

Smoke Pleasure and other Pleasures
for the Man Who Smokes

Liggett & Myers

Duke's Mixture

There is smoke pleasure in this rare old Virginia and North Carolina bright leaf. Thousands prefer it to any other pipe tobacco. Thoroughly aged and stemmed and then granulated. A perfect pipe tobacco—nothing better rolled as a cigarette.

One and a half ounces of this choice tobacco cost only 5c, and with each sack you get a book of cigarette papers FREE.

The other pleasures are the presents that are secured with the coupons in each sack of Liggett & Myers Duke's Mixture. These presents delight old and young. Think of the pleasure that you and your friends can get from a talking machine, free, or such articles as—fountain pens, balls, skates, cut glass, china, silverware, tennis rackets, fishing rods, furniture, etc.

As a special offer, during February and March only we will send you our new illustrated catalog of presents, FREE.

Just send us your name and address on a postal.

Coupons from Duke's Mixture may be used with any pipe from HORSE SHOE, J. J. TINKER'S NATURAL LEAF, GRANER TWIST, coupons from EQUA RIDGES (coupon double coupon), PICK, FLAG, CUT, FLEDMONT CIGARETTES, CLIX CIGARETTES, and other pipes and coupons issued by us.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL GET PRIZES

Every school boy and girl in the state will be delighted to know that they are going to have an opportunity again this year to win a Shetland pony at the State Fair. The Portland Union Stock Yards Company are giving the pony and it will be a nice one. Nothing in all the prize list at the State Fair last year attracted anything like the attention that the Shetland ponies did.

This pony will be given to the boy or girl who makes the best exhibit of livestock at the State Fair next fall. That exhibit must consist of at least one trio or pen of chickens or ducks, two pigs and a sheep. The boys and girls who compete for the pony will have an opportunity to compete for several other prizes for the winning trio of each breed; J. M. Garrison offers $5 cash to the boy or girl making the largest and best exhibit of poultry; the State Poultry Association gives a fine cup for the best pen of birds—one male and four females; "Poultry Life" also gives a fine cup for which they can compete; Hauser Bros. gives an air gun to the child raising the most poultry by June 1st; and the Northwest Poultry Journal gives a year's subscription to every prize winner in the poultry department; the boy who fits an shows the best sheep will get a good cash prize and the one who does the best in the pig feeding contest, feeding and exhibiting two pigs and furnishing an account of same, showing cost, profit, etc., will receive a liberal prize which we will tell you all about in another story, and in the prize list which will soon be published. The total value offered the children at the state fair this year will be over $3000.

Now boys and girls don't you think it will pay you to try to win this pony and some of the other prizes above mentioned, all of which you can compete for while trying for the pony. Get busy with your chickens, pigs lambs and gardens.

TURKISH TITLES.

They are added to Persons' Names instead of being prefixed.

Turkish names and titles are sometimes confusing to the ordinary reader, and this explanation from the Turkish embassy at Washington may be of interest. In the first place, our American prefixes "Major" or "General" become suffixes in Turkish. The mayor of a Turkish city adds to his name Boedie Rais. Therefore it would not be Mayor John Smith, but Smith Boedie Rais.

A caliph is a prince of the royal line and "Mohammed's representative," ranking next to the sultan himself in importance. The next title of importance is sheik of Islam, or head of the Mohammedan faith. Imam is the title by which a priest is originally addressed.

Pasha is the highest title within the gift of the sultan. It is conferred chiefly on men who achieve distinction in arts and letters or in commerce and is more or less common among the great merchants of Turkey or those who under the old regime had a hand in the collection of taxes. The word "bey" attached to the name of a person indicates that the bearer is distinguished for service of the country. The term "effendi" indicates that the man so addressed is higher in birth, breeding or education than the man speaking and is a varietal title, depending on the rank of those carrying on a conversation.

The grand vizier, or sadrazam, is the premier of the cabinet and is the highest of government civil officers. The governor of a province is known as vali. This term is added to the name instead of being prefixed.—Indianapolis News.

SINGING MOTHERS.

Charm of the Music of Their Voices to Their Little Ones.

They came to me in a dream—those singing mothers. A long, slow procession of shadowy forms, beautiful as rainbows and as wonderful, singing a strange haunting melody full of mystery. First came troops of girl mothers, clasping their little babies with a tenderness that was half fear and with wide, inquiring eyes filled with holy light and the consciousness of the deepest realization of life. Then came strong mothers of youth, lending happy faced children and confident with a sense of power, buoyant with hope and radiant with promise. Last of all came silver mothers of men, leaning on their stalwart sons and, though bowed with years, yet gloriously young in spirit, hallowed by memories and glowing with the victory of achievement. And I, a mother, watching these pass by and listening to their haunting music, felt as never before the divine significance of motherhood and all the hidden meanings in the word "singing."

All this is music in a marvellous mood, but there is no music on earth more appealing or more far-reaching than the voice of a mother singing to her little ones. No audience ever listened with keenerapture to any prima donna than that little group gathered in the twilight hour at a mother's knee. It is her dearest joy at that time to put into music all the sacredness of motherhood and the happiness of childhood, to teach and to charm and to tune the hearts of her children.—Anne P. L. Field in Craftsman.

SAYS INCOME TAX WOULD BENEFIT

Concerning the income tax question Mr. Taverner, of Washington, D. C. writes the Klamath Northwestern as follows:

Few persons realize the far reaching importance of the fact that the United States will soon have an income tax on its statutes.

First of all it means that millionaires will, for the first time since this nation has stood, bear a fair proportion of the burden of taxation.

It is estimated that one hundred million dollars will be raised annually by taxing incomes. This will mean that that amount of taxation is to be taken off the things that the people must have, in order to live, and be placed on wealth.

Under the system of protection as played in this country, nearly every penny of the money necessary to run the government, maintain the army and navy, construct public buildings, etc., is raised by taxing the things the people eat, wear and use. The only thing that protection does not tax is wealth. A man with a fortune of ten million dollars has not been required to pay a single penny of tax to the national government. This seems almost unbelievable, but it is true. The man working on the section for one dollar and fifty cents per day, with a family of five children, is at the present time actually contributing more to run the national government than the millionaire lacheur, too proud to marry and raise a family.

The United States of America is practically the only one of the great nations where such a condition exists. Nearly every first class nation on earth levies either an income tax or an inheritance tax. We have neither.

Why have we never been able to place an income tax on the statute books? is the question that naturally arises. Here is the answer: High protectionists have prevented the passage of an income tax law, because they knew that the more money the government collected from taxing incomes, the less excuse there would be for a tariff tax. To take protection away from the tariff trusts is to interfere with their monopolies. And how could the tariff trusts gouge consumers without having monopolies of American markets?

The American people are paying annually about eight millions more for their cotton goods than they ought to pay, because of the iniquitous Payne-Aldrich tariff law. The 63rd Congress is preparing to interfere with this robbery. There will be a big downward revision on all kinds of cotton goods.

Having succeeded in its object of settling the available land about Fort Rock, Lake County, the Loma Vista Homesteaders' Association has changed its name to the Loma Vista Development Association. Hereafter this organization will give its attention to developing its territory. Two new members of the Oregon Development League that came in during the past week were the Agnes Commercial Club and the Pleasant Valley Push Club.

"Hogs and Bankers"

Under the above caption, in Sunset, the Pacific Monthly, for February, the cashier of a Bend bank is given credit for being the first Oregon banker to buy hogs and put them out to board with his country friends, taking in payment their notes for a year. Local readers will recognize the cashier as C. S. Hudson of the First National Bank, who has recently taken steps to import two carloads of thoroughbred dairy cattle, to be sold to farmers on the same basis. They will arrive some time in April and every animal is already spoken for.

"Without exception, they paid principal and interest promptly, and in no instance did the farmers report a profit of less than a hundred per cent," says the article in Sunset.

The Pacific Coast Fruit Association is the latest organization formed to encourage the best methods of fruit growing, packing and marketing. The establishment of uniform grades, distribution of reliable market intelligence and affiliation with central marketing agencies are among the objects aimed at. Fruits growers of Western Oregon are interested in the association and its headquarters are at Portland.

THE INCREASED COST OF LIVING is a complicated problem, but many are solving it by eliminating from their diet list all foods of doubtful nutritive value.

Remember, Quality Counts
It is not the amount of food you eat but the energy value received that gives results, and it is the non-recognition of this fact that causes so much dyspepsia and other forms of stomach trouble today. To those seeking a complete, easily digested food, suitable for all ages and conditions,

WHEN Things cost more, opportunities to buy economically are worth more. No housewife in this city, who feels and knows the slightest hardship on account of high prices, can afford to remain blind to the weekly opportunities of saving offered to her by the advertising merchants. These alive merchants are often able, through effecting quick and large sales of an article, to cut the selling price to very nearly cost price. The housewife should see that when they do this the volume of quick sales will always repay them. Watch Examiner Ads week by week. It pays.
