned from Los Angeles, where he had been getting acquainted with his family. The N.-C.-O. is handling a large amount of incoming freight these days, indicating that business is good in all parts of the county. Frank Polte, who recently made final proof on his homestead in the Fort Rock neighborhood, has gone to San Francisco to spend the winter. Mrs. E. L. Orton arrived from Portland this week on a visit to her son, Hon. A. W. Orton, register of the U. S. Land Office. She will remain during the winter. The Lakeview Mercantile Company is now conducting a big reduction sale in all lines of their stock, getting ready to move to their new location in the Heryford building. Deer are reported unusually numerous in the hills around Drews Valley. At this time of year there are generally only a few in that entire section, as they winter in the lava beds down near Tule Lake. C. S. Farmerie and C. L. Becraft, well known ranchers of Vistillas, were in Lakeview the forepart of the week. They report stock doing well in their section, with the outlook favorable for a mild winter. An excavation is being made at the side of the Heryford building for a big tank to hold the oil which will be used to generate electricity for the elevator and lighting system. After this winter oil will also be burned in the furnace. There are numerous sidewalks throughout town that are sadly in need of repairs, and there is a lack of such walks in many places that are badly needed. The new Council has somewhat of a job on its hands in these regards, to say the least. Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Senger have been in Lakeview during the past week, preparing to move their household effects to Davis Creek, where they expect to reside in the future. During their stay here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Orton. L. A. Carricker and G. F. Arthur, two prominent ranchers of the West Side, were in town the forepart of the week. They report that a large acreage has been seeded to grain this fall, although the cold weather of the past ten days has interfered somewhat with plowing. Geo. Storkman this week received the fixtures for his new cigar store and poolrooms to be located in the Storkman building, and he will open for business in a short time. The room has been thoroughly renovated and will present a handsome appearance when furnished and occupied. Mrs. Harry Morren, of Valley Falls, who has been at the Lakeview Hospital the past several weeks under the care of Dr. E. D. Everett, was this morning taken to Reno for an operation. Dr. Everett accompanied her. This is the second time that Mrs. Morren has been taken to Reno to be operated upon. W. H. Drenkel and son, Walter, Lakeview real estate dealers, returned Monday evening from a trip to San Francisco and Richmond, Calif. They report that Richmond, the California oil town, is the most active place on the coast and that it gives the best promises for a thriving city. Mr. Drenkel invested in twelve lots there. R. E. Winchester, of Susanville, Calif., has bought the Goose Lake Valley Meat Company's Market in Lakeview from J. F. Mayfield and Ed Fetheroll. Mr. Winchester arrived here last week and has spent considerable time in the surrounding country looking into the sheep and cattle market. He will take charge January first.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar. Christmas tree trimmings galore at The Frost. The Lakeview Variety has a complete line of Xmas goods. Don't overlook the Lakeview Variety when buying Xmas goods. Thos. Frawley, a butcher of Alturas, came up on Tuesday's train. The Lakeview Variety will be open nights beginning Dec. 14th. Sewing and dressmaking solicited by Mrs. Ramsey at Mrs. B. S. Tatro home, Slash street. Warren Duncan, brother of our townsman G. W. Duncan, was down this week from Silver Lake. Don't forget we are in the candy business and can put you up such a box of candy good enough for a Queen, at Cloud's. The El Restaurant in the old Colorado Hotel building has been sold to Henry Gee. The new proprietor assumed charge December 1st. D12-3 Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, of Adel, were visiting in Lakeview the latter part of last week. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cheney. Workmen are now employed in remodeling the First National Bank room formerly occupied by the postoffice, getting it ready for the Lake County Loan and Savings Bank. Geo. Maupin, a well known resident and business man of Fort Bidwell, spent several days in Lakeview renewing acquaintances and attending to some business matters. While chopping wood yesterday at his Crooked Creek ranch George Boone nearly severed his thumb from the right hand with an ax. He was brought to town by George Chandler in an auto, and Dr. Smith dressed the wound. After several months of consideration, President Taft and the Secretary of Agriculture have appointed Dr. Carl Alsberg as chief of the bureau of chemistry to succeed Dr. Harvey W. Wiley who resigned last Spring. Undoubtedly the most handsome calendar issued thus far in this city for 1913 is that of the Lakeview Mercantile Company. The calendar contains a reproduction from an original hand painting by C. T. Wilson, entitled "The Forest Primeval."

Mike Sullivan, Charley Duggan and John Hallinan came in from Guano Saturday to spend a few days with Lakeview friends. They report the range on the desert as excellent, but the lack of water prevents sheepmen from getting the full benefit of the same at present. The city dads Sunday made an inspection tour of the town to investigate different portions of the streets and sidewalks that need repair. Work is now being done on various street sections and a man and team will be employed the remainder of the Fall attending to this work. The holidays are rapidly approaching, and the fact is well evidenced by the many handsome stocks of goods now on display in the different stores of the town. Generally the lines are more on the useful order than otherwise, although no difficulty will be experienced in selecting toys and games for the little ones. Three liquor licenses have been issued in New Pine Creek. Those receiving licenses are: McCurdy & Harvey, W. S. Crumley and Anderson & Williams. The town according to the ordinance adopted, is limited to four saloons, and the licenses are fixed at $400 a year each. A party was given last Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Dodson in honor of the twentieth birthday of Mrs. Dodson's niece, Miss Della Walker. About 14 guests were present, and delightful refreshments were served, accompanied by music by the Lakeview orchestra. A big duck stew was held in Alturas last Saturday night at which there were about 200 guests present. Two hunting teams were organized with E. F. Auble and Mr. Renshaw as captains. Auble's side won the contest by killing 173 ducks and 5 geese during the day. In all there were about 350 ducks killed which made the scores of each side nearly equal. It is said that the Arabolad Company stores at New Pine Creek and Alturas are in the hands of a receiver. H. S. Aldestein of San Francisco has been appointed adjuster. The company has large stocks of merchandise at each place and it is expected that they will be able to continue business after some of the stock has been turned and collections of old accounts made.

Rainier bear on draught at the Inn. For rent, furnished house on Water street. See G. L. Holbrook. The Lakeview Variety has the assortment and the prices are right. For Sale—A ton of Candy for Holidays at Cloud's Candy Kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas Tuesday came up from New Pine Creek. H. L. Chandler, the Northern Stage man, was in town the first of the week from his Crooked Creek ranch. One dozen house dresses, assorted patterns and sizes to close at reduced prices. Lakeview Mercantile Co. Portlander will pay the highest price for your second hand household furniture, at Striplin's old stand, Water street. Lost—Small Brown fur neck piece, between M. E. Church and residence of F. P. Cronmiller. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward. J. W. Howard of Drews Valley, was a departure on this morning's train on his way to his old home in Philadelphia, Penn. He will not return before next June. Luther McCarty of Springfield, Mo., won the heavyweight championship elimination contest Dec. 10 at Los Angeles from Jim Flynn. The battle ended in the sixteenth round. The Examiner is in receipt of a letter from J. T. Flook, who owns a ranch on Rock Creek, ordering his paper sent to Selma, Calif., where he and Mrs. Flook will spend the winter. H. Elliott, an electrician of Carson City, Nevada came up last week to place the electric light fixtures in the new N.-C.-O. depot building at Lakeview. He is now installing the new pumping plant for the Fairport Inn. Keene & Barnes are now comfortably located in their new quarters in the First National Bank annex. The room is admirably adapted to their business, that of cigar store and poolrooms, being well lighted, with high ceiling and fine front. Financier William Gunther and Recorder Dan Brennan, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge here, have received from Portland a check for $2000 in full payment on the death claim of Mrs. Mary E. Snider, widow of the late C. U. Snider. Attorney General Cleveland H. Baker of Nevada, died suddenly at his home last week in Carson City. He was 29 years old and considered one of the most brilliant young men in the state. George B. Thatcher, of Tonopah has been appointed his successor. The hearing of James Metzker last Thursday before Magistrate Wallace on a charge of assault with intent to kill on the person of Chester Yates developed in binding him over in $500 bonds and to appear before the grand jury. The bonds have not been furnished and he is now being held in the county jail. C. W. Reynolds who was to leave this morning for Spokane, Wash., by way of Sacramento, Cal., missed the train and was compelled to wait another day. He expects that his business will keep him away about two months, after which he will return and resume farming his ranch at the head of the lake. M. D. Williams, of Davis Creek, who has been confined in the Lakeview hospital for nearly two months by a severe attack of typhoid, is slowly improving, although it will yet be some time before he fully regains his health. He has certainly had a seige with the dread disease, but his strong constitution finally overcame it. Attorney J. M. Batchelder last week moved on a homestead near the Chas. Gott ranch north of Lakeview, and he with Mrs. Batchelder will take up their residence there in the Spring. Both Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder have a longing for farm life and no doubt the venture will prove both profitable and pleasant. For a limited time the Examiner is prepared to give with each renewal or order for new subscription at the regular price of $2.00 a year, the California Country Journal for one year free. This is a 16 page journal published in San Francisco, and is entirely devoted to farming, fruit raising, poultry, dairying, etc. Sample free at this office. At the town election at Paisley last week, the following personnel of officers for the coming year was elected: Mayor, C. E. Campbell; councilmen: Dr. Thayer, L. A. Moss, Eph Miller, W. A. Currier, J. Hampton and V. Conn; Recorder, B. F. Farrow; Treasurer, Neal Woodward, and Taylor for marshal. There were 89 votes cast, 30 women voting and 59 men.

Found, suitcase. For further information, apply at this office. Wanted—A thousand customers to buy holiday goods at The Frost. Men's overcoats in good colors and weight materials. Mercantile Co. Childrens white dresses, sizes 2 to 6 years. Lakeview Mercantile Co. Famous mid-winter tour of the world, watch for later announcements. Twenty head of hereford bulls for sale. Acquire A. M. Smith, Drews Valley, or F. O. Bunting, Lakeview. Dave Rice, son of Roadmaster M. D. Rice of the N.-C.-O., and mother have returned from a visit to eastern states. A new sidewalk was laid this week along the west side of the Lakeview Meat Market to connect with the cement walk at the corner of the postoffice. Mrs. Anna Neilson, who has been seriously sick for several weeks past, is gradually improving and will be able to attend to business matters in the near future. Christmas is now only two weeks away, and as a consequence Young America is on his good behavior. It might be incidentally mentioned that the Sunday Schools are also largely attended. The subject for the sermon at the Masonic Hall Sunday morning will be "The Character of Jesus as the Test of Christianity." The pastor will preach. There will be special music. The public is invited. Lost: In Lakeview Monday morning between residences of Mrs. G. Metzker and Mrs. J. Lewis a pair of spectacles in glass case, containing inscription of "Riner Lawson, Santa Rosa, Calif." Finder please notify Mrs. Gladys Metzker. Dave Adler, the renowned sheep king of Southern Oregon, last week passed through Lakeview, from Keno Springs in Klamath County to Batty Buttes, where several bands of his sheep will winter. He is feeding some sheep at Keno Springs. Senator and Mrs. W. Lair Thompson Monday morning left for the Willamette Valley, going by way of Reno and San Francisco. They will spend a few days in the latter place, afterwards going to Eugene, where they will spend Christmas. Mr. Thompson will then go to Salem to attend the regular biennial session of the Oregon Legislature, which convenes early in January. Reserve your orders for 1914 calendars for the Examiner. We have coming one of the most complete lines of samples ever introduced in Lakeview. The series include both foreign and domestic designs. This will be an advantage for calendar purchasers and they will be insured against having any errors appear in the printing as is often the case when sending orders out of town. W. P. Heryford, who returned a few days since from a trip to California, has been somewhat under the weather since his return. However nothing serious has resulted, and it is quite likely that it will be sometime before he again tackles the California climate, inasmuch as he never fails to come home sick after a trip to the city. And there was no hydrant in his way this time, either. Invitations are out for the wedding of Ira McCool and Miss Vera Vernon, which happy event is to take place next Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flint Vernon down the valley. Mr. McCool is the eldest son of Nightwatch J. E. McCool of Lakeview, and is now farming the Hurley Vernon ranch. The bride to be is a popular young lady and has resided in this section since childhood. The Oregonian says Miss Cassie H. Thompson, of Albany, is probably the next woman to serve on a regular election in Oregon, acting as she did at the recent city election at that place as clerk of the board. One of the men appointed as clerk failed to appear when the polls opened and inasmuch as women were to vote at the election Miss Thompson was elected to serve. She is a sister of Attorney W. Lair Thompson of Lakeview. The new quarters in the Heryford building for the United States Land Office are nearing completion and the office will occupy the same January 1, opening there for business on the morning of the 2d. The new office rooms will be very pleasant, the register and receiver each having private offices. The main office is large and well lighted and will afford ample accommodations for the clerks as well as the general public.
