An effort is now being made to organize a chapter of Royal Arch Masons here in Lakeview. This is a big advance in Masonry, and indicates that the members of the fraternity are not only in a prosperous condition but are fully abreast of the work in that great order.

However busy the state law makers may be at Salem humor is not entirely neglected. A joke is sprung about a popular Representative being awakened during the night by his wife and informed that a burglar was in the house. He replied, "No dear, there is no burglar in the House—he must be in the Senate."

A chinook struck this section last Friday and Saturday which threatened to take off the snow, but the thaw and rain lasted but a short time. However it settled the snow well and bared the ground in places, where the mantle was light. This week the weather has been more clear and cold, with frosty nights and sun shinedays.

H. W. Drenkel and wife returned Monday evening from a few week's visit in San Francisco. They were in the N.-C.-O. wreck which occurred near Likely on their way down. Mr. Drenkel has some pictures of the up-turned cars, the condition of which make one think that it was marvelous that so serious injuries were sustained by the passengers. Mr. Drenkel reports all the lower cities as being quiet and says that he heard considerable talk about the probabilities of the Hill line coming south through Lakeview.

The Summer Lake-Abert Lake Salt Co. have purchased the rights to Dry Creek, a small flood water stream which empties into the south end of Summer Lake and will dam its waters to keep them from flowing directly into the lake.

With this plan in view they have already placed a crew of men on the ground and the construction of the reservoir is now in progress. The dam will be about 1,000 feet long and will store an immense volume of water.

David Harrower who for the past summer has held the position of Manager of the Townsite Store, north of the river left Tuesday Morning for his old home at Philadelphia.

A wood famine seems imminent here at this time. The snow in the wood camps is higher than the shacks and the haulers have ceased operation until better conditions prevail.

Al Kubit and Wm. Paige, both of Madras are now in Paisley looking over the prospects of this valley. They made the trip all the way by wagon and encountered some pretty bad stretches of road through the mountains.

Few people know that Paisley had a narrow escape from fire the other night when Jason Elder's office caught from the fire. A hole was burned through the roof but quick work on the part of Mr. Elder saved the building.

Silver Lake Items
(Silver Lake Leader)

Mr. W. R. Wilkinson and wife were guests of the Hotel Chrisman last Thursday night. He is manager of a saw mill at Fandango, just over the line in California. They were traveling by private conveyance, and left Friday afternoon for Bend.

Fifty-five inches on the level is the depth of the snow at Embody's saw-mill 17 miles west of town. Les Duncan came down with an empty wagon and four big horses Saturday. It took about ten hours to make the trip down. He started back Sunday.

The stage from Lake did not get in till 11 o'clock last Saturday night on account of the numerous snow drifts. Mr. Buchanan says the snow is about 12 inches deep at Cliff and 10 inches at Lake. It is drifted very badly in the lanes this side of Lake and on the north side of the hill south of Arrow.

Last Friday a fine dry snow fell during the entire day. It was accompanied by a strong wind and drifted badly, in many places as high as the fences, and being about 7 or 8 inches deep on the level. The road on the west side of Summer Lake was almost impassable on account of the deep snow drifts and the Paisley stage was unable to reach here Friday night.
