Railroads Moving

Cedarville Regord: Rush orders have been received and it is now said that the Fernley Lassen railroad will be completed to Susanville by May 1st. Active work is being done on the railroad from Vale to Burns, and a route surveyed north of Winnemucca by Paradise and McDermott, presumably to connect with the road from Vale. More railroad work will probably be done during the next two years previous, owing to the roads getting in a position to handle the 1915 traffic can Project, Oregon, of certain lands that will be created by the Panamacurred in this action.
