Shearing has been started in Montana and Arizona and some wool in those states have been contracted by Boston firms at prices ranging from 17-1-2 to 19 cents per pound.

The basket ball game at the opera house between the Alturas and Lakeview High School teams should be largely attended. It promises to be an interesting game.

O. E. Wood, former local Wells-Fargo express agent, has finished moving from this city to the West Side where he has leased a ranch from L. A. Carricker, and he is now a full fledged tiller of the soil.

A new game code, which divides the state into two game districts, changes the closed seasons, removes the protection of beavers and makes many other changes, has been approved by the Senate.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Mr. George Barrington and Miss Grace Oliver. The ceremony will take place next Sunday at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Oliver, on the West Side.

The Hill County Attorney bill has passed the House. The measure would abolish District Attorneys and substitute for them County Attorneys. The yearly salary for County Attorney of Lake was fixed at $1500.

Mrs. Batchelder, widow of the late Colonel J. T. Batchelder, and mother of Attorney J. M. and George Batchelder of Lakeview, arrived here Monday evening from Chico, Cal., and will spend several days visiting with her sons.

J. W. Maxwell informs the Examiner that his daughter, Anna M. Nelson, who went to San Francisco a few weeks since for the benefit of her health, has gained six pounds in weight during her stay there and that her condition is greatly improved.

If the present weather that we have had for the past week would continue for six weeks more stocks in the Ground Hog Day men would advance beyond par. It is rather cold at present and the snow's depth has been increased about two inches this week.

"Joaquin" Miller, the renowned poet of the Sierras, died last Monday in his one-room cabin, which he built with his own hands in the Piedmont hills near San Francisco, many years ago. His daughter, Jaunita Miller, and his wife were with him.

Senator Thompson's bill relating to farm extension work of the O. A. C. met with hearty approval in the Senate, it having passed that body by a substantial majority. The measure is of statewide importance and will doubtless become a law without a ripple.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Piper of Greeley, Colo., were arrivals in Lakeview yesterday evening. They shipped all their household effects and have come with the intention of locating permanently. Mr. Piper is as yet undecided what he will engage in, but is considering the dairy and creamery business.

DO YOU WANT an Easter Suit? We are ready to take your order for a Suit Dress, or Evening Coat, to be delivered before Easter. Come and see the prettiest samples of cloth ever shown. Herman Graeber last Saturday made final proof on his homestead near the head of the lake before the local land office. His witnesses were: Fred Fisher, Jas. Bishop, Henry Lechman and James McDermott.

Dr. E. D. Everett reports the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Woodcock. The happy event occurred Wednesday, February 19, and the mother and child are doing splendidly, while Eldon's spirits are the very best.

A statement of Paisley's financial circumstances published in the Chewaucan Press shows $1636.40 in the town treasury, which is an exceptional good record for a newly incorporated town. May their prosperity continue.

By all the boomerang articles on the new Rochester mining camp in the Reno Journal it would appear that they had a second E. Chapin Gard on the job, and some of them even justifies the thought that the far-famed wild catter is there himself.

The series of Wednesday Evening sermons being given during the Lenten season at the local Catholic Church have been very well attended up to date. The sermons are being given by Rev. P. P. Kern, S. J., the pastor, and are open to the public.

The ad published last week giving notice that the Loren Bailey house would be vacated about April 1, by Mrs. H. B. Alger was an error arising from the owner being misinformed regarding it. Mrs. Alger has the house leased for an indefinite period, and has made no plans for vacating same.

The bodies of Captain Robert F. Scott the English explorer, and four companions who perished in the Antarctic region from starvation, are being taken to England aboard the ship Terra Nova. All civilized countries of the world have sent messages of condolence concerning the terrible fate met by the noted captain and his companions.

The young men of Lakeview have a chance to see how some of the young women of Lakeview look at them. "A Young Woman's Estimate of a Young Man" is the subject of a sermon to be preached at the Methodist Church Sunday night. This sermon is based on answers to letters sent to a number of Lakeview's young women. Come and hear it.

The Missouri Supreme Court has refused to modify the judgment of ouster against the Standard Oil Company from that state, and the original order, ousting the company from the state, now stands. The original order was issued more than four years ago.

J. F. Hanson arrived Saturday evening from Los Angeles to look after his various interests in this section. He was in the East during the cold period during which time so much damage was done to California fruit, but stated that the result was serious in that region. Mrs. Hanson and children will remain in Los Angeles until the school year is completed.
