Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 27, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

Rainier made Lakeview famous.
J. F. Mayfield, wife and son left this morning for San Francisco.
Earl Wiskire and Dan Jones are in this week from their sheep camp.
Mrs. T. V. Hall a few days since returned from a visit with relatives at Willow Ranch.
T. H. Cloud returned last week from a short business trip to Richmond and San Francisco.
Mrs. L. R. Seeger was up last week from her Davis Creek home visiting with Mrs. J. O'Neill in this city.
A. G. Clarkson, a business man of Paisley, was a business visitor in the county seat the first of the week.
E. S. Berney, of the Berney Construction Co., and wife returned Tuesday evening from Fallon, Nevada.
Dave Eder, the well known sheepman, has been in town this week, but in some unaccountable manner has escaped the Examiner's man.
Tom Young is erecting a shed on the ten-acre tract of land recently acquired by him at the south end of town, and will engage in the chicken business.
The Reno papers state that small pox in that city has apparently been eradicated, although a couple of cases, termed sporadic cases, are still in existence there.
Lost a pocket book in Lakeview Tuesday evening, containing currency and bank certificate. Finder will receive liberal reward by leaving property at Hotel Lakeview.
L. D. Hoy last Saturday shipped 1400 head of sheep from New Pine Creek, to Marysville where they will be placed on pasture and fattened for the California market.
The Mexican crisis has at least obscured interest in the Turkish Balkan war, yet history is still being made in Eastern Europe and issues are again pending which were thought to be settled.
Mrs. Catherine Gloster, a sister of Miss Julia Gloster, of the First National Bank, spent a few days in Lakeview during the past week coming up on the excursion with the basket ball team.
The Women of Woodcraft will give a Hard Time party next Wednesday evening, each member being allowed to invite one. The Lakeview Band will render several selections and it is expected that a large crowd will be present.
"Billy," the little son of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Boyd, formerly of Lakeview, died very suddenly last Friday morning in Portland. It is reported that the Doctor and family will now remove to Klamath Falls to locate permanently.
Anarchistic soap box-orators will no longer enjoy the liberty of speech in Oregon to the extent that they can advocate the destruction of life or property, is a new law enacted by the legislature and which has received the signature of Governor West.
The Lakeview Encampment lodge will hold a dance and social Friday evening, March 7, in the L.O.O.F. Hall. This is the first of a series of socials to be held once each month under the auspices of the Encampment and all members of the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges and their families are privileged to attend.
E. G. Linville, the dairyman, has removed from his former location in the north end, and is now residing on the place formerly occupied by W. Hunter and family just across the south city line. His present location affords convenient arrangements for the housing and care of the cattle of which he has considerable.
The Parcel Post is being put to a novel test by each brick manufacturing concern in the United States sending one brick to Chicago by the new system. The bricks will be used in building a house at the Coliseum, Chicago, during the Clay Products exposition next month. It will require 25,000 bricks to construct the house.
Merchant A. Bieber returned last Saturday evening from a two weeks' trip to San Francisco where he went to purchase his Spring stock of merchandise. Wm. Bridgeman returned with him from the city to take a position in the Bieber store. His family will arrive later and they will take up permanent residence in Lakeview.

Joe Poorman and Lou McCully are over from Surprise on a business visit. Furnished house on Water Street for rent. See G. L. Holbrook. 127-11
W. J. Lloyd representing the Western Hotel Supply Co., of Seattle, was in Lakeview last week.

T. A. Crump, a Warner Valley stock man came over Tuesday and will spend a few days in Lakeview.

The bill which passed the Senate allowing a $200,000 appropriation for the San Francisco Fair was trimmed to $150,000 when it passed the House.

The ground hog is sure making good this year, for we have had nothing but real Winter weather ever since he came out and saw his shadow on the 24 ins.

The Examiner acknowledges receipt of complimentary tickets to the comedy drama, "The Lost Mine," which will be reproduced February 28, in Alturas by home talent of that town.

The Klamath Northwestern is now occupying its splendidly fitted new home in Klamath Falls. The paper has been increased from a six column quarto to a seven column.

Sheepbuyer Carey last week came up from Sacramento to inspect the Hoy band at New Pine Creek but returned without closing any deal, as the sheep were not in condition for mutton.

James Handley, of Plush, who has been at the Lakeview Hospital the past few days yesterday was taken to the Mineral Spring bath house below town where he expects to stay for several weeks.

Evidently Mexicans have it in for the Maderos. Latest advices say that Emilio Madero, a brother of the late President and Gustavo Madero who was also shot, was killed Tuesday morning north of Monterey.

For violation of the Sherman law, the president of the National Cash Register company has been sentenced to one year in jail, and to pay a fine of $5000. Twenty-seven other officials of the company were sentenced to jail terms of nine months to one year.

Dr. W. Hayden Fisk, D.M.D., returned last Thursday from a brief professional visit in Paisley and is now permanently located in his new quarters in the Heryford building. His offices are located on the third floor in the extreme southeast corner.

Upon instruction from the District Attorney's office last week Leland Proctor, who was occupying quarters in the county bastille on a felony charge, was released upon his own recognizance and given opportunity to procure bail. Apparently he took the easiest alternative as thus far he has failed to "show."

The extra session of congress which President-elect Wilson has announced will be called to meet April 1. There will be a number of tariff bills ready for immediate consideration as well as other policies mapped out for the new administration. The date is said to have received general approval in congress.

A year ago the first of this week H. W. Drenkel and son Paul left Lakeview to Reno for purchase an automobile. At that time N.-C.-O. trains stopped over night at Alturas, and that fact permitted Mr. Drenkel to beat the train to Lakeview, he having left Reno after the train pulled out. The feat could hardly be duplicated this year, however.

E. J. S. McAllister was found guilty last week in Portland in Judge Kavanaugh's court as being implicated in vice practices recently unearthed in that city. Two other indictments of similar character are still over the attorney's head. It is stated that an appeal to the Supreme Court will be taken when sentence is pronounced.

Ad Wolgast once lightweight champion of the world, and "Harlem" Tommy Murphy fought a twenty-one round draw last Saturday in San Francisco. Both men were nearing a point of collapse when the last gong sounded, but Referee Jim Griffith was unable to decide in either's favor. It is said that Murphy stood the grilling better than his opponent.

H. H. Hahn is of the opinion that muskrats should be "planted" along the shores of Goose Lake. He states that conditions are ideal for the "rats" and that they would afford a very considerable revenue as soon as they became numerous, inasmuch as their fur now commands a good price. Mr. Hahn states that they increase very rapidly and that in a few years they would be a source of no inconsiderable revenue.

The U. S. government is looking for about 600 horses for use in the army. The horses must be of solid colors: bay, brown, sorrel, or black they do not have to be well broken, but must be between 4 and 7 years old, stand 15 and a half hands, weight 1075 or over. The government will pay as high as $189 for the right horses.

It seems that a mistaken report has become circulated on the outside about stock conditions in Lake county this Winter. Several traveling men have expressed their fears to local merchants about the effects of losses sustained by sheepmen on the desert this season. Such reports are erroneous and misleading as all the sheepmen state that this has been the best Winter on sheep in years and that stock is in good condition.
